179 (4) This chapter does not limit the authority of a court to appoint a receiver under other 180 state law.

181 (5) Unless displaced by a particular provision of this chapter, the principles of law and 182 equity supplement this chapter.

183 Section 5. Section 78B-21-105 is enacted to read:

184 78B-21-105. Power of court.

185 The court that appoints a receiver under this chapter has exclusive jurisdiction to direct

187 Section 6. Section 78B-21-106 is enacted to read:

188 78B-21-106. Appointment of receiver.

189 (1) The court may appoint a receiver:

190 (a) before judgment, to protect a party that demonstrates an apparent right, title, or 191 interest in real property that is the subject of the action, if the property or the property's

192 revenue-producing potential:

202 or foreclosure sale and secure the property's rents to the person entitled to the property's rents.

203 (2) In connection with the foreclosure or other enforcement of a mortgage, a mortgagee 204 is entitled to appointment of a receiver for the mortgaged property if:

205 (a) appointment is necessary to protect the property from waste, loss, transfer,
206 dissipation, or impairment;

207 (b) the mortgagor agreed in a signed record to appointment of a receiver on default;

208 (c) the owner agreed, after default and in a signed record, to appointment of a receiver;

209 (d) the property and any other collateral held by the mortgagee are not sufficient to 210 satisfy the secured obligation;

211 (e) the owner fails to turn over to the mortgagee proceeds or rents the mortgagee was 212 entitled to collect; or

213 (f) the holder of a subordinate lien obtains appointment of a receiver for the property.

214 (3) (a) The court may condition appointment of a receiver without prior notice under 215 Subsection 78B-21-103(2)(a) or without a prior hearing under Subsection 78B-21-103(2)(b) on 216 the giving of security by the person seeking the appointment for the payment of damages,
217 reasonable attorney fees, and costs incurred or suffered by any person if the court later
218 concludes that the appointment was not justified.

219 (b) If the court later concludes that the appointment described in Subsection (3)(a) was 220 justified, the court shall release the security.

221 Section 7. Section 78B-21-107 is enacted to read:

222 78B-21-107. Disqualification from appointment as receiver -- Disclosure of 223 interest.

224 (1) The court may not appoint a person as receiver unless the person submits to the

227 appointment as receiver if the person:

228 (a) is an affiliate of a party;

231 compensation the court may allow the receiver;

233 (e) holds an equity interest in a party, other than a noncontrolling interest in a publicly
234 traded company.

235 (3) A person is not disqualified from appointment as receiver solely because the person:

236 (a) was appointed receiver or is owed compensation in an unrelated matter involving a
237 party or was engaged by a party in a matter unrelated to the receivership;

238 (b) is an individual obligated to a party on a debt that is not in default and was incurred
239 primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; or

240 (c) maintains with a party a deposit account as defined in Section 70A-9a-102.

241 (4) A person seeking appointment of a receiver may nominate a person to serve as 242 receiver, but the court is not bound by the nomination.

244 78B-21-108. Receiver's bond -- Alternative security.

248 (b) has one or more sureties approved by the court;

249 (c) is in an amount the court specifies; and

250 (d) is effective as of the date of the receiver's appointment.

251 (2) (a) The court may approve the posting by a receiver with the court of alternative
252 security, such as a letter of credit or deposit of funds.

253 (b) The receiver may not use receivership property as alternative security.

254 (c) Interest that accrues on deposited funds must be paid to the receiver on the 255 receiver's discharge.

256 (3) The court may authorize a receiver to act before the receiver posts the bond or 257 alternative security required by this section.

258 (4) A claim against a receiver's bond or alternative security must be made not later than 259 one year after the date the receiver is discharged.

260 Section 9. Section 78B-21-109 is enacted to read:

261 78B-21-109. Status of receiver as lien creditor.

274 78B-21-111. Collection and turnover of receivership property.

275 (1) Unless the court orders otherwise, on demand by a receiver:

276 (a) a person that owes a debt that is receivership property and is matured or payable on 277 demand or on order shall pay the debt to or on the order of the receiver, except to the extent the 278 debt is subject to setoff or recoupment; and

279 (b) subject to Subsection (3), a person that has possession, custody, or control of 280 receivership property shall turn the property over to the receiver.

281 (2) A person that has notice of the appointment of a receiver and owes a debt that is 282 receivership property may not satisfy the debt by payment to the owner.

283 (3) If a creditor has possession, custody, or control of receivership property and the 284 validity, perfection, or priority of the creditor's lien on the property depends on the creditor's 285 possession, custody, or control, the creditor may retain possession, custody, or control until the 286 court orders adequate protection of the creditor's lien.

287 (4) Unless a bona fide dispute exists about a receiver's right to possession, custody, or 288 control of receivership property, the court may sanction as civil contempt a person's failure to 289 turn the property over when required by this section.

396 (1) (a) With court approval, a receiver may engage an attorney, accountant, appraiser,
397 auctioneer, broker, or other professional to assist the receiver in performing a duty or exercising
398 a power of the receiver.

399 (b) The receiver shall disclose to the court:

400 (i) the identity and qualifications of the professional;

401 (ii) the scope and nature of the proposed engagement;

402 (iii) any potential conflict of interest; and

403 (iv) the proposed compensation.

404 (2) (a) A person is not disqualified from engagement under this section solely because 405 of the person's engagement by, representation of, or other relationship with the receiver, a 406 creditor, or a party.

407 (b) This chapter does not prevent the receiver from serving in the receivership as an 408 attorney, accountant, auctioneer, or broker when authorized by law.

409 (3) (a) A receiver or professional engaged under Subsection (1) shall file with the court
410 an itemized statement of the time spent, work performed, and billing rate of each person that 411 performed the work and an itemized list of expenses.

412 (b) The receiver shall pay the amount approved by the court.

413 Section 16. Section 78B-21-116 is enacted to read:

414 78B-21-116. Use or transfer of receivership property not in ordinary course of 415 business.

416 (1) As used in this section, "good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of 417 reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

418 (2) With court approval, a receiver may use receivership property other than in the 419 ordinary course of business.

420 (3) (a) With court approval, a receiver may transfer receivership property other than in 421 the ordinary course of business by sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition.

422 (b) Unless the agreement of sale provides otherwise, a sale under this section is:

423 (i) free and clear of a lien of the person that obtained appointment of the receiver, any 424 subordinate lien, and any right of redemption; and

425 (ii) subject to a senior lien.

426 (4) A lien on receivership property that is extinguished by a transfer under Subsection 427 (3) attaches to the proceeds of the transfer with the same validity, perfection, and priority the 428 lien had on the property immediately before the transfer, even if the proceeds are not sufficient 429 to satisfy all obligations secured by the lien.

430 (5) (a) A transfer under Subsection (3) may occur by means other than a public auction
431 sale.

432 (b) A creditor holding a valid lien on the property to be transferred may purchase the 433 property and offset against the purchase price part or all of the allowed amount secured by the 434 lien, if the creditor tenders funds sufficient to satisfy in full the reasonable expenses of transfer 435 and the obligation secured by any senior lien extinguished by the transfer.

436 (6) A reversal or modification of an order approving a transfer under Subsection (3)
437 does not affect the validity of the transfer to a person that acquired the property in good faith or 438 revive against the person any lien extinguished by the transfer, whether the person knew before
439 the transfer of the request for reversal or modification, unless the court stayed the order before 440 the transfer.

441 Section 17. Section 78B-21-117 is enacted to read:

442 78B-21-117. Executory contract.

443 (1) As used in this section, "timeshare interest" means the same as that term is defined
444 in Section 57-19-2.

445 (2) (a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (8), with court approval, a receiver
446 may adopt or reject an executory contract of the owner relating to receivership property.

447 (b) The court may condition the receiver's adoption and continued performance of the 448 contract on terms appropriate under the circumstances.

449 (c) If the receiver does not request court approval to adopt or reject the executory

450 contract within a reasonable time after the receiver's appointment, the receiver is deemed to 451 have rejected the executory contract.

452 (3) A receiver's performance of an executory contract before court approval under 453 Subsection (2) of the executory contract's adoption or rejection is not an adoption of the 454 executory contract and does not preclude the receiver from seeking approval to reject the 455 executory contract.

456 (4) A provision in an executory contract that requires or permits a forfeiture,
457 modification, or termination of the executory contract because of the appointment of a receiver
458 or the financial condition of the owner does not affect a receiver's power under Subsection (2)
459 to adopt the executory contract.

460 (5) (a) A receiver's right to possess or use receivership property pursuant to an 461 executory contract terminates on rejection of the executory contract under Subsection (2).

462 (b) Rejection is a breach of the executory contract effective immediately before 463 appointment of the receiver.

464 (c) A claim for damages for rejection of the executory contract must be submitted by 465 the later of:

466 (i) the time set for submitting a claim in the receivership; or 467 (ii) 30 days after the court approves the rejection.

468 (6) If at the time a receiver is appointed, the owner has the right to assign an executory 469 contract relating to receivership property under law of this state other than this chapter, the 470 receiver may assign the executory contract with court approval.

471 (7) If a receiver rejects an executory contract for the sale of receivership property that 472 is real property in possession of the purchaser or a real-property timeshare interest under 473 Subsection (2), the purchaser may:

474 (a) treat the rejection as a termination of the executory contract, and in that case the 475 purchaser has a lien on the property for the recovery of any part of the purchase price the 476 purchaser paid; or

477 (b) retain the purchaser's right to possession under the executory contract, and in that

478 case the purchaser shall continue to perform all obligations arising under the executory contract
479 and may offset any damages caused by nonperformance of an obligation of the owner after the 480 date of the rejection, but the purchaser has no right or claim against other receivership property
481 or the receiver on account of the damages.

482 (8) A receiver may not reject an unexpired lease of real property under which the owner 483 is the landlord if:

484 (a) the tenant occupies the leased premises as the tenant's primary residence;

485 (b) the receiver was appointed at the request of a person other than a mortgagee; or

486 (c) the receiver was appointed at the request of a mortgagee and:

487 (i) the lease is superior to the lien of the mortgage;

488 (ii) the tenant has an enforceable agreement with the mortgagee or the holder of a
489 senior lien under which the tenant's occupancy will not be disturbed as long as the tenant
490 performs the tenant's obligations under the lease;

491 (iii) the mortgagee has consented to the lease, either in a signed record or by the 492 mortgagee's failure to timely object that the lease violated the mortgage; or

493 (iv) the terms of the lease were commercially reasonable at the time the lease was 494 agreed to and the tenant did not know or have reason to know that the lease violated the 495 mortgage.

496 Section 18. Section 78B-21-118 is enacted to read:

497 78B-21-118. Defenses and immunities of receiver.

498 (1) A receiver is entitled to all defenses and immunities provided by law of this state
499 other than this chapter for an act or omission within the scope of the receiver's appointment.

500 (2) A receiver may be sued personally for an act or omission in administering
501 receivership property only with approval of the court that appointed the receiver.

502 Section 19. Section 78B-21-119 is enacted to read:

503 78B-21-119. Interim report of receiver.

504 A receiver may file, or if ordered by the court shall file, an interim report that includes:

505 (1) the activities of the receiver since appointment or a previous report;

- 506 (2) receipts and disbursements, including a payment made or proposed to be made to a
- 507 professional engaged by the receiver;
- 508 (3) receipts and dispositions of receivership property;
- 509 (4) fees and expenses of the receiver and, if not filed separately, a request for approval
- 510 of payment of the fees and expenses; and
- 511 (5) any other information required by the court.

512 Section 20. Section 78B-21-120 is enacted to read:

513 78B-21-120. Notice of appointment -- Claim against receivership -- Distribution to 514 creditors.

515 (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (6), a receiver shall give notice of

516 appointment of the receiver to creditors of the owner by:

- 517 (a) deposit for delivery through first-class mail or other commercially reasonable
- 518 delivery method to the last known address of each creditor; and
- 519 (b) publication as directed by the court.

520 (2) (a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (6), the notice required by

521 Subsection (1) must specify the date by which each creditor holding a claim against the owner

522 that arose before appointment of the receiver must submit the claim to the receiver.

523 (b) The date specified must be at least 90 days after the later of the notice under 524 Subsection (1)(a) or the last publication under Subsection (1)(b).

525 (c) The court may extend the period for submitting the claim.

526 (d) Unless the court orders otherwise, a claim that is not submitted timely is not entitled 527 to a distribution from the receivership.

528 (3) A claim submitted by a creditor under this section must:

- 529 (a) state the name and address of the creditor;
- 530 (b) state the amount and basis of the claim;
- 531 (c) identify any property securing the claim;
- 532 (d) be signed by the creditor under penalty of perjury; and
- 533 (e) include a copy of any record on which the claim is based.

534 (4) An assignment by a creditor of a claim against the owner is effective against the 535 receiver only if the assignee gives timely notice of the assignment to the receiver in a signed 536 record.

537 (5) (a) At any time before entry of an order approving a receiver's final report, the 538 receiver may file with the court an objection to a claim of a creditor, stating the basis for the 539 objection.

540 (b) The court shall allow or disallow the claim according to law of this state other than 541 this chapter.

542 (6) If the court concludes that receivership property is likely to be insufficient to satisfy
543 claims of each creditor holding a perfected lien on the property, the court may order that:

544 (a) the receiver need not give notice under Subsection (1) of the appointment to all 545 creditors of the owner, but only such creditors as the court directs; and 546 (b) unsecured creditors need not submit claims under this section.

547 (7) Subject to Section 78B-21-121:

548 (a) a distribution of receivership property to a creditor holding a perfected lien on the 549 property must be made in accordance with the creditor's priority under law of this state other 550 than this chapter; and

551 (b) a distribution of receivership property to a creditor with an allowed unsecured claim
552 must be made as the court directs according to law of this state other than this chapter.

553 Section 21. Section 78B-21-121 is enacted to read:

554 78B-21-121. Fees and expenses.

555 (1) The court may award a receiver from receivership property the reasonable and 556 necessary fees and expenses of performing the duties of the receiver and exercising the powers
557 of the receiver.

558 (2) The court may order one or more of the following to pay the reasonable and 559 necessary fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney fees and costs:

560 (a) a person that requested the appointment of the receiver, if the receivership does not 561 produce sufficient funds to pay the fees and expenses; or

562 (b) a person whose conduct justified or would have justified the appointment of the 563 receiver under Subsection 78B-21-106(1)(a).

564 Section 22. Section 78B-21-122 is enacted to read:

565 78B-21-122. Removal of receiver -- Replacement -- Termination of receivership.

566 (1) The court may remove a receiver for cause.

567 (2) The court shall replace a receiver that dies, resigns, or is removed.

568 (3) If the court finds that a receiver that resigns or is removed, or the representative of a 569 receiver that is deceased, has accounted fully for and turned over to the successor receiver all
570 receivership property and has filed a report of all receipts and disbursements during the service
571 of the replaced receiver, the replaced receiver is discharged.

572 (4) (a) The court may discharge a receiver and terminate the court's administration of 573 the receivership property if the court finds that appointment of the receiver was improvident or 574 that the circumstances no longer warrant continuation of the receivership.

575 (b) If the court finds that the appointment was sought wrongfully or in bad faith, the 576 court may assess against the person that sought the appointment:

577 (i) the fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney fees and 578 costs; and

579 (ii) actual damages caused by the appointment, including reasonable attorney fees and 580 costs.

581 Section 23. Section 78B-21-123 is enacted to read:

582 78B-21-123. Final report of receiver -- Discharge.

583 (1) On completion of a receiver's duties, the receiver shall file a final report including:

584 (a) a description of the activities of the receiver in the conduct of the receivership;

585 (b) a list of receivership property at the commencement of the receivership and any 586 receivership property received during the receivership;

587 (c) a list of disbursements, including payments to professionals engaged by the receiver;

588 (d) a list of dispositions of receivership property;

589 (e) a list of distributions made or proposed to be made from the receivership for

590 creditor claims;

591 (f) if not filed separately, a request for approval of the payment of fees and expenses of 592 the receiver; and

593 (g) any other information required by the court.

594 (2) If the court approves a final report filed under Subsection (1) and the receiver
595 distributes all receivership property, the receiver is discharged.

596 Section 24. Section 78B-21-124 is enacted to read:

597 78B-21-124. Receivership in another state -- Ancillary proceeding.

598 (1) The court may appoint a receiver appointed in another state, or that person's 599 nominee, as an ancillary receiver with respect to property located in this state or subject to the 600 jurisdiction of the court for which a receiver could be appointed under this chapter, if:

601 (a) the person or nominee would be eligible to serve as receiver under Section
602 78B-21-107; and

603 (b) the appointment furthers the person's possession, custody, control, or disposition of 604 property subject to the receivership in the other state.

605 (2) The court may issue an order that gives effect to an order entered in another state
606 appointing or directing a receiver.

607 (3) Unless the court orders otherwise, an ancillary receiver appointed under Subsection
608 (1) has the rights, powers, and duties of a receiver appointed under this chapter.

609 Section 25. Section 78B-21-125 is enacted to read:

610 78B-21-125. Effect of enforcement by mortgagee.

611 (1) A request by a mortgagee for appointment of a receiver, the appointment of a
612 receiver, or application by a mortgagee of receivership property or proceeds to the secured
613 obligation does not:

614 (a) make the mortgagee a mortgagee in possession of the real property;

615 (b) make the mortgagee an agent of the owner;

616 (c) constitute an election of remedies that precludes a later action to enforce the 617 secured obligation;

618 (d) make the secured obligation unenforceable;
619 (e) limit any right available to the mortgagee with respect to the secured obligation;
620 (f) constitute an action within the meaning of Section 78B-6-901; or 621 (g) except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2), bar a deficiency judgment pursuant 622 to law of this state other than this chapter governing or relating to a deficiency judgment.

623 (2) If a receiver sells receivership property that pursuant to Subsection 78B-21-116\(3\)
624 is free and clear of a lien, the ability of a creditor to enforce an obligation that had been secured
625 by the lien is subject to law of the state other than this chapter relating to a deficiency judgment.

626 Section 26. Section 78B-21-126 is enacted to read:

627 78B-21-126. Uniformity of application and construction.

628 In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration shall be given to the need to 629 promote uniformity of the law with respect to the law's subject matter among states that enact 630 it.

631 Section 27. Section 78B-21-127 is enacted to read:

632 78B-21-127. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce
633 Act.

634 This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and 635 National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede 636 Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the 637 notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7003(b).

638 Section 28. Section 78B-21-128 is enacted to read:

639 78B-21-128. Transition.

640 This chapter does not apply to a receivership for which the receiver was appointed
