Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 35A-3-901 is enacted to read:

Part 9. Parental Coaching to Encourage Student Savings Program

35A-3-901. Title.

This part is known as the "Parental Coaching to Encourage Student Savings Program."

Section 2. Section 35A-3-902 is enacted to read:

35A-3-902. Definitions.

As used in this part:

SB0149S01 compared with SB0149

(1) "529 savings account" means a tax-advantaged method of saving for higher education costs on behalf of a particular individual that:

- (a) meets the requirements of Section 529, Internal Revenue Code; and
- (b) is managed by the Utah Educational Savings Plan created in Section 53B-8a-103.

(2) "Economically disadvantaged" means that a qualified child is:

- (a) experiencing intergenerational poverty;
- (b) receiving SNAP benefits; or
- (c) receiving Medicaid benefits.

(3) "Intergenerational poverty" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-9-102.

(4) "Parent applicant" means an applicant for the program who is a parent, legal custodian, or legal guardian of a qualified child and who is living with the qualified child.

(5) "Parental coaching" means the training described in Subsection 35A-3-903(4).

(6) "Program" means the Parental Coaching to Encourage Student Savings Program created in Section 35A-3-903.

(7) "Qualified child" means a child who is:

- (a) five or six years old; and
- (b) economically disadvantaged.

Section 3. Section 35A-3-903 is enacted to read:

35A-3-903. Program creation and description.

(1) There is created the Parental Coaching to Encourage Student Savings Program.

(2) The program shall be administered by the department.

(3) The program shall provide:

(a) parental coaching of a parent applicant as described in Subsection (4);

(b) a one-time contribution of $50 made by the department to a 529 savings account on behalf of a qualified child, if one or more parent applicants successfully complete the parental coaching described in Subsection (4); and

(c) an additional one-time matching contribution of $50 made by the department to a 529 savings account on behalf of a qualified child if:

(i) one or more parent applicants provide evidence to the department of having contributed at least $50 to the 529 savings account on behalf of the qualified child; or

SB0149S01 compared with SB0149

(ii) the Utah Educational Savings Plan informs the department that one or more parent applicants have contributed at least $50 to the 529 savings account on behalf of the qualified child.

(4) The department shall ensure that parental coaching:

(a) is a program of financial coaching designed to teach a parent applicant the advantages of beginning a savings program for future higher education expenses of the parent applicant's child while the child is still young;

(b) demonstrates to a parent applicant how compound interest works in increasing savings over time;

(c) describes to a parent applicant the general financial and other advantages of individuals who obtain education beyond the high school level;

(d) provides information to a parent applicant on opening a 529 savings account on behalf of the parent applicant's child;

(e) encourages a parent applicant to be actively involved in the education of the parent applicant's child; and

(f) is provided at no cost to a parent applicant.

(5) Parental coaching may be offered by the department or any of the following if approved by the department:

(a) a civic organization, if the executive director follows the procedures for contracting with a civic organization for the provision of social capital as described in Section 35A-3-507;

(b) a for-profit entity;

(c) an educational institution; or

(d) any state or local entity.

(6) A parent applicant may apply to the department, in a form approved by the department, to participate in the program.

(7) The department shall verify that the parent applicant is eligible for the program, including that the parent applicant is the parent, legal custodian, or legal guardian of a qualified child and is living with the qualified child.

(8) Within 30 days of a parent applicant completing the parental coaching portion of the program, the department, in cooperation with the Utah Educational Savings Plan:

(a) shall open a 529 savings account in the name of the parent applicant with the

SB0149S01 compared with SB0149

qualified child as the beneficiary:

(b) subject to Subsection (8)(c), will deposit $50 into the 529 savings account; and

(c) will ensure that the maximum total contribution for each qualified child under this Subsection (8) is no more than $50, even if more than one parent applicant of a qualified child participates in the parental coaching described in this section.

(9) (a) Subject to Subsection (9)(b), if within 60 days of a parent applicant completing the parental coaching portion of the program, the parent applicant or the Utah Educational Savings Plan provides evidence to the department of having contributed $50 to the 529 savings account opened under Subsection (8), the department will contribute a matching contribution of $50 to the 529 savings account within 30 days of receiving evidence of the parent applicant contribution.

(b) The department shall ensure that the maximum total contribution for each qualified child under this Subsection (9) is no more than $50, even if more than one parent applicant of a qualified child contributes to the 529 savings account.

(10) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the department shall make rules to administer this part, to coordinate with the Utah Educational Savings Plan, and to provide information to local education agencies so that local education agencies can notify potential participants about the program as described in Section 53A-3-433.

Section 4. Section 35A-3-904 is enacted to read:

35A-3-904. Reporting.

As part of the annual written report described in Section 35A-1-109, the department shall:

(1) provide the number of parent applicants who have participated in the program;

(2) provide the number of parent applicants who have completed parental coaching;

(3) provide the number of qualified children who have received a contribution from the program to the 529 savings account opened on behalf of the qualified children;

(4) describe any marketing efforts by the department to make the families of qualified children aware of the program;

(5) describe efforts to fund the program through private charitable donations; and

(6) make recommendations to the Legislature regarding the effectiveness of the program and any suggestions for improving the program.
