30 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

31 Section 1. Section 63I-2-275 is amended to read:

32 63I-2-275. Repeal dates -- Title 75.

33 Subsection 75-5-303(5)(d) is repealed on July 1, [~~2018~~] 2028.

34 Section 2. Section 75-5-303 is amended to read:

35 75-5-303. Procedure for court appointment of a guardian of an incapacitated
 36 person.

37 (1) [~~The~~] An incapacitated person or any person interested in the incapacitated person's 38 welfare may petition for a finding of incapacity and appointment of a guardian.

39 (2) (a) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall set a date for hearing on the issues
 40 of incapacity.

41 (b) Unless the allegedly incapacitated person has counsel of the person's own choice,
 42 the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the person in the proceeding the cost of which 43 shall be paid by the person alleged to be incapacitated, unless the allegedly incapacitated
 44 person ~~is~~ → [is] and the allegedly incapacitated person's parents are ← ~~is~~ indigent.

45 (c) If the court determines that the petition is without merit, the attorney fees and court
 46 costs shall be paid by the person filing the petition.

47 (d) If the court appoints the petitioner or the petitioner's nominee as guardian of the 48 incapacitated person, regardless of whether the nominee is specified in the moving petition or 49 nominated during the proceedings, the petitioner shall be entitled to receive from the 50 incapacitated person reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred in bringing, prosecuting,
 51 or defending the petition.

52 (3) The legal representation of the incapacitated person by an attorney shall terminate
 53 upon the appointment of a guardian, unless:

54 (a) there are separate conservatorship proceedings still pending before the court
 55 subsequent to the appointment of a guardian;

56 (b) there is a timely filed appeal of the appointment of the guardian or the

57 determination of incapacity; or

58 (c) upon an express finding of good cause, the court orders otherwise.

59 (4) The person alleged to be incapacitated may be examined by a physician appointed
60 by the court who shall submit a report in writing to the court and may be interviewed by a
61 visitor sent by the court. The visitor also may interview the person seeking appointment as 62 guardian, visit the present place of abode of the person alleged to be incapacitated and the place
63 it is proposed that the person will be detained or reside if the requested appointment is made,
64 conduct other investigations or observations as directed by the court, and submit a report in 65 writing to the court.

66 (5) (a) The person alleged to be incapacitated shall be present at the hearing in person
67 and see or hear all evidence bearing upon the person's condition. If the person seeking the 68 guardianship requests a waiver of presence of the person alleged to be incapacitated, the court
69 shall order an investigation by a court visitor, the costs of which shall be paid by the person
70 seeking the guardianship.

71 (b) The investigation by a court visitor is not required if there is clear and convincing 72 evidence from a physician that the person alleged to be incapacitated has:

- 73 (i) fourth stage Alzheimer's Disease;
- 74 (ii) extended comatosis; or
- 75 (iii) (A) an intellectual disability; and
- 76 (B) an intelligence quotient score under 25.

77 (c) The person alleged to be incapacitated is entitled to be represented by counsel, to 78 present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed physician and the 79 visitor, and to trial by jury. The issue may be determined at a closed hearing without a jury if 80 the person alleged to be incapacitated or the person's counsel so requests.

81 (d) Counsel for the person alleged to be incapacitated, as defined in Subsection 82 75-1-201\(22\), is not required if:

- 83 (i) the person is the biological or adopted child of the petitioner;
- 84 (ii) the value of the person's entire estate does not exceed $20,000 as established by an 85 affidavit of the petitioner in accordance with Section 75-3-1201;
- 86 (iii) the person appears in court with the petitioner;
- 87 (iv) the person is given the opportunity to communicate, to the extent possible, the

88 person's acceptance of the appointment of petitioner; [~~and~~]

89 (v) no attorney from the state court's list of attorneys who have volunteered to represent
90 respondents in guardianship proceedings is able to provide counsel to the person within 60
91 days of the date of the appointment described in Subsection (2);

92 [~~(v)~~] (vi) the court is satisfied that counsel is not necessary in order to protect the 93 interests of the person[-]; and

94 (vii) the court appoints a visitor under Subsection (4).

95 Section 3. Section 75-5-309 is amended to read:

96 75-5-309. Notices in guardianship proceedings.

97 (1) In a proceeding for the appointment or removal of a guardian of an incapacitated
98 person other than the appointment of an emergency guardian or temporary suspension of a
99 guardian, notice of hearing shall be given to each of the following:

100 (a) the ward or the person alleged to be incapacitated and spouse, parents, and adult
101 children of the ward or person;

102 (b) any person who is serving as guardian or conservator or who has care and custody
103 of the ward or person;

104 (c) in case no other person is notified under Subsection (1)(a), at least one of the 105 closest adult relatives, if any can be found; [~~and~~]

106 (d) any guardian appointed by the will of the parent who died later or spouse of the 107 incapacitated person[-]; and

108 (e) Adult Protective Services if Adult Protective Services has received a referral under 109 Title 62A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Abuse, Neglect, or Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult, concerning 110 the welfare of the ward or person alleged to be incapacitated or concerning the guardian or 111 conservator or proposed guardian or conservator.

112 (2) The notice shall be in plain language and large type and the form shall have the 113 final approval of the Judicial Council. The notice shall indicate the time and place of the 114 hearing, the possible adverse consequences to the person receiving notice of rights, a list of 115 rights, including the person's own or a court appointed counsel, and a copy of the petition.

116 (3) Notice shall be served personally on the alleged incapacitated person and the 117 person's spouse and parents if they can be found within the state. Notice to the spouse and 118 parents, if they cannot be found within the state, and to all other persons except the alleged

119 incapacitated person shall be given as provided in Section 75-1-401. Waiver of notice by the 120 person alleged to be incapacitated is not effective unless the person attends the hearing or the 121 person's waiver of notice is confirmed in an interview with the visitor appointed pursuant to 122 Section 75-5-303.

123 ~~§→ [(4) A court shall provide to the Social Security Administration a court order affecting~~
124 ~~the estate of a ward or person alleged to be incapacitated if the ward or person alleged to be~~
125 ~~incapacitated receives social security benefits.] ←§~~

126 Section 4. Section 75-5-311 is amended to read:
