22 Utah Code Sections Affected:

23 ENACTS:

24 26-8a-602, Utah Code Annotated 1953

26 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

27 Section 1. Section 26-8a-602 is enacted to read:

28 26-8a-602. Interfacility transportation of behavioral health unit and basic life
 29 support patients.

30 (1) As used in this section:

31 (a) "Basic life support patient" means a patient admitted into a hospital emergency
 32 room, medical unit, or other hospital unit that:

33 (i) has stable vital signs;

34 (ii) does not have an IV in place;

35 (iii) has no advanced life support medications that will be required for monitoring or 36 administering during transport; and

37 (iv) does not require chemical or physical restraints.

38 (b) "Provider" means a ground ambulance or paramedic licensed under this chapter.

39 (2) A provider may refuse or delay a request for interfacility transportation if:

40 (a) the request is for the transportation of a basic life support patient;

41 (b) the request is made between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.; and

42 (c) (i) the request is for a route that, at the time of the request, would require more than
 43 30 miles of driving, as calculated from the patient's originating site to the patient's destination
 44 site;

45 (ii) staffing levels or availability of equipment at the time of a request are below the 46 levels established by the department under Subsection (3); or

47 (iii) there are hazardous weather conditions, as defined by the department under 48 Subsection (3).

49 (3) The department shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah
 50 Administrative Rulemaking Act, to:

51 (a) establish $\hat{H} \rightarrow$, based on the cost, quality, and access goals established under
 51a Subsection 26-8a-408(7), $\leftarrow \hat{H}$ a level of staffing or equipment availability necessary to support the 51b needs

52 and expectations of a political subdivision's 911 ambulance or paramedic services between the 53 hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.; and

54 (b) define hazardous weather conditions under which the interfacility transportation of 55 a non-emergent basic life support patient would result in substantial risk to the patient and the 56 provider.

57 (4) (a) Notwithstanding the requirements in Subsections 26-8a-402(5)(c) and (6)(c), a 58 provider outside of the exclusive geographic service area may respond to a request for the

59 interfacility transportation of a basic life support patient if the provider that is licensed in the 60 exclusive geographic service area:

61 (i) delays or declines a request under Subsection (2); and

62 (ii) requests assistance under a mutual aid agreement.

63 (b) A request under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) qualifies as a time of unusual demand under
64 Subsection 26-8a-402\(4\)\(a\).

65 (5) If a provider refuses or delays a request under Subsection (2), the receiving health
66 care provider shall honor an affirmative request from the originating health care provider to 67 hold a bed for a patient whose transportation was refused or delayed from the time of the 68 notification until the earlier of:

69 (a) a notification from the originating health care provider to the receiving health care
70 provider that the bed is no longer needed; or

71 (b) 6:00 a.m. after the initial notification is given, plus a reasonable amount of time for 72 transportation from the originating site to the receiving site.

73 (6) If a health care provider makes a request to hold a bed under Subsection (5), the
74 originating health care provider shall provide regular updates to the receiving health care
75 provider on the status of the delayed transportation.

76 (7) Nothing in this section requires a provider to:

77 (a) delay or decline transportation under Subsection (2); or

78 (b) render assistance under a mutual aid agreement under Subsection (4).
