Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 11-51a-104 is amended to read:

11-51a-104. Emergency abatement of a catastrophic public nuisance.

28 (1) If a chief executive officer of a political subdivision or a county sheriff determines
29 that a public nuisance exists on federally managed land, pursuant to Subsection 11-51a-103(1), 30 and the chief executive officer of a political subdivision or the county sheriff also finds that the 31 catastrophic public nuisance in question adversely affects, or constitutes a threat to, the public
32 health, safety, and welfare of the people of the political subdivision, the chief executive officer
33 of the political subdivision or the county sheriff may, after consulting with the attorney general,
34 pursue all remedies allowed by law.

35 (2) In seeking an emergency abatement of a catastrophic public nuisance, a chief 36 executive officer of a political subdivision or a county sheriff shall attempt, as much as 37 possible, to:

38 (a) coordinate with state and federal agencies; and

39 (b) seek the advice of professionals, including private sector professionals, with 40 expertise in abating a catastrophic public nuisance.

41 (3) The state shall indemnify, defend, and hold a chief executive officer or county
42 sheriff harmless from any claims or damages, including court costs and attorney fees that are 43 assessed as a result of the chief executive officer's or county sheriff's action, if:

44 (a) the chief executive officer or county sheriff has complied with the provisions of this 45 chapter;

46 (b) the chief executive officer or county sheriff seeks and receives approval for the 47 chief executive officer's or county sheriff's actions from the Legislative Management
48 Committee;

49 (c) the court challenge against the chief executive officer or county sheriff addresses
50 the chief executive officer's or county sheriff's action in abating a catastrophic public nuisance;
51 and

52 (d) the chief executive officer's or county sheriff's actions in abating the catastrophic
53 public nuisance were reasonable.
