

who were citizens of the state, who are known for their "historic renown or for distinguished civic or military service," for commemoration in the National Statuary Hall Collection in the United States Capitol;

WHEREAS, Utah is currently represented by the statues of Brigham Young and Philo Farnsworth;

WHEREAS, 2 U.S.C. Sec. 2132 allows a state to request the Joint Committee on the Library of Congress to approve the replacement of a state's statue if:

(1) the statue to be replaced has been on display in the United States Capitol for at least 10 years; and

(2) a replacement request is made through a legislative resolution and approved by the Governor;

WHEREAS, the statue of Philo Farnsworth has been on display in the United States Capitol since 1990;

WHEREAS, 2 U.S.C. Sec. 2131a requires that an individual's statue may not be placed in the National Statuary Hall Collection until 10 years after the individual's death;

WHEREAS, Dr. Martha "Mattie" Hughes Cannon is a renowned woman of Utah, the first female state senator elected in the United States, and a national champion for women's rights;

WHEREAS, although the Utah Territory granted women suffrage in 1870, Congress passed the Edmunds-Tucker Act in 1887, revoking women's suffrage in the territory;

WHEREAS, the Utah Chapter of the National Woman Suffrage Association was created in 1889 and Dr. Cannon was instrumental in that organization's fight to restore women's right to vote in Utah, which effort was consummated in 1896 with the adoption of the Utah Constitution;

WHEREAS, that same year, Dr. Cannon was elected as a member of the Utah Senate and became the first female ever elected as a state senator in the United States, 24 years before all women in the United States were granted the right to vote by the ratification of the nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution;

WHEREAS, Dr. Cannon defeated her husband and ~~§~~→ [three] ←~~§~~ other male candidates to obtain her Senate seat;

WHEREAS, during her time in the Utah Senate, Dr. Cannon was an outspoken

59 champion for public health issues and was a powerful advocate for women's rights;

60 WHEREAS, ~~§~~→ after ~~←~~§ Dr. Cannon retired ~~§~~→ [~~after three terms in~~] from ~~←~~§ the 60a Legislature, ~~§~~→ [~~but~~] she ~~←~~§ continued to

61 fight for public health improvements, women's rights, and other important public policy
62 improvements until she passed away in 1932; and

63 WHEREAS, Dr. Cannon's faith, resolve, vision, and tireless efforts deserve the highest
64 honors the state can bestow:

65 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 66 Governor concurring therein, in conformance with 2 U.S.C. 2132, requests that the Joint
67 Committee on the Library of Congress approve the replacement of Utah's statue of Philo
68 Farnsworth in the National Statuary Hall in the United States Capitol with a statue of Dr.
69 Martha Hughes Cannon.

70 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the statue of Dr. Cannon be unveiled in the United 71 States Capitol in August of 2020, in commemoration of the month of the 100th anniversary of 72 the ratification of the nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

73 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Governor facilitate the creation of a nonprofit
74 organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c), Internal Revenue
75 Code, to:

76 (1) collect charitable contributions to cover all costs associated with the creation and
77 placement of the new statue so that, in conformance with the requirements of 2 U.S.C. Sec.
78 2132, the state bears responsibility for "any costs related to the replacement [statue], including
79 costs in connection with the design, construction, transportation, and placement of the new
80 statue, the removal and transportation of the statue being replaced, and any unveiling
81 ceremony";

82 (2) select a sculptor for the creation of the statue of Dr. Cannon;

83 (3) approve a final design for the sculpture of Dr. Cannon;

84 (4) ensure that the creation and placement of the statue of Dr. Cannon is conducted in a
85 timely and orderly fashion in accordance with this resolution; and

86 (5) ensure that the removal of the existing Philo Farnsworth statue from the United 87 States Capitol is conducted in accordance with this resolution.

88 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that no public funds be used for any cost related to the 89 creation and placement of the new statue, including any cost described in the preceding

90 resolved clause.

91 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, in conformance with the requirements of 2 U.S.C.
92 Sec. 2131, the statue be created in marble or bronze.

93 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Philo Farnsworth statue that is currently
94 located in the United States Capitol be removed and placed in the Utah State Capitol Building.

95 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Capitol Preservation Board work with the
96 nonprofit organization, whose creation is facilitated by the Governor under this resolution,
97 regarding the movement and placement of statues in the Utah State Capitol Building as
98 directed by this resolution.

99 §→ [BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Philo Farnsworth statue that is currently
100 located in the Utah State Capitol Building be removed and placed in the Beaver County District
101 Courthouse located at 2270 South 525 West, Beaver, Utah 84713.] ←§

102 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be mailed to the Joint 103 Committee on the Library of Congress for its consideration.
