Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 62A-2-113 is amended to read:

62A-2-113. License revocation -- Suspension.

(1) If a license is revoked, the office may not grant a new license unless:

(a) the human services program provides satisfactory evidence to the office that the conditions upon which revocation was based have been corrected;

(b) the human services program is inspected by the office and found to be in compliance with all provisions of this chapter and applicable rules;

30 (c) at least five years have passed since the day on which the licensee is served with 31 final notice that the license is revoked; and

32 (d) the office determines that the interests of the public will not be jeopardized by 33 granting the license.

34 (2) The office may suspend a license for no longer than [~~one year~~] three years.

35 (3) When a license has been suspended, the office may restore, or restore subject to 36 conditions, the suspended license upon a determination that the:

37 (a) conditions upon which the suspension was based have been completely or partially 38 corrected; and

39 (b) interests of the public will not be jeopardized by restoration of the license.
