38 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

39 Section 1. Section 62A-4a-113 is amended to read:

40 62A-4a-113. Division's enforcement authority -- Responsibility of attorney
41 general to represent division.

42 (1) The division shall take legal action that is necessary to enforce the provisions of 43 this chapter.

44 (2) (a) Subject to ~~[the provisions of]~~ Section 67-5-17 and the attorney general's 45 prosecutorial discretion in civil enforcement actions, the attorney general shall enforce all 46 provisions of this chapter, in addition to the requirements of Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile 47 Court Act of 1996, relating to protection ~~[and]~~, custody ~~[of]~~, and parental rights termination for 48 abused, neglected, or dependent minors. The attorney general may contract with the local 49 county attorney to enforce the provisions of this chapter and Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile 50 Court Act of 1996.

51 (b) It is the responsibility of the attorney general's office to:

- 52 (i) advise the division regarding decisions to remove a minor from the minor's home;
- 53 (ii) represent the division in all court and administrative proceedings related to abuse,
54 neglect, and dependency including, but not limited to, shelter hearings, dispositional hearings, 55 dispositional review hearings, periodic review hearings, and petitions for termination of 56 parental rights; and

57 (iii) be available to and advise caseworkers on an ongoing basis.

58 (c) The attorney general shall designate no less than 16 full-time attorneys to advise 59 and represent the division in abuse, neglect, and dependency proceedings, including petitions

61 that representation and, insofar as it is practicable, shall be housed in or near various offices of 62 the division statewide.

63 (3) As of July 1, 1998, the attorney general's office shall represent the division with 64 regard to actions involving minors who have not been adjudicated as abused or neglected, but 65 who are otherwise committed to the custody of the division by the juvenile court, and who are 66 classified in the division's management information system as having been placed in custody
67 primarily on the basis of delinquent behavior or a status offense. Nothing in this section may 68 be construed to affect the responsibility of the county attorney or district attorney to represent 69 the state in those matters, in accordance with Section 78A-6-115.

70 Section 2. Section 78A-6-115 is amended to read:

71 78A-6-115. Hearings -- Record -- County attorney or district attorney
72 responsibilities -- Attorney general responsibilities -- Disclosure -- Admissibility of 73 evidence.

74 (1) (a) A verbatim record of the proceedings shall be taken in all cases that might result
75 in deprivation of custody as defined in this chapter. In all other cases a verbatim record shall 76 also be made unless dispensed with by the court.

77 (b) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision, including Title 63G, Chapter 2, 78 Government Records Access and Management Act, a record of a proceeding made under 79 Subsection (1)(a) shall be released by the court to any person upon a finding on the record for 80 good cause.

81 (ii) Following a petition for a record of a proceeding made under Subsection (1)(a), the 82 court shall:

83 (A) provide notice to all subjects of the record that a request for release of the record 84 has been made; and

85 (B) allow sufficient time for the subjects of the record to respond before making a

86 finding on the petition.

87 (iii) A record of a proceeding may not be released under this Subsection (1)(b) if the 88 court's jurisdiction over the subjects of the proceeding ended more than 12 months before the 89 request.

90 (iv) For purposes of this Subsection (1)(b):

91 (A) "record of a proceeding" does not include documentary materials of any type
92 submitted to the court as part of the proceeding, including items submitted under Subsection 93 (4)(a); and

94 (B) "subjects of the record" includes the child's guardian ad litem, the child's legal 95 guardian, the Division of Child and Family Services, and any other party to the proceeding.

96 (2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the county attorney or, if within a
97 prosecution district, the district attorney shall represent the state in any proceeding in a minor's 98 case.

99 (b) [The] Subject to the attorney general's prosecutorial discretion in civil enforcement
100 actions, the attorney general shall enforce all provisions of Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and 101 Family Services, and this chapter, relating to:

102 (i) protection or custody of an abused, neglected, or dependent child; and 103 (ii) petitions for termination of parental rights.

104 (c) The attorney general shall represent the Division of Child and Family Services in 105 actions involving a minor who is not adjudicated as abused or neglected, but who is receiving 106 in-home family services under Section 78A-6-117.5. Nothing in this Subsection (2)(c) may be 107 construed to affect the responsibility of the county attorney or district attorney to represent the 108 state in those matters, in accordance with Subsection (2)(a).

109 (3) The board may adopt special rules of procedure to govern proceedings involving 110 violations of traffic laws or ordinances, wildlife laws, and boating laws. However, proceedings
111 involving offenses under Section 78A-6-606 are governed by that section regarding suspension 112 of driving privileges.

113 (4) (a) For the purposes of determining proper disposition of the minor in dispositional

114 hearings and establishing the fact of abuse, neglect, or dependency in adjudication hearings and 115 in hearings upon petitions for termination of parental rights, written reports and other material 116 relating to the minor's mental, physical, and social history and condition may be received in 117 evidence and may be considered by the court along with other evidence. The court may require 118 that the person who wrote the report or prepared the material appear as a witness if the person 119 is reasonably available.

120 (b) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of a minor alleged to be or 121 adjudicated as abused, neglected, or dependent, dispositional reports prepared by the division
122 under Section 78A-6-315 may be received in evidence and may be considered by the court
123 along with other evidence. The court may require any person who participated in preparing the 124 dispositional report to appear as a witness, if the person is reasonably available.

125 (5) (a) In an abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding occurring after the 126 commencement of a shelter hearing under Section 78A-6-306 or the filing of a petition under 127 Section 78A-6-304, each party to the proceeding shall provide in writing to the other parties or 128 their counsel any information which the party:

129 (i) plans to report to the court at the proceeding; or

130 (ii) could reasonably expect would be requested of the party by the court at the 131 proceeding.

132 (b) The disclosure required under Subsection (5)(a) shall be made:

133 (i) for dispositional hearings under Sections 78A-6-311 and 78A-6-312, no less than 134 five days before the proceeding;

135 (ii) for proceedings under Chapter 6, Part 5, Termination of Parental Rights Act, in 136 accordance with Utah Rules of Civil Procedure; and 137 (iii) for all other proceedings, no less than five days before the proceeding.

138 (c) If a party to a proceeding obtains information after the deadline in Subsection
139 (5)(b), the information is exempt from the disclosure required under Subsection (5)(a) if the 140 party certifies to the court that the information was obtained after the deadline.

141 (d) Subsection (5)(a) does not apply to:

142 (i) pretrial hearings; and
143 (ii) the frequent, periodic review hearings held in a dependency drug court case to 144 assess and promote the parent's progress in substance use disorder treatment.

145 (6) For the purpose of establishing the fact of abuse, neglect, or dependency, the court
146 may, in its discretion, consider evidence of statements made by a child under eight years of age
147 to a person in a trust relationship.

148 Section 3. Section 78A-6-314 is amended to read:

149 78A-6-314. Permanency hearing -- Final plan -- Petition for termination of 150 parental rights filed -- Hearing on termination of parental rights.

151 (1) (a) When reunification services have been ordered in accordance with Section
152 78A-6-312, with regard to a minor who is in the custody of the Division of Child and Family
153 Services, a permanency hearing shall be held by the court no later than 12 months after the day
154 on which the minor was initially removed from the minor's home.

155 (b) If reunification services were not ordered at the dispositional hearing, a permanency
156 hearing shall be held within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends.

157 (2) (a) If reunification services were ordered by the court in accordance with Section
158 78A-6-312, the court shall, at the permanency hearing, determine, consistent with Subsection 159 (3), whether the minor may safely be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

160 (b) If the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that return of the minor to 161 the minor's parent would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor's physical or 162 emotional well-being, the minor may not be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

163 (c) Prima facie evidence that return of the minor to a parent or guardian would create a 164 substantial risk of detriment to the minor is established if:

165 (i) the parent or guardian fails to:

166 (A) participate in a court approved child and family plan;

167 (B) comply with a court approved child and family plan in whole or in part; or

168 (C) meet the goals of a court approved child and family plan; or

169 (ii) the child's natural parent:

170 (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the 171 child;

172 (B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation 173 for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or

174 (C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or 175 recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child.

176 (3) In making a determination under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall review and 177 consider:

178 (a) the report prepared by the Division of Child and Family Services;

179 (b) any admissible evidence offered by the minor's guardian ad litem;

180 (c) any report submitted by the division under Subsection 78A-6-315(3)(a)(i);

181 (d) any evidence regarding the efforts or progress demonstrated by the parent; and 182 (e) the extent to which the parent cooperated and utilized the services provided.

183 (4) With regard to a case where reunification services were ordered by the court, if a
184 minor is not returned to the minor's parent or guardian at the permanency hearing, the court
185 shall, unless the time for the provision of reunification services is extended under Subsection
186 (8):

187 (a) order termination of reunification services to the parent;

188 (b) make a final determination regarding whether termination of parental rights, 189 adoption, or permanent custody and guardianship is the most appropriate final plan for the 190 minor, taking into account the minor's primary permanency plan established by the court 191 pursuant to Section 78A-6-312; and

192 (c) establish a concurrent permanency plan that identifies the second most appropriate 193 final plan for the minor, if appropriate.

194 (5) The court may order another planned permanent living arrangement for a minor 16
195 years old or older upon entering the following findings:

196 (a) the Division of Child and Family Services has documented intensive, ongoing, and 197 unsuccessful efforts to reunify the minor with the minor's parent or parents, or to secure a

198 placement for the minor with a guardian, an adoptive parent, or an individual described in 199 Subsection 78A-6-306(6)(e);

200 (b) the Division of Child and Family Services has demonstrated that the division has 201 made efforts to normalize the life of the minor while in the division's custody, in accordance 202 with Sections 62A-4a-210 through 62A-4a-212;

203 (c) the minor prefers another planned permanent living arrangement; and 204 (d) there is a compelling reason why reunification or a placement described in 205 Subsection (5)(a) is not in the minor's best interest.

206 (6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), the court may not extend reunification 207 services beyond 12 months after the day on which the minor was initially removed from the 208 minor's home, in accordance with the provisions of Section 78A-6-312.

209 (7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), the court may extend reunification services for no 210 more than 90 days if the court finds, beyond a preponderance of the evidence, that:

211 (i) there has been substantial compliance with the child and family plan;

212 (ii) reunification is probable within that 90-day period; and 213 (iii) the extension is in the best interest of the minor.

214 (b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), the court may not extend any 215 reunification services beyond 15 months after the day on which the minor was initially 216 removed from the minor's home.

217 (ii) Delay or failure of a parent to establish paternity or seek custody does not provide a 218 basis for the court to extend services for that parent beyond the 12-month period described in 219 Subsection (6).

220 (c) In accordance with Subsection (7)(d), the court may extend reunification services
221 for one additional 90-day period, beyond the 90-day period described in Subsection (7)(a), if:

222 (i) the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

223 (A) the parent has substantially complied with the child and family plan;

224 (B) it is likely that reunification will occur within the additional 90-day period; and

225 (C) the extension is in the best interest of the child;

226 (ii) the court specifies the facts upon which the findings described in Subsection 227 (7)(c)(i) are based; and

228 (iii) the court specifies the time period in which it is likely that reunification will occur.

229 (d) A court may not extend the time period for reunification services without 230 complying with the requirements of this Subsection (7) before the extension.

231 (e) In determining whether to extend reunification services for a minor, a court shall 232 take into consideration the status of the minor siblings of the minor.

233 (8) The court may, in its discretion:

234 (a) enter any additional order that it determines to be in the best interest of the minor,
235 so long as that order does not conflict with the requirements and provisions of Subsections (4)
236 through (7); or

237 (b) order the division to provide protective supervision or other services to a minor and 238 the minor's family after the division's custody of a minor has been terminated.

239 (9) (a) If the final plan for the minor is to proceed toward termination of parental
240 rights, the petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed, and a pretrial held, within 45
241 calendar days after the permanency hearing.

242 (b) If the division opposes the plan to terminate parental rights, the court may not 243 require the division to file a petition for the termination of parental rights, except as required
244 under Subsection 78A-6-316\(2\).

245 (10) (a) Any party to an action may, at any time, petition the court for an expedited 246 permanency hearing on the basis that continuation of reunification efforts are inconsistent with 247 the permanency needs of the minor.

248 (b) If the court so determines, it shall order, in accordance with federal law, that:

249 (i) the minor be placed in accordance with the permanency plan; and

250 (ii) whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor be 251 completed as quickly as possible.

252 (11) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

253 (a) entitle any parent to reunification services for any specified period of time;

254 (b) limit a court's ability to terminate reunification services at any time prior to a 255 permanency hearing; or

256 (c) limit or prohibit the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights by any 257 party, or a hearing on termination of parental rights, at any time prior to a permanency hearing.

258 (12) (a) Subject to Subsection (12)(b), if a petition for termination of parental rights is 259 filed prior to the date scheduled for a permanency hearing, the court may consolidate the 260 hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing.

261 (b) For purposes of Subsection (12)(a), if the court consolidates the hearing on 262 termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing:

263 (i) the court shall first make a finding regarding whether reasonable efforts have been 264 made by the Division of Child and Family Services to finalize the permanency plan for the 265 minor; and

266 (ii) any reunification services shall be terminated in accordance with the time lines
267 described in Section 78A-6-312.

268 (c) A decision on a petition for termination of parental rights shall be made within 18
269 months from the day on which the minor is removed from the minor's home.

270 (13) If a court determines that a child will not be returned to a parent of the child, the 271 court shall consider appropriate placement options inside and outside of the state.

272 Section 4. Section 78A-6-506 is amended to read:

273 78A-6-506. Notice -- Nature of proceedings.

274 (1) After a petition for termination of parental rights has been filed, notice [~~of that fact~~
275 ~~and of the time and place of the hearing shall be provided, in accordance with the Utah Rules~~
276 ~~of Civil Procedure,]~~ shall:

277 (a) be provided to the parents, the guardian, the person or agency having legal custody 278 of the child, and [~~to~~] any person acting in loco parentis to the child[~~;~~]; and

279 (b) indicate the:

280 (i) nature of the petition;

281 (ii) time and place of the hearing;

282            (iii) right to counsel; and 283            (iv) right to the appointment of counsel for a party whom the court determines is 284 indigent and at risk of losing the party's parental rights.

285            (2) A hearing shall be held specifically on the question of termination of parental rights
286 no sooner than 10 days after service of summons is complete. A verbatim record of the 287 proceedings shall be taken and the parties shall be advised of their right to counsel, including 288 the appointment of counsel for an indigent parent or legal guardian facing any action initiated
289 by a private party under this part or termination of parental rights under Section 78B-6-112.

290 The summons shall contain a statement to the effect that the rights of the parent or parents are 291 proposed to be permanently terminated in the proceedings. That statement may be contained in 292 the summons originally issued in the proceeding or in a separate summons subsequently issued.

293            (3) The proceedings are civil in nature and are governed by the Utah Rules of Civil 294 Procedure. The court shall in all cases require the petitioner to establish the facts by clear and 295 convincing evidence, and shall give full and careful consideration to all of the evidence 296 presented with regard to the constitutional rights and claims of the parent and, if a parent is 297 found, by reason of [his] the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based 298 upon any of the grounds for termination described in this part, the court shall then consider the 299 welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether 300 termination of parental rights shall be ordered.

301            Section 5. Section 78A-6-902 is amended to read:

302            78A-6-902. Appointment of attorney guardian ad litem -- Duties and 303 responsibilities -- Training -- Trained staff and court-appointed special advocate
304 volunteers -- Costs -- Immunity -- Annual report.

305            (1) (a) The court:

306            (i) may appoint an attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interest of a minor

309 62A-4a-201, in determining whether to appoint a guardian ad litem.

407 interest, the attorney guardian ad litem shall communicate the minor's wishes to the court in 408 addition to presenting the attorney's determination of the minor's best interest.

409 (c) A difference between the minor's wishes and the attorney's determination of best 410 interest may not be considered a conflict of interest for the attorney.

411 (d) The guardian ad litem shall disclose the wishes of the child unless the child:

412 (i) instructs the guardian ad litem to not disclose the child's wishes; or 413 (ii) has not expressed any wishes.

434 (b) In every hearing where the guardian ad litem makes a recommendation regarding 435 the best interest of the child, the court shall require the guardian ad litem to disclose the factors

449 the Legislature.

450 (d) (i) Subsection (12)(b) constitutes an exception to Rules of Professional Conduct,

452 (A) the unique role of an attorney guardian ad litem described in Subsection (8); and

453 (B) the state's role and responsibility:

454 (I) to provide a guardian ad litem program; and 455 (II) as parens patriae, to protect minors.
