26	(b) "Electronic communication" means any communication by electronic,
27	electro-mechanical, or electro-optical communication device for the transmission and reception
28	of audio, image, or text but does not include broadcast transmissions or similar
29	communications that are not targeted at any specific individual.
30	(c) "Electronic communication device" includes a telephone, a facsimile machine,
31	electronic mail, a pager, a computer, or any other device or medium that can be used to
32	communicate electronically.
33	(d) "Minor" means [a person] an individual who is younger than 18 years of age.
34	(e) "Personal identifying information" means the same as that term is defined in
35	Section 76-6-1102.
36	(2) [A person] An individual is guilty of electronic communication harassment and
37	subject to prosecution in the jurisdiction where the communication originated or was received
38	if with intent to intimidate, abuse, threaten, harass, frighten, or disrupt the electronic
39	communications of another, the [person] individual:
40	(a) (i) makes repeated contact by means of electronic communications, regardless of
41	whether a conversation ensues; or
42	(ii) after the recipient has requested or informed the [person] individual not to contact
43	the recipient, and the [person] individual repeatedly or continuously:
44	(A) contacts the electronic communication device of the recipient; or
45	(B) causes an electronic communication device of the recipient to ring or to receive
46	other notification of attempted contact by means of electronic communication;
47	(b) makes contact by means of electronic communication and insults, taunts, or
48	challenges the recipient of the communication or any [person] individual at the receiving
49	location in a manner likely to provoke a violent or disorderly response;
50	(c) makes contact by means of electronic communication and threatens to inflict injury,
51	physical harm, or damage to any [person] individual or the property of any [person] individual;
52	or

57	information of another person, in a public online site or forum, without that person's
58	permission.]
59	(3) An individual who electronically publishes, posts, or otherwise discloses personal
60	identifying information of another individual in a public online site or forum with the intent to
61	abuse, threaten, or disrupt the individual's electronic communication and without that
62	individual's permission is guilty of electronic communication harassment.
63	$\left[\frac{(3)}{(4)}\right]$ (a) (i) Electronic communication harassment committed against an adult is a
64	class B misdemeanor, except under Subsection $[(3)]$ (4)(a)(ii).
65	(ii) A second or subsequent offense under Subsection $[(3)]$ (4)(a)(i) is a:
66	(A) class A misdemeanor if all prior violations of this section were committed against
67	adults; and
68	(B) a third degree felony if any prior violation of this section was committed against a
69	minor.
70	(b) (i) Electronic communication harassment committed against a minor is a class A
71	misdemeanor, except under Subsection $[(3)]$ (4)(b)(ii).
72	(ii) A second or subsequent offense under Subsection $[(3)]$ (4)(b)(i) is a third degree
73	felony, regardless of whether any prior violation of this section was committed against a minor
74	or an adult.
75	[(4)] (5) (a) Except under Subsection $[(4)]$ (5)(b), criminal prosecution under this
76	section does not affect an individual's right to bring a civil action for damages suffered as a
77	result of the commission of any of the offenses under this section.
78	(b) This section does not create any civil cause of action based on electronic
79	communications made for legitimate business purposes.
