36 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

37 Section 1. Section 30-3-10 is amended to read:

38 30-3-10. Custody of a child -- Custody factors.

39 ~~[(1) If a married couple having one or more minor children are separated, or their~~ 40 ~~marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall make an order for the future care and~~
41 ~~custody of the minor children as it considers appropriate.]~~

42 ~~[(a) In determining any form of custody, including a change in custody, the court shall~~ 43 ~~consider the best interests of the child without preference for either parent solely because of the~~ 44 ~~biological sex of the parent and, among other factors the court finds relevant, the following:]~~

45 ~~[(i) in accordance with Subsection (7), the past conduct and demonstrated moral~~ 46 ~~standards of each of the parties;]~~

47 ~~[(ii) which parent is most likely to act in the best interest of the child, including~~ 48 ~~allowing the child frequent and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent;]~~

49 ~~[(iii) the extent of bonding between the parent and child, meaning the depth, quality,~~
50 ~~and nature of the relationship between a parent and child;]~~

51 ~~[(iv) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material~~
52 ~~harmful to a minor, as defined in Section 76-10-1201; and]~~

53 ~~(v) those factors outlined in Section [30-3-10.2.]~~

54 (1) If a married couple having one or more minor children are separated, or the married
55 couple's marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall enter, and has continuing 56 jurisdiction to modify, an order of custody and parent-time.

57 (2) In determining any form of custody and parent-time under Subsection (1), the court

58 shall consider the best interest of the child and may consider among other factors the court
59 finds relevant, the following for each parent:

60 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
61 abuse, involving the child, the parent, or a household member of the parent;

62 (b) the parent's demonstrated understanding of, responsiveness to, and ability to meet
63 the developmental needs of the child, including the child's:

64 (i) physical needs;

65 (ii) emotional needs;

66 (iii) educational needs;

67 (iv) medical needs; and

68 (v) any special needs;

69 (c) the parent's capacity and willingness to function as a parent, including:

70 (i) parenting skills;

71 (ii) co-parenting skills, including:

72 (A) ability to appropriately communicate with the other parent;

73 (B) ability to encourage the sharing of love and affection; and

74 (C) willingness to allow frequent and continuous contact between the child and the

75 other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect the child

76 from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be taken into

77 consideration; and

78 (iii) ability to provide personal care rather than surrogate care;

79 (d) in accordance with Subsection (10), the past conduct and demonstrated moral

80 character of the parent;

81 (e) the emotional stability of the parent;

82 (f) the parent's inability to function as a parent because of drug abuse, excessive

83 drinking, or other causes;

84 (g) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material

85 harmful to minors, as "material" and "harmful to minors" are defined in Section 76-10-1201;

- 86 (h) the parent's reasons for having relinquished custody or parent-time in the past;
- 87 (i) duration and depth of desire for custody or parent-time;
- 88 (j) the parent's religious compatibility with the child;
- 89 (k) the parent's financial responsibility;
- 90 (l) the child's interaction and relationship with step-parents, extended family members
- 91 of other individuals who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
- 92 (m) who has been the primary caretaker of the child;
- 93 (n) previous parenting arrangements in which the child has been happy and
- 94 well-adjusted in the home, school, and community;
- 95 (o) the relative benefit of keeping siblings together;
- 96 (p) the stated wishes and concerns of the child, taking into consideration the child's
- 97 cognitive ability and emotional maturity;
- 98 (q) the relative strength of the child's bond with the parent, meaning the depth, quality,
- 99 and nature of the relationship between the parent and the child; and
- 100 (r) any other factor the court finds relevant.

101 ~~[(b)]~~ (3) There is a rebuttable presumption that joint legal custody, as defined in 102 Section 30-3-10.1, is in the best interest of the child, except in cases ~~[where]~~ when there is:

- 103 ~~[(i) domestic violence in the home or in the presence of the child;]~~
- 104 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
- 105 abuse involving the child, a parent, or a household member of the parent;
- 106 ~~[(ii)]~~ (b) special physical or mental needs of a parent or child, making joint legal
- 107 custody unreasonable;
- 108 ~~[(iii)]~~ (c) physical distance between the residences of the parents, making joint decision
- 109 making impractical in certain circumstances; or
- 110 ~~[(iv)]~~ (d) any other factor the court considers relevant including those listed in this
- 111 section and Section 30-3-10.2.

112 ~~[(e)]~~ (4) (i) The person who desires joint legal custody shall file a proposed parenting
 113 plan in accordance with Sections 30-3-10.8 and 30-3-10.9.

114 (ii) A presumption for joint legal custody may be rebutted by a showing by a 115 preponderance of the evidence that it is not in the best interest of the child.

116 ~~[(4)]~~ (5) (a) A child may not be required by either party to testify unless the trier of fact 117 determines that extenuating circumstances exist that would necessitate the testimony of the 118 child be heard and there is no other reasonable method to present the child's testimony.

119 ~~[(e)]~~ (b) (i) The court may inquire of the child's and take into consideration the ~~[the]~~ 120 child's desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are 121 not controlling and the court may determine the children's custody or parent-time otherwise.

122 (ii) The desires of a child 14 years of age or older shall be given added weight, but is 123 not the single controlling factor.

124 ~~[(f)]~~ (c) (i) If an interview with a child is conducted by the court pursuant to Subsection
125 ~~[(1)(e)]~~ (5)(b), the interview shall be conducted by the judge in camera.

126 (ii) The prior consent of the parties may be obtained but is not necessary if the court
127 finds that an interview with a child is the only method to ascertain the child's desires regarding 128 custody.

129 ~~[(2) In awarding custody, the court shall consider, among other factors the court finds 130 relevant, which parent is most likely to act in the best interests of the child, including allowing 131 the child frequent and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent as the court finds 132 appropriate.]~~

133 ~~[(3) If the court finds that one parent does not desire custody of the child, the court
134 shall take that evidence into consideration in determining whether to award custody to the other 135 parent.]~~

136 ~~[(4)]~~ (6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~[(4)]~~ (6)(b), a court may not discriminate
137 against a parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or 138 determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award
139 of custody.

140 (b) The court may not consider the disability of a parent as a factor in awarding custody
141 or modifying an award of custody based on a determination of a substantial change in

142 circumstances, unless the court makes specific findings that:

143 (i) the disability significantly or substantially inhibits the parent's ability to provide for 144 the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue; and

145 (ii) the parent with a disability lacks sufficient human, monetary, or other resources 146 available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of 147 the child at issue.

148 (c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to adoption proceedings under 149 Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act.

150 (7) This section does not establish a preference for either parent solely because of the 151 gender of the parent.

152 [~~(5)~~] (8) This section establishes neither a preference nor a presumption for or against 153 joint physical custody or sole physical custody, but allows the court and the family the widest
154 discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child.

155 [~~(6)~~] (9) When an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event
156 of a deployment of one or both parents who are servicemembers, and the servicemember has 157 not yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in 158 Sections 78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309.

159 [~~(7)~~] (10) In considering the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each
160 party under Subsection [~~(1)(a)(i)~~] (2)(d) or any other factor a court finds relevant, the court may 161 not discriminate against a parent because of or otherwise consider the parent's:

162 (a) lawful possession or use of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis
163 product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, in accordance with Title 26,
164 Chapter 61a, Utah Medical Cannabis Act, except as it relates to that parent's ability to care for a 165 child; or

166 (b) status as a:

167 (i) cannabis production establishment agent, as that term is defined in Section
168 4-41a-102;

169 (ii) medical cannabis pharmacy agent, as that term is defined in Section 26-61a-102;

170 (iii) state central fill agent, as that term is defined in Section 26-61a-102; or 171 (iv) medical cannabis cardholder in accordance with Title 26, Chapter 61a, Utah
172 Medical Cannabis Act.

173 Section 2. Section 30-3-10.2 is amended to read:

174 30-3-10.2. Joint custody order -- Factors for court determination -- Public
175 assistance.

176 (1) The court may order joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both if one or
177 both parents have filed a parenting plan in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8 and [it] the court
178 determines that joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both is in the best interest of the 179 child.

180 (2) In determining whether the best interest of a child will be served by ordering joint 181 legal custody or joint physical custody or both, the court shall consider the custody factors in 182 Section 30-3-10 and the following factors:

183 (a) whether the physical, psychological, and emotional needs and development of the 184 child will benefit from joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both;

185 (b) the ability of the parents to give first priority to the welfare of the child and reach
186 shared decisions in the child's best interest;

187 ~~[(c) whether each parent is capable of encouraging and accepting a positive~~
188 ~~relationship between the child and the other parent, including the sharing of love, affection, and~~
189 ~~contact between the child and the other parent;]~~

190 (c) co-parenting skills, including:

191 (i) ability to appropriately communicate with the other parent;

192 (ii) ability to encourage the sharing of love and affection; and

193 (iii) willingness to allow frequent and continuous contact between the child and the
194 other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect the child
195 from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be taken into 196 consideration; and

197 (d) whether both parents participated in raising the child before the divorce;

- 198 (e) the geographical proximity of the homes of the parents;
- 199 (f) the preference of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason so
- 200 as to form an intelligent preference as to joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both;
- 201 (g) the maturity of the parents and their willingness and ability to protect the child from
- 202 conflict that may arise between the parents;
- 203 (h) the past and present ability of the parents to cooperate with each other and make
- 204 decisions jointly; and
- 205 ~~[(i) any history of, or potential for, child abuse, spouse abuse, or kidnaping; and]~~
- 206 [(j)] (i) any other [~~factors~~] factor the court finds relevant.

207 (3) The determination of the best interest of the child shall be by a preponderance of 208 the evidence.

209 (4) The court shall inform both parties that an order for joint physical custody may

210 preclude eligibility for cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Employment

211 Support Act.

212 (5) The court may order that [~~where~~] when possible the parties attempt to settle future

213 disputes by a dispute resolution method before seeking enforcement or modification of the

214 terms and conditions of the order of joint legal custody or joint physical custody through

215 litigation, except in emergency situations requiring ex parte orders to protect the child.

216 Section 3. Section 30-3-10.4 is amended to read:

217 30-3-10.4. Modification or termination of order.

218 (1) On the petition of one or both of the parents, or the joint legal or physical

219 custodians if they are not the parents, the court may, after a hearing, modify or terminate an

220 order that established joint legal custody or joint physical custody if:

221 (a) the verified petition or accompanying affidavit initially alleges that admissible

222 evidence will show that the circumstances of the child or one or both parents or joint legal or

223 physical custodians have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order to be

224 modified;

225 (b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement

226 for and in the best interest of the child; and

227 (c) (i) both parents have complied in good faith with the dispute resolution procedure
228 in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10.3(7); or

229 (ii) if no dispute resolution procedure is contained in the order that established joint 230 legal custody or joint physical custody, the court orders the parents to participate in a dispute
231 resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10.2(5) unless the parents certify that,
232 in good faith, they have used a dispute resolution procedure to resolve their dispute.

233 (2) (a) In determining whether the best interest of a child will be served by either 234 modifying or terminating the joint legal custody or joint physical custody order, the court shall,
235 in addition to other factors the court considers relevant, consider the factors outlined in Section
236 30-3-10 and Subsection 30-3-10.2(2).

237 (b) A court order modifying or terminating an existing joint legal custody or joint 238 physical custody order shall contain written findings that:

239 (i) a material and substantial change of circumstance has occurred; and

240 (ii) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement
241 for and in the best interest of the child.

242 (c) The court shall give substantial weight to the existing joint legal custody or joint 243 physical custody order when the child is thriving, happy, and well-adjusted.

244 (3) The court shall, in every case regarding a petition for termination of a joint legal 245 custody or joint physical custody order, consider reasonable alternatives to preserve the 246 existing order in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10~~(1)(b)~~(3). The court may modify the 247 terms and conditions of the existing order in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10~~(5)~~(8) and 248 may order the parents to file a parenting plan in accordance with this chapter.

249 (4) A parent requesting a modification from sole custody to joint legal custody or joint 250 physical custody or both, or any other type of shared parenting arrangement, shall file and serve
251 a proposed parenting plan with the petition to modify in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8.

252 (5) If the court finds that an action under this section is filed or answered frivolously
253 and in a manner designed to harass the other party, the court shall assess attorney fees as costs

254 against the offending party.

255 (6) ~~[When]~~ If an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of 256 deployment of one or both parents who are servicemembers, and the servicemember has not yet
257 been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in Sections
258 ~~78B-20-306~~ through ~~78B-20-309~~.

259 Section 4. Section ~~30-3-32~~ is amended to read:

260 ~~30-3-32. Parent-time -- Intent -- Policy -- Definitions.~~

261 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to promote parent-time at a level consistent with 262 all parties' interests.

263 (2) (a) A court shall consider as primary the safety and well-being of the child and the 264 parent who experiences domestic or family violence.

265 (b) Absent a showing by a preponderance of evidence of real harm or substantiated
266 potential harm to the child:

267 (i) it is in the best interests of the child of divorcing, divorced, or adjudicated parents to 268 have frequent, meaningful, and continuing access to each parent following separation or 269 divorce;

270 (ii) each divorcing, separating, or adjudicated parent is entitled to and responsible for 271 frequent, meaningful, and continuing access with the parent's child consistent with the child's 272 best interests; and

273 (iii) it is in the best interests of the child to have both parents actively involved in 274 parenting the child.

275 (c) An order issued by a court pursuant to Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant
276 Abuse Act, shall be considered evidence of real harm or substantiated potential harm to the 277 child.

278 (3) For purposes of ~~[Sections 30-3-32]~~ this section through Section 30-3-37:

279 (a) "Child" means the child or children of divorcing, separating, or adjudicated parents.

280 (b) Subject to Subsection (5), "Christmas school vacation" means:

281 (i) for a single child, the time period beginning on the evening the child is released

282 from school for the Christmas or winter school break and ending the evening before the child 283 returns to school; and

284 (ii) for multiple children when the children's school schedules differ, at the option of 285 the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the time period [~~beginning~~]
286 may begin on the first evening all children's schools are released for the Christmas or winter
287 school break and [~~ending~~] end the evening before any of the children returns to school.

288 (c) "Extended parent-time" means a period of parent-time other than a weekend,
289 holiday as provided in Subsections 30-3-35(2)(f) and (2)(g), religious holidays as provided in 290 Subsections 30-3-33(3) and (17), and "Christmas school vacation."

291 (d) "Supervised parent-time" means parent-time that requires the noncustodial parent to 292 be accompanied during parent-time by an individual approved by the court.

293 (e) "Surrogate care" means care by any individual other than the parent of the child.

294 (f) "Uninterrupted time" means parent-time exercised by one parent without 295 interruption at any time by the presence of the other parent.

296 (g) "Virtual parent-time" means parent-time facilitated by tools such as telephone, 297 email, instant messaging, video conferencing, and other wired or wireless technologies over the 298 Internet or other communication media to supplement in-person visits between a noncustodial 299 parent and a child or between a child and the custodial parent when the child is staying with the 300 noncustodial parent. Virtual parent-time is designed to supplement, not replace, in-person 301 parent-time.

302 (4) If a parent relocates because of an act of domestic violence or family violence by 303 the other parent, the court shall make specific findings and orders with regards to the 304 application of Section 30-3-37.

305 (5) A Christmas school vacation shall be divided equally as required by Section 306 30-3-35.

307 Section 5. Section 30-3-34 is amended to read:

308 30-3-34. Parent-time -- Best interests -- Rebuttable presumption.

309 (1) If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, the court may establish 310 a parent-time schedule consistent with the best interests of the child.

311 (2) The advisory guidelines as provided in Section 30-3-33 and the parent-time
312 schedule as provided in Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5 shall be presumed to be in the best
313 interests of the child unless the court determines that Section 30-3-35.1 should apply. The 314 parent-time schedule shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial
315 parent and the child shall be entitled unless a parent can establish otherwise by a preponderance
316 of the evidence that more or less parent-time should be awarded based upon ~~[any]~~ one or more
317 of the following criteria:

318 (a) parent-time would endanger the child's physical health or mental health, or 319 significantly impair the child's emotional development;

320 (b) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
321 abuse, involving the child, a parent, or a household member of the parent;

322 ~~[(b)]~~ (c) the distance between the residency of the child and the noncustodial parent;

323 ~~[(c)]~~ (d) a ~~[substantiated or unfounded]~~ credible allegation of child abuse has been 324 made;

325 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) the lack of demonstrated parenting skills without safeguards to ensure the 326 child's well-being during parent-time;

327 ~~[(e)]~~ (f) the financial inability of the noncustodial parent to provide adequate food and 328 shelter for the child during periods of parent-time;

329 ~~[(f)]~~ (g) the preference of the child if the court determines the child ~~[to be]~~ is of 330 sufficient maturity;

331 ~~[(g)]~~ (h) the incarceration of the noncustodial parent in a county jail, secure youth
332 corrections facility, or an adult corrections facility;

333 ~~[(h)]~~ (i) shared interests between the child and the noncustodial parent;

334 ~~[(i)]~~ (j) the involvement or lack of involvement of the noncustodial parent in the 335 school, community, religious, or other related activities of the child;

336 ~~[(j)]~~ (k) the availability of the noncustodial parent to care for the child when the 337 custodial parent is unavailable to do so because of work or other circumstances;

338 ~~[(k)]~~ (l) a substantial and chronic pattern of missing, canceling, or denying regularly
339 scheduled parent-time;

340 ~~[(t)]~~ (m) the minimal duration of and lack of significant bonding in the parents'
341 relationship ~~[prior to]~~ before the conception of the child;

342 ~~[(m)]~~ (n) the parent-time schedule of siblings;

343 ~~[(n)]~~ (o) the lack of reasonable alternatives to the needs of a nursing child; and

344 ~~[(o)]~~ (p) any other criteria the court determines relevant to the best interests of the 345 child.

346 (3) The court shall enter the reasons underlying ~~[its]~~ the court's order for parent-time 347 that:

348 (a) incorporates a parent-time schedule provided in Section 30-3-35 or 30-3-35.5; or

349 (b) provides more or less parent-time than a parent-time schedule provided in Section
350 30-3-35 or 30-3-35.5.

351 (4) Once the parent-time schedule has been established, the parties may not alter the 352 schedule except by mutual consent of the parties or a court order.

353 Section 6. Section 30-3-35 is amended to read:

354 30-3-35. Minimum schedule for parent-time for children 5 to 18 years of age.

355 (1) The parent-time schedule in this section applies to children 5 to 18 years of age.

356 (2) If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule shall be 357 considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be 358 entitled.

359 (a) (i) (A) One weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court,
360 or Wednesday evening if not specified, from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.;

361 (B) at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday from the time the child's 362 school is regularly dismissed until 8:30 p.m., unless the court directs the application of 363 Subsection (2)(a)(i); or

364 (C) at the election of the noncustodial parent, if school is not in session, one weekday
365 from approximately 9 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule, until 8:30

366 p.m. if the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child, unless the court directs the 367 application of Subsection (2)(a)(i)(A) or (2)(a)(i)(B).

368 (ii) Once the election of the weekday for the weekday evening parent-time is made, it
369 may not be changed except by mutual written agreement or court order.

370 (b) (i) (A) Alternating weekends beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the 371 decree from 6 p.m. on Friday until 7 p.m. on Sunday continuing each year;

372 (B) at the election of the noncustodial parent, from the time the child's school is 373 regularly dismissed on Friday until 7 p.m. on Sunday, unless the court directs the application of 374 Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A); or

375 (C) at the election of the noncustodial parent, if school is not in session, on Friday from 376 approximately 9 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule, until 7 p.m. on 377 Sunday, if the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child unless the court directs the 378 application of Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) or (2)(b)(i)(B).

379 (ii) A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the 380 noncustodial parent, may pick up the child if the custodial parent is aware of the identity of the 381 individual, and the parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

382 (iii) An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the 383 divorce decree or court order, and may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the 384 noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule.

385 (iv) Weekends include any "snow" days, teacher development days, or other days when 386 school is not scheduled and which are contiguous to the weekend period.

387 (c) Holidays include any "snow" days, teacher development days after the children
388 begin the school year, or other days when school is not scheduled, contiguous to the holiday
389 period, and take precedence over the weekend parent-time. Changes may not be made to the 390 regular rotation of the alternating weekend parent-time schedule, however:

561 constitute the parent-time schedule with the exception that all instances that require the

562 noncustodial parent to return the child at any time after 6 p.m. be changed so that the 563 noncustodial parent is required to return the child to school the next morning or at 8 a.m., if 584 application of Subsection (6)(a).

585 (10) Birthdays take precedence over holidays and extended parent-time, except 586 Mother's Day and Father's Day. Birthdays do not take precedence over uninterrupted 587 parent-time if the parent exercising uninterrupted time is out of town for the uninterrupted
588 extended parent-time. At the discretion of the noncustodial parent, other siblings may be taken 589 along for birthdays.

590 (11) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(b), the Halloween holiday may not be extended

613 (4) (a) [~~Where~~] When a support, custody, or parent-time award has been made by a
614 district court in a divorce action or other proceeding, and the jurisdiction of the district court in 615 the case is continuing, the juvenile court may acquire jurisdiction in a case involving the same 616 child if the child is dependent, abused, neglected, or otherwise comes within the jurisdiction of 617 the juvenile court under Section 78A-6-103.

618 (b) The juvenile court may, by order, change the custody, subject to Subsection
619 30-3-10~~(4)~~(6), support, parent-time, and visitation rights previously ordered in the district

622 continues.

623 (c) ~~When~~ If a copy of the findings and order of the juvenile court has been filed with 624 the district court, the findings and order of the juvenile court are binding on the parties to the

626 (5) The juvenile court has jurisdiction over questions of custody, support, and 627 parent-time of a minor who comes within the court's jurisdiction under this section or Section

636 (2) A respondent may not join a proceeding described in Subsection (1) with a
