23 JR3-4-102

24 JR4-3-110

26 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

27 Section 1. JR3-4-102 is enacted to read:

28 JR3-4-102. Repeal of committee -- Review.

- 29 (1) This chapter is repealed July 1, 2023.
- 30 (2) The Economic Development and Workforce Services Interim Committee shall:
- 31 (a) review this chapter during the 2022 interim to evaluate whether the International
- 32 Relations and Trade Committee created in this chapter should continue to function; and
- 33 (b) if the committee determines the International Relations and Trade Committee
- 34 should continue to function, prepare legislation to amend or repeal Subsection (1) accordingly.

35 Section 2. JR4-3-110 is enacted to read:

36 JR4-3-110. Legislation increasing legislative workload -- Legislative Management

37 Committee review -- Sunset dates.

- 38 (1) (a) As used in this section, "increases legislative workload" means to:
- 39 (i) place a member of the Legislature on a board, commission, task force, or other
- 40 body; or
- 41 (ii) give authority to a member of the Legislative Management Committee to appoint a
- 42 member of a board, commission, task force, or other body.

43 (b) "Increases legislative workload" includes reauthorizing an existing provision

44 described in Subsection (1)(a).

45 (2) (a) The Legislative Management Committee shall review legislation that increases

46 legislative workload:

- 47 (i) in accordance with Subsection (2)(b); and
- 48 (ii) if practicable, before the legislation passes both houses of the Legislature.

49 (b) When reviewing legislation that increases legislative workload, the Legislative

50 Management Committee shall consider:

- 51 (i) the funding required by the legislation;
- 52 (ii) the staffing resources required to implement the legislation;
- 53 (iii) the time legislators and legislative staff will be required to commit as a result of
- 54 the legislation;
- 55 (iv) if the legislation creates or reauthorizes a board, commission, task force, or other

56 body, whether the responsibilities of that board, commission, task force, or other body could 57 reasonably be accomplished through an existing entity or without legislation; and

58 (v) whether the legislation complies with Subsection (3).

59 (c) The Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel shall assist the Legislative 60 Management Committee in identifying:

61 (i) legislation that increases legislative workload; and

62 (ii) information described in Subsection (2)(b) related to legislation that increases
63 legislative workload.

64 (3) Legislation that increases legislative workload shall include a sunset or repeal date
65 on the provision that creates the board, commission, task force, or other body that is related to 66 the increase.

67 Section 3. Effective date.

68 This resolution takes effect on May 14, 2019.
