596 credit, the allowance is an amount equal to 2% of the retiree's final average monthly salary
597 multiplied by the number of years of service credit accrued.

598 (b) If the retiree is less than 65 years of age, the allowance shall be reduced 3% for 599 each year of retirement from age 60 to age 65, plus a full actuarial reduction for each year of 600 retirement prior to age 60, unless the member has 30 or more years of accrued credit, in which 601 event no reduction is made to the allowance.

602 (c) (i) Years of service include any fractions of years of service to which the retiree
603 may be entitled.

604 (ii) At the time of retirement, if a retiree's combined years of actual, not purchased,
605 service credit is within 1/10 of one year of the total years of service credit required for
606 retirement, the retiree shall be considered to have the total years of service credit required for 607 retirement.

608 (d) An Option One allowance is only payable to the member during the member's
609 lifetime.

610 (3) The allowance payable under Options Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six is calculated
611 by reducing an Option One benefit based on actuarial computations to provide the following:

612 (a) Option Two is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the
613 retiree, and, if the retiree receives less in annuity payments than the amount of the retiree's
614 member contributions, the remaining balance of the retiree's member contributions shall be
615 paid in accordance with Sections 49-11-609 and 49-11-610.

618 the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

619 (c) Option Four is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 620 retiree, and upon the death of the retiree, an amount equal to one-half of the retiree's allowance
621 paid to and throughout the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

622 (d) Option Five is a modification of Option Three so that if the lawful spouse at the 623 time of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the
624 time of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the 625 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

626 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
627 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

629 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
630 after the spouse's death.

631 (e) Option Six is a modification of Option Four so that if the lawful spouse at the time
632 of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the time
633 of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the 634 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

635 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
636 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

637 (ii) notification and supporting documentation for the death are received by the office,
638 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
639 after the spouse's death.

640 (4) (a) (i) The final average salary is limited in the computation of that part of an 641 allowance based on service rendered prior to July 1, 1967, during a period when the retiree

647 (b) Periods of employment which are exempt from this system as permitted under

648 Subsection 49-13-203(1)(b) may be purchased by the member for the purpose of retirement 649 only if all benefits from a public or private system, organization, or company designated by the 650 State Board of Regents based on this period of employment are forfeited.

651 (5) (a) If a retiree under Option One dies within 90 days after the retiree's retirement
652 date, the retirement is canceled and the death shall be considered as that of a member before
653 retirement.

654 (b) Any payments made to the retiree shall be deducted from the amounts due to the
655 beneficiary.

656 (6) (a) If a retiree retires under either Option Five or Six and subsequently divorces, the

659 (b) A conversion to an Option One benefit under this Subsection (6) begins on the first
660 day of the month following the month in which the notification and supporting documentation
661 for the divorce are received by the office.

662 (7) A retiree may not choose payment of an allowance under a retirement option
663 described in this section that is not applicable to that retiree, including because the retiree did
664 not make member contributions or does not have a lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

665 Section 8. Section 49-13-406 is amended to read:

671 basis of compensation actually received by the member during the period of elective or 672 appointive service.

673 (2) (a) A justice court judge who has service with only one participating employer shall 674 be [~~considered~~] determined to be part-time or full-time by the office [as] after a review of the 690 participating employers by the judge during the total period of full-time service.

691 (c) If a justice court judge has part-time service performed that is not within a period
692 considered full-time service under Subsection (3)(a), the office shall compute a separate

807 levels, and system structure, that the system:

- 808 (i) cannot reasonably be sustained under its current provisions;
809 (ii) is critically underfunded; and
810 (iii) has become unstable and is in risk of collapse.

811 (b) Subject to federal law, the adjustments under Subsection (3)(a) may include:

832 choose from the six retirement options described in this section.

833 (b) Options Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six are modifications of the Option One 834 calculation.

835 (2) The Option One benefit is an annual allowance calculated as follows:

836 (a) If the retiree is at least 65 years of age or has accrued at least 25 years of service
837 credit, the allowance is an amount equal to 1.5% of the retiree's final average salary multiplied
838 by the number of years of service credit accrued on and after July 1, 2011.

839 (b) If the retiree is less than 65 years of age, the allowance shall be reduced by the full 840 actuarial amount for each year of retirement from age 60 to age 65, unless the member has 25
841 or more years of accrued credit in which event no reduction is made to the allowance.

842 (c) (i) Years of service includes any fractions of years of service to which the retiree
843 may be entitled.

844 (ii) At the time of retirement, if a retiree's combined years of actual, not purchased,
845 service credit is within 1/10 of one year of the total years of service credit required for 846 retirement, the retiree shall be considered to have the total years of service credit required for 847 retirement.

848 (d) An Option One allowance is only payable to the member during the member's
849 lifetime.

850 (3) The allowance payable under Options Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six is calculated
851 by reducing an Option One benefit based on actuarial computations to provide the following:

852 (a) Option Two is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the
853 retiree, and, if the retiree receives less in annuity payments than the amount of the retiree's
854 member contributions, the remaining balance of the retiree's member contributions shall be
855 paid in accordance with Sections 49-11-609 and 49-11-610.

856 (b) Option Three is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 857 retiree, and, upon the death of the retiree, the same reduced allowance is paid to and throughout 858 the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

859 (c) Option Four is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 860 retiree, and upon the death of the retiree, an amount equal to 1/2 of the retiree's allowance is 861 paid to and throughout the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

862 (d) Option Five is a modification of Option Three so that if the lawful spouse at the 863 time of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the 864 time of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the

865 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

866 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
867 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

868 (ii) notification and supporting documentation for the death are received by the office,
869 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
870 after the spouse's death.

871 (e) Option Six is a modification of Option Four so that if the lawful spouse at the time
872 of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the time
873 of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the 874 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

875 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
876 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

877 (ii) notification and supporting documentation for the death are received by the office,
878 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
879 after the spouse's death.

880 (4) (a) If a retiree under Option One dies within 120 days after the retiree's retirement
881 date, the retirement is canceled and the death shall be considered as that of a member before
882 retirement.

883 (b) Any payments made to the retiree shall be deducted from the amounts due to the
884 beneficiary.

885 (5) (a) If a retiree retires under either Option Five or Six and subsequently divorces, the
886 retiree may elect to convert the benefit to an Option One benefit at the time of divorce, if there 887 is no court order filed in the matter.

888 (b) A conversion to an Option One benefit under this Subsection (5) begins on the first
889 day of the month following the month in which the notification and supporting documentation
890 for the divorce are received by the office.

891 (6) A retiree may not choose payment of an allowance under a retirement option
892 described in this section that is not applicable to that retiree, including because the retiree did
893 not make member contributions or does not have a lawful spouse at the time of retirement.
