- (xiii) Section 59-10-1111.

(d) (i) In addition to the reviews described in this Subsection (3), the committee shall conduct a review of a tax credit described in this chapter that is enacted on or after January 1, 2017.

(ii) The committee shall complete a review described in this Subsection (3)(d) three years after the effective date of the tax credit and every three years after the initial review date.

Section 2. Section 59-10-1002.2 is amended to read:

59-10-1002.2. Apportionment of tax credits.

(1) A nonresident individual or a part-year resident individual that claims a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017, 59-10-1018, 59-10-1019, 59-10-1022, 59-10-1023, 59-10-1024, [or] 59-10-1028, or ~~{59-10-1028}~~59-10-1041 may only claim an apportioned amount of the tax credit equal to:

- (a) for a nonresident individual, the product of:
 - (i) the state income tax percentage for the nonresident individual; and
 - (ii) the amount of the tax credit that the nonresident individual would have been

HB0447S01 compared with HB0447

allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section; or

(b) for a part-year resident individual, the product of:

(i) the state income tax percentage for the part-year resident individual; and

(ii) the amount of the tax credit that the part-year resident individual would have been allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section.

(2) A nonresident estate or trust that claims a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017, 59-10-1020, 59-10-1022, 59-10-1024, or 59-10-1028 may only claim an apportioned amount of the tax credit equal to the product of:

(a) the state income tax percentage for the nonresident estate or trust; and

(b) the amount of the tax credit that the nonresident estate or trust would have been allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section.

Section ~~{2}~~3. Section 59-10-1041 is enacted to read:

59-10-1041. Adoption tax credit.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Adoption expense" means a reasonable and necessary adoption fee, court cost, attorney fee, or other expense that is:

(i) directly related to, and for the principal purpose of, adoption of a qualifying child through a domestic adoption;

(ii) not incurred in violation of state or federal law or in carrying out any surrogate parenting arrangement; and

(iii) not paid or reimbursed by an employer or state assistance program.

(b) "Domestic adoption" means an adoption ~~{completed entirely within}~~ of a child who is a United States citizen or a resident of the United States or its possessions before the adoption effort begins.

(c) (i) "Qualifying child" means an individual who:

(A) is under the age of 18; or

(B) is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself or herself.

(ii) "Qualifying child" does not include an individual who is the child of the claimant's spouse.

(d) "Qualifying claimant" means an individual whose adjusted gross income is:

(i) for a claimant who files a federal income tax return jointly with the claimant's

HB0447S01 compared with HB0447

spouse, $160,000 or less; or

(ii) for a claimant who files a federal income tax return other than jointly with the claimant's spouse, $80,000.

(2) A claimant may claim, in the taxable year in which the adoption is finalized, a nonrefundable tax credit equal to the amount of the claimant's adoption expenses.

(3) A claimant may carry forward, to the next five taxable years, the amount of any tax credit that exceeds the claimant's tax liability for the taxable year.

(4) A claimant may not claim a credit under this section to the extent that the claimant claims a federal tax credit under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 23 for the same adoption expense.

(5) A claimant who is married may claim a tax credit under this section only if the claimant and the claimant's spouse file a joint federal income tax return.

Section ~~{3}~~4. Section 62A-4a-607 is amended to read:

62A-4a-607. Promotion of adoption -- Agency notice to potential adoptive parents.

(1) (a) The division and all child-placing agencies licensed under this part shall promote adoption when that is a possible and appropriate alternative for a child. Specifically, in accordance with Section 62A-4a-205.6, the division shall actively promote the adoption of all children in [its] the division's custody who have a final plan for termination of parental rights pursuant to Section 78A-6-314 or a primary permanency plan of adoption.

(b) Beginning May 1, 2000, the division may not place a child for adoption, either temporarily or permanently, with any individual or individuals who do not qualify for adoptive placement pursuant to the requirements of Sections 78B-6-117, 78B-6-102, and 78B-6-137.

(2) The division shall obtain or conduct research of prior adoptive families to determine what families may do to be successful with their adoptive children and shall make this research available to potential adoptive parents.

(3) (a) A child-placing agency licensed under this part shall inform each potential adoptive parent with whom [it] the child-placing agency is working that:

(i) children in the custody of the state are available for adoption;

(ii) Medicaid coverage for medical, dental, and mental health services may be available for these children;

(iii) tax benefits, including the tax credit provided for in Section [~~59-10-1104~~]

HB0447S01 compared with HB0447

59-10-1041, and financial assistance may be available to defray the costs of adopting these children;

(iv) training and ongoing support may be available to the adoptive parents of these children; and

(v) information about individual children may be obtained by contacting the division's offices or its Internet site as explained by the child-placing agency.

(b) A child-placing agency shall:

(i) provide the notice required by Subsection (3)(a) at the earliest possible opportunity; and

(ii) simultaneously distribute a copy of the pamphlet prepared by the division in accordance with Subsection (3)(d).

(c) As a condition of licensure, the child-placing agency shall certify to the Office of Licensing at the time of license renewal that it has complied with the provisions of this section.

(d) Before July 1, 2000, the division shall:

(i) prepare a pamphlet that explains the information that is required by Subsection (3)(a); and

(ii) regularly distribute copies of the pamphlet described in Subsection (3)(d)(i) to child-placing agencies.

(e) The division shall respond to any inquiry made as a result of the notice provided in Subsection (3)(a).

Section ~~4~~5. Repealer.

This bill repeals:

Section 59-10-1104, Tax credit for adoption of a child who has a special need.

Section ~~5~~6. Retrospective operation.

This bill has retrospective operation for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2019.
