

HCR020S02 compared with HCR020S01

~~{deleted text}~~ shows text that was in HCR020S01 but was deleted in HCR020S02.

Inserted text shows text that was not in HCR020S01 but was inserted into HCR020S02.

DISCLAIMER: This document is provided to assist you in your comparison of the two bills. Sometimes this automated comparison will NOT be completely accurate. Therefore, you need to read the actual bills. This automatically generated document could contain inaccuracies caused by: limitations of the compare program; bad input data; or other causes.

Representative Jeffrey D. Stenquist proposes the following substitute bill:

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ~~{RECOMMENDING}~~REGARDING THE STATUE

OF PHILO T. FARNSWORTH~~{BE DONATED}~~

2019 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Chief Sponsor: Jeffrey D. Stenquist

Senate Sponsor: _____

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This concurrent resolution recommends that the statue of Philo T. Farnsworth that is currently on display in the National Statuary Hall be ~~{donated to a museum}~~ found a permanent and honorable home in the state of Utah.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- ▶ recognizes Philo T. Farnsworth's contributions to the world;
- ▶ recognizes Philo T. Farnsworth as a symbol for the state of Utah; and
- ▶ recommends that the statue of Philo T. Farnsworth that is currently on display in the

HCR020S02 compared with HCR020S01

National Statuary Hall be ~~{donated to}~~ found a permanent and honorable home in the ~~{Smithsonian Institution or another suitable museum}~~ state of Utah.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, Philo T. Farnsworth made truly amazing contributions to society that are worth recognizing, celebrating, and memorializing;

WHEREAS, Philo overcame substantial obstacles and persevered in his quest to become an inventor to change the course of human history;

WHEREAS, Philo received more than 200 patents, include patents for:

(1) the image dissector tube and the receiver that reassembled broadcasted images, upon which today's television and wireless broadcast technology is based;

(2) the incubator, which has saved hundreds of thousands of premature infants;

(3) an electronic microscope;

(4) an infrared night scope; and

(5) many other important inventions that profoundly changed the world and are still affecting our culture;

WHEREAS, at the end of his life, Philo focused on developing cold fusion technology -- for which he received two patents and developed a working model -- but died before he could consummate another world-changing invention;

WHEREAS, Philo was self-educated, yet managed to achieve recognition by the most gifted scientists of his day;

WHEREAS, Philo was born in Beaver, Utah, grew up poor in rural Utah, had substantial ties to the state of Utah, and is an excellent emissary and symbol for the state of Utah;

WHEREAS, both Philo and his wife Pemberly are buried in Utah;

WHEREAS, Pemberly spent the last 30 years of her life fighting for the recognition Philo deserved;

WHEREAS, when the fifth grade class at Ridgecrest Elementary School sought input from the public regarding which public figure should represent the state of Utah in the National

HCR020S02 compared with HCR020S01

Statuary Hall of the national capitol building, hundreds of survey responses from around the state were submitted indicating a strong desire that Philo should be that representative;

WHEREAS, the children of Ridgecrest Elementary School successfully petitioned the state Legislature to commission the creation and placement of the statue of Philo that is currently on display in the National Statuary Hall;

WHEREAS, Utah's school children collected substantial funds to pay for the statue, led by the students at Ridgecrest Elementary School;

WHEREAS, the idea to place the statue of Philo was discussed for several years and many advocates worked vigorously over that time to ensure Philo was selected; and

WHEREAS, when the statue of Philo is removed from the National Statuary Hall, the statue deserves to be treated with the dignity and respect that Philo deserves:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, recommends that the statue of Philo T. Farnsworth that is currently located in the National Statuary Hall be ~~donated to the Smithsonian Institution.~~

~~BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the state work with representatives from the Smithsonian Institution to negotiate the donation to ensure that the statue of Philo is given the recognition, dignity, and respect it deserves.~~

~~BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if the state is unable to successfully negotiate the donation of the statue of Philo to the Smithsonian Institution, that the state find another suitable museum to donate the statue to, to ensure it is given the recognition, dignity, and respect it deserves.~~

~~BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be mailed to the director and deputy director of the National Museum of American History within the Smithsonian Institution.~~ found a permanent and honorable home in the state of Utah.