38 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

39 Section 1. Section 25-6-502 is amended to read:

40 25-6-502. Asset protection trust.

41 (1) As used in this section:

42 (a) "Creditor" means:

43 (i) a creditor or other claimant of the settlor existing when the trust is created; or

44 (ii) a person who subsequently becomes a creditor, including, whether or not reduced
45 to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed,
46 undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured:

47 (A) one holding or seeking to enforce a judgment entered by a court or other body
48 having adjudicative authority; or

49 (B) one with a right to payment.

50 (b) "Domestic support obligation" means:

51 (i) a child support judgment or order;

52 (ii) a spousal support judgment or order; or

53 (iii) an unsatisfied claim arising from a property division in a divorce proceeding.

54 (c) "Insolvent" means:

55 (i) having generally ceased to pay debts in the ordinary course of business other than as 56 a result of a bona fide dispute;

57 (ii) being unable to pay debts as they become due; or

58 (iii) being insolvent within the meaning of federal bankruptcy law.

59 [~~(b)~~] (d) (i) "Property" means real property, personal property, and interests in real or 60 personal property.

61 (ii) "Personal property" includes intangible and tangible personal property.

62 [~~(c)~~] (e) "Settlor" means a person who transfers property in trust.

63 [~~(d)~~] (f) "Transfer" means any form of transfer of property, including gratuitous
64 transfers, whether by deed, conveyance, or assignment.

65 [~~(e)~~] (g) "Trust" has the same meaning as in Section 75-1-201.

66 (2) "Paid and delivered" to the settlor, as beneficiary, does not include the settlor's use
67 or occupancy of real property or [~~tangible~~] personal property owned by the trust if the use or 68 occupancy is in accordance with the trustee's discretionary authority under the trust instrument.

69 (3) If the settlor of an irrevocable trust is also a beneficiary of the trust, and if the 70 requirements of Subsection (5) are satisfied, a creditor of the settlor may not:

71 (a) satisfy a claim or liability of the settlor in either law or equity out of the settlor's
72 transfer to the trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust;

73 (b) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary; or

74 (c) require the trustee to pay any distribution directly to the creditor, or otherwise
75 attach the distribution before it has been paid or delivered by the trustee to the settlor, as 76 beneficiary.

77 (4) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), nothing in this section:

78 (a) prohibits a creditor from satisfying a claim or liability from the distribution once it
79 has been paid or delivered by the trustee to the settlor, as beneficiary[-]; or

80 (b) nullifies or impairs a security interest that was granted by a settlor or a trustee with 81 respect to property that is transferred to the trust.

82 (5) In order for Subsection (3) to apply, the conditions in this Subsection (5) shall be 83 satisfied. Where this Subsection (5) requires that a provision be included in the trust 84 instrument, no particular language need be used in the trust instrument if the meaning of the 85 trust provision otherwise complies with this Subsection (5).

86 (a) An agreement or understanding, express or implied, between the settlor and the 87 trustee that attempts to grant or permit the retention by the settlor of greater rights or authority
88 than is stated in the trust instrument is void.

89 ~~[(a)]~~ (b) The trust instrument shall provide that the trust is governed by Utah law and is 90 established pursuant to this section.

91 ~~[(b)]~~ (c) The trust instrument shall require that at all times at least one trustee shall be a
92 Utah resident or Utah trust company, as the term "trust company" is defined in Section 7-5-1.

93 ~~[(c)]~~ (d) The trust instrument shall provide that neither the interest of the settlor, as 94 beneficiary, nor the income or principal of the trust may be voluntarily or involuntarily
95 transferred by the settlor, as beneficiary. The provision shall be considered to be a restriction
96 on the transfer of the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust that is enforceable under applicable
97 nonbankruptcy law within the meaning of ~~[Section]~~ 11 U.S.C. Sec. 541(c)(2) ~~[of the~~ 98 ~~Bankruptcy Code]~~.

99 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) The settlor may not have the ability under the trust instrument ~~[to revoke,~~
100 ~~amend, or terminate all or any part of the trust, or to withdraw property from the trust]~~, without 101 the consent of a person who has a substantial beneficial interest in the trust, which interest
102 would be adversely affected by the exercise of the power held by the settlor:

103 (i) to revoke, amend, or terminate all or any part of the trust; or

104 (ii) to withdraw any property from the trust, except that the settlor, without the 105 approval or consent of any person, may be given the power, under the trust agreement, to 106 substitute assets of substantially equivalent value.

107 ~~[(e)]~~ (f) The trust instrument may not provide for any mandatory distributions of either
108 income or principal to the settlor, as beneficiary, except as provided in Subsection (7)~~[(f)]~~(g).

109 ~~[(f) The settlor may not benefit from, direct a distribution of, or use trust property~~
110 ~~except as stated in the trust instrument. An agreement or understanding, express or implied,~~
111 ~~between the settlor and the trustee that attempts to grant or permit the retention of greater rights~~
112 ~~or authority than is stated in the trust instrument is void.]~~

113 (g) (i) The trust instrument shall require that, at least 30 days before ~~[making]~~ paying

114 and delivering any distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary, the trustee notify in writing every 115 person who has a [~~child support judgment or order~~] domestic support obligation against the 116 settlor.

117 (ii) The trust instrument shall require that the notice state the date the distribution will 118 be [~~made~~] paid and delivered and the amount of the distribution.

119 (h) At the time that the settlor transfers any assets to the trust, the settlor may not be in 120 default of making a payment due under [~~any child support judgment or order~~] a domestic 121 support obligation.

122 (i) A transfer of assets to the trust may not render the settlor insolvent.

123 (j) At the time the settlor transfers any assets to the trust, the settlor may not intend to 124 hinder, delay, or defraud a known creditor by transferring the assets to the trust. A settlor's 125 expressed intention to protect trust assets from the settlor's potential future creditors is not 126 evidence of an intent to hinder, delay, or defraud a known creditor.

127 [~~(k) At the time that the settlor transfers any assets to the trust, the settlor may not be~~
128 ~~contemplating filing for relief under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.~~]

129 [(+) (k) Assets transferred to the trust may not be derived from unlawful activities.

130 [~~(m) At the time the settlor transfers any assets~~]

131 (l) With respect to each transfer of assets to the trust, the settlor shall sign a sworn 132 affidavit stating that at the time of the transfer of the assets to the trust:

133 (i) the settlor has full right, title, and authority to transfer the assets to the trust;

134 (ii) the transfer of the assets to the trust will not render the settlor insolvent;

135 (iii) the settlor does not intend to hinder, delay, or defraud a known creditor by 136 transferring the assets to the trust;

137 (iv) there [~~are~~] is no pending or threatened court [~~actions~~] action against the settlor,
138 except for [~~those~~] a court [~~actions~~] action identified by the settlor on an attachment to the 139 affidavit;

140 (v) the settlor is not involved in [~~any~~] an administrative [~~proceedings~~] proceeding that
141 is reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of the settlor,

142 except ~~[those]~~ an administrative ~~[proceedings]~~ proceeding identified on an attachment to the 143 affidavit;

144 (vi) at the time of the transfer of the assets to the trust, the settlor is not in default of a
145 ~~[child]~~ domestic support obligation;

146 (vii) the settlor does not contemplate filing for relief under the provisions of ~~[the~~ 147 ~~Bankruptcy Code]~~ United States Code, Title 11, Bankruptcy; and 148 (viii) the assets being transferred to the trust were not derived from unlawful activities.

149 (6) Failure to satisfy the requirements of Subsection (5) shall result in the 150 consequences described in this Subsection (6).

151 (a) If any requirement of Subsections (5)~~(a)~~(b) through (g) is not satisfied, none of the 152 property held in the trust will at any time have the benefit of the protections described in 153 Subsection (3).

154 (b) If the trustee does not send the notice required under Subsection (5)(g), the court
155 may authorize any person with a ~~[child]~~ domestic support ~~[judgment or order]~~ obligation
156 against the settlor to whom notice was not sent to attach the distribution or future distributions, 157 but the person may not:

158 (i) satisfy a claim or liability in either law or equity out of the settlor's transfer to the 159 trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust; or

160 (ii) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary.

161 (c) If any requirement ~~[set forth]~~ described in Subsections (5)~~(h)~~(i) through ~~(m)~~ (l)
162 is not satisfied, the property transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement may 163 not have the benefit of the protections described in Subsection (3).

164 (d) If the requirement described in Subsection (5)(h) is not satisfied, the property
165 transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement does not have the benefit of the 166 protections described in Subsection (3) with respect to any person with a domestic support
167 obligation.

168 (e) A creditor of the settlor has the burden of proving that the requirement in 169 Subsection (5)(i) or (j) is not satisfied by clear and convincing evidence.

- 170 (7) The provisions of Subsection (3) may apply to a trust even if:
- 171 (a) the settlor serves as a cotrustee or as an advisor to the trustee, ~~[provided]~~ except that
- 172 the settlor may not ~~[participate in the determination as to]~~ determine whether a discretionary
- 173 distribution will be made;
- 174 (b) the settlor participates in a determination regarding whether a discretionary
- 175 distribution is made to the settlor by:
- 176 (i) requesting a distribution from the trust;
- 177 (ii) consulting with the trustees regarding whether a discretionary distribution will be
- 178 made;
- 179 (iii) exercising a right to consent to or veto the distribution under a power described in
- 180 Subsection (7)(e);
- 181 (iv) signing documentation in the settlor's capacity as a cotrustee that implements a
- 182 distribution when the other trustees use discretionary power to independently authorize a
- 183 distribution; or
- 184 (v) participating in an action authorizing a distribution if the other trustees can
- 185 authorize the distribution without the settlor's participation.
- 186 ~~[(b)]~~ (c) the settlor has the authority under the terms of the trust instrument to appoint a
- 187 nonsubordinate ~~[advisors]~~ advisor or a trust ~~[protectors]~~ protector who can remove and appoint
- 188 trustees and who can direct, consent to, or disapprove distributions;
- 189 ~~[(c)]~~ (d) the settlor has the power under the terms of the trust instrument to serve as an
- 190 investment director or to appoint an investment director under Section 75-7-906;
- 191 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) the trust instrument gives the settlor the power to consent to or veto a
- 192 distribution from the trust;
- 193 ~~[(e)]~~ (f) the trust instrument gives the settlor an inter vivos or a testamentary
- 194 nongeneral power of appointment or similar power;
- 195 ~~[(f)]~~ (g) the trust instrument gives the settlor the right to receive the following types of
- 196 distributions:
- 197 (i) income, principal, or both in the discretion of a person, including a trustee, other

198 than the settlor;

199 (ii) principal, subject to an ascertainable standard set forth in the trust;

200 (iii) income or principal from a charitable remainder annuity trust or charitable 201 remainder unitrust, as defined in 26 U.S.C. Sec. 664;

202 (iv) a percentage of the value of the trust each year as determined under the trust
203 instrument, but not exceeding the amount that may be defined as income under 26 U.S.C. Sec.
204 643(b);

205 (v) the transferor's potential or actual use of real property held under a qualified 206 personal residence trust, or potential or actual possession of a qualified annuity interest, within 207 the meaning of 26 U.S.C. Sec. 2702 and the accompanying regulations; [~~and~~]

208 (vi) income or principal from a grantor retained annuity trust or grantor retained
209 unitrust that is allowed under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 2702; [~~or~~] and 210 (vii) income from a trust intended to qualify for the federal estate tax or gift tax marital 211 deduction under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 2056(b)(7) or 2523(f);

212 [~~(g)~~] (h) the trust instrument authorizes the settlor to use real or personal property
213 owned by the trust[-]; or

214 (i) with respect to the property held in the trust, the settlor may:

215 (i) give a personal guarantee on a debt or obligation secured by the property;

216 (ii) make payments, directly or indirectly, on a debt or obligation secured by the

222 which payments will not be considered additional transfers to the trust for purposes of this 223 section.

224 (8) If a trust instrument contains the provisions described in Subsections [~~(5)(a)~~] (5)(b)
225 through (g), the transfer restrictions prevent a creditor or other person from asserting any cause

226 of action or claim for relief against a trustee of the trust or against others involved in the 227 counseling, drafting, preparation, execution, or funding of the trust for conspiracy to commit
 228 fraudulent conveyance or another voidable transfer, aiding and abetting a fraudulent
 229 conveyance or another voidable transfer, participation in the trust transaction, or similar cause
 230 of action or claim for relief. For purposes of this subsection, counseling, drafting, preparation,
 231 execution, or funding of the trust includes the preparation and funding of a limited partnership,
 232 a limited liability company, or other entity if interests in the entity are subsequently transferred
 233 to the trust. The creditor and other person prevented from asserting a cause of action or claim
 234 for relief may assert a cause of action against, and are limited to recourse against, only:

235 (a) the trust and the trust assets; and

236 (b) the settlor, to the extent otherwise allowed in this section.

237 (9) (a) A cause of action or claim for relief under Subsection (5)(i) or (j) is a cause of 238 action or claim for relief under Section 25-6-202 or 25-6-203.

239 (b) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(a), a cause of action or claim for relief under 240 this section is not a cause of action or claim for relief under Sections 25-6-101 through 241 25-6-407.

242 ~~[(9) A] (c) Notwithstanding Section 25-6-305, a cause of action or claim for relief~~
 243 ~~regarding a fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer of a settlor's assets under~~ 244 ~~[Subsection (5)(j)] this section is extinguished unless the action [~~under Subsection (5)(j)~~] is~~
 245 ~~brought by a creditor of the settlor who was a creditor of the settlor before the assets [~~referred~~~~ 246 ~~to in Subsection (5)(j)] in question were transferred to the trust and the action [~~under~~~~ 247 ~~Subsection (5)(j)] is brought within the earlier of:~~

248 ~~[(a)] (i) the later of [~~(i)~~] two years after the transfer is made[~~;~~], or [~~(ii)~~] one year after~~
 249 ~~the transfer is or reasonably could have been discovered by the creditor if the creditor:~~

250 (A) can demonstrate, by [~~a preponderance of the evidence~~] clear and convincing 251 evidence, that the creditor asserted a specific claim against the settlor before the transfer; or

252 (B) files another action, other than an action [~~under Subsection (5)(j);~~] alleging a 253 fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer against the settlor that asserts a claim based

254 on an act or omission of the settlor that occurred before the transfer, and the action described in 255 ~~[this]~~ Subsection (9)(c) is filed within two years after the transfer~~[-]; or~~

256 ~~[(b)(i)]~~ (ii) (A) with respect to a creditor known to the settlor, 120 days after the date
257 on which notice of the transfer is mailed to the creditor, which notice shall state the name and 258 address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name and address of the trustee or the 259 trustee's representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to 260 state the value of those assets if the assets are other than cash, and which shall inform the 261 creditor that ~~[he]~~ the creditor is required to ~~[present his]~~ bring the creditor's cause of action or 262 claim [to both] for relief against the settlor and the trustee within 120 days from the mailing of 263 the notice or be forever barred; or

264 ~~[(ii)]~~ (B) with respect to a creditor not known to the settlor, 120 days after the date on 265 which notice of the transfer is first published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 266 county in which the settlor then resides, or is published on a public legal notice website as 267 defined in Section 45-1-101, which notice shall state the name ~~[and]~~ of the settlor or the 268 settlor's representative, the address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name ~~[and]~~ 269 of the trustee or the trustee's representative, the address of the trustee or the trustee's 270 representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to state the 271 value of those assets ~~[if the assets are other than cash]~~.

272 (10) (a) The notice required in Subsection ~~[(9)(b)]~~ (9)(c)(ii)(B) shall be published in 273 accordance with the provisions of Section 45-1-101 for three consecutive weeks and inform 274 creditors that they are required to ~~[present claims]~~ bring a cause of action or claim for relief
275 within 120 days from the first publication of the notice or be forever barred.

276 (b) Failure to give the notice required in Subsection (9)(c)(ii) to a creditor does not 277 prevent the shortening of the limitations period under Subsection (9)(c)(ii) with respect to 278 another creditor who properly received notice by mail or publication.

279 (11) (a) A trust is subject to this section if it is governed by Utah law, as provided in 280 Section 75-7-107, and if it otherwise meets the requirements of this section.

281 (b) A court of this state has exclusive jurisdiction over an action or claim for relief that

282 is based on a transfer of property to a trust that is the subject of this section.

283 (12) (a) With respect to a trust that is subject to this section, a claim brought by a
284 creditor of a beneficiary who is not the settlor is subject to Section 75-7-501 et. seq.

285 (b) With respect to an irrevocable trust that is not subject to this section, a claim 286 brought by a creditor of a beneficiary who is the settlor is subject to the provisions of 287 Subsection 75-7-505(2).

288 (13) If a provision in this section conflicts with a provision in Sections 25-6-101
289 through 25-6-407, the provision of this section shall supersede the conflicting provision in 290 Sections 25-6-101 through 25-6-407.

291 (14) Nothing in this section alters rights vested or created under this section before
292 May 14, 2019.
