Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-3-704 is amended to read:

10-3-704. Form of ordinance.

The governing body shall ensure that any ordinance that the governing body passes contains the following, in substantially the following order and form:

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

- (1) a number;
- (2) a title which indicates the nature of the subject matter of the ordinance;
- (3) a preamble which states the need or reason for the ordinance;
- (4) an ordaining clause which states "Be it ordained by the ____ (name of the governing body and municipality):";
- (5) the body or subject of the ordinance;
- (6) when applicable, a statement indicating the penalty for violation of the ordinance or a reference that the punishment is covered by an ordinance which prescribes the fines and terms of imprisonment for the violation of a municipal ordinance; or, the penalty may establish a classification of penalties and refer to such ordinance in which the penalty for such violation is established;
- (7) when a penalty for a violation of the ordinance includes any possibility of imprisonment, a statement that the municipality is required, under Section ~~[77-32-301]~~ 78B-22-301, to provide for indigent ~~[legal]~~ services, as that term is defined in Section ~~[77-32-201]~~ 78B-22-102;
- (8) a statement indicating the effective date of the ordinance or the date when the ordinance shall become effective after publication or posting as required by this chapter;
- (9) a line for the signature of the mayor or acting mayor to sign the ordinance;
- (10) a place for the municipal recorder to attest the ordinance and fix the seal of the municipality; and
- (11) in municipalities where the mayor may disapprove an ordinance passed by the legislative body, a statement showing:
  - (a) if the mayor approves the ordinance, that the governing body passes the ordinance with the mayor's approval;
  - (b) if the mayor disapproves the ordinance, that the governing body passes the ordinance over the mayor's disapproval; or
  - (c) if the mayor neither approves or disapproves the ordinance, that the ordinance became effective without the approval or disapproval of the mayor.

Section 2. Section 17-53-223 is amended to read:

17-53-223. Ordinances -- Power to enact -- Penalty for violation.

- (1) A county legislative body may:

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(a) pass all ordinances and rules and make all regulations, not repugnant to law, necessary for carrying into effect or discharging the powers and duties conferred by this title, and as are necessary and proper to provide for the safety, and preserve the health, promote the prosperity, improve the morals, peace, and good order, comfort, and convenience of the county and its inhabitants, and for the protection of property in the county;

(b) enforce obedience to ordinances with fines or penalties as the county legislative body considers proper; and

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(a) protective order proceedings; and

(b) district court actions when:

(i) child abuse, child sexual abuse, or neglect is alleged in a formal complaint, petition, or counterclaim;

(ii) the child abuse, child sexual abuse, or neglect described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) has been reported to Child Protective Services;

(iii) the court makes a finding that the adult parties to the case are indigent individuals, as defined in Section [~~77-32-202~~] 78B-22-102; and

(iv) the district court determines that there are no private attorney guardians ad litem who are reasonably available to be appointed in the district court action.

(2) (a) A court may not appoint an attorney guardian ad litem in a criminal case.

(b) Subsection (2)(a) does not prohibit the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem in a case where a court is determining whether to adjudicate a minor for committing an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult.

(c) Subsection (2)(a) does not prohibit an attorney guardian ad litem from entering an appearance, filing motions, or taking other action in a criminal case on behalf of a minor, if:

(i) the attorney guardian ad litem is appointed to represent the minor in a case that is not a criminal case; and

(ii) the interests of the minor may be impacted by:

(A) an order that has been, or may be, issued in the criminal case; or

(B) other proceedings that have occurred, or may occur, in the criminal case.

(3) If a court appoints an attorney guardian ad litem in a divorce or child custody case, the court shall:

(a) specify in the order appointing the attorney guardian ad litem the specific issues in the proceeding that the attorney guardian ad litem is required to be involved in resolving, which may include issues relating to the custody of children and parent-time schedules;

(b) to the extent possible, bifurcate the issues specified in the order described in Subsection (3)(a) from the other issues in the case, in order to minimize the time constraints placed upon the attorney guardian ad litem in the case; and

(c) except as provided in Subsection (5), within one year after the day on which the attorney guardian ad litem is appointed in the case, issue a final order:

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

- (i) resolving the issues in the order described in Subsection (3)(a); and
- (ii) terminating the appointment of the attorney guardian ad litem in the case.

(4) A court shall issue an order terminating the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem made under this section, if:

- (a) the court determines that the allegations of abuse or neglect are unfounded;
- (b) after receiving input from the attorney guardian ad litem, the court determines that the children are no longer at risk of abuse or neglect; or
- (c) there has been no activity in the case for which the attorney guardian ad litem is appointed for a period of six consecutive months.

(5) A court may issue a written order extending the one-year period described in Subsection (3)(c) for a time certain, if the court makes a written finding that there is a compelling reason that the court cannot comply with the requirements described in Subsection (3)(c) within the one-year period.

(6) When appointing an attorney guardian ad litem for a minor under this section, a court may appoint the same attorney guardian ad litem who represents the minor in another proceeding, or who has represented the minor in a previous proceeding, if that attorney guardian ad litem is available.

(7) The court is responsible for all costs resulting from the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem and shall use funds appropriated by the Legislature for the guardian ad litem program to cover those costs.

(8) An attorney guardian ad litem appointed in accordance with the requirements of this section and Chapter 6, Part 9, Guardian Ad Litem, is, when serving in the scope of duties of an attorney guardian ad litem, considered an employee of this state for purposes of indemnification under the Governmental Immunity Act.

Section 8. Section 78A-2-705 is amended to read:

78A-2-705. Private attorney guardian ad litem -- Appointment -- Costs and fees -- Duties -- Conflicts of interest -- Pro bono obligation -- Indemnification -- Minimum qualifications.

(1) The court may appoint an attorney as a private attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the minor in any district court action when:

- (a) child abuse, child sexual abuse, or neglect is alleged in any proceeding, and the court has made a finding that an adult party is not indigent[, as defined by Section 77-32-202] as determined under Section 78B-22-202; or

(b) the custody of, or parent-time with, a child is at issue.

(2) (a) The court shall consider the limited number of eligible private attorneys guardian ad litem, as well as the limited time and resources available to a private attorney guardian ad litem, when making an appointment under Subsection (1) and prioritize case assignments accordingly.

(b) The court shall make findings regarding the need and basis for the appointment of a private attorney guardian ad litem.

(c) A court may not appoint a private attorney guardian ad litem in a criminal case.

(3) (a) If the parties stipulate to a private attorney guardian ad litem, the office shall assign the stipulated private attorney guardian ad litem to the case in accordance with this section.

(b) If, under Subsection (3)(a), the parties have not stipulated to a private attorney guardian ad litem, or if the stipulated private attorney guardian ad litem is unable to take the case, the court shall appoint a private attorney guardian ad litem in accordance with Subsection (3)(c).

(c) The court shall state in an order that the court is appointing a private attorney guardian ad litem, to be assigned by the office, to represent the best interests of the child in the matter.

(d) The court shall send the order described in Subsection (3)(c) to the office, in care of the Private Attorney Guardian ad Litem program.

(4) The court shall:

(a) specify in the order appointing a private attorney guardian ad litem the specific issues in the proceeding that the private attorney guardian ad litem shall be involved in resolving, which may include issues relating to the custody of the child and a parent-time schedule;

(b) to the extent possible, bifurcate the issues described in Subsection (4)(a) from the other issues in the case in order to minimize the time constraints placed upon the private attorney guardian ad litem; and

(c) except as provided in Subsection (6), issue a final order within one year after the day on which the private attorney guardian ad litem is appointed in the case:

- (i) resolving the issues described in Subsection (4)(a); and
- (ii) terminating the private attorney guardian ad litem from the appointment to the case.

(5) The court shall issue an order terminating the appointment of a private attorney guardian ad litem made under this section if:

(a) after receiving input from the private attorney guardian ad litem, the court determines that the minor no longer requires the services of the private attorney guardian ad litem; or

- (b) there has been no activity in the case for a period of six consecutive months.

(6) A court may issue an order extending the one-year period described in Subsection (4)(c) for a specified amount of time if the court makes a written finding that there is a compelling reason that the court cannot comply with the requirements described in Subsection (4)(c) within the one-year period.

(7) When appointing a private attorney guardian ad litem under this section, a court may appoint the same private attorney guardian ad litem who represents the minor in another proceeding, or who has represented the minor in a previous proceeding, if that private attorney guardian ad litem is available.

(8) (a) Upon receipt of the court's order, described in Subsections (3)(c) and (d), the office shall assign the case to a private attorney guardian ad litem, if available, in accordance with this section.

(b) (i) If, after the initial assignment of a private attorney guardian ad litem, either party objects to the assigned private attorney guardian ad litem, that party may file an objection with the court within seven days after the day on which the party received notice of the assigned private attorney guardian ad litem.

(ii) If, after the initial assignment of a private attorney guardian ad litem, either attorney for a party discovers that the private attorney guardian ad litem represents an adverse party in a separate matter, that attorney may file an objection with the court within seven days after the day on which the attorney received notice of the private attorney guardian ad litem's representation of an adverse party in a separate matter.

(iii) Upon receipt of an objection, the court shall determine whether grounds exist for the objection, and if grounds exist, the court shall order, without a hearing, the office to assign a new private attorney guardian ad litem, in consultation with the parties and in accordance with this section.

(iv) If no alternative private attorney guardian ad litem is available, the office shall notify the court.

(9) (a) When appointing a private attorney guardian ad litem, the court shall:

(i) assess all or part of the private attorney guardian ad litem fees, court costs, and paralegal, staff, and volunteer expenses against the parties in a proportion the court determines to be just; and

(ii) designate in the order whether the private attorney guardian ad litem shall, as established by rule under Subsection (17):

(A) be paid a set fee and initial retainer;

(B) not be paid and serve pro bono; or

(C) be paid at a rate less than the set fee established by court rule.

(b) If a party claims to be impecunious, the court shall follow the procedure and make a determination, described in Section 78A-2-302, to set the amount that the party is required to pay, if any, toward the private attorney guardian ad litem's fees and expenses.

(c) The private attorney guardian ad litem may adjust the court-ordered fees or retainer to an amount less than what was ordered by the court at any time before being released from representation by the court.

(10) Upon accepting the court's appointment, the assigned private attorney guardian ad litem shall:

(a) file a notice of appearance with the court within five business days of the day on which the attorney was assigned; and

(b) represent the best interests of the minor until released by the court.

(11) The private attorney guardian ad litem:

(a) shall be certified by the director of the office as meeting the minimum qualifications for appointment; and

(b) may not be employed by, or under contract with, the office unless under contract as a conflict private attorney guardian ad litem in an unrelated case.

(12) The private attorney guardian ad litem appointed under the provisions of this section shall:

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

- (a) represent the best interests of the minor from the date of the appointment until released by the court;
  - (b) conduct or supervise an ongoing, independent investigation in order to obtain, first-hand, a clear understanding of the situation and needs of the minor;
  - (c) interview witnesses and review relevant records pertaining to the minor and the minor's family, including medical, psychological, and school records;
  - (d) (i) personally meet with the minor, unless:
    - (A) the minor is outside of the state; or
    - (B) meeting with the minor would be detrimental to the minor;
  - (ii) personally interview the minor, unless:
    - (A) the minor is not old enough to communicate;
    - (B) the minor lacks the capacity to participate in a meaningful interview; or
    - (C) the interview would be detrimental to the minor;
  - (iii) to the extent possible, determine the minor's goals and concerns regarding custody or visitation; and
  - (iv) to the extent possible, and unless it would be detrimental to the minor, keep the minor advised of:
    - (A) the status of the minor's case;
    - (B) all court and administrative proceedings;
    - (C) discussions with, and proposals made by, other parties;
    - (D) court action; and
    - (E) the psychiatric, medical, or other treatment or diagnostic services that are to be provided to the minor;
  - (e) unless excused by the court, prepare for and attend all mediation hearings and all court conferences and hearings, and present witnesses and exhibits as necessary to protect the best interests of the minor;
  - (f) identify community resources to protect the best interests of the minor and advocate for those resources; and
  - (g) participate in all appeals unless excused by the court.
- (13) (a) The private attorney guardian ad litem shall represent the best interests of a minor.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(b) If the minor's intent and desires differ from the private attorney guardian ad litem's determination of the minor's best interests, the private attorney guardian ad litem shall communicate to the court the minor's intent and desires and the private attorney guardian ad litem's determination of the minor's best interests.

(c) A difference between the minor's intent and desires and the private attorney guardian ad litem's determination of best interests is not sufficient to create a conflict of interest.

(d) The private attorney guardian ad litem shall disclose the intent and desires of the minor unless the minor:

(i) instructs the private attorney guardian ad litem to not disclose the minor's intent and desires; or

(ii) has not expressed an intent and desire.

(e) The court may appoint one private attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of more than one child of a marriage.

(14) In every court hearing where the private attorney guardian ad litem makes a recommendation regarding the best interest of the minor, the court shall require the private attorney guardian ad litem to disclose the factors that form the basis of the recommendation.

(15) A private attorney guardian ad litem appointed under this section is immune from any civil liability that might result by reason of acts performed within the scope of duties of the private attorney guardian ad litem.

(16) The office and the Guardian ad Litem Oversight Committee shall compile a list of attorneys willing to accept an appointment as a private attorney guardian ad litem.

(17) Upon the advice of the director and the Guardian ad Litem Oversight Committee, the Judicial Council shall establish by rule:

(a) the minimum qualifications and requirements for appointment by the court as a private attorney guardian ad litem;

(b) the standard fee rate and retainer amount for a private attorney guardian ad litem;

(c) the percentage of cases a private attorney guardian ad litem may be expected to take on pro bono;

(d) a system to:

(i) select a private attorney guardian ad litem for a given appointment; and

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(ii) determine when a private attorney guardian ad litem shall be expected to accept an appointment pro bono; and

(e) the process for handling a complaint relating to the eligibility status of a private attorney guardian ad litem.

(18) (a) Any savings that result from assigning a private attorney guardian ad litem in a district court case, instead of an office guardian ad litem, shall be applied to the office to recruit and train attorneys for the private attorney guardian ad litem program.

(b) After complying with Subsection (18)(a), the office shall use any additional savings to reduce caseloads and improve current practices in juvenile court.

Section 9. Section 78A-6-306 is amended to read:

78A-6-306. Shelter hearing.

(1) A shelter hearing shall be held within 72 hours excluding weekends and holidays after any one or all of the following occur:

(a) removal of the child from the child's home by the division;

(b) placement of the child in the protective custody of the division;

(c) emergency placement under Subsection 62A-4a-202.1(4);

(d) as an alternative to removal of the child, a parent enters a domestic violence shelter at the request of the division; or

(e) a "Motion for Expedited Placement in Temporary Custody" is filed under Subsection 78A-6-106(4).

(2) If one of the circumstances described in Subsections (1)(a) through (e) occurs, the division shall issue a notice that contains all of the following:

(a) the name and address of the person to whom the notice is directed;

(b) the date, time, and place of the shelter hearing;

(c) the name of the child on whose behalf a petition is being brought;

(d) a concise statement regarding:

(i) the reasons for removal or other action of the division under Subsection (1); and

(ii) the allegations and code sections under which the proceeding has been instituted;

(e) a statement that the parent or guardian to whom notice is given, and the child, are entitled to have an attorney present at the shelter hearing, and that if the parent or guardian is indigent and cannot afford an attorney, and desires to be represented by an attorney, one will be provided in accordance with [~~the provisions of Section 78A-6-1111~~] Title 78B, Chapter 22, Indigent Defense Act; and

(f) a statement that the parent or guardian is liable for the cost of support of the child in the protective custody, temporary custody, and custody of the division, and the cost for legal counsel appointed for the parent or guardian under Subsection (2)(e), according to the financial ability of the parent or guardian.

(3) The notice described in Subsection (2) shall be personally served as soon as possible, but no later than one business day after removal of the child from the child's home, or the filing of a "Motion for Expedited Placement in Temporary Custody" under Subsection 78A-6-106(4), on:

(a) the appropriate guardian ad litem; and

(b) both parents and any guardian of the child, unless the parents or guardians cannot be located.

(4) The following persons shall be present at the shelter hearing:

(a) the child, unless it would be detrimental for the child;

(b) the child's parents or guardian, unless the parents or guardian cannot be located, or fail to appear in response to the notice;

(c) counsel for the parents, if one is requested;

(d) the child's guardian ad litem;

(e) the caseworker from the division who is assigned to the case; and

(f) the attorney from the attorney general's office who is representing the division.

(5) (a) At the shelter hearing, the court shall:

(i) provide an opportunity to provide relevant testimony to:

(A) the child's parent or guardian, if present; and

(B) any other person having relevant knowledge; and

(ii) subject to Section 78A-6-305, provide an opportunity for the child to testify.

(b) The court:

(i) may consider all relevant evidence, in accordance with the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure;

(ii) shall hear relevant evidence presented by the child, the child's parent or guardian, the requesting party, or their counsel; and

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(iii) may in its discretion limit testimony and evidence to only that which goes to the issues of removal and the child's need for continued protection.

(6) If the child is in the protective custody of the division, the division shall report to the court:

(a) the reason why the child was removed from the parent's or guardian's custody;

(b) any services provided to the child and the child's family in an effort to prevent removal;

(c) the need, if any, for continued shelter;

(d) the available services that could facilitate the return of the child to the custody of the child's parent or guardian; and

(e) subject to Subsections 78A-6-307(18)(c) through (e), whether any relatives of the child or friends of the child's parents may be able and willing to accept temporary placement of the child.

(7) The court shall consider all relevant evidence provided by persons or entities authorized to present relevant evidence pursuant to this section.

(8) (a) If necessary to protect the child, preserve the rights of a party, or for other good cause shown, the court may grant no more than one continuance, not to exceed five judicial days.

(b) A court shall honor, as nearly as practicable, the request by a parent or guardian for a continuance under Subsection (8)(a).

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(a), if the division fails to provide the notice described in Subsection (2) within the time described in Subsection (3), the court may grant the request of a parent or guardian for a continuance, not to exceed five judicial days.

(9) (a) If the child is in the protective custody of the division, the court shall order that the child be returned to the custody of the parent or guardian unless it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, consistent with the protections and requirements provided in Subsection 62A-4a-201(1), that any one of the following exists:

(i) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(i), there is a serious danger to the physical health or safety of the child and the child's physical health or safety may not be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent;

(ii) (A) the child is suffering emotional damage that results in a serious impairment in

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

the child's growth, development, behavior, or psychological functioning;

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would sufficiently prevent future damage; and

(C) there are no reasonable means available by which the child's emotional health may be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iii) there is a substantial risk that the child will suffer abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iv) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(ii), the child or a minor residing in the same household has been, or is considered to be at substantial risk of being, physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited by a:

(A) parent or guardian;

(B) member of the parent's household or the guardian's household; or

(C) person known to the parent or guardian;

(v) the parent or guardian is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(vi) the child is without any provision for the child's support;

(vii) a parent who is incarcerated or institutionalized has not or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the child;

(viii) (A) a relative or other adult custodian with whom the child is left by the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child;

(B) the whereabouts of the parent or guardian are unknown; and

(C) reasonable efforts to locate the parent or guardian are unsuccessful;

(ix) subject to Subsections 78A-6-105(35)(c)(i) through (iii) and 78A-6-117(2) and Section 78A-6-301.5, the child is in immediate need of medical care;

(x) (A) the physical environment or the fact that the child is left unattended beyond a reasonable period of time poses a threat to the child's health or safety; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the threat;

(xi) (A) the child or a minor residing in the same household has been neglected; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would prevent the neglect;

(xii) the parent, guardian, or an adult residing in the same household as the parent or

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

guardian, is charged or arrested pursuant to Title 58, Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, and any clandestine laboratory operation was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided;

(xiii) (A) the child's welfare is substantially endangered; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the danger; or

(xiv) the child's natural parent:

(A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child.

(b) (i) Prima facie evidence of the finding described in Subsection (9)(a)(i) is established if:

(A) a court previously adjudicated that the child suffered abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent; and

(B) a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent occurs.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a)(iv), if the court finds that the parent knowingly allowed the child to be in the physical care of a person after the parent received actual notice that the person physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited the child, that fact constitutes prima facie evidence that there is a substantial risk that the child will be physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(10) (a) (i) The court shall also make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal.

(ii) If the court finds that the child can be safely returned to the custody of the child's parent or guardian through the provision of those services, the court shall place the child with the child's parent or guardian and order that those services be provided by the division.

(b) In making the determination described in Subsection (10)(a), and in ordering and providing services, the child's health, safety, and welfare shall be the paramount concern, in accordance with federal law.

(11) Where the division's first contact with the family occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts was appropriate.

(12) In cases where actual sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, neither the division nor the court has any duty to make "reasonable efforts" or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, return a child to the child's home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(13) The court may not order continued removal of a child solely on the basis of educational neglect as described in Subsection 78A-6-105(35)(b), truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school.

(14) (a) Whenever a court orders continued removal of a child under this section, the court shall state the facts on which that decision is based.

(b) If no continued removal is ordered and the child is returned home, the court shall state the facts on which that decision is based.

(15) If the court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child pursuant to Subsection (9)(a), the court shall order continued removal regardless of:

- (a) any error in the initial removal of the child;
- (b) the failure of a party to comply with notice provisions; or
- (c) any other procedural requirement of this chapter or Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services.

Section 10. Section 78A-6-317 is amended to read:

78A-6-317. All proceedings -- Persons entitled to be present.

(1) A child who is the subject of a juvenile court hearing, any person entitled to notice pursuant to Section 78A-6-306 or 78A-6-310, preadoptive parents, foster parents, and any relative providing care for the child, are:

- (a) entitled to notice of, and to be present at, each hearing and proceeding held under this part, including administrative reviews; and

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(b) have a right to be heard at each hearing and proceeding described in Subsection (1)(a).

(2) A child shall be represented at each hearing by the guardian ad litem appointed to the child's case by the court. The child has a right to be present at each hearing, subject to the discretion of the guardian ad litem or the court regarding any possible detriment to the child.

(3) (a) The parent or guardian of a child who is the subject of a petition under this part has the right to be represented by counsel, and to present evidence, at each hearing.

(b) [~~When it appears to the court that a parent or guardian of the child desires counsel but is financially unable to afford and cannot for that reason employ counsel, the~~] A court [~~shall~~] may appoint [~~counsel~~] an indigent defense service provider as provided in [~~Section 78A-6-1111~~] Title 78B, Chapter 22, Indigent Defense Act.

(4) In every abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding under this chapter, the court shall order that the child be represented by a guardian ad litem, in accordance with Section 78A-6-902. The guardian ad litem shall represent the best interest of the child, in accordance with the requirements of that section, at the shelter hearing and at all subsequent court and administrative proceedings, including any proceeding for termination of parental rights in accordance with Part 5, Termination of Parental Rights Act.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), and notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(i) counsel for all parties to the action shall be given access to all records, maintained by the division or any other state or local public agency, that are relevant to the abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding under this chapter; and

(ii) if the natural parent of a child is not represented by counsel, the natural parent shall have access to the records described in Subsection (5)(a)(i).

(b) The disclosures described in Subsection (5)(a) are not required in the following circumstances:

(i) subject to Subsection (5)(c), the division or other state or local public agency did not originally create the record being requested;

(ii) disclosure of the record would jeopardize the life or physical safety of a child who has been a victim of abuse or neglect, or any person who provided substitute care for the child;

(iii) disclosure of the record would jeopardize the anonymity of the person or persons

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

making the initial report of abuse or neglect or any others involved in the subsequent investigation;

(iv) disclosure of the record would jeopardize the life or physical safety of a person who has been a victim of domestic violence;

(v) the record is a report maintained in the Management Information System, for which a finding of unsubstantiated, unsupported, or without merit has been made, unless the person requesting the information is the alleged perpetrator in the report or counsel for the alleged perpetrator in the report; or

(vi) the record is a Children's Justice Center interview, including a video or audio recording, and a transcript of the recording, the release of which is governed by Section 77-37-4.

(c) If a disclosure is denied under Subsection (5)(b)(i), the division shall inform the person making the request of the following:

(i) the existence of all records in the possession of the division or any other state or local public agency;

(ii) the name and address of the person or agency that originally created the record; and

(iii) that the person must seek access to the record from the person or agency that originally created the record.

Section 11. Section 78A-6-703 is amended to read:

78A-6-703. Certification hearings -- Juvenile court to hold preliminary hearing -- Factors considered by juvenile court for waiver of jurisdiction to district court.

(1) If a criminal information filed in accordance with Subsection 78A-6-602(3) alleges the commission of an act which would constitute a felony if committed by an adult, the juvenile court shall conduct a preliminary hearing.

(2) At the preliminary hearing the state shall have the burden of going forward with its case and the burden of establishing:

(a) probable cause to believe that a crime was committed and that the defendant committed it; and

(b) by a preponderance of the evidence, that it would be contrary to the best interests of the minor or of the public for the juvenile court to retain jurisdiction.

(3) In considering whether or not it would be contrary to the best interests of the minor or of the public for the juvenile court to retain jurisdiction, the juvenile court shall consider, and may base its decision on, the finding of one or more of the following factors:

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(a) the seriousness of the offense and whether the protection of the community requires isolation of the minor beyond that afforded by juvenile facilities;

(b) whether the alleged offense was committed by the minor under circumstances which would subject the minor to enhanced penalties under Section 76-3-203.1 if the minor were adult and the offense was committed:

(i) in concert with two or more persons;

(ii) for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang as defined in Section 76-9-802; or

(iii) to gain recognition, acceptance, membership, or increased status with a criminal street gang as defined in Section 76-9-802;

(c) whether the alleged offense was committed in an aggressive, violent, premeditated, or willful manner;

(d) whether the alleged offense was against persons or property, greater weight being given to offenses against persons, except as provided in Section 76-8-418;

(e) the maturity of the minor as determined by considerations of the minor's home, environment, emotional attitude, and pattern of living;

(f) the record and previous history of the minor;

(g) the likelihood of rehabilitation of the minor by use of facilities available to the juvenile court;

(h) the desirability of trial and disposition of the entire offense in one court when the minor's associates in the alleged offense are adults who will be charged with a crime in the district court;

(i) whether the minor used a firearm in the commission of an offense; and

(j) whether the minor possessed a dangerous weapon on or about school premises as provided in Section 76-10-505.5.

(4) The amount of weight to be given to each of the factors listed in Subsection (3) is discretionary with the court.

(5) (a) Written reports and other materials relating to the minor's mental, physical, educational, and social history may be considered by the court.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(b) If requested by the minor, the minor's parent, guardian, or other interested party, the court shall require the person or agency preparing the report and other material to appear and be subject to both direct and cross-examination.

(6) At the conclusion of the state's case, the minor may testify under oath, call witnesses, cross-examine adverse witnesses, and present evidence on the factors required by Subsection (3).

(7) At the time the minor is bound over to the district court, the juvenile court shall make the initial determination on where the minor shall be held.

(8) The juvenile court shall consider the following when determining where the minor will be held until the time of trial:

(a) the age of the minor;

(b) the nature, seriousness, and circumstances of the alleged offense;

(c) the minor's history of prior criminal acts;

(d) whether detention in a juvenile detention facility will adequately serve the need for community protection pending the outcome of any criminal proceedings;

(e) whether the minor's placement in a juvenile detention facility will negatively impact the functioning of the facility by compromising the goals of the facility to maintain a safe, positive, and secure environment for all minors within the facility;

(f) the relative ability of the facility to meet the needs of the minor and protect the public;

(g) whether the minor presents an imminent risk of harm to the minor or others within the facility;

(h) the physical maturity of the minor;

(i) the current mental state of the minor as evidenced by relevant mental health or psychological assessments or screenings that are made available to the court; and

(j) any other factors the court considers relevant.

(9) If a minor is ordered to a juvenile detention facility under Subsection (8), the minor shall remain in the facility until released by a district court judge, or if convicted, until sentencing.

(10) A minor held in a juvenile detention facility under this section shall have the same right to bail as any other criminal defendant.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(11) If the minor ordered to a juvenile detention facility under Subsection (8) attains the age of 18 years, the minor shall be transferred within 30 days to an adult jail until released by the district court judge, or if convicted, until sentencing.

(12) A minor 16 years of age or older whose conduct or condition endangers the safety or welfare of others in the juvenile detention facility may, by court order that specifies the reasons, be detained in another place of confinement considered appropriate by the court, including jail or other place of confinement for adults.

(13) The district court may reconsider the decision on where the minor shall be held pursuant to Subsection (7).

(14) If the court finds the state has met its burden under Subsection (2), the court may enter an order:

- (a) certifying that finding; and
- (b) directing that the minor be held for criminal proceedings in the district court.

(15) If an indictment is returned by a grand jury, the preliminary examination held by the juvenile court need not include a finding of probable cause, but the juvenile court shall proceed in accordance with this section regarding the additional consideration referred to in Subsection (2)(b).

(16) [~~The provisions of~~] Title 78B, Chapter 22, Indigent Defense Act, Section 78A-6-115, [Section 78A-6-111], and other provisions relating to proceedings in juvenile cases are applicable to the hearing held under this section to the extent they are pertinent.

(17) A minor who has been directed to be held for criminal proceedings in the district court is not entitled to a preliminary examination in the district court.

(18) A minor who has been certified for trial in the district court shall have the same right to bail as any other criminal defendant and shall be advised of that right by the juvenile court judge. The juvenile court shall set initial bail in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 20, Bail.

(19) When a minor has been certified to the district court under this section, the jurisdiction of the Division of Juvenile Justice Services and the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over the minor is terminated regarding that offense, any other offenses arising from the same criminal episode, and any subsequent misdemeanors or felonies charged against the minor, except as provided in Subsection (21) or Section 78A-6-705.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(20) If a minor enters a plea to, or is found guilty of any of the charges filed or on any other offense arising out of the same criminal episode, the district court retains jurisdiction over the minor for all purposes, including sentencing.

(21) The juvenile court under Section 78A-6-103 and the Division of Juvenile Justice Services regain jurisdiction and any authority previously exercised over the minor when there is an acquittal, a finding of not guilty, or dismissal of all charges in the district court.

Section 12. Section 78A-6-1111 is amended to read:

- (e) sufficient clerical personnel to serve the needs of the justice court;
  - (f) sufficient funds to cover the cost of travel and training expenses of clerical personnel and judges at training sessions mandated by the Judicial Council;
  - (g) adequate courtroom and auxiliary space for the justice court, which need not be specifically constructed for or allocated solely for the justice court when existing facilities adequately serve the purposes of the justice court; and
  - (h) for each judge of its justice court, a current copy of the Utah Code, the Utah Court Rules Annotated, the justice court manual published by the state court administrator, the county, city, or town ordinances as appropriate, and other legal reference materials as determined to be necessary by the judge; and
- (2) the Judicial Council's rules and procedures shall:
- (a) presume that existing justice courts will be recertified at the end of each four-year term if the court continues to meet the minimum requirements for the establishment of a new justice court; or
  - (b) authorize the Judicial Council, upon request of a municipality or county or upon its own review, when a justice court does not meet the minimum requirements, to:
    - (i) decline recertification of a justice court;
    - (ii) revoke the certification of a justice court;
    - (iii) extend the time for a justice court to comply with the minimum requirements; or
    - (iv) suspend rules of the Judicial Council governing justice courts, if the council believes suspending those rules is the appropriate administrative remedy for the justice courts of this state.

Section 14. Section 78B-6-112 is amended to read:

78B-6-112. District court jurisdiction over termination of parental rights proceedings.

- (1) A district court has jurisdiction to terminate parental rights in a child if the party who filed the petition is seeking to terminate parental rights in the child for the purpose of facilitating the adoption of the child.
- (2) A petition to terminate parental rights under this section may be:
  - (a) joined with a proceeding on an adoption petition; or
  - (b) filed as a separate proceeding before or after a petition to adopt the child is filed.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(3) A court may enter a final order terminating parental rights before a final decree of adoption is entered.

(4) (a) Nothing in this section limits the jurisdiction of a juvenile court relating to proceedings to terminate parental rights as described in Section 78A-6-103.

(b) This section does not grant jurisdiction to a district court to terminate parental rights in a child if the child is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court in a pending abuse, neglect, dependency, or termination of parental rights proceeding.

(5) The district court may terminate an individual's parental rights in a child if:

(a) the individual executes a voluntary consent to adoption, or relinquishment for adoption, of the child, in accordance with:

(i) the requirements of this chapter; or

(ii) the laws of another state or country, if the consent is valid and irrevocable;

(b) the individual is an unmarried biological father who is not entitled to consent to adoption, or relinquishment for adoption, under Section 78B-6-120 or 78B-6-121;

(c) the individual:

(i) received notice of the adoption proceeding relating to the child under Section 78B-6-110; and

(ii) failed to file a motion for relief, under Subsection 78B-6-110(6), within 30 days after the day on which the individual was served with notice of the adoption proceeding;

(d) the court finds, under Section 78B-15-607, that the individual is not a parent of the child; or

(e) the individual's parental rights are terminated on grounds described in Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 5, Termination of Parental Rights Act, if terminating the person's parental rights is in the best interests of the child.

(6) The court shall appoint [~~counsel designated by the county where the petition is filed~~] an indigent defense service provider, under Title 78B, Chapter 22, Indigent Defense Act, to represent a party who faces any action initiated by a private party under Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 5, Termination of Parental Rights Act or whose parental rights are subject to termination under this section[~~, if~~].

~~[(a) the court determines that the party is indigent under Section 77-32-202; and]~~

~~[(b) the party does not, after being fully advised of the right to counsel, knowingly,~~

(4) (a) "Indigent defense resources" means the resources necessary to provide an effective defense for an indigent individual, including the costs for a competent investigator, expert witness, scientific or medical testing, transcripts, and printing briefs.

(b) "Indigent defense resources" does not include an indigent defense service provider.

(5) "Indigent defense service provider" means an attorney or entity appointed to represent an indigent individual pursuant to:

(a) a contract with an indigent defense system to provide indigent defense services; or

(b) an order issued by the court under Subsection 78B-22-203(2)(~~fb~~a).

(6) "Indigent defense services" means:

(a) the representation of an indigent individual by an indigent defense service provider;

and

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(b) the provision of indigent defense resources for an indigent individual.

(7) "Indigent defense system" means:

(a) a city or town that is responsible for providing indigent defense services in the city's or town's justice court;

(b) a county that is responsible for providing indigent defense services in the district court, juvenile court, or the county's justice courts; or

(c) an interlocal entity, created pursuant to Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, that is responsible for providing indigent defense services according to the terms of an agreement between a county, city, or town.

(8) "Indigent individual" means:

(a) a minor who is:

(i) arrested and admitted into detention for an offense under Section 78A-6-103;

(ii) charged by petition or information in the juvenile or district court; or

(iii) described in this Subsection (8)(a), who is appealing a first appeal from an adjudication or other final court action; and

(b) an individual listed in Subsection 78B-22-201(1) who is found indigent pursuant to Section 78B-22-202.

(9) "Minor" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78A-6-105.

(10) "Participating county" means a county that complies with this chapter for participation in the Indigent Aggravated Murder Defense Trust Fund as provided in Sections 78B-22-702 and 78B-22-703.

Section 17. Section 78B-22-201 is enacted to read:

Part 2. Appointment of Counsel

78B-22-201. Right to counsel.

(1) A court shall advise the following of the individual's right to counsel when the individual first appears before the court:

(a) an adult charged with a criminal offense the penalty for which includes the possibility of incarceration regardless of whether actually imposed;

(b) a parent or legal guardian facing any action under:

(i) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings;

(ii) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 5, Termination of Parental Rights Act;

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

(iii) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 10, Adult Offenses; or

(iv) Section 78B-6-112; or

(c) an individual described in this Subsection (1), who is appealing a first appeal from a conviction or other final court action.

(2) If an individual described in Subsection (1) does not knowingly and voluntarily waive the right to counsel, the court shall determine whether the individual is indigent under Section 78B-22-202.

Section 18. Section 78B-22-202 is enacted to read:

78B-22-202. Determining indigency.

(1) A court shall find an individual indigent if the individual:

(a) has an income level at or below 150% of the United States poverty level as defined by the most recent poverty income guidelines published by the United States Department of Health and Human Services; or

(b) has insufficient income or other means to pay for legal counsel and the necessary expenses of representation without depriving the individual or the individual's family of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, considering:

(i) the individual's ownership of, or any interest in, personal or real property;

(ii) the amount of debt owed by the individual or that might reasonably be incurred by the individual because of illness or other needs within the individual's family;

(iii) the number, ages, and relationships of any dependents;

(iv) the probable expense and burden of defending the case;

(v) the reasonableness of fees and expenses charged by an attorney and the scope of representation undertaken when represented by privately retained defense counsel; and

(vi) any other factor the court considers relevant.

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), a court may not find an individual indigent if the individual transferred or otherwise disposed of assets since the commission of the offense with the intent of becoming eligible to receive indigent defense services.

(3) The court may make a finding of indigency at any time.

Section 19. Section 78B-22-203 is enacted to read:

78B-22-203. Order for indigent defense services.

~~{~~ (4) An indigent defense service provider appointed by the court shall represent the indigent individual in all court proceedings related to the matter for which the indigent defense service provider is appointed.

~~{~~ (~~{5}~~4) Except as provided in this ~~{part}~~ section, a court may not order indigent defense services.

SB0032S04 compared with SB0032S03

Section 20. Section 78B-22-204 is enacted to read:

78B-22-204. Waiver by a minor.

A minor may not waive the right to counsel before:

- (1) the minor has consulted with counsel; and
- (2) the court is satisfied that in light of the minor's unique circumstances and attributes:
  - (a) the minor's waiver is knowing and voluntary; and
  - (b) the minor understands the consequences of the waiver.

Section 21. Section 78B-22-301 is enacted to read:

Part 3. Indigent Defense Systems and Services

78B-22-301. Standards for indigent defense systems.

An indigent defense system shall provide indigent defense services for an indigent individual in accordance with the minimum guidelines adopted by the commission under Section 78B-22-404.

Section 22. Section 78B-22-302 is enacted to read:

78B-22-302. Compensation for indigent defense services.

An indigent defense system shall fund indigent defense services ordered by a court in accordance with 78B-22-203.

Section 23. Section 78B-22-303 is enacted to read:

78B-22-303. Pro bono provision of indigent defense services -- Liability limits.

A defense attorney is immune from suit if the defense attorney provides indigent defense services to an indigent individual:

- (1) at no cost; and
- (2) without gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 24. Section 78B-22-304 is enacted to read:

78B-22-304. Reimbursement for indigent defense services.

A court may order a parent or legal guardian of a minor who is appointed indigent defense services under this chapter to reimburse the cost of the minor's indigent defense services, as determined by the court, unless the court finds the parent or legal guardian indigent under Section 78B-22-202.

(b) The board may revoke a county's participation in the fund if the county fails to pay [~~its~~] the county's assessments when due.

(2) To participate in the fund, the legislative body of a county shall:

(a) adopt a resolution approving participation in the fund and committing that county to fulfill the assessment requirements as set forth in Subsection (3) and Section [~~77-32-603~~] 78B-22-703; and

(b) submit a certified copy of that resolution together with an application to the board.

(3) By January 15 of each year, a participating county shall contribute to the fund an amount computed in accordance with Section [~~77-32-603~~] 78B-22-703.

(4) [~~Any~~] A participating county may withdraw from participation in the fund upon:

(a) adoption by [~~its~~] the county's legislative body of a resolution to withdraw; and

(b) notice to the board by January 1 of the year [~~prior to~~] before withdrawal.

(5) A county withdrawing from participation in the fund, or whose participation in the fund has been revoked for failure to pay [~~its~~] the county's assessments when due, shall forfeit the right to:

(a) any previously payed assessment;

(b) relief from [~~its~~] the county's obligation to pay its assessment during the period of its participation in the fund; and

~~[77-32-603].~~            78B-22-703. County and state obligations.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), [~~each~~] a participating county shall pay into the fund annually an amount calculated by multiplying the average of the percent of its population to the total population of all participating counties and of the percent its taxable value of the locally and centrally assessed property located within that county to the total taxable value of the locally and centrally assessed property to all participating counties by the total fund assessment for that year to be paid by all participating counties as is determined by the board to be sufficient such that it is unlikely that a deficit will occur in the fund in any calendar year.

(b) The fund minimum shall be equal to or greater than 50 cents per person of all counties participating.

(c) The amount paid by [~~the~~] a participating county pursuant to this Subsection (1) shall be the total county obligation for payment of costs pursuant to Section [~~77-32-601~~] 78B-22-701.

(2) (a) [~~After the first year of operation of the fund, any~~] A county that elects to initiate participation in the fund, or reestablish participation in the fund after participation was terminated, [~~shall be~~] is required to make an equity payment in addition to the assessment [~~provided in~~] required by Subsection (1).

(b) The equity payment shall be determined by the board and represent what the county's equity in the fund would be if the county had made assessments into the fund for each of the previous two years.

(3) If the fund balance after contribution by the state and participating counties is insufficient to replenish the fund annually to at least $250,000, the board by a majority vote may terminate the fund.

(4) If the fund is terminated, [~~all~~] the remaining [~~funds~~] money shall continue to be administered and disbursed in accordance with the provision of this chapter until exhausted, at which time the fund shall cease to exist.
