AMENDS:

45-1-101, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2011, Chapter 422

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 45-1-101 is amended to read:

28 45-1-101. Legal notice publication requirements.

29 (1) As used in this section:

30 (a) "Average advertisement rate" means:

31 (i) in determining a rate for publication on the public legal notice website, a
32 newspaper's gross advertising revenue for the preceding calendar quarter divided by the gross
33 column-inch space used in the newspaper for advertising for the previous calendar quarter[-];

34 or

35 (ii) in determining a rate for publication in a newspaper, a newspaper's average rate for 36 all qualifying advertising segments for the preceding calendar quarter for an advertisement:

37 (A) published in the same section of the newspaper as the legal notice; and

38 (B) of the same column-inch space as the legal notice.

39 (b) "Column-inch space" means a unit of space that is one standard column wide by 40 one inch high.

41 (c) "Gross advertising revenue" means the total revenue obtained by a newspaper from 42 all of its qualifying advertising segments.

43 (d) (i) "Legal notice" means:

44 (A) a communication required to be made public by a state statute or state agency rule;

45 or

46 (B) a notice required for judicial proceedings or by judicial decision.

47 (ii) "Legal notice" does not include:

48 (A) a public notice published by a public body in accordance with the provisions of 49 Sections 52-4-202 and 63F-1-701; or

50 (B) a notice of delinquency in the payment of property taxes described in Section
51 59-2-1332.5.

52 (e) "Local district" is as defined in Section 17B-1-102.

53 (f) "Public legal notice website" means the website described in Subsection (2)(b) for 54 the purpose of publishing a legal notice online.

55 (g) (i) "Qualifying advertising segment" means, except as provided in Subsection
56 (1)(g)(ii), a category of print advertising sold by a newspaper, including classified advertising,
57 line advertising, and display advertising.

58 (ii) "Qualifying advertising segment" does not include legal notice advertising.

59 (h) "Special service district" is as defined in Section 17D-1-102.

60 (2) Except as provided in Subsections (8) and (9), notwithstanding any other legal 61 notice provision established by law, a person required by law to publish legal notice shall 62 publish the notice:

63 (a) (i) as required by the statute establishing the legal notice requirement; ~~and~~ or

64 (ii) by serving legal notice, by certified mail or in person, directly on all parties for 65 whom the statute establishing the legal notice requirement requires legal notice, if:

66 (A) the statute clearly identifies the parties;

67 (B) the person can prove that the person has identified all parties for whom notice is 68 required; and

69 (C) the person keeps a record of the service for at least two years; and

70 (b) on a public legal notice website established by the combined efforts of Utah's 71 newspapers that collectively distribute newspapers to the majority of newspaper subscribers in 72 the state.

73 (3) The public legal notice website shall:

74 (a) be available for viewing and searching by the general public, free of charge; and

75 (b) accept legal notice posting from any newspaper in the state.

76 (4) A person that publishes legal notice as required under Subsection (2) is not relieved
77 from complying with an otherwise applicable requirement under Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and 78 Public Meetings Act.

79 (5) If legal notice is required by law ~~[to be published]~~ and one option for complying
80 with the requirement is publication in a newspaper, or if a local district or a special service
81 district publishes legal notice in a newspaper, the newspaper:

82 (a) may not charge more for publication than the newspaper's average advertisement
83 rate; and

84 (b) shall publish the legal notice on the public legal notice website at no additional 85 cost.

86 (6) If legal notice is not required by law ~~[to be published]~~, if legal notice is required by
87 law and the person providing legal notice, in accordance with the requirements of law, chooses
88 not to publish the legal notice in a newspaper, or if a local district or a special service district
89 with an annual operating budget of less than $250,000 chooses to publish a legal notice on the

90 public notice website without publishing the complete notice in the newspaper, a newspaper:

91 (a) may not charge more than an amount equal to 15% of the newspaper's average
92 advertisement rate for publishing five column lines in the newspaper to publish legal notice on 93 the public legal notice website;

94 (b) may not require that the legal notice be published in the newspaper; and

95 (c) at the request of the person publishing on the legal notice website, shall publish in 96 the newspaper up to five column lines, at no additional charge, that briefly describe the legal
97 notice and provide the web address where the full public legal notice can be found.

98 (7) If a newspaper offers to publish the type of legal notice described in Subsection (5),
99 it may not refuse to publish the type of legal notice described in Subsection (6).

100 (8) Notwithstanding the requirements of a statute that requires the publication of legal
101 notice, if legal notice is required by law to be published by a local district or a special service
102 district with an annual operating budget of $250,000 or more, the local district or special
103 service district shall satisfy its legal notice publishing requirements by:

104 (a) mailing a written notice, postage prepaid:

105 (i) to each voter in the local district or special service district; and

106 (ii) that contains the information required by the statute that requires the publication of 107 legal notice; or

108 (b) publishing the legal notice in a newspaper and on the legal public notice website as 109 described in Subsection (5).

110 (9) Notwithstanding the requirements of a statute that requires the publication of legal
111 notice, if legal notice is required by law to be published by a local district or a special service
112 district with an annual operating budget of less than $250,000, the local district or special
113 service district shall satisfy its legal notice publishing requirements by:

114 (a) mailing a written notice, postage prepaid:

115 (i) to each voter in the local district or special service district; and

116 (ii) that contains the information required by the statute that requires the publication of
117 legal notice; or

118 (b) publishing the legal notice in a newspaper and on the public legal notice website as 119 described in Subsection (5); or

120 (c) publishing the legal notice on the public legal notice website as described in

121 Subsection (6).
