

SCR013S01 compared with SCR013

~~{deleted text}~~ shows text that was in SCR013 but was deleted in SCR013S01.

Inserted text shows text that was not in SCR013 but was inserted into SCR013S01.

DISCLAIMER: This document is provided to assist you in your comparison of the two bills. Sometimes this automated comparison will NOT be completely accurate. Therefore, you need to read the actual bills. This automatically generated document could contain inaccuracies caused by: limitations of the compare program; bad input data; or other causes.

Senator David P. Hinkins proposes the following substitute bill:

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ON PUBLIC LANDS

STRATEGY

2019 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Chief Sponsor: David P. Hinkins

House Sponsor: Keven J. Stratton

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This resolution directs the state to pursue strategies for ensuring sound public lands management policies.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- ▶ recognizes Utah as a public lands state and the state's commitment to perpetually remain a public lands state;
- ▶ recognizes that state officials should be involved in the creation and implementation of public lands policies; and
- ▶ directs state legislative bodies and agencies to work with federal legislative bodies,

SCR013S01 compared with SCR013

agencies, and other like-minded states to pursue strategies that outline the state's laws, principles, values, priorities, and willingness to work with federal agencies to manage the state's public lands.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, the state of Utah is a public lands state and is committed to perpetually remaining a public lands state;

WHEREAS, Utah's public lands are unparalleled in their beauty, solitude, ecosystems, abundant natural resources, and productivity;

WHEREAS, Utah's public lands are for all those who visit and recreate in the state, but the decisions made regarding public lands management and use directly impact the people of Utah;

WHEREAS, public lands policies and issues implicate vital constitutional principles, such as state sovereignty and the right to self-governance;

WHEREAS, in recent years, state and local officials have advocated for the transfer of federal public lands to state ownership;

WHEREAS, the position of state and local officials has often been misunderstood or mischaracterized, which has led to unproductive contention, conflict, and gridlock;

WHEREAS, from the beginning, the state has desired effective, efficient, and predictable public lands stewardship strategies, which are vital to Utah's sovereignty, economy, and quality of life;

WHEREAS, to account for and protect local and state interests, state officials should be involved in both the creation and implementation of public lands policies;

WHEREAS, gridlock does not serve the interests of the state, the people of Utah, or the millions of people who visit Utah every year;

WHEREAS, the challenges in public lands management can be overcome by strengthening partnerships with federal agencies and exploring practical changes to federal laws and regulations;

WHEREAS, in today's political climate, renewing a partnership between the state and the federal government will likely be the most effective method for ensuring practical legislative reform and sound land management practices;

SCR013S01 compared with SCR013

WHEREAS, the state desires to pursue strategies that would outline the state's laws, principles, values, priorities, and willingness to work with federal agencies in a more effective and cooperative manner;

WHEREAS, the National Forest Management Act of 1976 requires the Secretary of Agriculture to develop resource management plans for units of the National Forest System in coordination with state and local resource management planning processes; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (FLPMA) requires the Secretary of the Interior to provide for meaningful involvement of state and local government officials in the development of land use plans and requires those land use plans to be consistent with state and local land use plans to the maximum extent that the Secretary of the Interior finds consistent with federal law and the purposes of FLMPA:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, directs state legislative bodies and agencies to work with federal legislative bodies, agencies, and other like-minded states to pursue strategies that outline the state's laws, principles, values, priorities, and willingness to work with federal agencies to manage the state's public lands.