Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 64-13-29 is amended to read:

64-13-29. Violation of parole or probation -- Detention -- Hearing.

(1) (a) The department or local law enforcement agency shall ensure that the court is notified of violations of the terms and conditions of probation in the case of probationers under the ~~[department's supervision,]~~ supervision of the department, the local law enforcement agency, or the Board of Pardons and Parole ~~Ĥ→~~ [f] in the case of parolees under the department's supervision [f] ←Ĥ when:

(i) a sanction of incarceration is recommended; or

(ii) the department or local law enforcement agency determines that a graduated sanction is not an appropriate response to the offender's violation and recommends revocation of probation or parole.

(b) In cases where the department desires to detain an offender alleged to have violated his parole or probation and where it is unlikely that the Board of Pardons and Parole or court will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to determine if the offender has violated his conditions of parole or probation, the department shall hold an administrative hearing within a reasonable time, unless the hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer, to determine if there is probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

(c) If there is a conviction for a crime based on the same charges as the probation or parole violation, or a finding by a federal or state court that there is probable cause to believe that an offender has committed a crime based on the same charges as the probation or parole violation, the department need not hold an administrative hearing.

(2) The appropriate officer or officers of the department shall, as soon as practical following the department's administrative hearing, report to the court or the Board of Pardons and Parole, furnishing a summary of the hearing, and may make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer.

(3) Pending any proceeding under this section, the department may take custody of and detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period not to exceed 72 hours excluding weekends and holidays.

(4) In cases where probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency, the

59 agency may take custody of and detain the probationer involved for a period not to exceed 72
 60 hours excluding weekends and holidays if:

61 (a) the probationer commits a major violation or repeated violations of probation; and

62 (b) it is unlikely that the court will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to

63 determine if the offender has violated the conditions of probation ~~H→~~ ; and

63a (c) the law enforcement agency conducts an administrative hearing within a reasonable
 63b time to determine if there is probable cause to believe the offender has violated the conditions
 63c of probation, unless the hearing is waived by the probationer ~~←H~~ .

64 (5) If the requirements for Subsection (4) are met, the local law enforcement agency
 65 shall ensure the proper court is notified.

66 [~~3~~] (6) If the hearing officer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the 67 offender has violated the conditions of his parole or probation, the department may detain the 68 offender for a reasonable period of time after the hearing or waiver, as necessary to arrange for 69 the incarceration of the offender. [Written] A written order of the department is sufficient
 70 authorization for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender. The department may 71 promulgate rules for the implementation of this section.

72 (7) A written order from the local law enforcement agency is sufficient authorization
 73 for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender if:

74 (a) the probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency; and

75 (b) the appropriate officer or officers determine that there is probable cause to believe 76 that the offender has violated the conditions of probation.

76a ~~H→~~ (8) If a probationer supervised by a local law enforcement agency commits a
 76b violation outside of the jurisdiction of the supervising agency, the arresting agency is not 76c required to hold or transport the probationer for the supervising agency. ~~←H~~
