16 and the United States and Taiwan; and
- 17 ▶ affirms that Utah continues to support the relationship between the United States
18 and Taiwan.

19 Special Clauses:

20 None

22 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

23 WHEREAS, the state of Utah is proud of the relationship that it has enjoyed with 24 Taiwan over many years, which is characterized by strong bilateral religious, trade,
25 educational, and cultural exchanges, scientific and technological development, and tourism;

26 WHEREAS, the United States and Taiwan share an important relationship supported by 27 common values, including freedom, democracy, rule of law, and a free market economy;

28 WHEREAS, since 1956, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has dispatched
29 more than 43,000 missionaries, including former Utah governor Jon Huntsman, Jr., to Taiwan
30 as a friendly exchange between our peoples;

31 WHEREAS, there are approximately 2,000 immigrants from Taiwan currently living
32 and working in Utah and around 200 students from Taiwan studying at universities throughout 33 the state;

34 WHEREAS, Utah and Taiwan maintain strong ties, including the establishment of a 35 sister-state relationship between Utah and Taiwan in 1980, a sister-county relationship between 36 Salt Lake County and Nantou County in 2008, and sister-city relationships between Salt Lake
37 City and Keelung in 1979, between Murray City and Chiayi City in 1988, and between West
38 Valley City and Nantou City in 2000;

39 WHEREAS, Governor Gary R. Herbert led a trade delegation to Taiwan in 2018 and 40 met with Taiwan President Tsai Ing-wen to further strengthen economic and other ties between 41 Utah and Taiwan;

42 WHEREAS, Taiwan is Utah's sixth-largest trading partner and sixth-largest export
43 destination with Utah exporting more than $712 million in goods to Taiwan annually, including 44 computers, electronic products, food, chemicals, and machinery;

45 WHEREAS, the United States ranks as Taiwan's second-largest trading partner and 46 Taiwan ranks as the United States' tenth-largest trading partner, with the United States and 47 Taiwan trading approximately $81 billion of goods and services in 2019;

48 WHEREAS, the Asia-Pacific region is the largest market in the world for American 49 exports, many of Utah's exports go to markets in the Asia-Pacific region and, as of 2019,
50 Taiwan is Utah's third-largest export market in Asia;

51 WHEREAS, for decades Taiwan has helped commemorate the hard work and sacrifices
52 of Chinese railroad workers who helped build the first transcontinental railroad, completed at 53 Promontory Summit Utah, on May 10, ~~H→ [1896]~~ 1869 ~~←H~~ ;

54 WHEREAS, 2019 marked the 40th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act. On this 55 foundation, the United States and Taiwan have steadily developed strong economic, cultural,
56 and other cooperative relations;

57 WHEREAS, proximate to the time the United States passed the Taiwan Relations Act, 58 it also established the American Institute in Taiwan. For 40 years, the institute has helped the 59 United States and Taiwan establish and maintain positive and mutually beneficial relations.

60 Today, the institute's director is W. Brent Christensen, who is a native of Provo, Utah, and a
61 graduate of Brigham Young University;

62 WHEREAS, building on the foundation of the Taiwan Relations Act, the United States
63 has recently reaffirmed the strength of its relationship with Taiwan:

64 (1) through the Taiwan Travel Act;

65 (2) by dedicating a new $250 million compound for the American Institute in Taiwan 66 in 2018; and

67 (3) by including Taiwan in the Global Entry Program.

68 Each of these actions evidences that the partnership between the United States and 69 Taiwan is as strong as it has ever been; and

70 WHEREAS, Taiwan is a member of the United States' Visa Waiver Program and the 71 Global Entry Program, reflecting the mutual friendship, trust, and cooperation both share,
72 making business and tourist travel between Taiwan and the United States more convenient:

73 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 74 Governor concurring therein, on behalf of the people of the state of Utah, reaffirms the 75 friendship between the state of Utah and Taiwan.

76 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the state of Utah continues to support efforts to 77 further strengthen the United States' and Taiwan's religious, trade, educational, and cultural 78 relationship.

79 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the United 80 States' secretary of state, each member of the Utah Congressional delegation, and the Taipei
81 Economic and Cultural Office in San Francisco.
