intentionally or [~~recklessly~~] without good cause fail to enroll the school-age ~~[minor] child~~ in school, unless the school-age ~~[minor] child~~ is exempt from enrollment under Section 53G-6-204 or 53G-6-702.

(6) It is a class B misdemeanor for a parent of a school-age ~~{child}~~ ~~{minor}~~ who is in grade 1 through 6 to, after being served with a notice of compulsory education violation [~~in accordance with Subsections (3) and (4)~~], intentionally or [~~recklessly~~] without good cause:

(a) fail to meet with the school authorities designated in the notice of compulsory education violation to discuss the school-age ~~{child}'s~~ ~~{minor}'s~~ school attendance problems; or

(b) fail to prevent the school-age ~~{child}~~ ~~{minor}~~ from being ~~{absent}~~ absent without a valid excuse ~~{absent}~~ five or more times during the remainder of the school year.

(7) A local school board, charter school governing board, or school district shall report violations of this section to the appropriate county or district attorney.

(8) If school personnel have reason to believe that, after a notice of compulsory education violation is issued, the parent has failed to make a good faith effort to ensure that the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child receives an appropriate education, the issuer of the compulsory education violation shall report to the Division of Child and Family Services:

(a) identifying information of the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child and the [~~child's~~] parent who received the notice of compulsory education violation;

(b) information regarding the longest number of consecutive school days the school-age ~~[minor] child~~ has been absent or truant from school and the percentage of school days the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child has been absent or truant during each relevant school term;

(c) whether the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child has made adequate educational progress;

(d) whether the requirements of Section 53G-6-206 have been met;

(e) whether the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child is two or more years behind the local public school's age group expectations in one or more basic skills; and

(f) whether the ~~{child}~~ school-age ~~{minor}~~ child is receiving special education services or systematic remediation efforts.

Section 3. Section 53G-6-203 is amended to read:

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

53G-6-203. Truancy -- Notice of truancy -- Failure to cooperate with school authorities.

(1) Except as provided in Section 53G-6-204 or 53G-6-702, a school-age [minor] child who is enrolled in a public school shall attend the public school in which the school-age [minor] child is enrolled.

(2) ~~[A]~~ In accordance with Section 53G-8-211, a local school board, charter school governing board, or school district may impose administrative penalties on a school-age [minor] ~~{} in accordance with Section 53G-8-211~~ child who is:

- (a) in grade 7 or above, unless the school-age child is less than 12 years old; and
- (b) truant.

(3) A local school board or charter school governing board:

(a) may authorize a school administrator, a designee of a school administrator, a law enforcement officer acting as a school resource officer, or a truancy specialist to issue ~~[notices]~~ a notice of truancy [to school-age minors who are at least 12 years old] in accordance with Subsection (4); and

(b) shall establish a procedure for a school-age [minor] child, or the school-age [minor's] child's parents, to contest a notice of truancy.

(4) ~~[The]~~ A notice of truancy described in Subsection (3):

(a) may not be issued until ~~[the]~~ a school-age [minor] child has been truant at least five times during the school year;

(b) may not be issued to a school-age [minor] child who is ~~{} less than 12 years old {}~~ or in a grade below grade 7;

(c) may not be issued to a [minor] school-age child ~~{ minor }~~ exempt from school attendance as provided in Section 53G-6-204 or 53G-6-702;

(d) shall direct the school-age [minor] child who receives the notice of truancy and the parent of the school-age [minor] child to:

(i) meet with school authorities to discuss the school-age [minor's] child's truanancies; and

(ii) cooperate with the local school board, charter school governing board, or school district in securing regular attendance by the school-age [minor] child; and

(e) shall be mailed to, or served on, the school-age [minor's] child's parent.

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

(5) Nothing in this part prohibits a local school board, charter school governing board, or school district from taking action to resolve a truancy problem with a school-age [minor] child who has been truant ~~[less]~~ fewer than five times, provided that the action does not conflict with the requirements of this part.

Section 4. Section 53G-6-204 is amended to read:

53G-6-204. ~~{Minors}~~School-age children exempt from school attendance.

(1) (a) A local school board or charter school governing board may excuse a school-age [minor] child from attendance for any of the following reasons:

(i) a school-age [minor] child over age 16 may receive a partial release from school to enter employment, or attend a trade school, if the school-age [minor] child has completed grade 8; or

(ii) on an annual basis, a school-age [minor] child may receive a full release from attending a public, regularly established private, or part-time school or class if:

(A) the school-age [minor] child has already completed the work required for graduation from high school, or has demonstrated mastery of required skills and competencies in accordance with Subsection 53F-2-501(1);

(B) the school-age [minor] child is in a physical or mental condition, certified by a competent physician if required by the local school board or charter school governing board, which renders attendance inexpedient and impracticable;

(C) proper influences and adequate opportunities for education are provided in connection with the school-age [minor's] child's employment; or

(D) the district superintendent or charter school governing board has determined that a school-age [minor] child over the age of 16 is unable to profit from attendance at school because of inability or a continuing negative attitude toward school regulations and discipline.

(b) A school-age [minor] child receiving a partial release from school under Subsection (1)(a)(i) is required to attend:

(i) school part time as prescribed by the local school board or charter school governing board; or

(ii) a home school part time.

(c) In each case, evidence of reasons for granting an exemption under Subsection (1) must be sufficient to satisfy the local school board or charter school governing board.

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

(d) A local school board or charter school governing board that excuses a school-age [minor] child from attendance as provided by this Subsection (1) shall issue a certificate that the [minor] child is excused from attendance during the time specified on the certificate.

(2) (a) A local school board shall excuse a school-age [minor] child from attendance, if the school-age [minor's] child's parent files a signed and notarized affidavit with the school-age [minor's] child's school district of residence, as defined in Section 53G-6-302, that:

(i) the school-age [minor] child will attend a home school; and

(ii) the parent assumes sole responsibility for the education of the school-age [minor] child, except to the extent the school-age [minor] child is dual enrolled in a public school as provided in Section 53G-6-702.

(b) A signed and notarized affidavit filed in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) shall remain in effect as long as:

(i) the school-age [minor] child attends a home school; and

(ii) the school district where the affidavit was filed remains the school-age [minor's] child's district of residence.

(c) A parent of a school-age [minor] child who attends a home school is solely responsible for:

(i) the selection of instructional materials and textbooks;

(ii) the time, place, and method of instruction; and

(iii) the evaluation of the home school instruction.

(d) A local school board may not:

(i) require a parent of a school-age [minor] child who attends a home school to maintain records of instruction or attendance;

(ii) require credentials for individuals providing home school instruction;

(iii) inspect home school facilities; or

(iv) require standardized or other testing of home school students.

(e) Upon the request of a parent, a local school board shall identify the knowledge, skills, and competencies a student is recommended to attain by grade level and subject area to assist the parent in achieving college and career readiness through home schooling.

(f) A local school board that excuses a school-age [minor] child from attendance as provided by this Subsection (2) shall annually issue a certificate stating that the school-age

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

[minor] child is excused from attendance for the specified school year.

(g) A local school board shall issue a certificate excusing a school-age [minor] child from attendance:

(i) within 30 days after receipt of a signed and notarized affidavit filed by the school-age [minor's] child's parent pursuant to this Subsection (2); and

(ii) on or before August 1 each year thereafter unless:

(A) the school-age [minor] child enrolls in a school within the school district;

(B) the school-age [minor's] child's parent notifies the school district that the school-age [minor] child no longer attends a home school; or

(C) the school-age [minor's] child's parent notifies the school district that the school-age [minor's] child's school district of residence has changed.

(3) A parent who files a signed and notarized affidavit as provided in Subsection (2)(a) is exempt from the application of Subsections 53G-6-202(2), (5), and (6).

(4) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit or discourage voluntary cooperation, resource sharing, or testing opportunities between a school or school district and a parent of a [minor] child attending a home school.

Section ~~{4}~~5. Section 53G-6-205 is amended to read:

53G-6-205. Preapproval of extended absence.

In determining whether to preapprove an extended absence of a school-age [minor] child as a valid excuse [~~under Subsection 53G-6-201(9)(e)~~], a local school board, charter school governing board, or school district shall approve the absence if the local school board, charter school governing board, or school district determines that the extended absence will not adversely impact the school-age [minor's] child's education.

Section ~~{5}~~6. Section 53G-6-206 is amended to read:

53G-6-206. Duties of a local school board, charter school governing board, or school district in resolving attendance problems -- Parental involvement -- Liability not imposed -- Report to state board.

(1) (a) [~~Except as provided in~~] Subject to Subsection (1)(b), a local school board, charter school governing board, or school district shall make efforts to resolve the school attendance problems of each school-age [minor] child who is, or should be, enrolled in the school district.

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

(b) A [minor] school-age child~~{minor}~~ exempt from school attendance under Section 53G-6-204 or 53G-6-702 is not considered to be a [minor] school-age child~~{minor}~~ who is or should be enrolled in a school district or charter school under Subsection (1)(a).

(2) The efforts described in Subsection (1) shall include, as reasonably feasible:

(a) counseling of the [minor] school-age child~~{minor}~~ by school authorities;

(b) ~~(i)~~ issuing a notice of truancy to ~~[a] the school-age [minor]~~ who is at least 12 years old; child in accordance with Section 53G-6-203; or

~~(e)~~ ~~(ii)~~ issuing a notice of compulsory education violation to ~~[a] the school-age {minor's}~~ child's parent ~~[of a school-age child;]~~ in accordance with Section 53G-6-202;

~~(d)~~ ~~(c)~~ making any necessary adjustment to the curriculum and schedule to meet special needs of the [minor] school-age child~~{minor}~~;

~~(e)~~ ~~(d)~~ considering alternatives proposed by ~~[a] the school-age {minor's}~~ child's parent;

~~(f)~~ ~~(e)~~ monitoring school attendance of the [minor] school-age child~~{minor}~~;

~~(g)~~ ~~(f)~~ voluntary participation in truancy mediation, if available; and

~~(h)~~ ~~(g)~~ providing ~~[a] the school-age [minor's]~~ child's parent, upon request, with a list of resources available to assist the parent in resolving the school-age ~~[minor's]~~ child's attendance problems.

(3) In addition to the efforts described in Subsection (2), the local school board, charter school governing board, or school district may enlist the assistance of community and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and reasonably feasible in accordance with Section 53G-8-211.

(4) This section does not impose civil liability on boards of education, local school boards, charter school governing boards, school districts, or their employees.

(5) Proceedings initiated under this part do not obligate or preclude action by the Division of Child and Family Services under Section 78A-6-319.

(6) Each LEA shall annually report the following data separately to the state board regarding:

(a) absences {, both} with a valid excuse; and

(b) absences without a valid excuse.

Section 7. Section 53G-6-208 is amended to read:

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

53G-6-208. Taking custody of a person believed to be a truant minor --

Disposition -- Reports -- Immunity from liability.

(1) A peace officer or public school administrator may take a minor into temporary custody if there is reason to believe the minor is a truant minor.

(2) An individual taking a school-age [minor] child into custody under Subsection (1) shall, without unnecessary delay, release the minor to:

(a) the principal of the minor's school;

(b) a person who has been designated by the local school board or charter school governing board to receive and return the minor to school; or

(c) a truancy center established under Subsection (5).

(3) If the minor refuses to return to school or go to the truancy center, the officer or administrator shall, without unnecessary delay, notify the minor's parents and release the minor to their custody.

(4) If the parents cannot be reached or are unable or unwilling to accept custody and none of the options in Subsection (2) are available, the minor shall be referred to the Division of Child and Family Services.

(5) (a) A local school board or charter school governing board, singly or jointly with another school board, may establish or designate truancy centers within existing school buildings and staff the centers with existing teachers or staff to provide educational guidance and counseling for truant minors. Upon receipt of a truant minor, the center shall, without unnecessary delay, notify and direct the minor's parents to come to the center, pick up the minor, and return the minor to the school in which the minor is enrolled.

(b) If the parents cannot be reached or are unable or unwilling to comply with the request within a reasonable time, the center shall take such steps as are reasonably necessary to insure the safety and well being of the minor, including, when appropriate, returning the minor to school or referring the minor to the Division of Child and Family Services. A minor taken into custody under this section may not be placed in a detention center or other secure confinement facility.

(6) Action taken under this section shall be reported to the appropriate school district. The district shall promptly notify the minor's parents of the action taken.

(7) The Utah Governmental Immunity Act applies to all actions taken under this section.

(8) Nothing in this section may be construed to grant authority to a public school administrator to place a minor in the custody of the Division of Child and Family Services, without complying with Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Part 2, Child Welfare Services, and Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings.

Section 8. Section 53G-8-210 is amended to read:

53G-8-210. Disruptive student behavior.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Disruptive student behavior" includes:

(i) the grounds for suspension or expulsion described in Section 53G-8-205; and

(ii) the conduct described in Subsection 53G-8-209(2)(b).

(b) "Parent" includes:

(i) a custodial parent of a school-age [minor] child;

(ii) a legally appointed guardian of a school-age [minor] child; or

(iii) any other person purporting to exercise any authority over the minor which could be exercised by a person described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii).

(c) "Qualifying minor" means a school-age [minor] child who:

(i) is at least nine years old; or

(ii) turns nine years old at any time during the school year.

(d) "School year" means the period of time designated by a local school board or charter school governing board as the school year for the school where the school-age [minor] child is enrolled.

(e) "School-age minor" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-201.

(2) A local school board, school district, charter school governing board, or charter school may impose administrative penalties in accordance with Section 53G-8-211 on a school-age [minor] child who violates this part.

(3) (a) A local school board or charter school governing board shall:

(i) authorize a school administrator or a designee of a school administrator to issue notices of disruptive student behavior to qualifying minors; and

(ii) establish a procedure for a qualifying minor, or a qualifying minor's parent, to contest a notice of disruptive student behavior.

HB0014S01 compared with HB0014

(b) A school representative shall provide to a parent of a school-age minor child, a list of resources available to assist the parent in resolving the school-age minor's disruptive student behavior problem.

(c) A local school board or charter school governing board shall establish procedures for a school counselor or other designated school representative to work with a qualifying minor who engages in disruptive student behavior in order to attempt to resolve the minor's disruptive student behavior problems.

(4) The notice of disruptive student behavior described in Subsection (3)(a):

(a) shall be issued to a qualifying minor who:

(i) engages in disruptive student behavior, that does not result in suspension or expulsion, three times during the school year; or

(ii) engages in disruptive student behavior, that results in suspension or expulsion, once during the school year;

(b) shall require that the qualifying minor and a parent of the qualifying minor:

(i) meet with school authorities to discuss the qualifying minor's disruptive student behavior; and

(ii) cooperate with the local school board or charter school governing board in correcting the school-age minor's disruptive student behavior; and

(c) shall be mailed by certified mail to, or served on, a parent of the qualifying minor.

(5) A habitual disruptive student behavior notice:

(a) may only be issued to a qualifying minor who:

(i) engages in disruptive student behavior, that does not result in suspension or expulsion, at least six times during the school year;

(ii) (A) engages in disruptive student behavior, that does not result in suspension or expulsion, at least three times during the school year; and

(B) engages in disruptive student behavior, that results in suspension or expulsion, at least once during the school year; or

(iii) engages in disruptive student behavior, that results in suspension or expulsion, at least twice during the school year; and

(b) may only be issued by a school administrator, a designee of a school administrator, or a truancy specialist, who is authorized by a local school board or charter school governing board to issue a habitual disruptive student behavior notice.

(6) (a) A qualifying minor to whom a habitual disruptive student behavior notice is issued under Subsection (5) may not be referred to the juvenile court.

(b) Within five days after the day on which a habitual disruptive student behavior notice is issued, a representative of the school district or charter school shall provide documentation, to a parent of the qualifying minor who receives the notice, of the efforts made by a school counselor or representative under Subsection (3)(c).

Section ~~6}9~~. Section 53G-8-211 is amended to read:

53G-8-211. Responses to school-based behavior.

(1) As used in this section:
