Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 9-1-201 is amended to read:

9-1-201. Department of Heritage and Arts -- Creation -- Powers and duties.

(1) There is created the Department of Heritage and Arts.

(2) The department shall:

(a) be responsible for preserving and promoting the heritage of the state, the arts in the state, and cultural development within the state;

(b) perform heritage, arts, and cultural development planning for the state;

(c) coordinate the program plans of the various divisions within the department;

(d) administer and coordinate all state or federal grant programs which are, or become, available for heritage, arts, and cultural development;

(e) administer any other programs over which the department is given administrative supervision by the governor;

(f) submit an annual written report to the governor and the Legislature as described in Section 9-1-208;

(g) ensure that any training or certification required of a public official or public employee, as those terms are defined in Section 63G-22-102, complies with Title 63G, Chapter 22, State Training and Certification Requirements, if the training or certification is required:

(i) under this title;

(ii) by the department; or

(iii) by an agency or division within the department; and

(h) perform any other duties as provided by the Legislature.

(3) The department may:

(a) solicit and accept contributions of money, services, and facilities from any other sources, public or private, but may not use those contributions for publicizing the exclusive interest of the donor[-]; and

(b) establish a nonprofit foundation called the Heritage and Arts Foundation under the control and direction of the executive director to assist in the development and implementation of the programs and objectives described in this title.

(4) Money received under Subsection (3)(a) shall be deposited ~~in~~ into the General

59 Fund as dedicated credits.

60 (5) A foundation established by the department under Subsection (3)(b):

61 (a) may receive contributions of money, services, and facilities from legislative

62 appropriations, government grants, and private sources for the development and

63 implementation of the programs and objectives described in this title;

64 (b) shall comply with the requirements described in Section 9-1-209; and

65 (c) shall provide information detailing all transactions and balances associated with the

66 foundation to the department, which shall be summarized by the department and included in

67 the department's annual report described in Section 9-1-208.

68 [~~5~~] (6) (a) For a pass-through funding grant of $50,000 or less, the department shall 69 make an annual disbursement to the pass-through funding grant recipient.

70 (b) For a pass-through funding grant of more than $50,000, the department shall make 71 a semiannual disbursement to the pass-through funding grant recipient, contingent upon the 72 department receiving a semiannual progress report from the pass-through funding grant
73 recipient.

74 (c) The department shall:

75 (i) provide the pass-through funding grant recipient with a progress report form for the 76 reporting purposes described in Subsection [~~5~~] (6)(b); and

77 (ii) include reporting requirement instructions with the form.

78 Section 2. Section 9-1-209 is enacted to read:

79 9-1-209. Heritage and Arts Foundation Fund.

80 (1) As used in this section, "fund" means the Heritage and Arts Foundation Fund
81 created in this section.

82 (2) There is created an expendable special revenue fund known as the "Heritage and 83 Arts Foundation Fund."

84 (3) The executive director shall administer the fund.

85 (4) Money may be deposited into the fund from a variety of sources, including 86 transfers, grants, private foundations, individual donors, gifts, bequests, legislative 87 appropriations, and money made available from any other source.

88 (5) Money collected by the Heritage and Arts Foundation described in Subsections
89 9-22-104(3)(b) and (5) shall be deposited into the fund.

90 (6) Any portion of the fund may be treated as an endowment fund such that the 91 principal of that portion of the fund is held in perpetuity on behalf of the department.

92 (7) The state treasurer shall invest the money in the fund according to the procedures
93 and requirements of Title 51, Chapter 7, State Money Management Act, except that all interest
94 or other earnings derived from those investments shall be deposited into the fund.

95 (8) The executive director may expend money from the fund for any of the purposes
96 described in this title.
