190 Section 2. Section 13-32a-104 is amended to read:

191 13-32a-104. Tickets required to be maintained -- Contents -- Identification of 192 items -- Prohibition against pawning or selling certain property.

193 (1) A pawn or secondhand business shall keep a ticket for property a person pawns or 194 sells to the pawn or secondhand business. A pawn or secondhand business shall document on 195 the ticket the following information regarding the property:

- 196 (a) the date and time of the transaction;
- 197 (b) whether the transaction is a pawn or purchase;
- 198 (c) the ticket number;
- 199 (d) the date by which the property must be redeemed, if the property is pawned;
- 200 (e) the following information regarding the individual who pawns or sells the property:
  - 201 (i) the individual's full name and date of birth as they appear on the individual's
  - 202 identification and the individual's residence address and telephone number;
  - 203 (ii) the unique number and type of identification presented to the pawn or secondhand
  - 204 business;
  - 205 (iii) the individual's signature; and
  - 206 (iv) subject to Subsection (6), a legible fingerprint of the individual's right index finger,
  - 207 or if the right index finger cannot be fingerprinted, a legible fingerprint of the individual with a
  - 208 notation identifying the fingerprint and the reason why the index finger's print was unavailable;
  - 209 (f) the amount loaned on, paid for, or value for trade-in of each article of property;
  - 210 (g) the full name of the individual conducting the pawn transaction or secondhand
  - 211 merchandise transaction on behalf of the pawn or secondhand business or the initials or a
  - 212 unique identifying number of the individual, if the pawn or secondhand business maintains a
  - 213 record of the initials or unique identifying number of the individual; and

214 (h) an accurate description of each article of property, with available identifying marks, 215 including:

216 (i) names, brand names, numbers, serial numbers, electronic serial numbers, model
217 numbers, color, manufacturers' names, and size;

218 (ii) metallic composition, and any jewels, stones, or glass;

219 (iii) any other marks of identification or indicia of ownership on the property;

220 (iv) the weight of the property, if the payment is based on weight;

221 (v) any other unique identifying feature;

222 (vi) gold content, if indicated; [or]

223 (vii) if multiple articles of property of a similar nature are delivered together in one
224 transaction and the articles of property do not bear serial or model numbers and do not include 225 precious metals or gemstones, such as musical or video recordings, books, or hand tools, the 226 description of the articles is adequate if it includes the quantity of the articles and a description 227 of the type of articles delivered[-]; or

228 (viii) if the electronic serial number of a wireless communication device is not 229 available at the time of purchase, a unique identifier to the wireless communication device:

230 (A) assigned by the pawn or secondhand business that directly associates the wireless 231 communication device to the transaction when the wireless communication device was 232 purchased; and

233 (B) affixed to the wireless communication device by the seller at the time of purchase 234 by the pawn or secondhand business.

235 (2) (a) A pawn or secondhand business may not accept property if, upon inspection, it 236 is apparent that:

237 (i) a serial number or another form of indicia of ownership has been removed, altered,
238 defaced, or obliterated;

239 (ii) a wireless communication device's electronic serial number is not available at the 240 time of purchase, unless the purchase price paid does not exceed $25;

241 ~~[(ii)]~~ (iii) the property is not a numismatic item and has indicia of being new, but is not 242 accompanied by a written receipt or other satisfactory proof of ownership other than the seller's 243 own statement; or

244 ~~[(iii)]~~ (iv) except as provided in Subsection 13-32a-103.1\(3\), the property is a gift card,

245 transaction card, or other physical or digital card or certificate evidencing store credit.

246 (b) A pawn or secondhand business is not subject to Subsection (2)(a)~~(ii)~~(iii) if the 247 pawn or secondhand business is the original seller of the property and is accepting a return of 248 the property as provided by the pawn or secondhand business' established return policy.

249 (c) Property is presumed to have had indicia of being new at the time of a transaction if 250 the property is subsequently advertised by the pawn or secondhand business as being new.

251 (d) The division may annually review the dollar amount provided in Subsection
252 (2)(a)(ii) and adjust the amount by rule, made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah
253 Administrative Rulemaking Act, and in accordance with the division's authority under 254 Subsection 13-32a-102.5(1).

255 (3) (a) An individual may not pawn or sell any property to a business regulated under 256 this chapter if the property is subject to being turned over to a law enforcement agency in 257 accordance with Title 77, Chapter 24a, Lost or Mislaid Personal Property.

258 (b) If an individual attempts to sell or pawn property to a business regulated under this 259 chapter and the employee or owner of the business knows or has reason to know that the 260 property is subject to Title 77, Chapter 24a, Lost or Mislaid Personal Property, the employee or 261 owner shall advise the individual of the requirements of Title 77, Chapter 24a, Lost or Mislaid
262 Personal Property, and may not receive the property in pawn or sale.

263 (c) An individual may not exceed 10 wireless communication device sales to a pawn or 264 secondhand business over a one-year period if the electronic serial number for those wireless 265 communication devices is not available at the time of purchase.

266 (d) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(h)(vii), a wireless communication device that does 267 not have an available electronic serial number at the time of purchase by a pawn or secondhand
268 business may only be purchased by the pawn or secondhand business in a single item 269 transaction.

270 (4) A coin dealer is subject to Section 13-32a-104.5 and not subject to this section.

271 (5) A violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor and is also subject to civil 272 penalties under Section 13-32a-110.

273 (6) (a) On and after January 1, 2020:

274 (i) a pawn or secondhand business shall obtain an electronic legible fingerprint of the 275 individual's right index finger that can be submitted to the central database at the same time the

276 other information is submitted under this section, or if the right index finger cannot be 277 fingerprinted, an electronic legible fingerprint of the individual with a notation on the ticket 278 identifying the fingerprint and the reason why a right index fingerprint is unavailable; and 279 (ii) the electronic fingerprint is not required on the ticket.

280 (b) On and after January 1, 2020, a pawn or secondhand business shall submit an 281 electronic legible fingerprint obtained under Subsection (6)(a) to the central database.

282 (7) (a) As used in this Subsection (7), "jewelry" means:

283 (i) any jewelry purchased by the pawn or secondhand business, including scrap jewelry 284 and watches; or

285 (ii) any jewelry that the pawn or secondhand business is allowed to sell under 286 Subsection 13-32a-109(1), including scrap jewelry and watches.

287 (b) On and after January 1, 2020, a pawn or secondhand business shall obtain:

288 (i) a color digital photograph clearly and accurately depicting:

289 (A) each item of jewelry; and

290 (B) if an item of jewelry has one or more engravings, an additional color digital 291 photograph specifically depicting any engraving; and

292 (ii) a color digital photograph of an item that bears an identifying mark, including:

293 (A) a serial number, engraving, owner label, or similar identifying mark; and

294 (B) an additional photograph that clearly depicts the identifying mark described in 295 Subsection (7)(b)(ii)(A) unless the article is a wireless communications device.

296 (c) A pawn or secondhand business that purchases a wireless communication device
297 shall obtain:

298 (i) a color digital photograph of the individual selling the wireless communication 299 device;

300 (ii) a color digital photograph of the wireless communication device; and

301 (iii) a color digital photograph of the seller label if required under Subsection 302 (1)(h)(viii).

303 Section 3. Section 13-32a-106 is amended to read:

304 13-32a-106. Transaction information provided to the central database --
305 Protected information.

306 (1) (a) A pawn or secondhand business shall transmit electronically in a compatible

307 format information required to be recorded under Sections 13-32a-103, 13-32a-104, and 308 13-32a-104.5 that is capable of being transmitted electronically to the central database within 309 24 hours after entering into the transaction.

310 (b) The division may specify by rule, made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3,
311 Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the information capable of being transmitted
312 electronically under Subsection (1)(a).

313 (c) If a wireless communication device's electronic serial number is not available at the 314 time of purchase by a pawn or secondhand business, the transaction information to be provided
315 to the central database shall be updated if the electronic serial number is available within 15
316 calendar days after the date of purchase.

317 (2) A pawn or secondhand business shall maintain tickets generated by the pawn or 318 secondhand business and shall maintain the tickets in a manner so that the tickets are available
319 to local law enforcement agencies as required by this chapter and as requested by any law
320 enforcement agency as part of an investigation or reasonable random inspection conducted 321 pursuant to this chapter.

322 (3) (a) If a pawn or secondhand business experiences a computer or electronic 323 malfunction that affects its ability to report transactions as required in Subsection (1), the pawn
324 or secondhand business shall immediately notify the division and the local law enforcement 325 agency of the malfunction.

326 (b) The pawn or secondhand business shall solve the malfunction within three business
327 days or notify the division and the local law enforcement agency under Subsection (4).

328 (4) If the computer or electronic malfunction under Subsection (3) cannot be solved 329 within three business days, the pawn or secondhand business shall notify the division and the 330 local law enforcement agency of the reasons for the delay and provide documentation from a 331 reputable computer maintenance company of the reasons why the computer or electronic 332 malfunction cannot be solved within three business days.

333 (5) A computer or electronic malfunction does not suspend the pawn or secondhand
334 business' obligation to comply with all other provisions of this chapter.

335 (6) During the malfunction under Subsections (3) and (4), the pawn or secondhand 336 business shall:

337 (a) arrange with the local law enforcement agency a mutually acceptable alternative

338 method by which the pawn or secondhand business provides the required information to the 339 local law enforcement agency; and

340 (b) a pawn or secondhand business shall maintain the tickets and other related 341 information required under this chapter in a written form.

342 (7) A pawn or secondhand business that violates the electronic transaction reporting 343 requirement of this section is subject to an administrative fine of $50 per day if:

344 (a) the pawn or secondhand business is unable to submit the information electronically
345 due to a computer or electronic malfunction;

346 (b) the three business day period under Subsection (3) has expired; and

347 (c) the pawn or secondhand business has not provided documentation regarding its 348 inability to solve the malfunction as required under Subsection (4).

349 (8) A pawn or secondhand business is not responsible for a delay in transmission of 350 information that results from a malfunction in the central database.

351 (9) A violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor and is also subject to civil
352 penalties under Section 13-32a-110.

353 Section 4. Section 13-32a-109 is amended to read:

354 13-32a-109. Holding period for property -- Return of property -- Penalty.

355 (1) (a) A pawnbroker may sell property pawned to the pawnbroker if:

356 (i) 15 calendar days have passed after the day on which the pawnbroker submits the 357 information and any required photograph to the central database;

358 (ii) the contract period between the pawnbroker and the pledgor expires; and

359 (iii) the pawnbroker has complied with Sections 13-32a-103, 13-32a-104, and 360 13-32a-106.

361 (b) If property, including scrap jewelry, is purchased by a pawn or secondhand
362 business, the pawn or secondhand business may sell the property if the pawn or secondhand 363 business has held the property for 15 calendar days after the day on which the pawn or 364 secondhand business submits the information to the central database, and complied with 365 Sections 13-32a-103, 13-32a-104, and 13-32a-106, except that the pawn or secondhand
366 business is not required to hold precious metals or numismatic items under this Subsection 367 (1)(b).

368 (c) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Subsection (1), if the wireless

369 communication device's electronic serial number is updated to the central database pursuant to 370 Subsection 13-32a-106(1)(c), the pawn or secondhand business may sell the wireless
371 communication device only if the pawn or secondhand business holds the wireless 372 communication device for at least 30 calendar days after the date of purchase.

373 (d) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Subsection (1), if the wireless 374 communication device's electronic serial number is not available and cannot be updated to the 375 central database pursuant to Subsection 13-32a-106(1)(c), the pawn or secondhand business 376 may sell the wireless communication device only if the pawn or secondhand business holds the 377 wireless communication device for at least 60 calendar days after the date of purchase.

378 ~~[(e)]~~ (e) (i) This Subsection (1) does not preclude a law enforcement agency from 379 requiring a pawn or secondhand business to hold property if necessary in the course of an 380 investigation.

381 (ii) If the property is pawned, the law enforcement agency may require the property be 382 held beyond the terms of the contract between the pledgor and the pawnbroker.

383 (iii) If the property is sold to the pawn or secondhand business, the law enforcement 384 agency may require the property be held if the pawn or secondhand business has not sold the 385 article.

386 ~~[(d)]~~ (f) If the law enforcement agency requesting a hold on property under this 387 Subsection (1) is not the local law enforcement agency, the requesting law enforcement agency
388 shall notify the local law enforcement agency of the request and also the pawn or secondhand
389 business.

390 (2) If a law enforcement agency requires the pawn or secondhand business to hold 391 property as part of an investigation, the law enforcement agency shall provide to the pawn or 392 secondhand business a hold form issued by the law enforcement agency, that:

393 (a) states the active case number;

394 (b) confirms the date of the hold request and the property to be held; and

395 (c) facilitates the ability of the pawn or secondhand business to track the property when 396 the prosecution takes over the case.

397 (3) If property is not seized by a law enforcement agency that has placed a hold on the 398 property, the property shall remain in the custody of the pawn or secondhand business until 399 further disposition by the law enforcement agency, and as consistent with this chapter.

400 (4) The initial hold by a law enforcement agency is for a period of 90 days. If the 401 property is not seized by the law enforcement agency, the property shall remain in the custody
402 of the pawn or secondhand business and is subject to the hold unless exigent circumstances 403 require the property to be seized by the law enforcement agency.

404 (5) (a) A law enforcement agency may extend any hold for up to an additional 90 days 405 if circumstances require the extension.

406 (b) If there is an extension of a hold under Subsection (5)(a), the requesting law
407 enforcement agency shall notify the pawn or secondhand business that is subject to the hold 408 [~~prior to~~] before the expiration of the initial 90 days.

409 (c) A law enforcement agency may not hold an item for more than the 180 days
410 allowed under Subsections (5)(a) and (b) without obtaining a court order authorizing the hold.

411 (6) A hold on property under Subsection (2) takes precedence over any request to claim 412 or purchase the property subject to the hold.

413 (7) If an original victim who has complied with Section 13-32a-115 has not been 414 identified and the hold or seizure of the property is terminated, the law enforcement agency
415 requiring the hold or seizure shall within 15 business days after the termination:

416 (a) notify the pawn or secondhand business in writing that the hold or seizure has been 417 terminated;

418 (b) return the property subject to the seizure to the pawn or secondhand business; or

419 (c) if the property is not returned to the pawn or secondhand business, advise the pawn
420 or secondhand business either in writing or electronically of the specific alternative disposition 421 of the property.

422 (8) (a) If the original victim who has complied with Section 13-32a-115 has been 423 identified and the hold or seizure of property is terminated, the law enforcement agency 424 requiring the hold or seizure shall:

425 (i) document the original victim who has positively identified the property; and

426 (ii) provide the documented information concerning the original victim to the 427 prosecuting agency to determine whether continued possession of the property is necessary for 428 purposes of prosecution, as provided in Section 24-3-103.

429 (b) If the prosecuting agency determines that continued possession of the property is 430 not necessary for purposes of prosecution, as provided in Section 24-3-103, the prosecuting

431 agency shall provide a written or electronic notification to the law enforcement agency that 432 authorizes the return of the property to an original victim who has complied with Section
433 13-32a-115.

434 (c) (i) A law enforcement agency shall promptly provide notice to the pawn or 435 secondhand business of the authorized return of the property under this Subsection (8).

436 (ii) The notice shall identify the original victim, advise the pawn or secondhand
437 business that the original victim has identified the property, and direct the pawn or secondhand
438 business to release the property to the original victim at no cost to the original victim.

439 (iii) If the property was seized, the notice shall advise that the property will be returned
440 to the original victim within 15 days after the day on which the pawn or secondhand business
441 receives the notice, except as provided under Subsection (8)(d).

442 (d) The pawn or secondhand business shall release property under Subsection (8)(c) 443 unless within 15 days of receiving the notice the pawn or secondhand business complies with 444 Section 13-32a-116.5.

445 (9) If the law enforcement agency does not notify the pawn or secondhand business 446 that a hold on the property has expired, the pawn or secondhand business shall send a letter by 447 registered or certified mail to the law enforcement agency that ordered the hold and inform the 448 agency that the holding period has expired. The law enforcement agency shall respond within 449 30 days by:

450 (a) confirming that the hold period has expired and that the pawn or secondhand 451 business may manage the property as if acquired in the ordinary course of business; or

452 (b) providing written notice to the pawn or secondhand business that a court order has 453 continued the period of time for which the item shall be held.

454 (10) The written notice under Subsection (9)(b) is considered provided when:

455 (a) personally delivered to the pawn or secondhand business with a signed receipt of 456 delivery;

457 (b) delivered to the pawn or secondhand business by registered or certified mail; or

458 (c) delivered by any other means with the mutual assent of the law enforcement agency 459 and the pawn or secondhand business.

460 (11) If the law enforcement agency does not respond within 30 days under Subsection
461 (9), the pawn or secondhand business may manage the property as if acquired in the ordinary 462 course of business.

463 (12) A violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor and is also subject to civil

464 penalties under Section 13-32a-110.
