1065 placement files a written petition with the court requesting the extension and setting forth good 1066 cause; and

1067 (ii) the court enters a written finding that it is in the best interests of both the minor and 1068 the community to extend the period of detention.

1069 (c) The court may extend the period of detention beyond the seven calendar days if the 1070 court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

1072 placement does not have space for the minor; and

1073 (ii) the safety of the minor and community requires an extension of the period of 1074 detention.

1075 (d) The Division of Juvenile Justice Services shall report to the court every 48 hours,
1076 excluding weekends and holidays, regarding the status of whether the Division of Juvenile 1077 Justice Services or another agency responsible for placement has space for the minor.

1078 (7) The agency requesting an extension shall promptly notify the detention facility that 1079 a written petition has been filed.

1085 this Subsection (9).

1086 (b) A child 16 years of age or older whose conduct or condition endangers the safety or 1087 welfare of others in the detention facility for children may, by court order that specifies the 1088 reasons, be detained in another place of confinement considered appropriate by the court, 1089 including a jail or other place of confinement for adults. However, a secure facility is not an 1090 appropriate place of confinement for detention purposes under this section.

1091 (10) A sheriff, warden, or other official in charge of a jail or other facility for the 1092 detention of adult offenders or persons charged with crime shall immediately notify the 1093 juvenile court when a person who is or appears to be under 18 years of age is received at the 1094 facility and shall make arrangements for the transfer of the person to a detention facility, unless 1095 otherwise ordered by the juvenile court.

1096 (11) This section does not apply to a minor who is brought to the adult facility under 1097 charges pursuant to Section 78A-6-701 or by order of the juvenile court to be held for criminal
1098 proceedings in the district court under Section 78A-6-702 or 78A-6-703.

1099 (12) A minor held for criminal proceedings under Section 78A-6-701, 78A-6-702, or 1100 78A-6-703 may be detained in a jail or other place of detention used for adults charged with 1101 crime.

1102 (13) Provisions of law regarding bail are not applicable to minors detained or taken
1103 into custody under this chapter, except that bail may be allowed:

1104 (a) if a minor who need not be detained lives outside this state; or

1105 (b) when a minor who need not be detained comes within one of the classes in 1106 Subsection 78A-6-603(11).

1107 (14) Section 76-8-418 is applicable to a child who willfully and intentionally commits
1108 an act against a jail or other place of confinement, including a Division of Juvenile Justice

1109 Services detention, shelter, or secure confinement facility which would be a third degree felony
1110 if committed by an adult.

1291 occurred, who desires to assume custody of the child.
1292 (b) If another natural parent requests custody under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall

1313 the parent who has assumed custody, or both; and

1314 (c) the court shall order reasonable parent-time with the parent from whose custody the 1315 child was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the child.

1316 (4) The court shall periodically review an order described in Subsection (3) to

1415 and

1466 child and one friend designated by the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate
1467 the child's wishes in relation to a placement[;]:

1468 [~~(ii) The court or the division~~]

1469 (iii) may limit the number of designated friends to two, one of whom shall be a friend
1470 designated by the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in 1471 relation to a placement[;]; and

1472 [~~(iii) The court and the division~~]

1473 (iv) shall give preference to a friend designated by the child, if:

1474 (A) the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes; and

1475 (B) the basis for removing the child under Section 78A-6-306 is sexual abuse of the 1476 child.

1477 (e) If a parent of the child or the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate
1478 the child's wishes in relation to a placement, is not able to designate a friend who is a licensed

1480 licensed as a foster parent:

1481 (i) the department shall fully cooperate to expedite the licensing process for the friend;

1486 (19) If, following the shelter hearing, the child is placed with an individual who is not a

1487 parent, a relative, a friend, or a former foster parent of the child, priority shall be given to a
1488 foster placement with a [~~man and a woman who are married to each other~~] married couple,
1489 unless it is in the best interests of the child to place the child with a single foster parent.

1490 (20) In determining the placement of a child, neither the court, nor the division, may 1491 take into account, or discriminate against, the religion of an individual with whom the child
1492 may be placed, unless the purpose of taking religion into account is to place the child with an 1493 individual or family of the same religion as the child.

1494 (21) If the court's decision differs from a child's express wishes if the child is of 1495 sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to the child's placement, the court shall 1496 make findings explaining why the court's decision differs from the child's wishes.

1574 (5) Except as provided in Subsection (6), an adult may not adopt a child if, before

1588 (k) an offense in another state that, if committed in this state, would constitute an 1589 offense described in this Subsection (5).

1590 (6) (a) For purpose of this Subsection (6), "disqualifying offense" means an offense
1591 listed in Subsection (5) that prevents a court from considering [~~a person~~] an individual for 1592 adoption of a child except as provided in this Subsection (6).

1593 (b) [~~A person~~] An individual described in Subsection (5) may only be considered for 1594 adoption of a child if the following criteria are met by clear and convincing evidence:

1596 successfully released from prison, jail, parole, or probation related to a disqualifying offense;
- 1597 (ii) during the 10 years before the day on which the [person] individual files a petition

1604 cause harm, as defined in Section 78A-6-105, or potential harm to the child currently or at any 1605 time in the future when considering all of the following:
- 1606 (A) the child's age;

 - 1611 (F) any available assessments, including custody evaluations, home studies,
1612 pre-placement adoptive evaluations, parenting assessments, psychological or mental health 1613 assessments, and bonding assessments; and
 - 1614 (G) any other relevant information;
- 1615 (v) the [person] individual can provide evidence of all of the following:
- 1616 (A) the relationship with the child is of long duration;
 - 1617 (B) that an emotional bond exists with the child; and

- 1620 (vi) the adoption is by:
- 1621 (A) a stepparent whose spouse is the adoptee's parent and consents to the adoption; or

1622 (B) subject to Subsection (6)(d), a relative of the child as defined in Section 78A-6-307

1624 (c) The [person] individual with the disqualifying offense bears the burden of proof
1625 regarding why adoption with that [person] individual is in the best interest of the child over
1626 another responsible relative or equally situated [person] individual who does not have a 1627 disqualifying offense.

1628 (d) If there is an alternative responsible relative who does not have a disqualifying
1629 offense filing an adoption petition, the following applies:

1630 (i) preference for adoption shall be given to a relative who does not have a 1631 disqualifying offense; and

1632 (ii) before the court may grant adoption to the [person] individual who has the 1633 disqualifying offense over another responsible, willing, and able relative:

1634 (A) an impartial custody evaluation shall be completed; and 1635 (B) a guardian ad litem shall be assigned.

1636 (7) Subsections (5) and (6) apply to a case pending on March 25, 2017, for which a
