of the first class; or

(B) on or after January 1, 2022, is located in a county of the first, second, or third class.†

† (e) "Wildfire preparedness action" means one or more expenses paid by a claimant during a calendar year to reduce the risk of wildfire on the claimant's qualifying property.

(2) (a) In accordance with this section, a percentage of the taxable value of a claimant's qualifying property is exempt from taxation for a calendar year beginning:

(i) on or after January 1, 2022;

(ii) before January 1, 2027; and

(iii) immediately following the calendar year in which a wildfire preparedness action occurs on the claimant's qualifying property.

(b) The percentage described in Subsection (2)(a) is equal to the lesser of:

(i) the percentage calculated by dividing the amount of the wildfire preparedness action by the amount of the property tax liability on the qualifying property for the calendar year in which the wildfire preparedness action occurred;

(ii) the percentage established by the county in accordance with Subsection (3); or

(iii) the percentage that, accounting for all other applicable exemptions, makes the total reduction of the qualifying property's taxable value 80% of the taxable value.

(3) A county legislative body may by resolution establish a percentage that represents the maximum portion of the taxable value of qualifying property that may be exempt from taxation under this section.

(4) To receive the exemption described in Subsection (2), no later than April 1 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the wildfire preparedness action occurs, the claimant shall submit to the county an application:

(a) on a form prescribed by the commission; and

(b) that includes a copy of the property tax exemption document.

(5) (a) To obtain a property tax exemption document, a property owner shall submit to the division proof of a wildfire preparedness action.

(b) If the division determines that the property owner qualifies for a property tax exemption under this section, the division shall provide the property owner a written property tax exemption document that states:

SB0134S03 compared with SB0134S02

(i) that the property owner qualifies for a property tax exemption under this section;
and

(ii) the amount of the wildfire preparedness action as provided in the proof submitted to the division in accordance with Subsection (5)(a).

(6) When the division makes a designation that results in qualifying property constituting more than 10% of the taxable value of property within a taxing entity, the division shall provide written notification to the taxing entity.

(7) The division shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to establish:

(a) a process and standards for determining whether a property qualifies for a property tax exemption under this section; and

(b) procedures for issuing a property tax exemption document.

Section 2. Section 63I-1-259 is amended to read:

63I-1-259. Repeal dates, Title 59.

(1) Section 59-1-213.1 is repealed on May 9, 2024.
