- 58 (iii) for a local school district, the local school board;
- 59 (iv) for a special service district:
- 60 (A) the legislative body of the county, city, or town that established the special service
61 district, if no administrative control board has been appointed under Section 17D-1-301; or
- 62 (B) the administrative control board of the special service district, if an administrative 63 control board has been appointed under Section 17D-1-301; and
- 64 (v) for a political subdivision not listed in Subsections (1)(d)(i) through (iv), the body 65 that governs the affairs of the political subdivision.
- 66 (e) "Temporary replacement" means the person appointed by the political subdivision's 67 governing body in accordance with this section to exercise the powers and duties of the office
68 of the elected official who takes military leave.
- 69 (2) An elected official creates a vacancy in the elected official's office if the elected 70 official is called to active, full-time duty in the armed forces in accordance with Title 10,
71 U.S.C.A. unless the elected official takes military leave as provided by this section.
- 72 (3) (a) An elected official who is called to active, full-time duty in the armed forces in 73 a status other than in accordance with Title 10, U.S.C.A. shall notify the political subdivision's 74 governing body of the elected official's orders not later than five days after receipt of orders.
- 75 (b) The elected official described in Subsection (3)(a) may:
- 76 (i) continue to carry out the official's duties if possible while on active, full-time duty;
- 77 or
- 78 (ii) take military leave if the elected official submits to the political subdivision's 79 governing body written notice of the intent to take military leave and the expected duration of 80 the military leave.
- 81 (4) (a) An elected official who chooses to continue to carry out the official's duties
82 while on active, full-time duty shall, within 10 days after arrival at the official's place of 83 deployment, confirm in writing to the political subdivision's governing body that the official 84 has the ability to carry out the official's duties.
- 85 (b) If no confirmation is received by the political subdivision within the time period

86 described in Subsection (4)(a), the elected official shall be placed in a military leave status and 87 a temporary replacement appointed in accordance with Subsection (6).

88 (5) An elected official's military leave:

89 (a) begins the later of:

90 (i) the day after the day on which the elected official notifies the political subdivision's
91 governing body of the intent to take military leave;

92 (ii) day 11 after the elected official's deployment if no confirmation is received in 93 accordance with Subsection (4)(a); or

94 (iii) the day on which the elected official begins active, full-time duty in the armed 95 forces; and

96 (b) ends the sooner of:

97 (i) the expiration of the elected official's term of office; or

98 (ii) the day on which the elected official ends active, full-time duty in the armed forces.

99 (6) A temporary replacement shall:

100 (a) meet the qualifications required to hold the office; and

101 (b) be appointed:

102 (i) in the same manner as provided by this part for a midterm vacancy if a registered 103 political party nominated the elected official who takes military leave as a candidate for the 104 office; or

105 (ii) by the political subdivision's governing body after submitting an application in 106 accordance with Subsection (8)(b) if a registered political party did not nominate the elected
107 official who takes military leave as a candidate for office.

108 (7) (a) A temporary replacement shall exercise the powers and duties of the office for 109 which the temporary replacement is appointed for the duration of the elected official's military 110 leave.

111 (b) An elected official may not exercise the powers or duties of the office while on 112 military leave.

113 (c) If a temporary replacement is not appointed as required by Subsection (6)(b), no

114 person may exercise the powers and duties of the elected official's office during the elected
115 official's military leave.

116 (8) The political subdivision's governing body shall establish:

117 (a) the distribution of the emoluments of the office between the elected official and the 118 temporary replacement; and

119 (b) an application form and the date and time before which a person shall submit the 120 application to be considered by the political subdivision's governing body for appointment as a 121 temporary replacement.

122 Section 2. Section 20A-16-102 is amended to read:
