Utah Code Sections Affected:

ENACTS:

76-10-503.2, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-10-503.2 is enacted to read:

76-10-503.2. Surrender of firearm and ammunition by a restricted person.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Federally licensed firearms dealer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 27-3-103.5.

(b) "Restricted person" means an individual restricted from possessing, purchasing, transferring, or owning a firearm or ammunition as a result of a conviction, in accordance with Section 76-10-503.

(2) If, upon conviction or plea in a criminal proceeding, an individual becomes a restricted person, the court presiding over the criminal proceeding shall order the individual to:

(a) surrender each firearm and all ammunition that the individual owns or possesses within:

(i) 10 days after the day on which:

(A) the court issues the order described in this subsection; or

(B) the restricted person is released from law enforcement custody, if the restricted person is held in law enforcement custody upon conviction or plea; or

(ii) a time period designated by the court that is less than the 10-day time period described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), if the court finds the 10-day time period is insufficient to reasonably ensure the safety of the public;

(b) transfer ownership or possession of each firearm and any ammunition the restricted person owns or possesses as provided in Subsection (3); and

(c) submit the documentation described in Subsection (6) to the court.

(3) In accordance with Subsection (2)(b), the restricted person shall:

(a) sell or transfer each firearm and any ammunition owned by the restricted person to one or more of the following:

(i) a licensed firearm dealer;

(ii) a law enforcement agency; or

(iii) an individual not cohabitating with the restricted person; and

(b) transfer each firearm and any ammunition not owned, but in the possession of the restricted person, to one or more of the following:

(i) the owner of the firearm or ammunition, if the owner of the firearm or ammunition:

(A) does not cohabit with the restricted person; or

(B) cohabitates with the restricted person and maintains the firearm and ammunition at a secure location that is not known or accessible to the restricted person; or

(ii) a law enforcement agency.

(4) This section does not prevent a restricted person from receiving compensation in exchange for the lawful sale of a firearm or ammunition owned by the restricted person, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a law enforcement agency that receives a firearm and ammunition from a restricted person under this section may dispose of the firearm and ammunition in any manner described in Section 24-3-103.5.

(6) No later than one business day after the day on which the restricted person completes surrender of each of the restricted person's firearms and any ammunition, the restricted person shall file an affidavit signed by the restricted person stating that the restricted person:

(a) has relinquished ownership and possession of all firearms and all ammunition;

(b) acknowledges and understands that the restricted person's ownership or possession of a firearm and ammunition is a violation of federal and state law; and

(c) has fully complied with the court's order described in Subsection (2).

(7) A restricted person's failure to timely comply with an order described in Subsection (2) may serve as probable cause to support prosecution under Section 76-10-503.

(8) If, upon becoming a restricted person, the restricted person represents to the court that the restricted person does not own or possess a firearm or any ammunition, the restricted person shall sign an affidavit in the presence of the court that states the restricted person:

(a) does not own or possess a firearm or any ammunition; and

(b) acknowledges and understands that the possession of a firearm and ammunition is a violation of state and federal law.
