(j) the parent permitted the minor to reside, on a permanent or temporary basis, at a location where the parent knew or should have known that a clandestine laboratory operation was located;

(k) except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), with respect to a parent who is the minor's birth mother, the minor has fetal alcohol syndrome, fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, or was exposed to an illegal or prescription drug that was abused by the minor's mother while the minor was in utero, if the minor was taken into division custody for that reason, unless the mother agrees to enroll in, is currently enrolled in, or has recently and successfully completed a substance use disorder treatment program approved by the department; or

(l) any other circumstance that the juvenile court determines should preclude reunification efforts or services.

(6) (a) The juvenile court shall base the finding under Subsection (5)(b) on competent evidence from at least two medical or mental health professionals, who are not associates, establishing that, even with the provision of services, the parent is not likely to be capable of adequately caring for the minor within 12 months after the day on which the juvenile court finding is made.

(b) The juvenile court may disregard the provisions of Subsection (5)(k) if the juvenile court finds, under the circumstances of the case, that the substance use disorder treatment described in Subsection (5)(k) is not warranted.

(8) If, under Subsections (5)(b) through (l), the juvenile court does not order reunification services, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(9) (a) Subject to Subsections (9)(b) and (c), if the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, the juvenile court shall provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the minor was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor.

(b) Parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless the juvenile court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the minor;

(ii) protect the life of the minor; or

(iii) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), a juvenile court may not deny parent-time based solely on a parent's failure to:

(i) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or

(ii) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the juvenile court.

~~[(11)]~~ (10) (a) If the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall order that the division make reasonable efforts to provide services to the minor and the minor's parent for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family, for a specified period of time.

(b) In providing the services described in Subsection ~~[(11)]~~ (10)(a), the [minor's] juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare [shall be the division's] as the paramount concern[~~, and the court shall so order~~].

(i) determine whether the services offered or provided by the division under the child and family plan constitute [~~"reasonable efforts"~~] reasonable efforts on the part of the division;

(ii) determine and define the responsibilities of the parent under the child and family plan in accordance with Subsection 62A-4a-205(6)(e); and

(iii) identify verbally on the record, or in a written document provided to the parties, the responsibilities described in Subsection (12)(a)(ii), for the purpose of assisting in any future determination regarding the provision of reasonable efforts, in accordance with state and federal law.

(b) If the parent is in a substance use disorder treatment program, other than a certified drug court program, the juvenile court may order the parent:

(ii) [~~the court may order the parent~~] to provide the results of drug or alcohol testing recommended by the substance use disorder program to the juvenile court or division.

(13) (a) The time period for reunification services may not exceed 12 months from the [~~date that~~] day on which the minor was initially removed from the minor's home, unless the time period is extended under Subsection [~~78A-6-314(7)~~] 80-3-409(7).

(b) Nothing in this section may be construed to entitle any parent to an entire 12 months of reunification services.

(14) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court may terminate those services at any time.

(b) If, at any time, continuation of reasonable efforts to reunify a minor is determined to be inconsistent with the final permanency plan for the minor established [~~pursuant to~~] under Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to:

(i) place the minor in accordance with the final permanency plan; and

(ii) complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor.

(15) Any physical custody of the minor by the parent or a relative during the period

(4) With regard to a case where reunification services ~~[were]~~ are ordered by the juvenile court, if a minor is not returned to the minor's parent or guardian at the permanency hearing, the juvenile court shall, unless the time for the provision of reunification services is extended under Subsection (7):

(a) order termination of reunification services to the parent;

(b) make a final determination regarding whether termination of parental rights, adoption, or permanent custody and guardianship is the most appropriate final plan for the minor, taking into account the minor's primary permanency plan established by the juvenile court ~~[pursuant to Section 78A-6-312]~~ under Section 80-3-406; and

(c) in accordance with Subsection 80-3-406(2), establish a concurrent permanency plan that identifies the second most appropriate final plan for the minor, if appropriate.

(5) The juvenile court may order another planned permanent living arrangement other than reunification for a minor who is 16 years old or older upon entering the following findings:

(a) the ~~[Division of Child and Family Services]~~ division has documented intensive, ongoing, and unsuccessful efforts to reunify the minor with the minor's parent or parents, or to secure a placement for the minor with a guardian, an adoptive parent, or an individual described in Subsection ~~[78A-6-306(6)(e)]~~ 80-3-301(6)(e);

(b) the ~~[Division of Child and Family Services]~~ division has demonstrated that the division has made efforts to normalize the life of the minor while in the division's custody, in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-210 through 62A-4a-212;

(c) the minor prefers another planned permanent living arrangement; and

(d) there is a compelling reason why reunification or a placement described in Subsection (5)(a) is not in the minor's best interest.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), the juvenile court may not extend reunification services beyond 12 months after the day on which the minor ~~[was]~~ is initially removed from the minor's home, in accordance with the provisions of Section ~~[78A-6-312]~~ 80-3-406.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for no more than 90 days if the juvenile court finds, beyond a preponderance of the evidence, that:

- (i) there has been substantial compliance with the child and family plan;
- (ii) reunification is probable within that 90-day period; and
- (iii) the extension is in the best interest of the minor.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), the juvenile court may not extend any reunification services beyond 15 months after the day on which the minor ~~[was]~~ is initially removed from the minor's home.

(ii) Delay or failure of a parent to establish paternity or seek custody does not provide a basis for the juvenile court to extend services for ~~[that]~~ the parent beyond the 12-month period described in Subsection (6).

(c) In accordance with Subsection (7)(d), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for one additional 90-day period, beyond the 90-day period described in Subsection (7)(a), if:

- (i) the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:
 - (A) the parent has substantially complied with the child and family plan;
 - (B) it is likely that reunification will occur within the additional 90-day period; and
 - (C) the extension is in the best interest of the minor;

(ii) the juvenile court specifies the facts upon which the findings described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) are based; and

(iii) the juvenile court specifies the time period in which it is likely that reunification will occur.

(d) A juvenile court may not extend the time period for reunification services without complying with the requirements of this Subsection (7) before the extension.

(e) In determining whether to extend reunification services for a minor, a juvenile court shall take into consideration the status of the minor siblings of the minor.

(8) The juvenile court may, in ~~[its]~~ the juvenile court's discretion:

HB0285S01 compared with HB0285

(a) enter any additional order that ~~[it]~~ the juvenile court determines to be in the best interest of the minor, so long as that order does not conflict with the requirements and provisions of Subsections (4) through (7); or

(b) order the division to provide protective supervision or other services to a minor and the minor's family after the division's custody of a minor ~~[has been]~~ is terminated.

(9) (a) If the final plan for the minor is to proceed toward termination of parental rights, the petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed, and a pretrial held, within 45 calendar days after the day on which the permanency hearing is held.

(b) If the division opposes the plan to terminate parental rights, the juvenile court may not require the division to file a petition for the termination of parental rights, except as required under Subsection ~~[78A-6-316(2)]~~ 80-4-203(2).

(10) (a) Any party to an action may, at any time, petition the juvenile court for an expedited permanency hearing on the basis that continuation of reunification efforts are inconsistent with the permanency needs of the minor.

(b) If the juvenile court so determines, ~~[it]~~ the juvenile court shall order, in accordance with federal law, that:

(i) the minor be placed in accordance with the permanency plan; and

(ii) whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor be completed as quickly as possible.

(11) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

(a) entitle any parent to reunification services for any specified period of time;

(b) limit a juvenile court's ability to terminate reunification services at any time before a permanency hearing; or

(c) limit or prohibit the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights by any party, or a hearing on termination of parental rights, at any time ~~[prior to]~~ before a permanency hearing provided that relative placement and custody options have been fairly considered in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-201 and ~~[78A-6-503]~~ 80-4-104.

(12) (a) Subject to Subsection (12)(b), if a petition for termination of parental rights is filed ~~[prior to]~~ before the date scheduled for a permanency hearing, the juvenile court may consolidate the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (12)(a), if the juvenile court consolidates the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing:

(i) the juvenile court shall first make a finding regarding whether reasonable efforts have been made by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division to finalize the permanency plan for the minor; and

(ii) any reunification services shall be terminated in accordance with the time lines described in Section [~~78A-6-312~~] 80-3-406.

(c) [~~A~~] The juvenile court shall make a decision on a petition for termination of parental rights [~~shall be made~~] within 18 months [~~from~~] after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(13) If a juvenile court determines that a minor will not be returned to a parent of the minor, the juvenile court shall consider appropriate placement options inside and outside of the state.

(14) (a) [~~H~~] In accordance with Section 80-3-108, if a minor 14 years [~~of age~~] old or older desires an opportunity to address the juvenile court or testify regarding permanency or placement, the juvenile court shall give the minor's wishes added weight, but may not treat the minor's wishes as the single controlling factor under this section.

(b) If the juvenile court's decision under this section differs from a minor's express wishes if the minor is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to permanency or the minor's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile court's decision differs from the minor's wishes.

(b) [~~children~~] minors in the custody of the division are experiencing multiple changes in foster care placements with little or no documentation, and that numerous studies of child growth and development emphasize the importance of stability in foster care living arrangements.

(2) For the reasons described in Subsection (1), the Legislature finds that, except with regard to the [child's] minor's natural parents, procedural due process protections must be provided to a foster family prior to removal of a foster [child] minor from the foster home.

(3) (a) A foster parent who has had a foster [child] minor in the foster parent's home for 12 months or longer may petition the juvenile court for a review and determination of the appropriateness of a decision by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division to remove the [child] minor from the foster home, unless the removal was for the purpose of:

(c) The juvenile court may order the division to place the [~~child~~] minor in a specified home, and shall base [~~its~~] the juvenile court's determination on the best interest of the [~~child~~] minor.

(4) The requirements of this section do not apply to the removal of a [~~child~~] minor based on a foster parent's request for that removal.

Section 88. Section 80-3-503 is enacted to read:

80-3-503. Minor's petition for removal from division custody -- Reentering division custody.

(1) (a) A minor who is 18 years old or older, but younger than 21 years old, may petition the juvenile court to express the minor's desire to have the minor be removed from the custody of the division if the minor is in the division's custody on grounds of abuse, neglect, or dependency.

(b) If the minor's parent's rights have not been terminated in accordance with Chapter 4, Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights, the minor's petition described in Subsection (1)(a) shall contain a statement from the minor's parent or guardian agreeing that the minor should be removed from the custody of the division.

(c) The minor and the minor's parent or guardian shall sign the petition described in Subsection (1)(a).

(ii) the court finds, based on input from the division, the minor's attorney guardian ad litem, and the Office of the Attorney General, that the minor does not pose an imminent threat to self or others.

(3) (a) A minor removed from custody of the division under this section may, within 90 days after the day on which the minor is removed from custody of the division, petition the court to re-enter custody of the division.

(b) Upon receiving a petition described in Subsection (3)(a), the juvenile court shall order the division to take custody of the minor based on the findings the juvenile court entered when the juvenile court originally vested custody of the minor in the division.

Section 89. Section 80-4-101, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-501 is renumbered and amended to read:

CHAPTER 4. TERMINATION AND RESTORATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Part 1. General Provisions

~~[78A-6-501].~~ 80-4-101. Title.

This ~~[part]~~ chapter is known as ~~[the "Termination of Parental Rights Act."]~~ "Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights."

Section 90. Section 80-4-102, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-502 is renumbered and amended to read:

~~[78A-6-502].~~ 80-4-102. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Division" means the Division of Child and Family Services ~~[within the Department of Human Services]~~ created in Section 62A-4a-103.

(2) "Failure of parental adjustment" means that a parent or parents are unable or unwilling within a reasonable time to substantially correct the circumstances, conduct, or conditions that led to placement of their child outside of their home, notwithstanding reasonable and appropriate efforts made by the ~~[Division of Child and Family Services]~~ division to return the child to ~~[that]~~ the home.

~~[(3) "Plan" means a written agreement between the parents of a child, who has been removed from the child's home by the juvenile court, and the Division of Child and Family Services or written conditions and obligations imposed upon the parents directly by the juvenile court, that have a primary objective of reuniting the family or, if the parents fail or refuse to comply with the terms and conditions of the case plan, freeing the child for adoption.]~~

(3) "Former parent" means an individual whose legal parental rights were terminated under this chapter.

(4) "Petition to restore parental rights" means a petition filed in accordance with this chapter to restore the rights of a parent with regard to a child.

(5) "Petition for termination of parental rights" means a petition filed in accordance with this chapter to terminate the parental rights of a parent.

(6) "Temporary custody" means the same as that term is defined in Section 62A-4a-101.

Section 91. Section 80-4-103 is enacted to read:

80-4-103. Nature of the proceedings -- Rules of procedure -- Burden of proof.

(1) The proceedings under this chapter are civil in nature and are governed by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure.

(2) The juvenile court shall:

(a) in all cases filed under this chapter require the petitioner to establish the facts by clear and convincing evidence;

(b) give full and careful consideration to all of the evidence presented with regard to the constitutional rights and claims of the parent; and

(c) if a parent is found, by reason of the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based upon any of the grounds for termination described in this chapter, consider the welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether to terminate parental rights.

Section 92. Section 80-4-104, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-503 is renumbered and amended to read:

[78A-6-503]. 80-4-104. Judicial process for termination -- Parent unfit or incompetent -- Best interest of child.

(1) Under both the United States Constitution and the constitution of this state, a parent possesses a fundamental liberty interest in the care, custody, and management of the parent's child. For this reason, the termination of family ties by the state may only be done for compelling reasons.

(2) The juvenile court shall provide a fundamentally fair process to a parent if a party moves to terminate the parent's parental rights.

(3) If the party moving to terminate parental rights is a governmental entity, the juvenile court shall find that any actions or allegations made in opposition to the rights and desires of a parent regarding the parent's child are supported by sufficient evidence to satisfy a parent's constitutional entitlement to heightened protection against government interference with the parent's fundamental rights and liberty interests.

(4) (a) The fundamental liberty interest of a parent concerning the care, custody, and management of the parent's child is recognized, protected, and does not cease to exist simply because:

(i) a parent may fail to be a model parent; or

(ii) the parent's child is placed in the temporary custody of the state.

(b) The juvenile court should give serious consideration to the fundamental right of a parent to rear the parent's child, and concomitantly, of the right of the child to be reared by the child's natural parent.

(5) At all times, a parent retains a vital interest in preventing the irretrievable destruction of family life.

(6) [~~Prior to~~] Before an adjudication of unfitness, government action in relation to a parent and a parent's child may not exceed the least restrictive means or alternatives available to accomplish a compelling state interest.

(7) Until parental unfitness is established and the children suffer, or are substantially likely to suffer, serious detriment as a result, the child and the child's parent share a vital interest in preventing erroneous termination of their relationship and the juvenile court may not presume that a child and the child's parents are adversaries.

(8) It is in the best interest and welfare of a child to be raised under the care and supervision of the child's natural parents. A child's need for a normal family life in a permanent home, and for positive, nurturing family relationships is usually best met by the child's natural parents. Additionally, the integrity of the family unit and the right of parents to conceive and raise their children are constitutionally protected. For these reasons, the juvenile court should only transfer custody of a child from the child's natural parent for compelling reasons and when there is a jurisdictional basis to do so.

(9) The right of a fit, competent parent to raise the parent's child without undue government interference is a fundamental liberty interest that has long been protected by the laws and Constitution of this state and of the United States, and is a fundamental public policy of this state.

(10) (a) The state recognizes that:

HB0285S01 compared with HB0285

(i) a parent has the right, obligation, responsibility, and authority to raise, manage, train, educate, provide for, and reasonably discipline the parent's child; and

(ii) the state's role is secondary and supportive to the primary role of a parent.

(b) It is the public policy of this state that a parent retain the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, supervision, upbringing, and education of the parent's child.

(c) The interests of the state favor preservation and not severance of natural familial bonds in situations where a positive, nurturing parent-child relationship can exist, including extended family association and support.

(11) This ~~[part]~~ chapter provides a judicial process for voluntary and involuntary severance of the parent-child relationship, designed to safeguard the rights and interests of all parties concerned and promote their welfare and that of the state.

(12) (a) Wherever possible, family life should be strengthened and preserved, but if a parent is found, by reason of the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based upon any of the grounds for termination described in this part, the juvenile court shall then consider the welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether termination of parental rights shall be ordered.

(b) In determining whether termination is in the best interest of the child, and in finding that termination of parental rights, from the child's point of view, is strictly necessary, the juvenile court shall consider, among other relevant factors, whether:

(i) sufficient efforts were dedicated to reunification in accordance with ~~[Subsection 78A-6-507(3)(a)]~~ Section 80-4-301; and

(ii) the efforts to place the child with kin who have, or are willing to come forward to care for the child, were given due weight.

Section 93. Section 80-4-105, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-513 is renumbered and amended to read:

~~[78A-6-513].~~ 80-4-105. Effect of decree.

(1) An order for the termination of ~~[the parent-child legal relationship]~~ parental rights divests the child and the parents of all legal rights, powers, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other, except the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

(2) An order or decree entered ~~[pursuant to this part]~~ under this chapter may not disentitle a child to any benefit due ~~[him]~~ to the child from any third person, including~~[-but not limited to,]~~ any Indian tribe, agency, state, or the United States.

(3) Except as provided in Sections ~~[78A-6-1401 through 78A-6-1404]~~ 80-4-401 and 80-4-402, after the termination of ~~[a parent-child legal relationship]~~ a parent's parental rights, the former parent:

(a) is ~~[neither]~~ not entitled to any notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child ~~[nor has]~~; and

(b) does not have any right to object to the adoption or to participate in any other placement proceedings.

(4) An order permanently terminating the rights of a parent, guardian, or custodian does not expire with termination of the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

Section 94. Section 80-4-106 is enacted to read:

80-4-106. Individuals entitled to be present at proceedings -- Legal representation -- Attorney general responsibilities.

(1) (a) The juvenile court shall admit any individual to a hearing unless the juvenile court makes a finding upon the record that the individual's presence at the hearing would:

(i) be detrimental to the best interest of a child who is a party to the proceeding;

(ii) impair the fact-finding process; or

(iii) be otherwise contrary to the interests of justice.

(b) The juvenile court may exclude an individual from a hearing under Subsection (1)(a) on the juvenile court's own motion or by motion of a party to the proceeding.

(3) Subject to the attorney general's prosecutorial discretion in civil enforcement actions, the attorney general shall, in accordance with Section 62A-4a-113, enforce all provisions of this chapter and Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services, relating to the termination of parental rights.

Section 95. Section 80-4-107 is enacted to read:

80-4-107. Record of Proceedings -- Written reports and other materials -- Statements of a child.

(1) As used in this section, "record of a proceeding" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-3-106.

(2) A record of a proceeding under this chapter:

(a) shall be taken in accordance with Section 80-3-106; and

(b) may be requested for release as described in Section 80-3-106.

(3) (a) For purposes of determining proper disposition of a child in hearings upon a petition for termination of parental rights, written reports and other material relating to the minor's mental, physical, and social history and condition may be:

(i) received in evidence; and

(ii) considered by the court along with other evidence.

(b) The court may require that an individual who wrote a report or prepared the material under Subsection (3)(a) to appear as a witness if the individual is reasonably available.

(4) For the purpose of establishing abuse, neglect, or dependency under this chapter, the juvenile court may, in the juvenile court's discretion, consider evidence of statements made by a child under eight years old to an individual in a trust relationship.

(2) The juvenile court:

~~[(b)]~~ (a) may not refuse to appoint a mental health therapist under Subsection (1) for the reason that the therapist's recommendations in another case ~~[have not followed]~~ did not follow the recommendations of the ~~[Division of Child and Family Services]~~ division or the Office of Guardian Ad Litem; and

(c) failed to have shown the normal interest of a natural parent, without just cause; or

(d) have abandoned an infant, as described in [~~Subsection 78A-6-316(1)~~] Section 80-4-203.

(b) Nothing in Subsection (5)(a) may prohibit a parent from exercising the right to obtain a second health care opinion.

(6) If a child has been placed in the custody of the division and the parent or parents fail to comply substantially with the terms and conditions of a plan within six months after the date on which the child was placed or the plan was commenced, whichever occurs later, that failure to comply is evidence of failure of parental adjustment.
