35 Utah Code Sections Affected by Revisor Instructions:

36 75-2-807, Utah Code Annotated 1953

38 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

39 Section 1. Section 75-2-508 is amended to read:

40 75-2-508. Revocation by change of circumstances.

41 Except as provided in Sections 75-2-803 ~~[and]~~, 75-2-804, and 75-2-807, a change of 42 circumstances does not revoke a will or any part of it.

43 Section 2. Section 75-2-804 is amended to read:

44 75-2-804. Definitions -- Revocation of probate and nonprobate transfers by 45 divorce -- Effect of severance -- Revival -- Protection of payors, third parties, and bona 46 fade purchasers -- Personal liability of recipient -- No revocation by other changes of 47 circumstances.

48 (1) As used in this section:

49 (a) "Disposition or appointment of property" includes a transfer of an item of property
50 or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.

51 (b) "Divorce or annulment" means any divorce or annulment, or any dissolution or 52 declaration of invalidity of a marriage, that would exclude the spouse as a surviving spouse
53 within the meaning of Section 75-2-802. A decree of separation that does not terminate the 54 status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this section.

55 (c) "Divorced individual" includes an individual whose marriage has been annulled.

56 (d) "Governing instrument" means a governing instrument executed by the divorced

57 individual before the divorce or annulment of the individual's marriage to the individual's 58 former spouse.

59 (e) "Relative of the divorced individual's former spouse" means an individual who is 60 related to the divorced individual's former spouse by blood, adoption, or affinity and who, after 61 the divorce or annulment, is not related to the divorced individual by blood, adoption, or 62 affinity.

63 (f) "Revocable," with respect to a disposition, appointment, provision, or nomination, 64 means one under which the divorced individual, at the time of the divorce or annulment, was 65 alone empowered, by law or under the governing instrument, to cancel the designation in favor
66 of the individual's former spouse or former spouse's relative, whether or not the divorced
67 individual was then empowered to designate another in place of the individual's former spouse
68 or in place of the individual's former spouse's relative and whether or not the divorced
69 individual then had the capacity to exercise the power.

70 (2) Except as provided by the express terms of a governing instrument, a court order,
71 or a contract relating to the division of the marital estate made between the divorced
72 individuals before or after the marriage, divorce, or annulment, the divorce or annulment of a 73 marriage:

74 (a) revokes any revocable:

75 (i) disposition or appointment of property made by a divorced individual to the 76 individual's former spouse in a governing instrument and any disposition or appointment 77 created by law or in a governing instrument to a relative of the divorced individual's former 78 spouse;

79 (ii) provision in a governing instrument conferring a general or nongeneral power of 80 appointment on the divorced individual's former spouse or on a relative of the divorced 81 individual's former spouse; and

82 (iii) nomination in a governing instrument, which nominates a divorced individual's 83 former spouse or a relative of the divorced individual's former spouse to serve in any fiduciary 84 or representative capacity, including a personal representative, executor, trustee, conservator, 85 agent, or guardian; and

86 (b) severs the interests of the former spouses in property held by them at the time of the 87 divorce or annulment as joint tenants with the right of survivorship, transforming the interests

88 of the former spouses into tenancies in common.

89 (3) A severance under Subsection (2)(b) does not affect any third-party interest in 90 property acquired for value and in good faith reliance on an apparent title by survivorship in the 91 survivor of the former spouses unless a writing declaring the severance has been noted,
92 registered, filed, or recorded in records appropriate to the kind and location of the property, 93 which are relied upon, in the ordinary course of transactions involving such property, as 94 evidence of ownership.

95 (4) Provisions of a governing instrument are given effect as if the former spouse and 96 relatives of the former spouse disclaimed all provisions revoked by this section or, in the case
97 of a revoked nomination in a fiduciary or representative capacity, as if the former spouse and 98 relatives of the former spouse died immediately before the divorce or annulment.

99 (5) Provisions revoked solely by this section are revived by the divorced individual's 100 remarriage to the former spouse or by a nullification of the divorce or annulment.

101 (6) No change of circumstances other than as described in this section and in ~~[Section]~~
102 Sections 75-2-803 and 75-2-807 effects a revocation.

103 (7) (a) A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or 104 transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing
105 instrument affected by a divorce, annulment, or remarriage, or for having taken any other 106 action in good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument, before the payor or 107 other third party received written notice of the divorce, annulment, or remarriage. A payor or 108 other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third 109 party received written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this section.

110 (b) Written notice of the divorce, annulment, or remarriage under Subsection (7)(a) 111 shall be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or 112 certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the 113 same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of the divorce, 114 annulment, or remarriage, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or 115 deposit any item of property held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate 116 proceedings relating to the decedent's estate or, if no proceedings have been commenced, to or 117 with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estates
118 located in the county of the decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or item of 119 property and, upon its determination under this section, shall order disbursement or transfer in 120 accordance with the determination. Payments, transfers, or deposits made to or with the court 121 discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or 122 items of property transferred to or deposited with the court.

123 (8) (a) A person who purchases property from a former spouse, relative of a former 124 spouse, or any other person for value and without notice, or who receives from a former 125 spouse, relative of a former spouse, or any other person a payment or other item of property in 126 partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, is neither obligated under this 127 section to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, nor is liable under this section for 128 the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit. But a former spouse, 129 relative of a former spouse, or other person who, not for value, received a payment, item of 130 property, or any other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is obligated 131 to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally liable for the amount of the 132 payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who is entitled to it under 133 this section.

134 (b) If this section or any part of this section is preempted by federal law with respect to 135 a payment, an item of property, or any other benefit covered by this section, a former spouse,
136 relative of the former spouse, or any other person who, not for value, received a payment, item 137 of property, or any other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is 138 obligated to return that payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally liable for the 139 amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who would 140 have been entitled to it were this section or part of this section not preempted.

141 Section 3. Section 75-2-807 is enacted to read:

142 75-2-807. Effect of disqualifying offense on intestate succession, wills, trusts, joint 143 assets, life insurance, beneficiary designations -- Forfeiture -- Revocation.

144 (1) As used in this section:

145 (a) "Abuser" means a person who is convicted of committing a disqualifying offense
146 against a vulnerable adult.

147 (b) "Dependent adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

148 (c) "Disposition or apportionment of property" means a transfer of an item of property
149 or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.

150 (d) "Disqualifying offense" means a felony offense against a vulnerable adult that 151 meets the elements of:

152 (i) felony financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult, as described in Subsection
153 76-5-111(9);

154 (ii) felony aggravated abuse of a vulnerable adult, as described in Subsection
155 76-5-111(2);

156 (iii) felony abuse of a vulnerable adult based on isolation, as described in Subsection 157 76-5-111(3); or

158 (iv) any felony offense in another state, territory, or district of the United States that, if 159 committed in Utah, would constitute a felony offense described in this Subsection (1)(d).

160 (e) "Elder adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

161 (f) "Governing instrument" means a governing instrument executed by a vulnerable 162 adult.

163 (g) "Vulnerable adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

164 (2) (a) An abuser who is convicted of a disqualifying felony offense against a
165 vulnerable adult forfeits any benefit under this chapter with respect to the vulnerable adult's 166 estate:

167 (i) that the vulnerable adult made to the abuser in a governing instrument; or

168 (ii) according to intestate succession, as described in Title 75, Chapter 2, Intestate
169 Succession and Wills.

170 (b) The abuser described in Subsection (2)(a):

171 (i) may not inherit, take, enjoy, receive, or otherwise benefit from the estate of the 172 vulnerable adult described in Subsection (2)(a), including by any:

173 (A) intestate share;

174 (B) elective share;

175 (C) omitted spouse's or child's share;

176 (D) homestead allowance;

177 (E) exempt property;

178 (F) family allowance;

179 (G) banknote or other form of physical currency;

180 (H) deposit account;

- 181 (I) interest-bearing account;
- 182 (J) contents of a safe deposit box;
- 183 (K) investment;
- 184 (L) retirement benefit or account;
- 185 (M) pension;
- 186 (N) annuity; or
- 187 (O) insurance proceed; and
- 188 (ii) is considered to have predeceased the vulnerable adult with respect to any intestate
- 189 property or governing instrument belonging to the vulnerable adult.
- 190 (3) Conviction of a disqualifying offense against a vulnerable adult:
- 191 (a) revokes any revocable:
- 192 (i) disposition or apportionment of property that the vulnerable adult made to the
- 193 abuser in a governing instrument;
- 194 (ii) provision in a governing instrument conferring a general or nongeneral power of
- 195 appointment on the abuser; and
- 196 (iii) nomination of the abuser in a governing instrument nominating or appointing the
- 197 abuser to serve in any fiduciary or representative capacity, including a personal representative,
- 198 representative payee, executor, trustee, or agent; and
- 199 (b) (i) severs any interest in property held by the abuser and the vulnerable adult as
- 200 joint tenants with the right of survivorship; and
- 201 (ii) transforms the interests described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) to a tenancy in common.
- 202 (4) A wrongful acquisition of property or interest by an abuser under circumstances not
- 203 covered by this section shall be treated in accordance with the principle that one cannot profit
- 204 from one's own wrongdoing.
- 205 (5) Revocation by the court of an abuser's interest in the property of the vulnerable
- 206 adult and of an abuser's powers and appointments in the estate of the vulnerable adult as
- 207 established by any governing instrument is final.
- 208 (6) Conviction of a disqualifying felony offense against a vulnerable adult:
- 209 (a) prevents any revocable interest or share an abuser has or may have in the estate of
- 210 the vulnerable adult, under Subsection (2), from vesting into a right of property upon the death
- 211 of the vulnerable adult; and

212 (b) is the triggering event for action under this section.

213 (7) As a consequence of bringing an action under this section, a court may not reduce 214 or eliminate the rights, interest, or share in the estate of a vulnerable adult belonging to any 215 interested person who:

216 (a) petitions the court under this section; and

217 (b) retains a property or other interest in the estate of a vulnerable adult, either as an 218 heir, devisee, legatee, beneficiary, survivor, appointee, or claimant, notwithstanding any 219 no-contest provision which appears in any governing instrument of the vulnerable adult.

220 (8) (a) A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or
221 transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing 222 instrument that a disqualifying felony offense affects, or for having taken any other action in 223 good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument, upon request and satisfactory
224 proof of the decedents death, before the payor or other third party received written notice of a 225 claimed forfeiture or revocation under this section.

226 (b) A payor or other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after 227 the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under 228 this section.

229 (c) (i) An individual seeking enforcement of this section shall mail a written notice of a 230 claimed forfeiture or revocation to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by 231 registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third 232 party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

233 (ii) Upon receipt of a written notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation described in 234 Subsection (8)(c)(i), a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or 235 deposit any item of property the payor or third party holds to or with:

236 (A) the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the vulnerable 237 adult's estate; or

238 (B) if the individual who gave notice has not brought an action under this section, to or 239 with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate
240 located in the county of the decedent's residence.

241 (d) A court described in Subsection (8)(c)(ii) shall:

242 (i) hold the funds or item of property; and

243 (ii) upon the court's determination under this section, order disbursement in accordance 244 with the determination.

245 (e) A payor's or third party's payment, transfer, or deposit made to or with the court 246 discharges the payor or third party from all claims for the value of the paid amounts or 247 transferred or deposited items of property.

248 (9) (a) A person who purchases property for value and without notice, or who receives
 249 a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable
 250 obligation:

251 (i) may retain the payment, item of property, or benefit; and

252 (ii) is not liable under this section for the amount of the payment or the value of the 253 item of property or benefit.

254 (b) A person who, not for value, receives a payment, item of property, or any other 255 benefit to which the person is not entitled under this section:

256 (i) shall return the payment, item of property, or benefit to the person who is entitled to 257 the payment or the item of property or benefit under this section; or

258 (ii) is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of 259 property or benefit, to the person who is entitled to the payment or the item of property or 260 benefit under this section.

261 (c) If this section, or any part of this section, is preempted by federal law with respect
 262 to a payment, an item of property, or any other benefit that this section addresses, a person 263 who, not for value, receives the payment, item of property, or any other benefit to which the 264 person is not entitled under this section:

265 (i) shall return the payment, item of property, or benefit to the person who would have 266 been entitled to the payment or the item of property or benefit if this section or the relevant part 267 of this section was not preempted; or

268 (ii) is personally liable for the amount of the payment, or the value of the item of 269 property or benefit, to the person who would have been entitled to the payment or the item of 270 property or benefit if this section or the relevant part of this section was not preempted.

270a H→ (10) Notwithstanding Subsections (2) through (6), and notwithstanding an abuser's
 270b conviction for a disqualifying offense, the abuser may inherit, take, enjoy, receive, or otherwise 270c benefit from the estate of the vulnerable adult if:

270d (a) (i) after the abuser's conviction, the vulnerable adult executes a new governing

281 Section 4. Section 75-6-413 is amended to read:

282 75-6-413. Effect of transfer on death deed at transferor's death.

283 (1) Except as otherwise provided in the transfer on death deed, Sections 75-2-205,
 284 75-2-702, 75-2-803, [~~and~~] 75-2-804, and 75-2-807, on the death of the transferor, the following
 285 rules apply to property that is the subject of a transfer on death deed and owned by the 286 transferor at death.

287 (a) Subject to Subsection (1)(b), the interests in the property are transferred to the 288 designated beneficiaries in accordance with the deed.

289 (b) The interest of a designated beneficiary is contingent on the designated beneficiary
 290 surviving the transferor. Notwithstanding Section 75-2-706, the interest of a designated 291 beneficiary that fails to survive the transferor lapses.

292 (c) Subject to Subsection (1)(d), concurrent interests are transferred to the beneficiaries 293 in equal and undivided shares with no right of survivorship, unless otherwise specified in the 294 transfer on death deed.

295 (d) If the transferor has identified two or more designated beneficiaries to receive 296 concurrent interests in the property, the share of one that lapses or fails for any reason is 297 transferred to the other, or to the others in proportion to the interest of each in the remaining 298 part of the property held concurrently.

299 (2) Subject to Title 57, Chapter 3, Recording of Documents, a beneficiary takes the 300 property subject to all conveyances, encumbrances, assignments, contracts, mortgages, liens, 301 and other interests to which the property is subject at the transferor's death. For purposes of 302 this Subsection (2) and Title 57, Chapter 3, Recording of Documents, the recording of the 303 transfer on death deed is considered to have occurred at the transferor's death.

304 (3) If a transferor is a joint owner and is:

305 (a) survived by one or more other joint owners, the property that is the subject of a 306 transfer on death deed belongs to the surviving joint owner or owners with right of 307 survivorship; or

308 (b) the last surviving joint owner, the transfer on death deed is effective.

309 (4) A transfer on death deed transfers property without covenant or warranty of title
310 even if the deed contains a contrary provision.

311 (5) Following the death of the transferor, an affidavit in substantially the form found in 312 Section 57-1-5.1 shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the 313 affected property is located. Each affidavit shall:

314 (a) contain a legal description of the real property that is affected;

315 (b) reference the entry number and the book and page of the previously recorded 316 transfer on death deed; and

317 (c) have attached as an exhibit, a copy of the death certificate or other document issued 318 by a governmental agency as described in Section 75-1-107 certifying the transferor's death.

319 Section 5. Revisor instructions.
