34 Section 1. Section 30-3-10 is amended to read:

35 30-3-10. Custody of a child -- Custody factors.

36 (1) If a married or unmarried couple having one or more minor children are separated,
37 or ~~the~~ a married couple's marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall enter, and has 38 continuing jurisdiction to modify, an order of custody and parent-time.

39 (2) In determining any form of custody and parent-time under Subsection (1), the court
40 shall consider the best interest of the child and may consider among other factors the court
41 finds relevant, the following for each parent:

42 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
43 abuse, involving the child, the parent, or a household member of the parent;

44 (b) the parent's demonstrated understanding of, responsiveness to, and ability to meet 45 the developmental needs of the child, including the child's:

- 46 (i) physical needs;
- 47 (ii) emotional needs;
- 48 (iii) educational needs;
- 49 (iv) medical needs; and
- 50 (v) any special needs;

  - 55 (B) ~~[ability to]~~ allow and encourage the sharing of love and affection; ~~[and]~~
  - 56 (C) refrain from influencing the child to denigrate or reject a parent, including

57 indirectly through a third party; and 58 ~~[(C) willingness to allow]~~ 59 (D) allow and encourage frequent, meaningful, and continuous contact between the 60 child and the other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect
61 the child from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be
62 taken into consideration; and
63 (iii) ability to provide personal care rather than surrogate care;
64 (d) in accordance with Subsection ~~[(10)]~~ (9), the past conduct and demonstrated moral 65 character of the parent;
66 (e) the emotional stability of the parent;
67 (f) the parent's inability to function as a parent because of drug abuse, excessive
68 drinking, or other causes;
69 (g) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material
70 harmful to minors, as "material" and "harmful to minors" are defined in Section 76-10-1201;
71 (h) the parent's reasons for having relinquished custody or parent-time in the past;
72 (i) duration and depth of desire for custody or parent-time;
73 ~~[(j) the parent's religious compatibility with the child;]~~
74 ~~[(k) the parent's financial responsibility;]~~
75 ~~[(l) the child's interaction and relationship with step-parents, extended family members~~
76 ~~of other individuals who may significantly affect the child's best interests;]~~
77 ~~[(m) who has been the primary caretaker of the child;]~~
78 (j) a parent's violation of previous or existing custody or parent-time orders;
79 (k) evidence of a parent influencing the child to denigrate or reject a parent, including 80 indirectly through a third party;
81 ~~[(n)]~~ (l) previous [parenting] living arrangements in which the child has been happy
82 and well-adjusted in the home, school, and community;
83 ~~[(o)]~~ (m) the relative benefit of keeping siblings together;
84 ~~[(p)]~~ (n) the stated wishes and concerns of the child, [taking into consideration the 85 child's cognitive ability and emotional maturity;] considering whether the child's wishes or 86 concerns have been unduly influenced or whether the child has diminished capacity to express 87 the child's authentic desire; and

88 ~~[(q) the relative strength of the child's bond with the parent, meaning the depth, quality,~~
89 ~~and nature of the relationship between the parent and the child; and]~~

90 ~~[(r)]~~ (o) any other factor the court finds relevant.

91 (3) ~~[There]~~ Subject to the factors in Subsection (2), there is a rebuttable presumption
92 that joint legal custody, as defined in Section 30-3-10.1, and joint physical custody where the 93 parenting time is equal or as equal as practicable, is in the best interest of the child, except in 94 cases when there is:

95 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
96 abuse involving the child, a parent, or a household member of the parent;

97 (b) special physical or mental needs of a parent or child, making joint legal custody
98 unreasonable;

99 (c) physical distance between the residences of the parents, making joint decision
100 making impractical in certain circumstances; or

101 (d) any other factor the court considers relevant including those listed in this section
102 and Section 30-3-10.2.

103 (4) (a) The person who desires joint legal custody shall file a proposed parenting plan
104 in accordance with Sections 30-3-10.8 and 30-3-10.9.

105 (b) A presumption for joint legal custody may be rebutted by a showing by a
106 preponderance of the evidence that it is not in the best interest of the child.

107 (c) A presumption for joint physical custody, where the parenting time is equal or as 108 equal as practicable, may be rebutted by a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that it is 109 not in the best interest of the child.

110 (5) (a) A child may not be required by either party to testify unless the trier of fact 111 determines that extenuating circumstances exist that would necessitate the testimony of the 112 child be heard and there is no other reasonable method to present the child's testimony.

113 ~~[(b)(i) The court may inquire of the child's and take into consideration the child's~~ 114 ~~desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not~~
115 ~~controlling and the court may determine the child's custody or parent-time otherwise.]~~

116 (b) Subject to Subsection (3), the court may:

117 (i) exercise discretion to determine the child's custody or parent-time schedule,
118 including determining a child's custody or parent-time schedule in a manner that conflicts with

119 the child's expressed desires;

120 (ii) inquire of the child's desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules; and

121 (iii) consider the child's expressed desires, taking into consideration whether the child's

122 preference has been unduly influenced or whether the child has diminished capacity to express

123 the child's authentic desire.

124 ~~[(ii) The desires of a child 14 years of age or older shall be given added weight, but is~~ 125 ~~not the single controlling factor.]~~

126 (c) (i) If an interview with a child is conducted by the court pursuant to Subsection

127 (5)(b), the interview shall be conducted by the judge in camera.

128 (ii) The prior consent of the parties may be obtained but is not necessary if the court 129 finds that an interview with a child is the only method to ascertain the child's desires regarding 130 custody.

131 (6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a court may not discriminate against a
132 parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or determining 133 whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody.

134 (b) The court may not consider the disability of a parent as a factor in awarding custody 135 or modifying an award of custody based on a determination of a substantial change in 136 circumstances, unless the court makes specific findings that:

137 (i) the disability significantly or substantially inhibits the parent's ability to provide for 138 the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue; and

139 (ii) the parent with a disability lacks sufficient human, monetary, or other resources 140 available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of 141 the child at issue.

142 (c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to adoption proceedings under 143 Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act.

144 ~~[(7) This section does not establish a preference for either parent solely because of the~~ 145 ~~gender of the parent.]~~

146 ~~[(8) This section establishes neither a preference nor a presumption for or against joint~~ 147 ~~physical custody or sole physical custody, but allows the court and the family the widest~~
148 ~~discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child.]~~

149 (7) When awarding custody or modifying an award of custody under Section

150 30-3-10.4, the court may not:

151 (a) discriminate against a parent due to the parent's gender; or 152 (b) use the gender of a parent or child as a factor.

153 [~~9~~] (8) When an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event
154 of a deployment of one or both parents who are servicemembers, and the servicemember has 155 not yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in 156 Sections 78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309.

157 [~~10~~] (9) In considering the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each
158 party under Subsection (2)(d) or any other factor a court finds relevant, the court may not:

159 (a) consider or treat a parent's lawful possession or use of cannabis in a medicinal 160 dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, in 161 accordance with Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments, Title 26, Chapter
162 61a, Utah Medical Cannabis Act, or Subsection 58-37-3.7(2) or (3) any differently than the 163 court would consider or treat the lawful possession or use of any prescribed controlled 164 substance; or

165 (b) discriminate against a parent because of the parent's status as a:

166 (i) cannabis production establishment agent, as that term is defined in Section
167 4-41a-102;

168 (ii) medical cannabis pharmacy agent, as that term is defined in Section 26-61a-102;

169 (iii) medical cannabis courier agent, as that term is defined in Section 26-61a-102; or

170 (iv) medical cannabis cardholder in accordance with Title 26, Chapter 61a, Utah
171 Medical Cannabis Act.

172 Section 2. Section 30-3-10.2 is amended to read:

173 30-3-10.2. Joint custody order -- Factors for court determination -- Public
174 assistance.

175 (1) [~~The~~] Subject to the presumption described in Subsection 30-3-10\(3\), the court may 176 order joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both if one or both parents have filed a
177 parenting plan in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8 and the court determines that joint legal 178 custody or joint physical custody or both is in the best interest of the child.

179 (2) In determining whether the best interest of a child will be served by ordering joint 180 legal custody or joint physical custody or both, the court shall consider the custody factors in

181 Section 30-3-10 and the following factors:

182 ~~[(a) whether the physical, psychological, and emotional needs and development of the~~ 183 ~~child will benefit from joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both;]~~

184 ~~[(b)]~~ (a) the ability and willingness of the parents to give first priority to the welfare of 185 the child and reach shared decisions in the child's best interest;

186 ~~[(c)]~~ (b) co-parenting skills, including[:] a parent's ability and willingness to:

187 (i) [ability to] appropriately communicate with the other parent;

188 (ii) [ability to] allow and encourage the sharing of love and affection; [and]

189 (iii) refrain from influencing the child to denigrate or reject a parent, including 190 indirectly through a third party; and

191 ~~[(iii) willingness to allow]~~

192 (iv) allow and encourage frequent, meaningful, and continuous contact between the 193 child and the other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect
194 the child from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be
195 taken into consideration; and

196 ~~[(d) whether both parents participated in raising the child before the divorce;]~~

197 ~~[(e)]~~ (c) the geographical proximity of the homes of the parents;

198 (d) the ties the child has to the child's current school and community;

199 (e) the preference of the child, taking into consideration:

200 (i) whether the child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason and form an intelligent 201 preference regarding the child's custody or parent-time schedule;

202 (ii) evidence of a parent influencing the child to denigrate or reject a parent, including 203 indirectly through a third party; and

204 (iii) whether the child's preference has been unduly influenced or whether the child has 205 diminished capacity to express the child's authentic desire;

206 ~~[(f) the preference of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason so~~
207 ~~as to form an intelligent preference as to joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both;]~~

208 ~~[(g)]~~ (f) the maturity of the parents and their willingness and ability to protect the child
209 from conflict that may arise between the parents;

210 ~~[(h)]~~ (g) the past and present ability and willingness of the parents to cooperate with 211 each other and make decisions jointly; and

212            ~~[(i)]~~ (h) any other factor the court finds relevant.

213            ~~[(3) The determination of the best interest of the child shall be by a preponderance of~~ 214 ~~the evidence.]~~

215            ~~[(4) The court shall inform both parties that an order for joint physical custody may~~
216 ~~preclude eligibility for cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Employment~~
217 ~~Support Act.]~~

218            (3) If the court determines that either of the presumptions described in Subsection
219 30-3-10(3) are rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall make written 220 findings of fact explaining the court's determination.

221            (4) If joint physical custody, where the parenting time is equal or as equal as 222 practicable, is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall order a parent-time schedule
223 that maximizes the time with each parent, consistent with the child's best interest.

224            (5) The court may order that when possible the parties attempt to settle future disputes
225 by a dispute resolution method before seeking enforcement or modification of the terms and 226 conditions of the order of joint legal custody or joint physical custody through litigation, except 227 in emergency situations requiring ex parte orders to protect the child.

228            Section 3. Section 30-3-10.3 is amended to read:

229            30-3-10.3. Terms of joint legal or physical custody order.

230            (1) Unless the court orders otherwise, before a final order of joint legal custody or joint 231 physical custody is entered both parties shall attend the mandatory course for divorcing parents,
232 as provided in Section 30-3-11.3, and present a certificate of completion from the course to the 233 court.

234            (2) An order of joint legal or physical custody shall provide terms the court determines 235 appropriate, which may include specifying:

236            (a) either the county of residence of the child, until altered by further order of the court,
237 or the custodian who has the sole legal right to determine the residence of the child;

238            (b) that the parents shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and 239 welfare of the child, and where possible, confer before making decisions concerning any of 240 these areas;

241            (c) the rights and duties of each parent regarding the child's present and future physical 242 care, support, and education;

243 (d) provisions to minimize disruption of the child's attendance at school and other 244 activities, his daily routine, and his association with friends; and

245 (e) as necessary, the remaining parental rights, privileges, duties, and powers to be 246 exercised by the parents solely, concurrently, or jointly.

247 (3) The court shall, where possible, include in the order the terms of the parenting plan
248 provided in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8.

249 (4) Any parental rights not specifically addressed by the court order may be exercised
250 by the parent having physical custody of the child the majority of the time.

251 (5) The appointment of joint legal or physical custodians does not impair or limit the 252 authority of the court to order support of the child, including payments by one custodian to the 253 other.

254 (6) An order of joint legal custody, in itself, is not grounds for modifying a support 255 order.

256 (7) An order of joint legal or physical custody shall require a parenting plan
257 incorporating a dispute resolution procedure the parties agree to use:

258 (a) in accordance with Section 30-3-10.9, or as ordered by the court in accordance with 259 Subsection 30-3-10.2(5); and

260 (b) before seeking enforcement or modification of the terms and conditions of the order
261 of joint legal or physical custody through litigation, except in emergency situations requiring ex
262 parte orders to protect the child.

263 Section 4. Section 30-3-10.4 is amended to read:

264 30-3-10.4. Modification or termination of order.

265 (1) On the petition of one or both of the parents, or the joint legal or physical 266 custodians if they are not the parents, the court may, after a hearing, modify or terminate an 267 order that established joint legal custody or joint physical custody if:

268 (a) the verified petition or accompanying affidavit initially alleges that admissible
269 evidence will show that the circumstances of the child or one or both parents or joint legal or 270 physical custodians have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order to be 271 modified;

272 (b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement
273 for and in the best interest of the child; and

274 (c) (i) both parents have complied in good faith with the dispute resolution procedure
275 in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10.3(7); or

276 (ii) if no dispute resolution procedure is contained in the order that established joint 277 legal custody or joint physical custody, the court orders the parents to participate in a dispute
278 resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10.2(5) unless the parents certify that,
279 in good faith, they have used a dispute resolution procedure to resolve their dispute.

280 (2) (a) In determining whether the best interest of a child will be served by either 281 modifying or terminating the joint legal custody or joint physical custody order, the court shall,
282 in addition to other factors the court considers relevant, consider the factors outlined in Section
283 30-3-10 and Subsection 30-3-10.2(2).

284 (b) A court order modifying or terminating an existing joint legal custody or joint 285 physical custody order shall contain written findings that:

286 (i) a material and substantial change of circumstance has occurred; and

287 (ii) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement
288 for and in the best interest of the child.

289 (c) The court shall give substantial weight to the existing joint legal custody or joint 290 physical custody order when the child is thriving, happy, and well-adjusted.

291 (3) The court shall, in every case regarding a petition for termination of a joint legal 292 custody or joint physical custody order, consider reasonable alternatives to preserve the 293 existing order in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10(3). The court may modify the terms and 294 conditions of the existing order [~~in accordance with Subsection 30-3-10(8)~~] and may order the 295 parents to file a parenting plan in accordance with this chapter.

296 (4) A parent requesting a modification from sole custody to joint legal custody or joint 297 physical custody or both, or any other type of shared parenting arrangement, shall file and serve
298 a proposed parenting plan with the petition to modify in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8.

299 (5) If the court finds that an action under this section is filed or answered frivolously
300 and in a manner designed to harass the other party, the court shall assess attorney fees as costs
301 against the offending party.

302 (6) If an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of 303 deployment of one or both parents who are servicemembers, and the servicemember has not yet
304 been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in Sections

305 78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309.

306 Section 5. Section 30-3-33 is amended to read:

307 30-3-33. Advisory guidelines.

308 [~~In addition to the parent-time schedules provided in Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5,~~
309 ~~the]~~ The following advisory guidelines are suggested to govern all parent-time arrangements
310 between parents.

311 (1) Parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a 312 court-imposed solution.

313 (2) The parent-time schedule shall be used to maximize the continuity and stability of 314 the child's life.

315 (3) Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to 316 attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays,
317 important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either
318 parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

319 (4) The responsibility for the pick up, delivery, and return of the child shall be
320 determined by the court when the parent-time order is entered, and may be changed at any time
321 a subsequent modification is made to the parent-time order.

322 (5) If the noncustodial parent will be providing transportation, the custodial parent
323 shall have the child ready for parent-time at the time the child is to be picked up and shall be 324 present at the custodial home or shall make reasonable alternate arrangements to receive the 325 child at the time the child is returned.

326 (6) If the custodial parent will be transporting the child, the noncustodial parent shall 327 be at the appointed place at the time the noncustodial parent is to receive the child, and have 328 the child ready to be picked up at the appointed time and place, or have made reasonable 329 alternate arrangements for the custodial parent to pick up the child.

330 (7) Regular school hours may not be interrupted for a school-age child for the exercise
331 of parent-time by either parent.

332 (8) The court may make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably 333 accommodate the work schedule of both parents and may increase the parent-time allowed to 334 the noncustodial parent but may not diminish the standardized parent-time provided in Sections
335 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5.

336 (9) The court may make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably
337 accommodate the distance between the parties and the expense of exercising parent-time.

338 (10) Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's 339 failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

340 (11) The custodial parent shall notify the noncustodial parent within 24 hours of 341 receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the 342 child is participating or being honored, and the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to attend 343 and participate fully.

344 (12) The noncustodial parent shall have access directly to all school reports including 345 preschool and daycare reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the 346 custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency.

347 (13) Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone 348 number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any 349 change.

350 (14) Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and 351 uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual 352 parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available, provided that if the parties cannot agree
353 on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment
354 for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

- 355 (a) the best interests of the child;
- 356 (b) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and
- 357 (c) any other factors the court considers material.

358 (15) Parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the child than surrogate care 359 and the court shall encourage the parties to cooperate in allowing the noncustodial parent, if 360 willing and able to transport the children, to provide the child care. Child care arrangements
361 existing during the marriage are preferred as are child care arrangements with nominal or no 362 charge.

363 (16) Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current 364 address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the noncustodial parent 365 with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the 366 court for good cause orders otherwise.
