20 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

21           WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble, an extraordinary wife, mother, friend, and director,
22 passed away on December 4, 2020;

23           WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was a member of the Capitol Preservation Board for 19
24 years and served as the executive director of the board for 11 of those years;

25           WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was devoted to enhancing the Capitol and devoted her
26 life to making sure it was truly The People's House;

27           WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was known by many as the heart and soul of the Capitol;

28 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble created a docent program to educate visitors of all ages
29 and backgrounds regarding the building's history and meaning;

30 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble helped in the creation of several history installations,
31 rotating art exhibits, and movies on the front lawn to encourage people to visit the Capitol and 32 share in the beauty of the building, the grounds, and its symbolism;

33 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble had a deep passion for the historic building and those 34 who occupied it;

35 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was the orchestrator and planner of hundreds of events at 36 the Utah State Capitol that celebrated Utah's history, art, people, and accessible government;

37 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble never missed a detail in putting events together whether 38 for Utah's political leaders or Utah's school children;

39 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble aimed to make sure all who entered the Capitol felt 40 respected, heard, accommodated, special, and inspired;

41 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble worked tirelessly to protect and preserve the Utah State
42 Capitol despite numerous health challenges;

43 WHEREAS, in May of 2020, after a recent release from the hospital and with a
44 weakened immune system, Allyson Gamble insisted on supporting the clean-up efforts after 45 protestors defaced the Capitol grounds;

46 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble, while short in stature was mighty in spirit;

47 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was an active participant and organizer for the Utah
48 Heart Association;

49 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble had two heart transplants in her life and knew that the
50 extra time she was given was because another family had experienced grief and sorrow and so
51 she embraced the gift she was given;

52 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble repaid the gift others had given her by being an organ
53 donor herself;

54 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was the best type of friend to have, the kind that kept
55 your confidences, celebrated your victories, and always made time to meet;

56 WHEREAS, in addition to being a tireless worker and selfless friend to many, Allyson
57 Gamble was a loving wife to her husband, Jim, through their 21 years of marriage;

58 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble was also a devoted mother who was exceedingly proud of

59 her son, Ben, and his many accomplishments;

60 WHEREAS, Allyson Gamble valued her family deeply;

61 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 62 Governor concurring therein, honors the life of Allyson Gamble, recognizes her many years of 63 dedicated public service, and expresses great appreciation for her many contributions to the 64 state of Utah.

65 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to her husband,
66 Jim, and her son, Ben.
