229	(b) The department shall advise the victim of an offender's release or escape under
230	Subsection (2)(a), in writing. However, if written notice is not feasible because the release is
231	immediate or the offender escapes, the department shall make a reasonable attempt to notify

233	and shall follow up with a written notice.
234	(3) Notice of victim rights under this section shall be provided to the victim in the
235	notice of hearings regarding parole under Section 77-27-9.5. The department shall coordinate

Violation of parole or probation -- Detention -- Hearing. 247 (1) (a) The department or local law enforcement agency shall ensure that the court is 248 notified of violations of the terms and conditions of probation in the case of probationers under 249 the supervision of the department, the local law enforcement agency, or the Board of Pardons 250 and Parole in the case of parolees under the department's supervision when: 251 (i) a sanction of incarceration is recommended; [or] 252 (ii) the department or local law enforcement agency determines that a graduated and 253 evidence-based response is not an appropriate response to the offender's violation and 254 recommends revocation of probation or parole[-]; or 255 (iii) there is probable cause that the conduct that led to a violation of parole or 256 probation is: 257 (A) a violent felony as defined in Section 76-3-203.5; or 258 (B) a qualifying domestic violence offense as defined in Subsection 77-36-1.1(4) that 259 is not a criminal mischief offense. 260 (b) In cases where the department desires to detain an offender alleged to have violated 261 his parole or probation and where it is unlikely that the Board of Pardons and Parole or court 262 will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to determine if the offender has violated his 263 conditions of parole or probation, the department shall hold an administrative hearing within a 264 reasonable time, unless the hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer, to determine if there is probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred. 265 266 (c) If there is a conviction for a crime based on the same charges as the probation or 267 parole violation, or a finding by a federal or state court that there is probable cause to believe 268 that an offender has committed a crime based on the same charges as the probation or parole 269 violation, the department need not hold an administrative hearing. 270 (2) The appropriate officer or officers of the department shall, as soon as practical following the department's administrative hearing, report to the court or the Board of Pardons 271 272 and Parole, furnishing a summary of the hearing, and may make recommendations regarding 273 the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer. 274 (3) (a) Pending any proceeding under this section for a violation of probation or parole,

the department:

276	(i) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), may take custody of and detain the parolee
277	or probationer [involved] who committed the violation for a period not to exceed 72 hours
278	excluding weekends and holidays[-]; and
279	(ii) if the department or the department's agent has probable cause that the conduct that
280	led to the violation is an offense described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii), shall take custody of and
281	detain the parolee or probationer who committed the violation for a period not to exceed 72
282	hours excluding weekends and holidays.
283	(b) The 72-hour period described in this Subsection (3) is reduced by the amount of
284	time a probationer or parolee is detained under Subsection 17-22-5.5(6).
285	(4) In cases where probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency, the
286	agency may take custody of and detain the probationer involved for a period not to exceed 72
287	hours excluding weekends and holidays if:
288	(a) the probationer commits a major violation or repeated violations of probation;
289	(b) it is unlikely that the court will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to
290	determine if the offender has violated the conditions of probation; and
291	(c) the law enforcement agency conducts an administrative hearing within a reasonable
292	time to determine if there is probable cause to believe the offender has violated the conditions
293	of probation, unless the hearing is waived by the probationer.
294	(5) If the requirements for Subsection (4) are met, the local law enforcement agency
295	shall ensure the proper court is notified.
296	(6) If the hearing officer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the
297	offender has violated the conditions of the offender's parole or probation, the department may
298	detain the offender for a reasonable period of time after the hearing or waiver, as necessary to
299	arrange for the incarceration of the offender. A written order of the department is sufficient
300	authorization for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender. The department may promulgate
301	rules for the implementation of this section.
302	(7) A written order from the local law enforcement agency is sufficient authorization
303	for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender if:
304	(a) the probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency; and
305	(b) the appropriate officer or officers determine that there is probable cause to believe
306	that the offender has violated the conditions of probation.

307	(8) If a probationer supervised by a local law enforcement agency commits a violation
308	outside of the jurisdiction of the supervising agency, the arresting agency is not required to
309	hold or transport the probationer for the supervising agency.
310	Section 5. Section 77-18-105 is amended to read:

317	(b) under the terms of the plea in abeyance agreement.
318	(2) If a defendant is convicted, the court:
319	(a) shall impose a sentence in accordance with Section 76-3-201; and

321	defendant:
322	(i) on probation under the supervision of the department[, except as provided in
323	Subsection (5)];
324	(ii) on probation under the supervision of an agency of a local government or a private
325	organization; or
326	(iii) on court probation under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court.
327	(3) (a) The legal custody of all probationers under the supervision of the department is
328	with the department.
329	(b) The legal custody of all probationers under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court
330	is vested as ordered by the court.
331	(c) The court has continuing jurisdiction over all probationers.
332	(4) (a) Court probation may include an administrative level of services, including

339	who is convicted of a class B or C misdemeanor or an infraction.]

342	(i) the department;
343	(ii) an agency of a local government; and
344	(iii) a private organization.
345	(b) (i) A court may order an agency of a local government to supervise the probation
346	for an individual convicted of any crime.

348	(A) the department to supervise the probation for an individual convicted of a class A
349	misdemeanor or any felony; or
350	(B) a private organization to supervise the probation for an individual convicted of a
351	class B or C misdemeanor or an infraction.
352	(6) (a) If a defendant is placed on probation, the court may order the defendant as a
