(b) "Sexual conduct" means:

(i) engaging in sexual intercourse with another individual;

(ii) causing the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal opening of another individual who is 14 years old or older, by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, including a part of the human body other than the mouth or genitals, with intent to cause substantial emotional or bodily pain to the victim or with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any individual; or

(iii) engaging in any sexual act with an individual who is 14 years old or older involving the genitals of one individual and the mouth or anus of another individual, regardless of the sex of either participant.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an individual commits sexual conduct without affirmative consent if the individual intentionally or knowingly engages in sexual conduct with another individual without that other individual's affirmative consent.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony, unless committed by an individual under 18 years old, in which case the violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not apply if, for the same conduct, the individual is guilty of a violation of another provision of this part that is punishable by a higher penalty.

(5) Affirmative consent to one sexual act, or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any individual, does not necessarily constitute affirmative consent to another sexual act.

(6) Affirmative consent initially given may be withdrawn through words or conduct at any time before or during sexual activity.

(7) This section does not alter the requirement in Utah law that the prosecution will bear the burden of proof under this section on all elements of the offense, as defined in Subsection 76-1-501(2).
