Utah Code Sections Affected:

ENACTS:

23-21-2.6, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 23-21-2.6 is enacted to read:

23-21-2.6. Target shooting prohibitions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "County sheriff" means the individual holding the office of county sheriff in the

28 portion of a wildlife management area where target shooting will be, or is, prohibited under this 29 section.

30 (b) "Director" means the director of the Division of Wildlife Resources.

31 (c) "Extremely hazardous" means categorized as "extreme" under a nationally
32 recognized standard for rating fire danger.

33 (2) Subject to Subsections (3) and (4), the division may prohibit the use of firearms for 34 target shooting within all or part of a wildlife management area if the director finds, and the 35 county sheriff agrees, that conditions in that portion of the wildlife management area are 36 extremely hazardous.

37 (3) A prohibition under this section:

38 (a) shall undergo a formal review by the director and the county sheriff every 14 days;

39 (b) may not prohibit an individual from legally possessing a firearm or lawfully
40 participating in a hunt; and

41 (c) may only remain in place for as long as extremely hazardous conditions exist in the 42 area that is subject to the prohibition.

43 (4) The director and the county sheriff shall:

44 (a) via a written document, agree to the terms of a prohibition under this section,
45 including:

46 (i) the exact area where target shooting is prohibited; and

47 (ii) the date when the prohibition becomes effective; and

48 (b) comply with Subsection (4)(a) at each formal review under Subsection (3)(a).
