Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63M-7-218 is enacted to read:

63M-7-218. Grants for community policing training.

(1) There is created the Community Policing Training Grant Program. The commission shall administer the program to award grants to local law enforcement agencies to provide training in community policing.

(2) A community policing training program shall improve unity, equity, and support for the implementation of procedural justice-based training to peace officers.

(3) The training program shall include:

(a) de-escalation, strategic communication, and community trust building skills;

(b) techniques designed to reduce officer-involved incidents; and

(c) methods for improving relations between law enforcement officers and the communities they serve.

(4) The local law enforcement agency shall apply to the commission for a training grant. The application shall provide the following information:

(a) the name of the entity to provide the training;

(b) how many officers the training will include;

(c) the length of the training;

(d) the cost of the training;

(e) proposed training dates, if available; and

(f) a description of how the training will improve community policing.

(5) Each law enforcement agency awarded a grant under this section shall, within 180 days of the completion of the training, provide a report to the commission that includes:

(a) a description of the training;

(b) how many officers were included in the training;

(c) whether the training was with a live person, or electronic; and

(d) the agency's perceived effectiveness of the training.

Section 2. Appropriation.

The following sums of money are appropriated for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2022, and ending June 30, 2023. These are additions to amounts previously appropriated for

59 fiscal year 2023. Under the terms and conditions of Title 63J, Chapter 1, Budgetary Procedures
60 Act, the Legislature appropriates the following sums of money from the funds or accounts
61 indicated for the use and support of the government of the state of Utah.
