22 independence from the Soviet Union by forming a human chain between the cities of Kyiv and 23 Ivano-Frankivsk;

24                   WHEREAS, after years of oppression, in 1991, Ukraine won freedom from the Soviet 25 Union's totalitarian dictatorship because of the Ukrainians' love of liberty;

26                   WHEREAS, on February 8, 1994, Ukraine was the first member state of the 27 Commonwealth of Independent States to join the Partnership for Peace program of the North

28 Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and has since deepened its relationship with NATO,
29 recognized as an Enhanced Opportunities Partner;

30 WHEREAS, on December 5, 1994, in an effort to solidify security commitments to 31 Ukraine in return for its nuclear disarmament, the United States, the Russian Federation, and 32 the United Kingdom signed the Budapest Memorandum on Security Assurances, whereby each
33 country pledged to respect the independence and sovereignty of Ukraine's borders while 34 refraining from the threat or use of force against Ukraine;

35 WHEREAS, over the past three decades, the Russian Federation has illegally seized
36 Ukrainian land in Crimea, armed Russian-backed separatists leading to thousands of deaths,
37 interfered in elections, used chemical weapons to attempt assassinations, carried out
38 cyberattacks and disinformation campaigns abroad, and violated international arms control
39 agreements;

40 WHEREAS, at least 14,000 Ukrainians have been killed defending their homeland and 41 millions more displaced since the conflict with Russia began;

42 WHEREAS, in March and November 2021, the Russian Federation deployed a massive

47 namely its President Vladimir Putin, for months;

48 WHEREAS, the Russian Federation has rejected every good-faith effort the United 49 States and its Allies and partners made to address concerns through dialogue to avoid needless 50 conflict and avert human suffering;

51 WHEREAS, to attempt to justify its invasion, the Russian Federation has made
52 outlandish and baseless claims about Ukraine without any evidence;

54 attempting to unilaterally create two new so-called republics on sovereign Ukrainian territory;
55 and

56 WHEREAS, lasting peace and prosperity require respect for the sovereignty and 57 territorial integrity of countries and respect for human rights:
