179 (bb) The Judicial Council shall, by rule, establish a schedule of fees for copies of 180 documents and forms and for the search and retrieval of records under Title 63G, Chapter 2,

181 Government Records Access and Management Act. Fees under Subsection (1)(bb) and (cc)
182 shall be credited to the court as a reimbursement of expenditures.

183 (cc) The Judicial Council may, by rule, establish a reasonable fee to allow members of 184 the public to conduct a limited amount of searches on the Xchange database without having to 185 pay a monthly subscription fee.

186 (dd) There is no fee for services or the filing of documents not listed in this section or 187 otherwise provided by law.

188 (ee) Except as provided in this section, all fees collected under this section are paid to 189 the General Fund. Except as provided in this section, all fees shall be paid at the time the clerk 190 accepts the pleading for filing or performs the requested service.

191 (ff) The filing fees under this section may not be charged to the state, the state's 192 agencies, or political subdivisions filing or defending any action. In judgments awarded in 193 favor of the state, its agencies, or political subdivisions, except the Office of Recovery
194 Services, the court shall order the filing fees and collection costs to be paid by the judgment
195 debtor. The sums collected under this Subsection (1)(ff) shall be applied to the fees after credit 196 to the judgment, order, fine, tax, lien, or other penalty and costs permitted by law.

197 (2) (a) (i) From March 17, 1994, until June 30, 1998, the state court administrator shall 198 transfer all revenues representing the difference between the fees in effect after May 2, 1994,
199 and the fees in effect before February 1, 1994, as dedicated credits to the Division of Facilities
200 Construction and Management Capital Projects Fund.

201 (ii) (A) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(ii)(B), the Division of Facilities
202 Construction and Management shall use up to $3,750,000 of the revenue deposited into the 203 Capital Projects Fund under this Subsection (2)(a) to design and take other actions necessary to 204 initiate the development of a courts complex in Salt Lake City.

205 (B) If the Legislature approves funding for construction of a courts complex in Salt
206 Lake City in the 1995 Annual General Session, the Division of Facilities Construction and 207 Management shall use the revenue deposited into the Capital Projects Fund under this 208 Subsection (2)(a)(ii) to construct a courts complex in Salt Lake City.

209 (C) After the courts complex is completed and all bills connected with its construction
210 have been paid, the Division of Facilities Construction and Management shall use any money
211 remaining in the Capital Projects Fund under this Subsection (2)(a)(ii) to fund the Vernal

212 District Court building.

213 (iii) The Division of Facilities Construction and Management may enter into 214 agreements and make expenditures related to this project before the receipt of revenues
215 provided for under this Subsection (2)(a)(iii).

216 (iv) The Division of Facilities Construction and Management shall:

217 (A) make those expenditures from unexpended and unencumbered building funds
218 already appropriated to the Capital Projects Fund; and

219 (B) reimburse the Capital Projects Fund upon receipt of the revenues provided for 220 under this Subsection (2).

221 (b) After June 30, 1998, the state court administrator shall ensure that all revenues
222 representing the difference between the fees in effect after May 2, 1994, and the fees in effect
223 before February 1, 1994, are transferred to the Division of Finance for deposit in the restricted 224 account.

225 (c) The Division of Finance shall deposit all revenues received from the state court
226 administrator into the restricted account created by this section.

227 (d) (i) From May 1, 1995, until June 30, 1998, the state court administrator shall 228 transfer $7 of the amount of a fine or bail forfeiture paid for a violation of Title 41, Motor
229 Vehicles, in a court of record to the Division of Facilities Construction and Management
230 Capital Projects Fund. The division of money pursuant to Section 78A-5-110 shall be 231 calculated on the balance of the fine or bail forfeiture paid.

232 (ii) After June 30, 1998, the state court administrator or a municipality shall transfer $7
233 of the amount of a fine or bail forfeiture paid for a violation of Title 41, Motor Vehicles, in a
234 court of record to the Division of Finance for deposit in the restricted account created by this 235 section. The division of money pursuant to Section 78A-5-110 shall be calculated on the 236 balance of the fine or bail forfeiture paid.

237 (3) (a) There is created within the General Fund a restricted account known as the State
238 Courts Complex Account.

239 (b) The Legislature may appropriate money from the restricted account to the state
240 court administrator for the following purposes only:

241 (i) to repay costs associated with the construction of the court complex that were 242 funded from sources other than revenues provided for under this Subsection (3)(b)(i); and 243 (ii) to cover operations and maintenance costs on the court complex.

244 Section 4. Section 78A-3-101 is amended to read:

288 (b) The term of appointment to office as a judge of the Court of Appeals is until the 289 first general election held more than three years after the effective date of the appointment.

290 (c) [~~Thereafter,~~] After the first term of appointment under Subsection (1)(b), the term
291 of office of a judge of the Court of Appeals is six years and commences on the first Monday in 292 January, next following the date of election.

293 (d) A judge whose term expires may serve, upon request of the Judicial Council, until a
294 successor is appointed and qualified. [~~The presiding judge of the Court of Appeals shall~~ 295 ~~receive as additional compensation $1,000 per annum or fraction thereof for the period served.~~]

296 (2) (a) The Court of Appeals shall sit and render judgment in panels of three judges.

297 (b) Assignment to panels shall be by random rotation of all judges of the Court of 298 Appeals.

299 (c) The Court of Appeals by rule shall provide for the selection of a chair for each 300 panel.

301 (d) The Court of Appeals may not sit en banc.

302 (3) (a) The judges of the Court of Appeals shall elect a presiding judge from among the 303 members of the court by majority vote of all judges.

304 (b) The term of office of the presiding judge is two years and until a successor is 305 elected.

306 (c) A presiding judge of the Court of Appeals may serve in that office no more than 307 two successive terms.

308 (d) The Court of Appeals may by rule provide for an acting presiding judge to serve in 309 the absence or incapacity of the presiding judge.

310 (e) The presiding judge of the Court of Appeals shall receive $2,000 per annum of 311 additional compensation for the period served as presiding judge.

312 (4) (a) The presiding judge may be removed from the office of presiding judge by 313 majority vote of all judges of the Court of Appeals.

314 (b) In addition to the duties of a judge of the Court of Appeals, the presiding judge 315 shall:

316 ~~[(a)]~~ (i) administer the rotation and scheduling of panels;

317 ~~[(b)]~~ (ii) act as liaison with the Supreme Court;

427 position.

428 (b) The commission shall be convened when a new justice court judge position is

429 created or when a vacancy in an existing court occurs for a justice court located within the 430 county.

431 ~~[(a)]~~ (c) Membership of the justice court nominating commission shall be as follows:

432 (i) one member appointed by:

433 (A) the county commission if the county has a county commission form of 434 government; or

435 (B) the county executive if the county has an executive-council form of government;

436 (ii) one member appointed by the municipalities in the counties as follows:

437 (A) if the county has only one municipality, appointment shall be made by the 438 governing authority of that municipality; or

439 (B) if the county has more than one municipality, appointment shall be made by a 440 municipal selection committee composed of the mayors of each municipality and the chairs of 441 each metro township in the county;

442 (iii) one member appointed by the county bar association; and

443 (iv) two members appointed by the governing authority of the jurisdiction where the 444 judicial office is located.

445 ~~[(b)]~~ (d) (i) If there is no county bar association, the member in Subsection
446 (2)~~[(a)]~~(c)(iii) shall be appointed by the regional bar association.

447 (ii) If no regional bar association exists, the state bar association shall make the 448 appointment.

449 ~~[(e)]~~ (e) Members appointed under Subsections (2)~~[(a)]~~(c)(i) and (ii) may not be the 450 appointing authority or an elected official of a county or municipality.

451 ~~[(f)]~~ (f) (i) ~~[The]~~ Except as provided in Subsection (2)(d)(ii), the nominating 452 commission shall submit at least three names to the appointing authority of the jurisdiction
453 expected to be served by the judge.

454 (ii) If there are fewer than three applicants for a justice court vacancy, the nominating 455 commission shall submit all qualified applicants to the appointing authority of the jurisdiction
456 expected to be served by the judge.

457 (iii) The local government executive shall appoint a judge from the list submitted and 458 the appointment ratified by the local legislative body.

459 ~~[(e)]~~ (g) (i) The state court administrator shall provide staff to the commission.

460 (ii) The Judicial Council shall establish rules and procedures for the conduct of the 461 commission.

482 78A-7-206. Determination of compensation and limits -- Salary survey -- Limits
483 on secondary employment -- Prohibition on holding political or elected office -- Penalties.

484 (1) Every justice court judge shall be paid a fixed compensation determined by the 485 governing body of the respective municipality or county.

486 (a) The governing body of the municipality or county may not set a full-time justice
487 court judge's salary at less than 50% nor more than 90% of a district court judge's salary.

488 (b) The governing body of the municipality or county shall set a part-time justice court
489 judge's salary as follows:

490 (i) The governing body shall first determine the full-time salary range outlined in 491 Subsection (1)(a).

492 (ii) The caseload of a part-time judge shall be determined by the office of the state
493 court administrator and expressed as a percentage of the caseload of a full-time judge.

494 (iii) The judge's salary shall then be determined by applying the percentage determined
495 in Subsection (1)(b)(ii) against the salary range determined in Subsection (1)(a).

496 (c) A justice court judge shall receive an annual salary adjustment at least equal to the 497 average salary adjustment for all county or municipal employees for the jurisdiction served by 498 the judge.

499 (d) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(c), a justice court judge may not receive a salary
500 greater than 90% of the salary of a district court judge.

501 (e) A justice court judge employed by more than one entity as a justice court judge may
502 not receive a total salary for service as a justice court judge greater than the salary of a district 503 court judge.

504 (f) A salary described in this Subsection (1) does not include additional compensation
505 provided for a presiding judge or associate presiding judge of a justice court under Section
506 78A-7-209.5.

507 (2) A justice court judge may not appear as an attorney in any:

508 (a) justice court;

509 (b) criminal matter in any federal, state, or local court; or

510 (c) juvenile court case involving conduct which would be criminal if committed by an 511 adult.

512 (3) A justice court judge may not hold any office or employment including contracting
513 for services in any justice agency of state government or any political subdivision of the state
514 including law enforcement, prosecution, criminal defense, corrections, or court employment.

515 (4) A justice court judge may not hold any office in any political party or organization
516 engaged in any political activity or serve as an elected official in state government or any 517 political subdivision of the state.

518 (5) A justice court judge may not own or be employed by any business entity which 519 regularly litigates in small claims court.

520 (6) The Judicial Council shall file a formal complaint with the Judicial Conduct
521 Commission for each violation of this section.

522 Section 10. Section 78A-7-209.5 is enacted to read:

523 78A-7-209.5. Presiding judge -- Associate presiding judge -- Election -- Powers --
524 Duties.

525 (1) (a) In judicial districts having more than one justice court judge, the justice court
526 judges shall elect one judge of the district to the office of presiding judge.

527 (b) The presiding judge shall receive an additional $2,000 per annum as compensation
528 from the Justice Court Technology, Security, and Training Account described in Section
529 78A-7-301 for the period served as presiding judge.

530 (2) (a) In judicial districts having more than two justice court judges, the justice court 531 judges may elect one judge of the district to the office of associate presiding judge.

532 (b) The associate presiding judge shall receive an additional $1,000 per annum as 533 compensation from the Justice Court Technology, Security, and Training Account described in 534 Section 78-7-301 for the period served as associate presiding judge.

535 (3) The presiding judge has the following authority and responsibilities, consistent with 536 the policies of the Judicial Council:

537 (a) working with each justice court judge in the district to implement policies and rules
538 of the Judicial Council;

539 (b) exercising powers and performing administrative duties as authorized by the 540 Judicial Council;

541 (c) if there is no other appointed justice court judge in that court available, assigning a 542 justice court judge to hear a case in which a judge has been disqualified in accordance with 543 rules of the Supreme Court;

544 (d) if a justice court judge of the district cannot perform the justice court judge's duties
545 in a case or cases due to illness, death, or other incapacity, and the governing body has not 546 appointed a temporary justice court judge in accordance with Section 78A-7-208:

547 (i) assigning, on an emergency basis, a justice court judge to hear a case or cases; and

548 (ii) facilitating judicial coverage with the appointing municipal or county authority
549 until a temporary justice court judge can be appointed, in accordance with Section 78A-7-208,
550 or a new justice court judge is formally appointed and takes office, in accordance with Section 551 78A-7-202; and

552 (e) entering orders of expungement in cases expunged in accordance with Section

553 77-40-114.

554 (4) (a) When the presiding judge is unavailable, the associate presiding judge shall 555 assume the responsibilities of the presiding judge.

556 (b) The associate presiding judge shall perform other duties assigned by the presiding
557 judge.

558 Section 11. Section 78A-7-301 is amended to read:

559 78A-7-301. Justice Court Technology, Security, and Training Account
560 established -- Funding -- Uses.

561 (1) There is created a restricted account in the General Fund known as the Justice
562 Court Technology, Security, and Training Account.

563 ~~[(+)]~~ (2) The state treasurer shall deposit in the account money collected from the 564 surcharge established in Subsection 78A-7-122\(4\)\(b\)\(iii\).

565 ~~[(2)]~~ (3) Money shall be appropriated from the account to the Administrative Office of 566 the Courts to be used for:

567 (a) audit, technology, security, and training needs in justice courts throughout the 568 state[-]; and

569 (b) additional compensation for presiding judges and associate presiding judges for 570 justice courts under Section 78A-7-209.5.
