91 30-3-35. Minimum schedule for parent-time for a child five to 18 years old.

92 (1) As used in this section, "weekends" include any snow days, teacher development
93 days, or other days when school is not scheduled and that are contiguous to the weekend
94 period.

95 (2) The parent-time schedule in this section applies to a child who is five to 18 years
96 old.

97 (3) If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule for a child described in 98 Subsection (2), the following schedule is considered the minimum parent-time to which the 99 noncustodial parent is entitled to the child:

100 (a) (i) one weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court or 101 Wednesday evening if not specified, beginning at 5:30 p.m. and ending at 8:30 p.m.; or

102 (ii) at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday to be specified by the 103 noncustodial parent or the court:

104 (A) beginning at the time that the child's school is regularly dismissed and ending at 105 8:30 p.m.; or

106 (B) if school is not in session, the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child, 107 and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning at 9 a.m. and 108 ending at 8:30 p.m.;

109 (b) (i) beginning on the first weekend after entry of the decree, alternating weekends

114 ending on Sunday at 7 p.m.; or

116 and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning on Friday at 9 a.m.
117 and ending on Sunday at 7 p.m.;

118 (c) each holiday granted to the noncustodial parent in accordance with the holiday

119 schedule described in Subsection (13); and

120 (d) extended parent-time with the child when school is not in session for summer break
121 in accordance with Subsection (4).

122 (4) (a) For extended parent-time with the child under Subsection (3)(d) and at the 123 election of the noncustodial parent, the noncustodial parent is entitled up to four weeks of 124 parent-time with the child, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for 125 summer break.

126 (b) For the four weeks of extended parent-time for a noncustodial parent under 127 Subsection (4)(a):

128 (i) two weeks, which may be consecutive, shall be uninterrupted parent-time for the 129 noncustodial parent; and

130 (ii) two weeks, which may be consecutive, may be interrupted by the custodial parent
131 for a weekday visit on the same day on which the noncustodial parent is granted weekday day
132 parent-time.

133 (c) A custodial parent is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with the child for two 134 weeks, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break.

135 (5) (a) Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for 136 the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break under Subsection (4).

137 (b) For the notification requirement under Subsection (5)(a):

138 (i) in odd-numbered years:

139 (A) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1; and

140 (B) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15; and

141 (ii) in even-numbered years:

142 (A) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1; and

143 (B) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

144 (c) (i) If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described in 145 Subsection (5)(b), the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the 146 noncomplying parent.

147 (ii) If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described in
148 Subsection (5)(b), the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer
149 break for the other parent.

150 (d) If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time under
151 Subsection (4)(b)(ii), the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent
152 of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent
153 receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended
154 parent-time.

155 (6) (a) An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of 156 the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual
157 agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's 158 schedule.

159 (b) An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the 160 decree and made a part of the parent-time order.

161 (7) (a) Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except 162 that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be 163 applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

164 (i) the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day under Subsection (13);

165 (ii) the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising
166 uninterrupted extended parent-time under Subsection (4) and takes the child away from that
167 parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

168 (iii) the holiday schedule for any holiday under Subsection (13) that is not Father's Day,
169 Mother's Day, or the child's birthday;

170 (iv) extended parent-time under Subsection (4); and

171 (v) the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

172 (b) A parent exercising parent-time for the child's birthday may bring other siblings
173 along for the child's birthday.

174 (8) A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the noncustodial 175 parent, may pick up the child for parent-time if the custodial parent is aware of the identity of 176 the individual and the noncustodial parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

177 (9) If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising
178 parent-time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

179 (10) If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose
180 of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the

181 holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening
182 that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child
183 returns to school.

184 (11) (a) Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

185 (b) (i) Virtual parent-time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents
186 reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

187 (ii) If the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the 188 court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking 189 into consideration:

190 (A) the best interests of the child;

191 (B) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and 192 (C) any other factors the court considers material.

193 (c) Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace, in-person parent-time.

194 (12) If there is a child five to 18 years old and a child under five years old and both 195 children are the natural or adopted children of the parties, the parents and the court should 196 consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the children so that parent-time is
197 uniform based on a schedule under this section.

198 (13) The following table is the holiday schedule for parent-time under this section.

303 the exercise of parent-time for summer break under Subsection (8).

304 (b) For the notification requirement under Subsection (9)(a):

305 (i) in odd-numbered years:

306 (A) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1; and

307 (B) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15; and

308 (ii) in even-numbered years:

309 (A) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1; and

310 (B) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

311 (c) (i) If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described in
312 Subsection (9)(b), the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the 313 noncomplying parent.

314 (ii) If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described in
315 Subsection (9)(b), the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer
316 break for the other parent.

317 (d) If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time under
318 Subsection (8)(b)(ii), the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent
319 of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent
320 receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended

321 parent-time.

322 (10) (a) An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of
323 the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual
324 agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's 325 schedule.

326 (b) An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the 327 decree and made a part of the parent-time order.

328 (11) (a) Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section,
329 except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence
330 shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

331 (i) the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day under Subsection (16);

332 (ii) the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising
333 uninterrupted extended parent-time under Subsection (8) and takes the child away from that 334 parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

335 (iii) the holiday schedule for any holiday under Subsection (16) that is not Father's Day,
336 Mother's Day, or the child's birthday;

337 (iv) extended parent-time under Subsection (8); and

338 (v) the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

339 (b) A parent exercising parent-time for the child's birthday may bring other siblings
340 along for the child's birthday.

341 (12) A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the 342 noncustodial parent, may pick up the child for parent-time if the custodial parent is aware of 343 the identity of the individual and the noncustodial parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

344 (13) If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising
345 parent-time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

346 (14) If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose
347 of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the
348 holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening
349 that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child
350 returns to school.

351 (15) If there is a child five to 18 years old and a child under five years old and both

352 children are the natural or adopted children of the parties, the parents and the court should
 353 consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the children so that parent-time is 354 uniform based on a schedule under this section.
