Utah Code Sections Affected:

unlawful possession of a Schedule I or II controlled substance as defined in Section 58-37-2; antitrust violations, unfair trade practices, restraint of trade, or other similar offenses relating to the regulation of business practices not involving theft or fraud; or (ii) a conviction or an adjudication under Section 80-6-701 which, according to the law of the jurisdiction in which it occurred, has been expunged, set aside, reduced to a misdemeanor by court order, pardoned or regarding which the person's civil rights have been restored unless the pardon, reduction, expungement, or restoration of civil rights expressly provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms. (d) It is the burden of the defendant in a criminal case to provide evidence that a conviction or an adjudication under Section 80-6-701 is subject to an exception provided in Subsection (1)(c), after which it is the burden of the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the conviction or the adjudication is not subject to that exception. (2) A Category I restricted person who intentionally or knowingly agrees, consents, offers, or arranges to purchase, transfer, possess, use, or have under the person's custody or control, or who intentionally or knowingly purchases, transfers, possesses, uses, or has under the person's custody or control: (a) any firearm is guilty of a second degree felony; or (b) any dangerous weapon other than a firearm is guilty of a third degree felony. (3) A Category II restricted person who intentionally or knowingly purchases, transfers, possesses, uses, or has under the person's custody or control: (a) any firearm is guilty of a third degree felony; or (b) any dangerous weapon other than a firearm is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. (4) A person may be subject to the restrictions of both categories at the same time. (5) If a higher penalty than is prescribed in this section is provided in another section for one who purchases, transfers, possesses, uses, or has under this custody or control any dangerous weapon, the penalties of that section control. (6) It is an affirmative defense to a charge based on the definition in Subsection (1)(b)(iv) that the person was: (a) in possession of a controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner for use of a member of the person's household or for administration to an animal owned by the person or a member of the person's household; or (b) otherwise authorized by law to possess the substance. (7) (a) It is an affirmative defense to transferring a firearm or other dangerous weapon

by a person restricted under Subsection (2) or (3) that the firearm or dangerous weapon: (i) was possessed by the person or was under the person's custody or control before the person became a restricted person; (ii) was not used in or possessed during the commission of a crime or subject to disposition under Section 24-3-103; (iii) is not being held as evidence by a court or law enforcement agency; (iv) was transferred to a person not legally prohibited from possessing the weapon; and (v) unless a different time is ordered by the court, was transferred within 10 days of the person becoming a restricted person. (b) Subsection (7)(a) is not a defense to the use, purchase, or possession on the person of a firearm or other dangerous weapon by a restricted person. (8) (a) A person may not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any firearm or dangerous weapon to any person, knowing that the recipient is a person described in Subsection (1)(a) or (b). (b) A person who violates Subsection (8)(a) when the recipient is: (i) a person described in Subsection (1)(a) and the transaction involves a firearm, is guilty of a second degree felony; (ii) a person described in Subsection (1)(a) and the transaction involves any dangerous weapon other than a firearm, and the transferor has knowledge that the recipient intends to use the weapon for any unlawful purpose, is guilty of a third degree felony; (iii) a person described in Subsection (1)(b) and the transaction involves a firearm, is guilty of a third degree felony; or (iv) a person described in Subsection (1)(b) and the transaction involves any dangerous weapon other than a firearm, and the transferor has knowledge that the recipient intends to use the weapon for any unlawful purpose, is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. (9) (a) A person may not knowingly solicit, persuade, encourage or entice a dealer or other person to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of a firearm or dangerous weapon under circumstances which the person knows would be a violation of the law. (b) A person may not provide to a dealer or other person any information that the person knows to be materially false information with intent to deceive the dealer or other person about the legality of a sale, transfer or other disposition of a firearm or dangerous #### weapon.

- (c) "Materially false information" means information that portrays an illegal transaction as legal or a legal transaction as illegal.
  - (d) A person who violates this Subsection (9) is guilty of:
- (i) a third degree felony if the transaction involved a firearm; or
- (ii) a class A misdemeanor if the transaction involved a dangerous weapon other than a firearm.
