AMENDS:

76-3-402, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2021, Chapter 293

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-3-402 is amended to read:

76-3-402. Conviction of lower degree of offense -- Procedure and limitations.

(1) As used in this section [~~,"lower~~]:

(a) "Lower degree of offense" includes an offense for which:

[~~(a)~~] (i) a statutory enhancement is charged in the information or indictment that would increase either the maximum or the minimum sentence; and

[~~(b)~~] (ii) the court removes the statutory enhancement in accordance with this section.

(b) "Minor regulatory offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-40a-101.

~~(b)~~ (i) "Rehabilitation program" means a program designed to reduce criminogenic and recidivism risks.

(ii) "Rehabilitation program" includes:

(A) a domestic violence treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 62A-2-101;

(B) a residential, vocational, and life skills program, as that term is defined in Section 13-53-102;

(C) a substance abuse treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 62A-2-101;

(D) a substance use disorder treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 62A-2-101;

(E) a youth program, as that term is defined in Section 62A-2-101;

(F) a program that meets the standards established by the Department of Corrections under Section 64-13-25;

(G) a drug court, a veterans court, or a mental health court certified by the Judicial Council; or

HB0174S02 compared with HB0174S01

(H) a program that is substantially similar to a program described in Subsections (1)(~~fb~~c)(ii)(A) through (G).

(~~fc~~d) "Serious offense" means a felony or misdemeanor offense that is not a minor regulatory offense or a traffic offense.

(~~fd~~e) "Traffic offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-40a-101.

(~~fe~~f) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(~~fe~~f)(ii), "violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

(ii) "Violent felony" does not include an offense, or any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit an offense, for:

(A) the possession, use, or removal of explosive, chemical, or incendiary devices under Subsection 76-10-306(3), (5), or (6); or

(B) the purchase or possession of a dangerous weapon or handgun by a restricted person under Section 76-10-503.

(2) The court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute and impose a sentence at the time of sentencing for the lower degree of offense if the court:

(a) takes into account:

(i) the nature and circumstances of the offense of which the defendant was found guilty; and

(ii) the history and character of the defendant;

(b) gives any victim present at the sentencing and the prosecuting attorney an opportunity to be heard; and

(c) concludes that the degree of offense established by statute would be unduly harsh to record as a conviction on the record for the defendant.

(3) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute:

(a) after the defendant is successfully discharged from probation or parole for the conviction; and

(b) if the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(4) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter

a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge but the defendant is successfully discharged from probation or parole for a subsequent conviction of an offense;

(b) (i) at least five years have passed after the day on which the defendant is sentenced for the subsequent conviction; or

(ii) at least three years have passed after the day on which the defendant is sentenced for the subsequent conviction and the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction;

(c) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (4)(b);

(d) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(e) the defendant is not on probation ~~or~~, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(f) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(g) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(5) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge but the defendant is successfully discharged from a rehabilitation program;

(b) at least three years have passed after the day on which the defendant is successfully discharged from the rehabilitation program;

(c) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (5)(b);

(d) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(e) the defendant is not on probation ~~or~~, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(f) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(g) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense

is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(6) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) at least five years have passed after the day on which the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge;

(b) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (6)(a);

(c) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(d) the defendant is not on probation ~~for~~, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(e) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(f) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(7) In determining whether entering a judgment of a conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6):

(a) the court shall consider:

(i) the nature, circumstances, and severity of the offense for which a reduction is sought;

(ii) the physical, emotional, or other harm that the defendant caused any victim of the offense for which the reduction is sought; and

(iii) any input from a victim of the offense; and

(b) the court may consider:

(i) any special characteristics or circumstances of the defendant, including the defendant's criminogenic risks and needs;

(ii) the defendant's criminal history;

(iii) the defendant's employment and community service history;

(iv) whether the defendant participated in a rehabilitative program and successfully completed the program;

(v) any effect that a reduction would have on the defendant's ability to obtain or reapply for a professional license from the Department of Commerce;

HB0174S02 compared with HB0174S01

(vi) whether the level of the offense has been reduced by law after the defendant's conviction;

(vii) any potential impact that the reduction would have on public safety; or

(viii) any other circumstances that are reasonably related to the defendant or the offense for which the reduction is sought.

(8) (a) A court may only enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) after:

(i) notice is provided to the other party;

(ii) reasonable efforts have been made by the prosecuting attorney to provide notice to any victims; and

(iii) a hearing is held if a hearing is requested by either party.

(b) A prosecuting attorney is entitled to a hearing on a motion seeking to reduce a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6).

(c) In a motion under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) and at a requested hearing on the motion, the moving party has the burden to provide evidence sufficient to demonstrate that the requirements under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) are met.

(9) A court has jurisdiction to consider and enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) regardless of whether the defendant is committed to jail as a condition of probation or is sentenced to prison.

~~[(3)(a) Regardless of whether the defendant is committed to jail as a condition of probation or sentenced to prison, the court has jurisdiction to consider and enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense:]~~

~~[(i) after the defendant has been successfully discharged from probation or parole;]~~

~~[(ii) upon motion and notice to either party;]~~

~~[(iii) after reasonable effort has been made by the prosecuting attorney to provide notice to any victims;]~~

~~[(iv) after a hearing if requested by either party; and]~~

~~[(v) if the court finds entering a judgment of conviction for the lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice.]~~

~~[(b) In making the finding in Subsection (3)(a)(v), the court shall consider as a factor in favor of granting the reduction, after the defendant's conviction, whether the level of the~~

~~offense has been reduced by law.]~~

~~[(c) In both the initial motion and at a requested hearing described in Subsection (3)(a); the moving party has the burden to provide evidence sufficient to demonstrate:]~~

~~[(i) that the defendant has been successfully discharged from probation or parole; and]~~

~~[(ii) that the reduction is in the interest of justice.]~~

~~[(4)] (10) (a) An offense may be reduced only one degree [under this section, whether the reduction is entered under Subsection (2) or (3)] under this section, unless the prosecuting attorney specifically agrees in writing or on the court record that the offense may be reduced two degrees.~~

~~(b) An offense may not be reduced under this section by more than two degrees.~~

~~[(5)] (11) This section does not preclude an individual from obtaining or being granted an expungement of the individual's record in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 40a, Expungement.~~

~~[(6)] (12) The court may not enter a judgment for a conviction for a lower degree of offense under this section if:~~

~~(a) the reduction is specifically precluded by law; or~~

~~(b) [if] any unpaid balance remains on [~~court-ordered~~] court-ordered restitution for the offense for which the reduction is sought.~~

~~[(7)] (13) When the court enters a judgment for a lower degree of offense under this section, the actual title of the offense for which the reduction is made may not be altered.~~

~~[(8)] (14) (a) An individual may not obtain a reduction under this section of a conviction that requires the individual to register as a sex offender until the registration requirements under Title 77, Chapter 41, Sex and Kidnap Offender Registry, have expired.~~

~~(b) An individual required to register as a sex offender for the individual's lifetime under Subsection 77-41-105(3)(c) may not be granted a reduction of the conviction for the offense or offenses that require the individual to register as a sex offender.~~

~~[(9)] (15) (a) An individual may not obtain a reduction under this section of a conviction that requires the individual to register as a child abuse offender until the registration requirements under Title 77, Chapter 43, Child Abuse Offender Registry, have expired.~~

~~(b) An individual required to register as a child abuse offender for the individual's lifetime under Subsection 77-43-105(3)(c) may not be granted a reduction of the conviction for~~ the offense or offenses that require the individual to register as a child abuse offender.
