- (i) a school-age child over age 16 may receive a partial release from school to enter employment, or attend a trade school, if the school-age child has completed grade 8; or
- (ii) on an annual basis, a school-age child may receive a full release from attending a public, regularly established private, or part-time school or class if:
- (A) the school-age child has already completed the work required for graduation from high school;
- (B) the school-age child is in a physical or mental condition, certified by a competent physician if required by the local school board or charter school governing board, which renders attendance inexpedient and impracticable;
- (C) proper influences and adequate opportunities for education are provided in connection with the school-age child's employment; or
- (D) the district superintendent or charter school governing board has determined that a school-age child over the age of 16 is unable to profit from attendance at school because of inability or a continuing negative attitude toward school regulations and discipline.
- (b) A school-age child receiving a partial release from school under Subsection (1)(a)(i) is required to attend:
- (i) school part time as prescribed by the local school board or charter school governing board; or
 - (ii) a home school part time.
- (c) In each case, evidence of reasons for granting an exemption under Subsection (1) must be sufficient to satisfy the local school board or charter school governing board.
- (d) A local school board or charter school governing board that excuses a school-age child from attendance as provided by this Subsection (1) shall issue a certificate that the child is excused from attendance during the time specified on the certificate.
- (2) (a) (i) As used in this Subsection (2)(a), "child abuse" means a criminal offense that would prohibit the granting of a custody order under Subsection 30-5a-103(10), including:
 - (A) child abuse under Section 76-5-109;
- 56 (B) aggravated child abuse under Section 76-5-109.2;
- 57 (C) child abandonment under Section 76-5-109.3;
- 58 (D) commission of domestic violence in the presence of a child under Section

59	76-5-114;
60	(E) child abuse homicide under Section 76-5-208;
61	(F) child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1;
62	(G) human trafficking of a child under Section 76-5-308.5;
63	(H) an offense described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, or in Title 76,
64	Chapter 5b, Part 2, Sexual Exploitation, if the victim is under 18 years old;
65	(I) sexual exploitation of a minor under Section 76-5b-201;
66	(J) aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor under Section 76-5b-201.1; or
67	(K) an offense in another state that, if committed in this state, would constitute an
68	offense described in this Subsection (2)(a)(i).
69	(ii) [A] Except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(iii), a local school board shall excuse a
70	school-age child from attendance, if the school-age child's parent or legal guardian files a
71	signed and notarized affidavit with the school-age child's school district of residence, as
72	defined in Section 53G-6-302, that:
73	[(i)] (A) the school-age child will attend a home school; and
74	[(ii)] (B) the parent or legal guardian assumes sole responsibility for the education of
75	the school-age child, except to the extent the school-age child is dual enrolled in a public
76	school as provided in Section 53G-6-702.
77	(iii) If a parent or legal guardian has been convicted of child abuse or if a court of
78	competent jurisdiction has made a substantiated finding of child abuse or neglect against the
79	parent or legal guardian:
80	(A) the parent or legal guardian may not assume responsibility for the education of a
81	school-age child under Subsection (2)(a)(ii); and
82	(B) the local school board may not accept the affidavit described in Subsection
83	(2)(a)(ii) from the parent or legal guardian or otherwise exempt the school-age child from
84	attendance under Subsection (2)(a)(ii) in relation to the parent's or legal guardian's intent to
85	home school the child.
86	(iv) Nothing in this Subsection (2)(a) affects the ability of another of a child's parents
87	or legal guardians who is not prohibited under Subsection (2)(a)(iii) to file the affidavit
88	described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii).
89	(b) A signed and notarized affidavit filed in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) shall

90	remain in effect as long as:
91	(i) the school-age child attends a home school; [and]
92	(ii) the school district where the affidavit was filed remains the school-age child's
93	district of residence[-]; and
94	(iii) the parent or legal guardian who filed the signed and notarized affidavit has not
95	been convicted of child abuse or been the subject of a substantiated finding of child abuse or
96	neglect by a court of competent jurisdiction.
97	(c) A parent or legal guardian of a school-age child who attends a home school is
98	solely responsible for:
99	(i) the selection of instructional materials and textbooks;
100	(ii) the time, place, and method of instruction; and
101	(iii) the evaluation of the home school instruction.
102	(d) A local school board may not:
103	(i) require a parent or legal guardian of a school-age child who attends a home school
104	to maintain records of instruction or attendance;
105	(ii) require credentials for individuals providing home school instruction;
106	(iii) inspect home school facilities; or
107	(iv) require standardized or other testing of home school students.
108	(e) Upon the request of a parent or legal guardian, a local school board shall identify
109	the knowledge, skills, and competencies a student is recommended to attain by grade level and
110	subject area to assist the parent or legal guardian in achieving college and career readiness
111	through home schooling.
112	(f) A local school board that excuses a school-age child from attendance [as provided
113	by] under this Subsection (2) shall annually issue a certificate stating that the school-age child
114	is excused from attendance for the specified school year.
115	(g) A local school board shall issue a certificate excusing a school-age child from
116	attendance:
117	(i) within 30 days after receipt of a signed and notarized affidavit filed by the
118	school-age child's parent [pursuant to] or legal guardian under this Subsection (2); and
119	(ii) on or before August 1 each year thereafter unless:
120	(A) the school-age child enrolls in a school within the school district;
