Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 11-68-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 68. PERMITTED EVENT WITH ADULT THEME NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENT

11-68-101. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Event permit" means a permit that a public entity issues to the organizer of an event in a public building or on public grounds.

(2) "Event with an adult theme" means an event that:

(a) contains content that may not be appropriate for children; and

(b) takes place in a public building or on public grounds.

(3) (a) "Public building" means a building or permanent structure that is:

(i) owned, leased, or occupied by a public entity or a subunit of a public entity;

(ii) open to public access in whole or in part; and

(iii) used for public education or public entity activities.

(b) "Public building" does not mean a building or permanent structure that is owned or leased by a public entity or a subunit of a public entity:

(i) that is closed to public access; or

(ii) when the building is used by a person, in whole or in part, for a private function.

(4) (a) "Public grounds" means the area outside of a public building where:

(i) members of the public may safely gather; and

(ii) a public entity may require an event permit for an event.

(b) "Public grounds" may include a sidewalk, street, or park.

(5) "Public entity" means the state, a political subdivision, a state college or university, a public school or school district, or other public entity that may issue an event permit for an event in a public building or on public grounds.

Section 2. Section 11-68-102 is enacted to read:

11-68-102. Permitted event with adult theme notification requirement.

(1) (a) If a public entity grants an event permit for an event that the public entity determines is an event with an adult theme, the public entity shall provide notice that parental guidance is advised to members of the public who may view or otherwise be exposed to the event with an adult theme.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(c) or (1)(d), the notification described in Subsection (1)(a) shall:

(i) be designed to provide a parent or guardian with sufficient notice so that the parent or guardian may choose to prevent the parent's or guardian's child from viewing or otherwise being exposed to the event with an adult theme; and

(ii) be posted near all main entrances to the event with an adult theme or otherwise be designed to provide adequate notice to members of the public who may view or otherwise be exposed to the event with an adult theme.

(c) For a parade, the notification described in Subsection (1)(a) shall be posted by the public entity on the public entity's website.

(d) For a large outdoor event that is not a parade, the notification described in Subsection (1)(a) shall:

(i) be posted by the public entity on the public entity's website; or

(ii) be physically posted in four conspicuous locations at or near the large outdoor event.

(2) In making a determination as to whether an event is an event with an adult theme as described in Subsection (1), the public entity shall require the requestor of the event permit to provide sufficient information regarding the event in order to be able to make a reasonably informed determination.

(3) (a) Nothing in this section affects the issuance of an event permit or requires a public entity to grant an event permit to an event with an adult theme.

(b) A public entity, or an entity acting at the request or direction of a public entity, is:

(i) presumed to have acted in good faith in making the determination described in

Subsection (1)(a); and

(ii) immune from civil liability for damages for good faith compliance with this section.
