Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63G-1-501 is repealed and reenacted to read:

Part 5. State Flags

63G-1-501. State flag -- Description -- Image -- Display.

(1) The state flag of Utah shall be a rectangle that has a width to length ratio of three to five and contain the following:

(a) two irregular, horizontal lines dividing the flag into three separate segments, of which:

(i) the top segment:

(A) is located above the higher horizontal line; and

(B) is shaded in blue;

(ii) the middle segment:

(A) is located between the two horizontal lines;

(B) is shaded in white;

(C) at the higher horizontal line, takes the shape of a mountain with five peaks, the center peak being the tallest and following the shape of the highest point of the hexagon described in Subsection (1)(b); and

(D) at the lower horizontal line, follows the shape of the lowest point of the hexagon described in Subsection (1)(b); and

(iii) the bottom segment:

(A) is located below the lower horizontal line; and

(B) is shaded in red;

(b) one hexagon that:

(i) is shaded in blue;

(ii) contains a smaller gold hexagon outline; and

(iii) is placed within the center of the middle segment described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii);

(c) one beehive that:

(i) is shaded in gold;

(ii) contains five hive sections with a small semicircle removed from the center of the

57 base of the lowest section; and

58 (iii) is placed within the center of the hexagon described in Subsection (1)(b); and

59 (d) one five-pointed Utah star that:

60 (i) is shaded in white; and

61 (ii) is placed below the center of the beehive described in Subsection (1)(c).

62 (2) The state flag shall represent and symbolize the following:

63 (a) the beehive described in Subsection (1)(c) symbolizes industry, community, and the 64 year 1847, the year in which pioneers first settled Utah;

65 (b) the Utah star described in Subsection (1)(d) symbolizes hope and the year 1896, the
66 year in which Utah was admitted to statehood;

67 (c) the hexagon described in Subsection (1)(b) symbolizes the strength of Utah's
68 people;

69 (d) the top segment described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) represents Utah's skies and
70 symbolizes faith;

71 (e) the middle segment described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) represents Utah's snowy
72 mountains and peace, the peaks of which symbolize Utah's indigenous peoples; and

73 (f) the bottom segment described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii) represents the red rocks of 74 Southern Utah and symbolizes perseverance and the state's unique landscapes.

75 (3) The state flag shall appear consistent with the following image:

76

77 (4) The state flag shall be available in the public domain and be displayed on all

78 occasions when the state is officially and publicly represented, with the privilege of use by all
79 citizens upon any occasion deemed fitting and appropriate.

80 (5) The lieutenant governor shall establish standards and specifications for the 81 manufacture and display of the state flag. Section 2. Section 63G-1-503 is enacted to read:

82 63G-1-503. Ceremonial state flag -- Description -- Image -- Display.

83 (1) The ceremonial state flag shall be a flag of blue field, with the following device
84 worked in natural colors on the center of the blue field:

85 (a) in the center a shield;

86 (b) above the shield and thereon an American eagle with outstretched wings;

87 (c) the top of the shield pierced with six arrows arranged crosswise;

88 (d) upon the shield under the arrows the word "Industry," and below the word
89 "Industry" on the center of the shield, a beehive;

90 (e) on each side of the beehive, growing sego lilies;

91 (f) below the beehive and near the bottom of the shield, the word "Utah";

92 (g) below the word "Utah" and on the bottom of the shield, the figures "1847";

93 (h) behind the shield, there shall be two American flags on flagstuffs placed crosswise
94 with the flags so draped to project beyond each side of the shield, the heads of the flagstuffs
95 appearing in front of the eagle's wings and the bottom of each staff appearing over the face of
96 the draped flag below the shield;

97 (i) below the shield and flags and upon the blue field, the figures "1896"; and

98 (j) around the entire design, a narrow circle in gold.

99 (2) The ceremonial state flag shall appear consistent with the following image:

100

101 (3) All citizens maintain the right to use the ceremonial state flag upon any occasion
102 deemed fitting and appropriate.

103 (4) The lieutenant governor shall establish standards and specifications for the 104 manufacture and display of the ceremonial state flag.

105 (5) The ceremonial state flag shall be displayed on the capitol hill complex, as defined
106 in Section 63C-9-102, during the annual general session of the Legislature.

107 (6) (a) The ceremonial state flag may be displayed on state property for ceremonial
108 purposes, so long as the flag is serviceable.

109 (b) The ceremonial state flag shall be replaced by the state flag of Utah, as described in
110 Section 63G-1-501, when the ceremonial state flag is not displayed for ceremonial purposes.

111 (c) When displaying the ceremonial state flag on public grounds in any location where
112 the state flag of Utah, as described in Section 63G-1-501, is also displayed, the governmental 113 entity responsible for the display of the flags shall ensure that the ceremonial state flag is 114 displayed beneath the state flag of Utah.

115 Section 3. Effective date.

116 This bill takes effect on March 9, 2024.
