(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(a), if the division fails to provide the notice described in Subsection (2) within the time described in Subsection (3), the juvenile court may grant the request of a parent or guardian for a continuance, not to exceed five judicial days.

(9) (a) If the child is in protective custody, the juvenile court shall order that the child be returned to the custody of the parent or guardian unless the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, consistent with the protections and requirements provided in Subsection 80-2a-201(1), that any one of the following exists:

(i) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(i), there is a serious danger to the physical health or safety of the child and the child's physical health or safety may not be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent;

(ii) (A) the child is suffering emotional damage that results in a serious impairment in the child's growth, development, behavior, or psychological functioning;

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would sufficiently prevent future damage; and

(C) there are no reasonable means available by which the child's emotional health may be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iii) there is a substantial risk that the child will suffer abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iv) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(ii), the child or a minor residing in the same household has been, or is considered to be at substantial risk of being, physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited by:

(A) a parent or guardian;

(B) a member of the parent's household or the guardian's household; or

(C) an individual known to the parent or guardian;

(v) the parent or guardian is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(vi) the parent or guardian is unable to have physical custody of the child;

(vii) the child is without any provision for the child's support;

(viii) a parent who is incarcerated or institutionalized has not or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the child;

(ix) (A) a relative or other adult custodian with whom the child is left by the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child;

(B) the whereabouts of the parent or guardian are unknown; and

(C) reasonable efforts to locate the parent or guardian are unsuccessful;

(x) subject to Subsection 80-1-102(58)(b)(i) and Sections 80-3-109 and 80-3-304, the child is in immediate need of medical care;

(xi) (A) the physical environment or the fact that the child is left unattended beyond a reasonable period of time poses a threat to the child's health or safety; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the threat;

(xii) (A) the child or a minor residing in the same household has been neglected; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would prevent the neglect;

(xiii) the parent, guardian, or an adult residing in the same household as the parent or guardian, is charged or arrested pursuant to Title 58, Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, and any clandestine laboratory operation was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided;

(xiv) (A) the child's welfare is substantially endangered; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the danger; or

(xv) the child's natural parent:

(A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child.

(b) (i) Prima facie evidence of the finding described in Subsection (9)(a)(i) is established if:

(A) a court previously adjudicated that the child suffered abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent; and

(B) a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent occurs.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a)(iv), if the juvenile court finds that the parent knowingly allowed the child to be in the physical care of an individual after the parent received actual notice that the individual physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited the child, that fact is prima facie evidence that there is a substantial risk that the child will be physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(10) (a) (i) The juvenile court shall make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal.

(ii) If the juvenile court finds that the child can be safely returned to the custody of the child's parent or guardian through the provision of the services described in Subsection (10)(a)(i), the juvenile court shall place the child with the child's parent or guardian and order that the services be provided by the division.

(b) In accordance with federal law, the juvenile court shall consider the child's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern when making the determination described in Subsection (10)(a), and in ordering and providing the services described in Subsection (10)(a).

(11) If the division's first contact with the family occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the juvenile court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts, as described in Section 80-2a-302, was appropriate.

(12) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, the juvenile court and the division do not have any duty to make reasonable efforts or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, return a child to the child's home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(13) The juvenile court may not order continued removal of a child solely on the basis of educational neglect, truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school.

(14) (a) If a juvenile court orders continued removal of a child under this section, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(b) If no continued removal is ordered and the child is returned home, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(15) If the juvenile court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child under Subsection (9)(a), the juvenile court shall order continued removal regardless of:

(a) any error in the initial removal of the child;

(b) the failure of a party to comply with notice provisions; or

(c) any other procedural requirement of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, or Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.

[(b)] (ii) "Natural parent" includes the individuals described in Subsection [(1)(a)] (1)(b) regardless of whether the child has been or will be placed with adoptive parents or whether adoption has been or will be considered as a long-term goal for the child.

(2) (a) At the shelter hearing, if the juvenile court orders that a child be removed from the custody of the child's parent in accordance with Section 80-3-301, the juvenile court shall first determine whether there is another natural parent with whom the child was not residing at the time the events or conditions that brought the child within the juvenile court's jurisdiction occurred, who desires to assume custody of the child.

(b) Subject to Subsection (7), if another natural parent requests custody under Subsection (2)(a), the juvenile court shall place the child with that parent unless the juvenile court finds that the placement would be unsafe or otherwise detrimental to the child.

(c) The juvenile court:

(i) shall make a specific finding regarding the fitness of the parent described in Subsection (2)(b) to assume custody, and the safety and appropriateness of the placement;

(ii) shall, at a minimum, order the division to visit the parent's home, comply with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305, and check the Management Information System for any previous reports of abuse or neglect received by the division regarding the parent at issue;

(iii) may order the division to conduct any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement; and

(iv) may place the child in the temporary custody of the division, pending the juvenile court's determination regarding the placement.

(d) The division shall report the division's findings from an investigation under Subsection (2)(c), regarding the child in writing to the juvenile court.

(3) If the juvenile court orders placement with a parent under Subsection (2):

(a) the child and the parent are under the continuing jurisdiction of the juvenile court;

(b) the juvenile court may order:

(i) that the parent take custody subject to the supervision of the juvenile court; and

(ii) that services be provided to the parent from whose custody the child was removed, the parent who has assumed custody, or both; and

(c) the juvenile court shall order reasonable parent-time with the parent from whose custody the child was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the child.

(4) The juvenile court shall periodically review an order described in Subsection (3) to determine whether:

(a) placement with the parent continues to be in the child's best interest;

(b) the child should be returned to the original custodial parent;

(c) the child should be placed with a relative under Subsections (6) through (9); or

(d) the child should be placed in the temporary custody of the division.

(b) To affect a previous court order regarding legal custody, the party shall petition the court for modification of legal custody.

(6) Subject to Subsection (7), if, at the time of the shelter hearing, a child is removed from the custody of the child's parent and is not placed in the custody of the child's other parent, the juvenile court:

(a) shall, at that time, determine whether there is a relative or a friend who is able and willing to care for the child, which may include asking a child, who is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement, if there is a relative or friend with whom the child would prefer to reside;

(b) may order the division to conduct a reasonable search to determine whether there are relatives or friends who are willing and appropriate, in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, and Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child, for placement of the child;

(c) shall order the parents to cooperate with the division, within five working days, to provide information regarding relatives or friends who may be able and willing to care for the child; and

(d) may order that the child be placed in the temporary custody of the division pending the determination under Subsection (6)(a).

(7) (a) (i) Subject to ~~[Subsections]~~ Subsection (7)(b) ~~[through (d)]~~, and if the provisions of this section are satisfied, the division and the juvenile court shall give preferential consideration to a relative's or a friend's request for placement of the child, if the placement is in the best interest of the child.

(ii) For purposes of the preferential consideration under Subsection (7)(a)(i), there is a rebuttable presumption that placement of the child with a relative is in the best interest of the child.

(b) (i) The preferential consideration that the juvenile court or division initially grants a ~~[relative or]~~ friend under Subsection (7)(a)(i) expires 120 days after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs.

(ii) The preferential consideration that the juvenile court or division initially grants a relative under Subsection (7)(a)(i) expires 12 months after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs.

~~[(ii)]~~ (iii) After the day on which the time period described in Subsection (7)(b)(i) or (ii) expires, the division or the juvenile court may not grant preferential consideration to a relative or friend, who has not obtained custody or asserted an interest in the child.

~~[(c) (i) The preferential consideration that the juvenile court initially grants a natural parent under Subsection (2) is limited after 120 days after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs.]~~

~~[(ii) After the time period described in Subsection (7)(c)(i), the juvenile court shall base the juvenile court's custody decision on the best interest of the child.]~~

~~[(d)]~~ (c) ~~[Before the day on which the time period described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) expires, the]~~ The following order of preference shall be applied when determining the

(iii) subject to Subsection ~~[(7)(e)]~~ (7)(d), a friend if the friend is a licensed foster parent; and

(ii) is required to consider no more than one friend designated by each parent of the child and one friend designated by the child if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement;

(iii) may limit the number of designated friends to two, one of whom shall be a friend designated by the child if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement; and

(iv) shall give preference to a friend designated by the child if:

(A) the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes; and

(B) the basis for removing the child under Section 80-3-301 is sexual abuse of the child.

~~[(f)]~~ (e) (i) If a parent of the child or the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement, is not able to designate a friend who is a licensed foster parent for placement of the child, but is able to identify a friend who is willing to become licensed as a foster parent, the department shall fully cooperate to expedite the licensing process for the friend.

(ii) If the friend described in Subsection ~~[(7)(f)(i)]~~ (7)(e)(i) becomes licensed as a foster parent within the time frame described in Subsection (7)(b)(i), the juvenile court shall determine whether it is in the best interest of the child to place the child with the friend.

(8) (a) If a relative or friend who is willing to cooperate with the child's permanency goal is identified under Subsection (6)(a), the juvenile court:

(i) shall make a specific finding regarding:

(A) the fitness of that relative or friend as a placement for the child; and

(B) the safety and appropriateness of placement with the relative or friend; and

(ii) may not consider a request for guardianship or adoption of the child by an individual who is not a relative of the child, or prevent the division from placing the child in the custody of a relative of the child in accordance with this part, until after the day on which the juvenile court makes the findings under Subsection (8)(a)(i).

(b) In making the finding described in Subsection (8)(a), the juvenile court shall, at a minimum, order the division to:

(i) if the child may be placed with a relative, conduct a background check that includes:

620 children that may indicate or present a danger to this child;
- 621 (B) the child is comfortable with the relative or friend;
- 622 (C) the relative or friend recognizes the parent's history of abuse and is committed to 623 protect the child;

625 for access to the child, in accordance with court orders;
- 626 (E) the relative or friend is committed to caring for the child as long as necessary; and
- 627 (F) the relative or friend can provide a secure and stable environment for the child.
- 628 (c) The division may determine to conduct, or the juvenile court may order the division
629 to conduct, any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement
630 described in Subsection (8)(a).
- 631 (d) The division shall complete and file the division's assessment regarding placement
632 with a relative or friend under Subsections (8)(a) and (b) as soon as practicable, in an effort to 633 facilitate placement of the child with a relative or friend.
- 634 (9) (a) The juvenile court may place a child described in Subsection (2)(a) in the 635 temporary custody of the division, pending the division's investigation under Subsection (8), 636 and the juvenile court's determination regarding the appropriateness of the placement.
- 637 (b) The juvenile court shall ultimately base the juvenile court's determination regarding 638 the appropriateness of a placement with a relative or friend on the best interest of the child.
- 639 (10) If a juvenile court places a child described in Subsection (6) with the child's 640 relative or friend:
- 641 (a) the juvenile court shall:
- 642 (i) order the relative or friend take custody, subject to the continuing supervision of the 643 juvenile court;
- 644 (ii) provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody
645 the child is removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the child; and

646 (iii) conduct a periodic review no less often than every six months, to determine 647 whether:

- 648 (A) placement with a relative or friend continues to be in the child's best interest;
- 649 (B) the child should be returned home; or
- 650 (C) the child should be placed in the custody of the division;

651 (b) the juvenile court may enter an order:

- 652 (i) requiring the division to provide necessary services to the child and the child's 653 relative or friend, including the monitoring of the child's safety and well-being; or
- 654 (ii) that the juvenile court considers necessary for the protection and best interest of the 655 child; and
- 656 (c) the child and the relative or friend in whose custody the child is placed are under 657 the continuing jurisdiction of the juvenile court[?];

658 (11) No later than 12 months after the day on which the child is removed from the
659 home, the juvenile court shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of entering a permanent order 660 in accordance with the best interest of the child.

661 (12) The time limitations described in Section 80-3-406, with regard to reunification
662 efforts, apply to a child placed with a previously noncustodial parent under Subsection (2) or 663 with a relative or friend under Subsection (6).

664 (13) (a) If the juvenile court awards temporary custody of a child to the division, and 665 the division places the child with a relative, the division shall:

- 666 (i) conduct a criminal background check of the relative that complies with the criminal 667 background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305; and
- 668 (ii) if the results of the criminal background check described in Subsection (13)(a)(i) 669 would prohibit the relative from having direct access to the child under Section 62A-2-120, the 670 division shall:
 - 671 (A) take the child into physical custody; and
 - 672 (B) within three days, excluding weekends and holidays, after the day on which the 673 child is taken into physical custody under Subsection (13)(a)(i)(A), give written notice to the 674 juvenile court, and all parties to the proceedings, of the division's action.
- 675 (b) Subsection (13)(a) does not prohibit the division from placing a child with a 676 relative, pending the results of the background check described in Subsection (13)(a) on the relative.

(14) If the juvenile court orders that a child be removed from the custody of the child's parent and does not award custody and guardianship to another parent, relative, or friend under this section, the juvenile court shall order that the child be placed in the temporary custody of the division, to proceed to adjudication and disposition and to be provided with care and services in accordance with this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, and Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.

(15) (a) If a child reenters the temporary custody or the custody of the division and ~~is placed in foster care,~~ the child is not placed with an individual who is a parent, relative, or friend, the division shall:

(i) notify the child's former foster parents; and

(ii) upon a determination of the former foster parents' willingness and ability to safely and appropriately care for the child, give the former foster parents preference for placement of the child.

(b) If, after the shelter hearing, the child is placed with an individual who is not a parent, a relative, a friend, or a former foster parent of the child, priority shall be given to a foster placement with a married couple, unless it is in the best interests of the child to place the child with a single foster parent.

(16) In determining the placement of a child, the juvenile court and the division may not take into account, or discriminate against, the religion of an individual with whom the child may be placed, unless the purpose of taking religion into account is to place the child with an individual or family of the same religion as the child.

(17) If the juvenile court's decision differs from a child's express wishes if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to the child's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile court's decision differs from the child's wishes.

(18) This section does not guarantee that an identified relative or friend will receive custody of the child.

(19) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the child's placement is temporary until:

(a) the out-of-state placement is made by the division;

(b) the out-of-state placement is declined by the receiving state; or

(c) the division determines the out-of-state placement is no longer appropriate.

Section 7. Section 80-3-303 is amended to read:

(e) may place the child with a noncustodial parent, relative, or friend, using the same criteria established for an emergency placement under Section 80-2a-301, pending the results of:

(i) the background check described in Subsection 80-3-302(13)(a); and

(ii) evaluation with the noncustodial parent, relative, or friend to determine the individual's capacity to provide ongoing care to the child; and

(f) shall take into consideration the will of the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to the child's placement.

(3) If the division's placement decision differs from a child's express wishes and the child is of sufficient maturity to state the child's wishes in relation to the child's placement, the division shall:

(a) make written findings explaining why the division's decision differs from the child's wishes; and

(b) provide the written findings to the juvenile court and the child's attorney guardian ad litem.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the child's placement is temporary until:

(a) the out-of-state placement is made by the division;

(b) the out-of-state placement is declined by the receiving state; or

(c) the division determines the out-of-state placement is no longer appropriate.

the party or counsel's participation is otherwise permitted by law.

(c) In relation to all information considered by the division in developing a child and family plan, the division shall give additional weight and attention to the input of the child's natural and foster parents upon the involvement of the child's natural and foster parents under Subsections (3)(a)(i) and (iii).

(i) protect the physical safety of the child;

(ii) protect the life of the child; or

(i) the child's fear of the parent; and

(ii) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

925 against the natural parents of the minor.

926 (iii) An order under this Subsection (2)(d):

927 (A) shall remain in effect until the minor is 18 years old;

949 (iii) In determining whether to order the examination, treatment, or care described in 950 Subsection (2)(g)(i), the juvenile court shall consider:

951 (A) the desires of the minor;

952 (B) the desires of the parent or guardian of the minor if the minor is younger than 18
953 years old; and

954 (C) whether the potential benefits of the examination, treatment, or care outweigh the 955 potential risks and side-effects, including behavioral disturbances, suicidal ideation, brain function impairment, or emotional or physical harm resulting from the compulsory nature of the examination, treatment, or care.

(h) The juvenile court may make other reasonable orders for the best interest of the minor.

(b) assume the function of developing foster home services; or

(c) vest legal custody of an abused, neglected, or dependent minor in the division to primarily address the minor's ungovernable or other behavior, mental health, or disability, unless the division:

(i) engages other relevant divisions within the department that are conducting an assessment of the minor and the minor's family's needs;

(ii) based on the assessment described in Subsection (3)(c)(i), determines that vesting custody of the minor in the division is the least restrictive intervention for the minor that meets the minor's needs; and

(iii) consents to legal custody of the minor being vested in the division.

(4) The juvenile court may combine the dispositions listed in Subsection (2) if combining the dispositions is permissible and the dispositions are compatible.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the child's placement is temporary until:

(a) the out-of-state placement is made by the division;

(b) the out-of-state placement is declined by the receiving state; or

(c) the division determines the out-of-state placement is no longer appropriate.

Section 10. Section 80-3-407 is amended to read:

80-3-407. Six-month review hearing -- Findings regarding reasonable efforts by division -- Findings regarding child and family plan compliance.

(1) If reunification efforts have been ordered by the juvenile court under Section 80-3-406, the juvenile court shall hold a hearing no more than six months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home, in order for the juvenile court to determine whether:

~~[(1)]~~ (a) the division has provided and is providing reasonable efforts to reunify the family in accordance with the child and family plan;

~~[(2)]~~ (b) the parent has fulfilled or is fulfilling identified duties and responsibilities in order to comply with the requirements of the child and family plan; and

~~[(3)]~~ (c) the division considered the preferential consideration and rebuttable presumption described in Subsections 80-3-302(7)(a) and 80-3-303(2)(c).

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the child's placement is temporary until:

(a) the out-of-state placement is made by the division;

(b) the out-of-state placement is declined by the receiving state; or

(c) the division determines the out-of-state placement is no longer appropriate.

Section 11. Section 80-3-409 is amended to read:

80-3-409. Permanency hearing -- Final plan -- Petition for termination of parental rights filed -- Hearing on termination of parental rights.

(1) (a) If reunification services are ordered under Section 80-3-406, with regard to a minor who is in the custody of the division, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing no later than 12 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(b) If reunification services are not ordered at the dispositional hearing, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends.

(2) (a) If reunification services are ordered in accordance with Section 80-3-406, the juvenile court shall, at the permanency hearing, determine, consistent with Subsection (3), whether the minor may safely be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

(b) If the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that return of the minor to the minor's parent would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor's physical or emotional well-being, the minor may not be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

1018 (c) Prima facie evidence that return of the minor to a parent or guardian would create a 1019 substantial risk of detriment to the minor is established if:

1020 (i) the parent or guardian fails to:

1021 (A) participate in a court approved child and family plan;

1022 (B) comply with a court approved child and family plan in whole or in part; or

1023 (C) meet the goals of a court approved child and family plan; or

1024 (ii) the minor's natural parent:

1025 (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the 1026 minor;

1027 (B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation 1028 for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

1029 (C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or 1030 recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor.

1031 (3) In making a determination under Subsection (2)(a), the juvenile court shall:

1032 (a) review and consider:

1033 (i) the report prepared by the division;

1034 (ii) in accordance with the Utah Rules of Evidence, any admissible evidence offered by 1035 the minor's attorney guardian ad litem;

1036 (iii) any report submitted by the division under Subsection 80-3-408(3)(a)(i);

1037 (iv) any evidence regarding the efforts or progress demonstrated by the parent; and

1038 (v) the extent to which the parent cooperated and used the services provided; and

1039 (b) attempt to keep the minor's sibling group together if keeping the sibling group 1040 together is:

1041 (i) practicable; and

1042 (ii) in accordance with the best interest of the minor.

1043 (4) With regard to a case where reunification services are ordered by the juvenile court,
 1044 if a minor is not returned to the minor's parent or guardian at the permanency hearing, the 1045 juvenile court shall, unless the time for the provision of reunification services is extended
 1046 under Subsection (7):

1047 (a) order termination of reunification services to the parent;

1048 (b) make a final determination regarding whether termination of parental rights, adoption, or permanent custody and guardianship is the most appropriate final plan for the minor, taking into account the minor's primary permanency plan established by the juvenile court under Section 80-3-406; and

(c) in accordance with Subsection 80-3-406(2), establish a concurrent permanency plan that identifies the second most appropriate final plan for the minor, if appropriate.

(5) The juvenile court may order another planned permanent living arrangement other than reunification for a minor who is 16 years old or older upon entering the following findings:

(a) the division has documented intensive, ongoing, and unsuccessful efforts to reunify the minor with the minor's parent or parents, or to secure a placement for the minor with a guardian, an adoptive parent, or an individual described in Subsection 80-3-301(6)(e);

(b) the division has demonstrated that the division has made efforts to normalize the life of the minor while in the division's custody, in accordance with Section 80-2-308;

(c) the minor prefers another planned permanent living arrangement; and

(d) there is a compelling reason why reunification or a placement described in Subsection (5)(a) is not in the minor's best interest.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), the juvenile court may not extend reunification services beyond 12 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home, in accordance with the provisions of Section 80-3-406.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for no more than 90 days if the juvenile court finds, beyond a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(i) there has been substantial compliance with the child and family plan;

(ii) reunification is probable within that 90-day period; and

(iii) the extension is in the best interest of the minor.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), the juvenile court may not extend any reunification services beyond 15 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(ii) Delay or failure of a parent to establish paternity or seek custody does not provide a basis for the juvenile court to extend services for the parent beyond the 12-month period described in Subsection (6).

(c) In accordance with Subsection (7)(d), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for one additional 90-day period, beyond the 90-day period described in Subsection (7)(a), if:

(i) the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(A) the parent has substantially complied with the child and family plan;

(B) it is likely that reunification will occur within the additional 90-day period; and

(C) the extension is in the best interest of the minor;

(ii) the juvenile court specifies the facts upon which the findings described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) are based; and

(iii) the juvenile court specifies the time period in which it is likely that reunification will occur.

(d) A juvenile court may not extend the time period for reunification services without complying with the requirements of this Subsection (7) before the extension.

(e) In determining whether to extend reunification services for a minor, a juvenile court shall take into consideration the status of the minor siblings of the minor.

(8) The juvenile court may, in the juvenile court's discretion:

(a) enter any additional order that the juvenile court determines to be in the best interest of the minor, so long as that order does not conflict with the requirements and provisions of Subsections (4) through (7); or

(b) order the division to provide protective supervision or other services to a minor and the minor's family after the division's custody of a minor is terminated.

(9) (a) If the final plan for the minor is to proceed toward termination of parental rights, the petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed, and a pretrial held, within 45 calendar days after the day on which the permanency hearing is held.

(b) If the division opposes the plan to terminate parental rights, the juvenile court may not require the division to file a petition for the termination of parental rights, except as required under Subsection 80-4-203(2).

(10) (a) Any party to an action may, at any time, petition the juvenile court for an expedited permanency hearing on the basis that continuation of reunification efforts are inconsistent with the permanency needs of the minor.

(b) If the juvenile court so determines, the juvenile court shall order, in accordance

1111 with federal law, that:

1112 (i) the minor be placed in accordance with the permanency plan; and

1113 (ii) whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor be 1114 completed as quickly as possible.

1115 (11) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

1116 (a) entitle any parent to reunification services for any specified period of time;

1117 (b) limit a juvenile court's ability to terminate reunification services at any time before 1118 a permanency hearing; or

1119 (c) limit or prohibit the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights by any 1120 party, or a hearing on termination of parental rights, at any time before a permanency hearing 1121 provided that relative placement and custody options have been fairly considered in accordance 1122 with Sections 80-2a-201 and 80-4-104.

1123 (12) (a) Subject to Subsection (12)(b), if a petition for termination of parental rights is 1124 filed before the date scheduled for a permanency hearing, the juvenile court may consolidate 1125 the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing.

1126 (b) For purposes of Subsection (12)(a), if the juvenile court consolidates the hearing on 1127 termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing:

1128 (i) the juvenile court shall first make a finding regarding whether reasonable efforts 1129 have been made by the division to finalize the permanency plan for the minor; and

1130 (ii) any reunification services shall be terminated in accordance with the time lines
1131 described in Section 80-3-406.

1132 (c) The juvenile court shall make a decision on a petition for termination of parental 1133 rights within 18 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's 1134 home.

1135 (13) (a) If a juvenile court determines that a minor will not be returned to a parent of 1136 the minor, the juvenile court shall consider appropriate placement options inside and outside of 1137 the state.

1138 (b) In considering appropriate placement options under Subsection (13)(a), the juvenile 1139 court shall provide preferential consideration to a relative's request for placement of the minor.

1140 (14) (a) In accordance with Section 80-3-108, if a minor 14 years old or older desires 1141 an opportunity to address the juvenile court or testify regarding permanency or placement, the

1142 juvenile court shall give the minor's wishes added weight, but may not treat the minor's wishes 1143 as the single controlling factor under this section.

1144 (b) If the juvenile court's decision under this section differs from a minor's express
1145 wishes if the minor is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to permanency 1146 or the minor's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile 1147 court's decision differs from the minor's wishes.

1148 (15) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if, for a relative placement,
1149 an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children 1150 has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the 1151 child's placement is temporary until:

1152 (a) the out-of-state placement is made by the division;

1153 (b) the out-of-state placement is declined by the receiving state; or

1154 (c) the division determines the out-of-state placement is no longer appropriate.
