likely persist for several months; ~~and~~

- ▶ extends the state of emergency until August 15, 2023 ~~(.)~~; and
- ▶ requires that the Governor provide a report every 30 days on the status of the emergency.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, on April 18, 2023, pursuant to Utah Code Section 53-2a-206, Governor Spencer J. Cox issued an executive order declaring a state of emergency due to flood risks throughout the state;

WHEREAS, Utah Code Section 53-2a-206 provides that a state of emergency may not continue for longer than 30 days unless extended by joint resolution of the Legislature;

WHEREAS, high snowpack levels remain, and runoff will likely result in flooding in various parts of the state;

WHEREAS, avalanches, mudslides, rockslides, and other dangerous conditions are likely to occur and persist for several months;

WHEREAS, flood damage mitigation and infrastructure rehabilitation efforts will be necessary for several months;

WHEREAS, on May 5, 2023, the Governor requested that the Legislature extend the state of emergency; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is necessary to extend the state of emergency until August 15, 2023, to ensure that appropriate response and recovery action is taken to ensure the safety, health, and welfare of the citizens of the state of Utah:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislature of the state of Utah that the state of emergency declared by Governor Spencer J. Cox on April 18, 2023, due to flood risks and related conditions, is extended to August 15, 2023.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature requires that the Governor provide a report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate every 30 days for the duration of the state of emergency regarding the status of the emergency conditions, any actions taken by the Governor to address the emergency conditions, and the
