- 116 (y) Chapter 65, Utah Commercial Email Act;
- 117 (z) Chapter 67, Online Dating Safety Act; and
- 118 (aa) Chapter 68, Lawyer Referral Consultants Registration Act.

119 (3) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the 120 division may make rules to establish:

121 (a) a public list that identifies a person who:

122 (i) violates a chapter described in Subsection (2);

123 (ii) without proper legal justification, fails to comply with an order, subpoena, 124 judgment, or other legal process issued by:

125 (A) the division; or

126 (B) a court of competent jurisdiction; or

127 (iii) breaches a settlement agreement, stipulation, assurance of voluntary compliance, 128 or similar instrument signed by the person and the division; and

129 (b) a process by which a person may be removed from the list the division establishes 130 as described in Subsection (3)(a).

131 Section 3. Section 13-2-11 is enacted to read:

132 13-2-11. Publication of consumer complaints.

133 (1) As used in this section:

134 (a) "Consumer complaint" means a complaint that:

135 (i) is provided to the division;

136 (ii) alleges facts relating to conduct that the division regulates under Section 13-2-1;

137 and

138 (iii) may contain:

139 (A) information that identifies a respondent; and

140 (B) a narrative description of and information relevant to the conduct described in 141 Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

142 (b) "Consumer narrative" means the narrative description contained in a consumer
143 complaint as described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii)(B).

144 (c) "Filer" means a person who files a consumer complaint.

145 (d) "Respondent" means a person against whom a filer files a consumer complaint.

146 (2) (a) A consumer complaint is a protected record as provided in Subsection
147 63G-2-305\(88\).

148 (b) In carrying out the division's duties, the division may not publicly disclose the 149 identity of a person the division investigates unless:

150 (i) the person's identity becomes a matter of public record in an enforcement 151 proceeding; or
152 (ii) the person consents to public disclosure.
153 (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2):
154 (a) the division may reclassify a consumer complaint as public if:
155 (i) (A) the consumer complaint is one of at least 10 consumer complaints filed with the 156 division against the same person, alleging the same or similar conduct, and during the 157 12-month period immediately preceding the day on which the filer files the consumer
158 complaint;
159 (B) the consumer complaint does not contain information that an agreement with 160 another state or federal agency or a condition of participation in an investigation or litigation
161 requires the division keep confidential;
162 (C) the consumer complaint is not classified as controlled, private, or protected as 163 described in Sections 63G-2-302 through 63G-2-305, for a reason other than that identified by 164 Subsection 63G-2-305\(88\); and
165 (D) access to the record is not restricted as described by Subsection 63G-2-201\(3\)\(b\); 166 or
167 (ii) the division takes public enforcement action against a respondent as a result of the 168 consumer complaint; and
169 (b) the division may disclose a consumer complaint to the respondent.
170 (4) In determining the number of complaints against the same person in accordance 171 with Subsection (3)(a)(i)(A), the division may consider consumer complaints that are filed
172 against multiple entities under common ownership as consumer complaints against the same 173 person.
174 (5) A respondent's initial, written response to a consumer complaint that is public
175 under Subsection (3) is a public record.
176 (6) Before making a consumer complaint that is reclassified as public under Subsection
177 (3), or a response described in Subsection (5), available to the public, the division:
178 (a) shall redact from the consumer complaint or the response any information that 179 would disclose:
180 (i) the filer's:

- 181 (A) address;
- 182 (B) social security number;
- 183 (C) bank account information;
- 184 (D) email address; or
- 185 (E) telephone number; or
- 186 (ii) information similar in nature to the information described in Subsection (6)(a)(i);

187 and

188 (b) may redact the filer's name and any other information that could, in the division's 189 judgment, disclose the filer's identity.

190 (7) If the division discloses the consumer complaint to the respondent as described in 191 Subsection (3)(b), the division may redact the filer's:

- 192 (a) bank account information;
- 193 (b) social security number;
- 194 (c) name and any other information that could, in the division's judgment, disclose the 195 filer's identity, if the filer requests anonymity; and
- 196 (d) other information the disclosure of which constitutes a clearly unwarranted
197 invasion of personal privacy.

197a Ŝ→ (8) Nothing in this section precludes the division from disclosing a consumer complaint in
197b accordance with Section 63G-2-201. ←Ŝ

198 Section 4. Section 13-11-7 is amended to read:

199 13-11-7. Duties of enforcing authority -- Confidentiality of identity of persons
200 investigated -- Civil penalty for violation of restraining or injunctive orders.

201 (1) The enforcing authority shall:

- 202 (a) enforce this chapter throughout the state;
- 203 (b) cooperate with state and local officials, officials of other states, and officials of the 204 federal government in the administration of comparable statutes;
- 205 (c) inform consumers and suppliers on a continuing basis of the provisions of this 206 chapter and of acts or practices that violate this chapter [~~including mailing information~~
207 ~~concerning final judgments to persons who request it, for which he may charge a reasonable fee~~
208 ~~to cover the expense~~];

209 (d) receive and act on complaints; and

210 (e) maintain a public file of final judgments rendered under this chapter that have been 211 either reported officially or made available for public dissemination under Subsection (1)(c),

212 final consent judgments, and to the extent the enforcing authority considers appropriate,
213 assurances of voluntary compliance.

214 ~~[(2) In carrying out his duties, the enforcing authority may not publicly disclose the~~ 215 ~~identity of a person investigated unless his identity has become a matter of public record in an~~
216 ~~enforcement proceeding or he has consented to public disclosure.]~~

217 [(3)] (2) On motion of the enforcing authority, or on its own motion, the court may 218 impose a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each day a temporary restraining order, 219 preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction issued under this chapter is violated, if the 220 supplier received notice of the restraining or injunctive order. Civil penalties imposed under 221 this section shall be paid to the General Fund.

222 Section 5. Section 63G-2-305 is amended to read:

223 63G-2-305. Protected records.

224 The following records are protected if properly classified by a governmental entity:

225 (1) trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 if the person submitting the trade secret
226 has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

227 (2) commercial information or nonindividual financial information obtained from a 228 person if:

229 (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair 230 competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the 231 governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future;

232 (b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access 233 than the public in obtaining access; and

234 (c) the person submitting the information has provided the governmental entity with 235 the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

236 (3) commercial or financial information acquired or prepared by a governmental entity 237 to the extent that disclosure would lead to financial speculations in currencies, securities, or 238 commodities that will interfere with a planned transaction by the governmental entity or cause 239 substantial financial injury to the governmental entity or state economy;

240 (4) records, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a 241 competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, a commercial project entity as 242 defined in Subsection 11-13-103\(4\);

243 (5) test questions and answers to be used in future license, certification, registration,
244 employment, or academic examinations;

245 (6) records, the disclosure of which would impair governmental procurement 246 proceedings or give an unfair advantage to any person proposing to enter into a contract or 247 agreement with a governmental entity, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this 248 Subsection (6) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to, after the contract or 249 grant has been awarded and signed by all parties:

250 (a) a bid, proposal, application, or other information submitted to or by a governmental 251 entity in response to:

252 (i) an invitation for bids;

253 (ii) a request for proposals;

254 (iii) a request for quotes;

255 (iv) a grant; or

256 (v) other similar document; or

257 (b) an unsolicited proposal, as defined in Section 63G-6a-712;

258 (7) information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to a request for 259 information, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (7) does not restrict 260 the right of a person to have access to the information, after:

261 (a) a contract directly relating to the subject of the request for information has been 262 awarded and signed by all parties; or

263 (b) (i) a final determination is made not to enter into a contract that relates to the 264 subject of the request for information; and

265 (ii) at least two years have passed after the day on which the request for information is 266 issued;

267 (8) records that would identify real property or the appraisal or estimated value of real
268 or personal property, including intellectual property, under consideration for public acquisition 269 before any rights to the property are acquired unless:

270 (a) public interest in obtaining access to the information is greater than or equal to the 271 governmental entity's need to acquire the property on the best terms possible;

272 (b) the information has already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a 273 duty of confidentiality to the entity;

274 (c) in the case of records that would identify property, potential sellers of the described 275 property have already learned of the governmental entity's plans to acquire the property;

276 (d) in the case of records that would identify the appraisal or estimated value of 277 property, the potential sellers have already learned of the governmental entity's estimated value 278 of the property; or

279 (e) the property under consideration for public acquisition is a single family residence 280 and the governmental entity seeking to acquire the property has initiated negotiations to acquire 281 the property as required under Section 78B-6-505;

282 (9) records prepared in contemplation of sale, exchange, lease, rental, or other 283 compensated transaction of real or personal property including intellectual property, which, if 284 disclosed prior to completion of the transaction, would reveal the appraisal or estimated value 285 of the subject property, unless:

286 (a) the public interest in access is greater than or equal to the interests in restricting 287 access, including the governmental entity's interest in maximizing the financial benefit of the 288 transaction; or

289 (b) when prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity, appraisals or estimates of 290 the value of the subject property have already been disclosed to persons not employed by or 291 under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;

292 (10) records created or maintained for civil, criminal, or administrative enforcement 293 purposes or audit purposes, or for discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes, if 294 release of the records:

295 (a) reasonably could be expected to interfere with investigations undertaken for 296 enforcement, discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes;

297 (b) reasonably could be expected to interfere with audits, disciplinary, or enforcement
298 proceedings;

299 (c) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial 300 hearing;

301 (d) reasonably could be expected to disclose the identity of a source who is not 302 generally known outside of government and, in the case of a record compiled in the course of 303 an investigation, disclose information furnished by a source not generally known outside of 304 government if disclosure would compromise the source; or

305 (e) reasonably could be expected to disclose investigative or audit techniques, 306 procedures, policies, or orders not generally known outside of government if disclosure would 307 interfere with enforcement or audit efforts;

308 (11) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the life or safety of an 309 individual;

310 (12) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the security of governmental 311 property, governmental programs, or governmental recordkeeping systems from damage, theft,
312 or other appropriation or use contrary to law or public policy;

313 (13) records that, if disclosed, would jeopardize the security or safety of a correctional 314 facility, or records relating to incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole, that would interfere
315 with the control and supervision of an offender's incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole;

316 (14) records that, if disclosed, would reveal recommendations made to the Board of 317 Pardons and Parole by an employee of or contractor for the Department of Corrections, the 318 Board of Pardons and Parole, or the Department of Health and Human Services that are based 319 on the employee's or contractor's supervision, diagnosis, or treatment of any person within the 320 board's jurisdiction;

321 (15) records and audit workpapers that identify audit, collection, and operational 322 procedures and methods used by the State Tax Commission, if disclosure would interfere with 323 audits or collections;

324 (16) records of a governmental audit agency relating to an ongoing or planned audit
325 until the final audit is released;

326 (17) records that are subject to the attorney client privilege;

327 (18) records prepared for or by an attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer,
328 employee, or agent of a governmental entity for, or in anticipation of, litigation or a judicial,
329 quasi-judicial, or administrative proceeding;

330 (19) (a) (i) personal files of a state legislator, including personal correspondence to or 331 from a member of the Legislature; and

332 (ii) notwithstanding Subsection (19)(a)(i), correspondence that gives notice of 333 legislative action or policy may not be classified as protected under this section; and

334 (b) (i) an internal communication that is part of the deliberative process in connection 335 with the preparation of legislation between:

- 336 (A) members of a legislative body;
- 337 (B) a member of a legislative body and a member of the legislative body's staff; or
- 338 (C) members of a legislative body's staff; and
- 339 (ii) notwithstanding Subsection (19)(b)(i), a communication that gives notice of
- 340 legislative action or policy may not be classified as protected under this section;
- 341 (20) (a) records in the custody or control of the Office of Legislative Research and
- 342 General Counsel, that, if disclosed, would reveal a particular legislator's contemplated
- 343 legislation or contemplated course of action before the legislator has elected to support the
- 344 legislation or course of action, or made the legislation or course of action public; and
- 345 (b) notwithstanding Subsection (20)(a), the form to request legislation submitted to the
- 346 Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel is a public document unless a legislator
- 347 asks that the records requesting the legislation be maintained as protected records until such
- 348 time as the legislator elects to make the legislation or course of action public;
- 349 (21) research requests from legislators to the Office of Legislative Research and
- 350 General Counsel or the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst and research findings prepared
- 351 in response to these requests;
- 352 (22) drafts, unless otherwise classified as public;
- 353 (23) records concerning a governmental entity's strategy about:
- 354 (a) collective bargaining; or
- 355 (b) imminent or pending litigation;
- 356 (24) records of investigations of loss occurrences and analyses of loss occurrences that
- 357 may be covered by the Risk Management Fund, the Employers' Reinsurance Fund, the
- 358 Uninsured Employers' Fund, or similar divisions in other governmental entities;
- 359 (25) records, other than personnel evaluations, that contain a personal recommendation
- 360 concerning an individual if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of
- 361 personal privacy, or disclosure is not in the public interest;
- 362 (26) records that reveal the location of historic, prehistoric, paleontological, or
- 363 biological resources that if known would jeopardize the security of those resources or of
- 364 valuable historic, scientific, educational, or cultural information;
- 365 (27) records of independent state agencies if the disclosure of the records would
- 366 conflict with the fiduciary obligations of the agency;

367 (28) records of an institution within the state system of higher education defined in 368 Section 53B-1-102 regarding tenure evaluations, appointments, applications for admissions, 369 retention decisions, and promotions, which could be properly discussed in a meeting closed in 370 accordance with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act, provided that records of 371 the final decisions about tenure, appointments, retention, promotions, or those students
372 admitted, may not be classified as protected under this section;

373 (29) records of the governor's office, including budget recommendations, legislative 374 proposals, and policy statements, that if disclosed would reveal the governor's contemplated
375 policies or contemplated courses of action before the governor has implemented or rejected
376 those policies or courses of action or made them public;

377 (30) records of the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst relating to budget analysis,
378 revenue estimates, and fiscal notes of proposed legislation before issuance of the final 379 recommendations in these areas;

380 (31) records provided by the United States or by a government entity outside the state
381 that are given to the governmental entity with a requirement that they be managed as protected
382 records if the providing entity certifies that the record would not be subject to public disclosure 383 if retained by it;

384 (32) transcripts, minutes, recordings, or reports of the closed portion of a meeting of a
385 public body except as provided in Section 52-4-206;

386 (33) records that would reveal the contents of settlement negotiations but not including 387 final settlements or empirical data to the extent that they are not otherwise exempt from 388 disclosure;

389 (34) memoranda prepared by staff and used in the decision-making process by an 390 administrative law judge, a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole, or a member of any 391 other body charged by law with performing a quasi-judicial function;

392 (35) records that would reveal negotiations regarding assistance or incentives offered
393 by or requested from a governmental entity for the purpose of encouraging a person to expand
394 or locate a business in Utah, but only if disclosure would result in actual economic harm to the 395 person or place the governmental entity at a competitive disadvantage, but this section may not 396 be used to restrict access to a record evidencing a final contract;

397 (36) materials to which access must be limited for purposes of securing or maintaining

398 the governmental entity's proprietary protection of intellectual property rights including patents,
399 copyrights, and trade secrets;

400 (37) the name of a donor or a prospective donor to a governmental entity, including an 401 institution within the state system of higher education defined in Section 53B-1-102, and other 402 information concerning the donation that could reasonably be expected to reveal the identity of 403 the donor, provided that:

404 (a) the donor requests anonymity in writing;

405 (b) any terms, conditions, restrictions, or privileges relating to the donation may not be 406 classified protected by the governmental entity under this Subsection (37); and

407 (c) except for an institution within the state system of higher education defined in 408 Section 53B-1-102, the governmental unit to which the donation is made is primarily engaged 409 in educational, charitable, or artistic endeavors, and has no regulatory or legislative authority
410 over the donor, a member of the donor's immediate family, or any entity owned or controlled
411 by the donor or the donor's immediate family;

412 (38) accident reports, except as provided in Sections 41-6a-404, 41-12a-202, and 413 73-18-13;

414 (39) a notification of workers' compensation insurance coverage described in Section
415 34A-2-205;

416 (40) (a) the following records of an institution within the state system of higher
