Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, Salvadorans are the third-largest population of Hispanic origin living in the United States, with an estimated 2.5 million people of Salvadoran origin or heritage residing in the nation, according to the 2021 U.S. Census;

WHEREAS, in the state of Utah, Salvadorans have established a significant community

28 of about 20,000 people, and they constitute the second-largest Latino population in the state, 29 according to a recent report on New Americans in Utah by the American Immigration Council;

30 WHEREAS, many Salvadorans emigrated seeking peace and security, fleeing the 31 aftermath of a civil war, gang violence, and a series of natural disasters dating back to the early 32 1970s;

33 WHEREAS, through the years, multigenerational Salvadoran-American families have 34 established a new home in Utah through tenacious effort and immense sacrifice, providing for 35 their families and contributing to Utah's economy;

36 WHEREAS, the state of Utah welcomes a number of legal temporary farmworkers 37 every year who come to alleviate labor shortages in the state's agricultural sector;

38 WHEREAS, similar federal immigration programs, such as the Temporal Protected 39 Status and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, have made it possible for Salvadorans to 40 gain legal status and become an integral part of the fabric of the state of Utah;

41 WHEREAS, the Salvadoran community in Utah has brought forward meaningful 42 cultural and economic contributions to the state through numerous means in areas such as 43 gastronomy, skilled trade, and art;

44 WHEREAS, Salvadoran-Americans in Utah have an entrepreneurial spirit, with many 45 owning businesses that create jobs and contribute hundreds of thousands of dollars to the state's 46 economy;

47 WHEREAS, Salvadoran-Americans in Utah actively participate in volunteerism and 48 social and civic engagement, further promoting their sense of American pride while preserving 49 their cultural identity, passing their traditions to future generations, and enriching the cultural 50 diversity of our state;

51 WHEREAS, El Salvador and the state of Utah share many common values including 52 the respect for families and serve as economic vanguards in their respective regions;

53 WHEREAS, Salvadorans and Utahns are known for upholding industry, valuing hard 54 work, and recognizing the importance of personal development through education as principles 55 of progress;

56 WHEREAS, El Salvador has an emerging innovative economy and continues to 57 improve its security conditions, and is on its way to becoming one of the safest countries in 58 Latin America;

59 WHEREAS, El Salvador stands to become a hub of economic and technological 60 development for Latin America, creating favorable conditions for tourism and foreign 61 investment;

62 WHEREAS, in March 2023, the government of El Salvador opened a new general
63 consulate in Salt Lake City;

64 WHEREAS, the general consulate in Salt Lake City will serve the diaspora of 65 Salvadorans in Utah by facilitating consular services, strengthening relationships with the state 66 and El Salvador, and collaborating with community organizations that will benefit not just 67 Salvadorans but the broader Hispanic community in the state;

68 WHEREAS, the new general consulate of El Salvador in Salt Lake City is only the 69 second general consulate in the state, the other being the Mexican Consulate; and

70 WHEREAS, the state of Utah recognizes the importance of fostering international 71 relationships and promoting understanding, cooperation, and mutual respect through 72 diplomatic ties:

73 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 74 Governor concurring therein, recognizes the contributions of the Salvadoran-American 75 community in Utah that continues to make significant economic, social, and cultural 76 contributions to the state, adding to the diversity of the tapestry of cultures of the state of Utah.

77 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor warmly welcome the 78 General Consulate of El Salvador in Salt Lake City, signifying a commitment to strengthening 79 economic and cultural relationships, promoting unity and social bonds between the citizens of 80 Utah and the people of El Salvador.

81 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor express the state's 82 eagerness to collaborate with the Salvadoran-American community in Utah and the General
83 Consulate of El Salvador in Salt Lake City to foster stronger ties, enhance business 84 partnerships and cultural exchange, and promote initiatives that benefit the people of El 85 Salvador and the people of Utah.

86 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, Utah is committed to encouraging relationships and 87 exchanges between Utah and El Salvador that would benefit from increased trade, investment, 88 tourism, cultural, educational, and scientific exchanges, and look forward to many more years
89 of mutual cooperation and friendship between El Salvador and the state of Utah.

90           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the El Salvador 91 Embassy in Washington D.C. and the General Consulate of El Salvador in Salt Lake City.
