

JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING UTAH'S NATIVE HAWAIIAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER CULTURES AND COMMUNITIES

2024 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Chief Sponsor: Karen Kwan

House Sponsor: Tyler Clancy

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This resolution honors Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander cultures and communities.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- recognizes the contributions of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities to the prosperity of the state; and
- encourages residents of the state to participate in events fostering an appreciation of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities.

Other Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, Utah is home to over 59,000 residents of Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander descent, making Utah the state within the continental United States with the largest Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities in proportion to the total state population;

WHEREAS, Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities have ancestral ties to over 20 island societies across Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia;

WHEREAS, Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities have played a pivotal role in shaping the state's cultural landscape beginning in the 1870s, when Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander residents first migrated to the Salt Lake Valley, established agricultural enterprises, and supported the building of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Temple;

27 WHEREAS, members of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities have
28 achieved excellence in numerous professional, academic, and public arenas, holding leadership
29 positions in state and local governments, educational systems, the broadcast media industry,
30 the transportation industry, the legal field, as well as many other notable achievements;

31 WHEREAS, the ongoing contributions of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander
32 communities continue to enhance the state's prosperity through economic development, civic 33 engagement, education, health care, and the advancement of arts, culture, and sports;

34 WHEREAS, the protective social factors and strong family values modeled by the members
35 of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities imprint positive influences on 36 Utah's society as a whole;

37 WHEREAS, younger generations of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander
38 communities shape the future of the state through advancements and involvement in academia,
39 entrepreneurship, innovation, and community development;

40 WHEREAS, longstanding annual events celebrating Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific
41 Islander cultures, including the Iosepa Memorial Celebration, the Friendly Islands Tongan
42 Festival, Samoan Heritage Festival, Liberation and Independence Days throughout Micronesia,
43 and the Pacific Islander Heritage Month, serve as important venues to share and preserve the 44 values, traditions, and talents of the state's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities;
45 and

46 WHEREAS, embracing Utah's cultural diversity, including the state's Native Hawaiian and 47 Pacific Islander communities, fosters unity, understanding, and mutual respect among all
48 residents in the state:

49 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah
50 recognizes and celebrates the rich and diverse cultures represented by Utah's Native Hawaiian
51 and Pacific Islander communities.

52 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah pays tribute to
53 Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities for a legacy of lasting contributions
54 across all sectors in the state.

55 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah encourages
56 educational institutions, community organizations, and the residents of the state to participate
57 in events and activities that promote an understanding and appreciation of Utah's Native
58 Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities.

59 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah is committed to 60 cultivating productive relationships with the leaders of Utah's Native Hawaiian and Pacific

61 Islander communities in order to address the needs of the communities.