All devices activated in the state shall:

SB0104S04 compared with SB0104S03

- (1) contain a filter;
- (2) determine the age of a user during activation and account set-up;
- (3) automatically ~~activate~~enable the filter when the user is a minor based on the determination in Subsection (2);
- (4) allow a password to be established for the filter;
- ~~(4)~~(5) notify the user of the device when the filter blocks the device from accessing a website; and
- ~~(5)~~(6) allow a non-minor user that has a password the option to deactivate and re-activate the filter.

Section 5. Section 78B-6-2603 is enacted to read:

78B-6-2603. Manufacturer liability.

- (1) A manufacturer of a device is subject to civil liability if:
  - (a) a device is activated in the state;
  - (b) the device does not, upon activation in the state, enable a filter that complies with the requirements described in Section 78B-6-2602; and
  - (c) the minor accesses material that is obscene on the device.
- (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), this section does not apply to a manufacturer that makes a good faith effort to provide a device that, upon activation of the device in the state and using the age provided by the user, automatically enables a generally accepted and commercially reasonable filter that blocks obscene content on all Internet browsers or search engines accessed on the device in accordance with this section.
- (3) Nothing in this part:
  - (a) applies to a video game console; or
  - (b) creates a cause of action against a retailer of a device.

Section 6. Section 78B-6-2604 is enacted to read:

78B-6-2604. Individual liability.

With the exception of a minor's parent or legal guardian, a person may be liable in a civil and criminal action for intentionally enabling the password to remove the filter on a device in the possession of a minor if the minor accesses content that is obscene on the device.

Section 7. Section 78B-6-2605 is enacted to read:

78B-6-2605. Proceedings by the attorney general.

SB0104S04 compared with SB0104S03

(1) The attorney general may bring an action in court against a person for a violation of this chapter:

(a) to enjoin any action that constitutes a violation of this chapter by the issuance of a temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction;

(b) to recover from a violator a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 per violation, and not to exceed a total of $50,000 in aggregate, as determined by the court;

(c) to recover from a violator the attorney general's reasonable expenses, investigative costs, and attorney fees; and

(d) to obtain other appropriate relief as provided for under this chapter.

(2) The attorney general may seek revocation of any license or certificate authorizing a manufacturer to engage in business in this state if, after the manufacturer is found to have violated provisions of this part, the manufacturer demonstrates a repeated pattern of violations of the provisions of this part.

(3) For purposes of assessing a penalty under this section, a manufacturer is considered to have committed a separate violation for each device manufactured on or after January 1, 2025, that violates the provisions of Section 78B-6-2602.

Section 8. Section 78B-6-2606 is enacted to read:

78B-6-2606. Civil action by parent or legal guardian.

(1) A parent or legal guardian of a minor that accesses obscene content on a device as a result of a manufacturer's failure to comply with of Section 78B-6-2602 may bring a private cause of action in court against the manufacturer.

(2) A person bringing an action under Subsection (1) may recover:

(a) (i) actual damages; or

(ii) where actual damages are difficult to ascertain due to the nature of the injury, $50,000 for each violation;

(b) if a violation is found to be knowing and willful, punitive damages in an amount determined by the court;

(c) nominal damages;

(d) attorney fees; and

(e) such other relief as the court deems appropriate, including court costs and expenses.

(3) Nothing herein shall preclude the bringing of a class action lawsuit against a manufacturer where its conduct in violation of Section 78B-6-2602 is knowing and willful.

SB0104S04 compared with SB0104S03

(4) A parent or legal guardian of a minor may bring an action in against any person who is not the parent or legal guardian of the child and who disables the filter from a device in the possession of the child which results in the minor's exposure to obscene content.

(5) A person bringing an action under Subsection (4) may recover:

(a) (i) actual damages; or

(ii) where actual damages are difficult to ascertain due to the nature of the injury,

$1,000 for each violation; and

(b) such other relief as the court deems appropriate.
