STATE OF UTAH

Chief Sponsor: {} Wayne A. Harper

House Sponsor: { _____ } Steve Eliason

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This bill modifies provisions related to property tax assessment.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

- ▶ provides additional remedies for a property owner who experiences an increase in valuation over a certain threshold solely due to valuation when there are no significant changes to the property;
- ▶ requires reporting to the State Tax Commission and the Revenue and Taxation Interim Committee when a county values property over the threshold;
- ▶ modifies the burdens of proof for parties to an appeal at the county board of equalization and State Tax Commission;
- ▶ directs county assessors in rural areas to seek assistance in the assessment process;

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

- ▶ requires a county assessor to classify types of real property for purposes of property tax assessments and provides that the classification is public information;
- ▶ provides that the State Tax Commission will conduct an education and training program for county assessors;
- ▶ provides for a penalty for a county assessor who fails to comply with the education and training requirement;
- ▶ establishes when a tax is delinquent after receiving a deferral for property with an increase in valuation over a certain threshold;
- ▶ provides for posting of payment when a partial payment is made on property subject to deferral; and
- ▶ makes technical and conforming changes.

REPEALS AND REENACTS:

59-2-109, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2023, Chapter 471

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 59-2-109 is repealed and reenacted to read:

59-2-109. Burden of proof.

(1) The provisions of this section apply to a hearing that occurs on or after May 1, 2024.

(2) For an appeal to the commission involving the valuation or equalization of real property assessed under Part 2, Assessment of Property, the party carrying the burden of proof shall demonstrate:

(a) substantial error in the original assessed value; and

(b) a sound evidentiary basis to support the value the party requests.

(3) (a) For an appeal to the county board of equalization or the commission involving the valuation or equalization of real property assessed under Part 3, County Assessment, the party carrying the burden of proof shall demonstrate:

(i) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), substantial error in:

(A) the original assessed value in an appeal to the county board of equalization; or

(B) the value set by the county board of equalization in an appeal to the commission;

and

(ii) a sound evidentiary basis to support the value the party requests.

(b) The party carrying the burden of proof does not have to show substantial error as required by Subsection (3)(a)(i) if the party is requesting:

(i) the original assessed value in an appeal to the county board of equalization; or

(ii) the value set by the county board of equalization in an appeal to the commission.

(4) For property assessed under Part 2, Assessment of Property, the commission has the burden of proof, if the commission is a party to the appeal that asserts that the fair market value of the assessed property is greater than the original assessed value for that calendar year.

(5) For property assessed under Part 3, County Assessment, the following shall carry the burden of proof before a county board of equalization or the commission:

(a) the county assessor or the county board of equalization that is a party to the appeal

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

has the burden of proof to support the value the county assessor or the county board of equalization requests; and

(b) the taxpayer that is a party to the appeal has the burden of proof to support the value the taxpayer requests.

(6) For an appeal to the commission of the valuation or equalization of real property that is eligible for a deferral under Section 59-2-1802.1 for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023, the following shall carry the burden of proof:

(a) the county board of equalization that is a party to the appeal has the burden of proof to support the value the county assessor of the county board of equalization requests; and

(b) the taxpayer that is a party to the appeal has the burden of proof to support the value the taxpayer requests.

(7) A preponderance of the evidence suffices to sustain the burden for all parties.

Section ~~41~~2. Section 59-2-303 is amended to read:

59-2-303. General duties of county assessor.

(1) (a) Before May 22 each year, the county assessor shall:

(i) ascertain the names of the owners of all property that is subject to taxation by the county;

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (2), assess the property to the owner, claimant of record, or occupant in possession or control at midnight on January 1 of the taxable year; and

(iii) conduct the review process described in Section 59-2-303.2.

(b) No mistake in the name or address of the owner or supposed owner of property renders the assessment invalid.

(2) If a conveyance of ownership of the real property was recorded in the office of a county recorder after January 1 but more than 14 calendar days before the day on which the county treasurer mails the tax notice, the county assessor shall assess the property to the new owner.

(3) A county assessor shall become fully acquainted with all property in the county assessor's county, as provided in Section 59-2-301.

(4) A county assessor in a county of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class shall seek assistance from other county assessors or an appraiser contracted in accordance with Section 59-2-703 for the county assessor to meet the requirements of Section 59-2-303.1.

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

Section ~~2~~3. Section 59-2-303.1 is amended to read:

59-2-303.1. Mandatory cyclical appraisals.

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Corrective action" includes:

(i) factoring pursuant to Section 59-2-704;

(ii) notifying the state auditor that the county failed to comply with the requirements of this section; or

(iii) filing a petition for a court order requiring a county to take action.

(b) "Mass appraisal system" means a computer assisted mass appraisal system that:

(i) a county assessor uses to value real property; and

(ii) includes at least the following system features:

(A) has the ability to update all parcels of real property located within the county each year;

(B) can be programmed with specialized criteria;

(C) provides uniform and equal treatment of parcels within the same class of real property throughout the county; and

(D) annually updates all parcels of residential real property within the county using accepted valuation methodologies as determined by rule.

(c) "Property review date" means the date a county assessor completes a detailed review of the property characteristics of a parcel of real property in accordance with Subsection (3)(a).

(2) (a) The county assessor shall annually update property values of property as provided in Section 59-2-301 based on a systematic review of current market data.

(b) The county assessor shall conduct the annual update described in Subsection (2)(a) by using a mass appraisal system [~~on or before the following~~]:

~~[(i) for a county of the first class, January 1, 2009;]~~

~~[(ii) for a county of the second class, January 1, 2011;]~~

~~[(iii) for a county of the third class, January 1, 2014; and]~~

~~[(iv) for a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class, January 1, 2015.]~~

(c) The county assessor and the commission shall jointly certify that the county's mass appraisal system meets the requirements:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

- (i) described in Subsection (1)(b); and
- (ii) of the commission.

(3) (a) In addition to the requirements in Subsection (2), the county assessor shall complete a detailed review of property characteristics for each property at least once every five years.

(b) The county assessor shall maintain on the county's ~~[computer]~~ mass appraisal system, a record of the last property review date for each parcel of real property located within the county assessor's county.

(c) (i) The county assessor shall maintain on the county's mass appraisal system a parcel's property tax class or category that is used for the purpose of property tax assessment on the annual assessment date.

(ii) The classifications or categories of real property under Subsection (3)(c)(i) shall include, at minimum:

- (A) primary residential;
- (B) commercial;
- (C) vacant land;
- (D) secondary residential; and
- (E) non-taxable.

(iii) The classifications or categories of real property used by the county assessor, and the classification or category applied to a specific parcel, is public information.

(4) (a) The commission shall take corrective action if the commission determines that:

(i) a county assessor has not satisfactorily followed the current mass appraisal standards, as provided by law;

(ii) the sales-assessment ratio, coefficients of dispersion, or other statistical measures of appraisal performance related to the studies required by Section 59-2-704 are not within the standards provided by law; or

(iii) the county assessor has failed to comply with the requirements of this section.

(b) If a county assessor fails to comply with the requirements of this section for one year, the commission shall assist the county assessor in fulfilling the requirements of Subsections (2) and (3).

(c) If a county assessor fails to comply with the requirements of this section for two consecutive years, the county will lose the county's allocation of the revenue generated statewide from the imposition of the multicounty assessing and collecting levy authorized in Sections 59-2-1602 and 59-2-1603.

(d) If a county loses its allocation of the revenue generated statewide from the imposition of the multicounty assessing and collecting levy described in Subsection (4)(c), the revenue the county would have received shall be distributed to the Multicounty Appraisal Trust created by interlocal agreement by all counties in the state.

(5) (a) On or before July 1, 2008, the county assessor shall prepare a five-year plan to comply with the requirements of Subsections (2) and (3).

(b) The plan shall be available in the county assessor's office for review by the public upon request.

(c) The plan shall be annually reviewed and revised as necessary.

(6) (a) A county assessor shall create, maintain, and regularly update a database containing the following information that the county assessor may use to enhance the county's ability to accurately appraise and assess property on an annual basis:

~~(a)~~ (i) fee and other appraisals;

~~(b)~~ (ii) property characteristics and features;

~~(c)~~ (iii) property surveys;

~~(d)~~ (iv) sales data; and

~~(e)~~ (v) any other data or information on sales, studies, transfers, changes to property, or property characteristics.

(b) A county assessor may provide access to the information in the database to another county assessor that requests assistance in accordance with Section 59-2-303.

Section ~~3~~4. Section 59-2-303.3 is enacted to read:

59-2-303.3. Automatic review for property with 150% or more valuation increase.

(1) As used in this section, "qualifying increase" means a valuation increase that is equal to or more than 150% higher than the previous year's valuation for property that:

(a) is county assessed; and

(b) on or after January 1 of the previous year and before January 1 of the current year, has not had:

(i) a physical improvement if the fair market value of the physical improvement

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

increases enough to result in the valuation increase solely as a result of the physical improvement;

(ii) a zoning change if the fair market value of the real property increases enough to result in the valuation increase solely as a result of the zoning change; or

(iii) a change in the legal description of the real property, if the fair market value of the real property increases enough to result in the valuation increase solely as a result of the change in the legal description of the real property.

(2) (a) ~~Before delivery of~~ For the calendar year beginning on January 1, 2023, the county assessor shall review the assessment ~~roll to the commission in accordance with Section 59-2-311,~~ of the property with a qualifying increase on or before May 31, 2024.

(b) For a calendar year beginning on or after January 1, 2024, the county assessor shall review the assessment of a property with a qualifying increase before delivery of the assessment book to the county auditor in accordance with Section 59-2-311.

~~(b)~~(c) The county assessor shall retain a record of the properties for which the county assessor conducts a review in accordance with this ~~section~~ Subsection (2) and the results of that review.

(3) (a) ~~if~~ When the county assessor conducts the review described in Subsection (2):
(i) if the county assessor determines that the assessed value of the property reflects the property's fair market value, the county assessor may not adjust the property's assessed value ~~if~~; or

~~(b)~~(ii) ~~if~~ if the county assessor determines that the assessed value of the property does not reflect the review property's fair market value, the county assessor shall adjust the assessed value of the review property to reflect the fair market value.

(b) If a county assessor makes an adjustment under Subsection (3)(a) for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 2023, the county legislative body shall authorize a refund of the property tax that is overpaid as a result of the adjustment.

(4) (a) Upon completing the review described in Subsection (2), the county assessor shall report to the commission:

(i) the number of properties that:

(A) required a review in accordance with Subsection (2); and

(B) the county reduced the value as a result of the review; and

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(ii) the parcel number of any property:

(A) that required a review in accordance with Subsection (2);

~~(B)~~ that has an increase in value of $50,000 or more; and

~~(B)~~(C) for which the county assessor did not reduce value.

(b) (i) A county that has any property subject to a review in accordance with this section for two consecutive years shall report to the Revenue and Taxation Interim Committee:

~~(i)~~(A) at the same meeting or a meeting after the meeting during which the commission makes the report described in Section 59-2-1008;

~~(ii)~~(B) in the same year as the commission report; and

~~(iii)~~(C) on the number of properties with a qualifying increase and the reasons for the qualifying increases.

~~(c)~~(ii) The requirement to report applies if the county has a property that is subject to review under this section in each of two consecutive years regardless of whether the property that is subject to review is the same property for each year.

~~(iii) The requirement to report does not apply if the qualifying increase is less than $50,000.~~

(5) The review process described in this section does not supersede or otherwise affect a taxpayer's right to appeal or to seek judicial review of the valuation or equalization of a review property in accordance with:

(a) this part;

(b) Chapter 1, Part 6, Judicial Review; or

(c) Title 63G, Chapter 4, Part 4, Judicial Review.

Section ~~(4)~~5. Section 59-2-702.5 is enacted to read:

59-2-702.5. Education and training for county assessors.

(1) (a) The commission shall conduct a program of education and training for county assessors that offers instruction on:

(i) a county assessor's statutory obligations; and

(ii) the practical application of mass appraisal techniques to satisfy a county assessor's statutory obligations.

(b) The commission shall confer a designation of completion upon a county assessor each time that the county assessor completes the program under Subsection (1)(a).

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(2) (a) A county assessor shall obtain a designation of completion under Subsection (1)(b) within 12 months after the day on which the county assessor starts a term of office.

(b) If a county assessor fails to obtain a designation of completion, the commission shall take corrective action, as defined in Section 59-2-303.1.

Section ~~5~~6. Section 59-2-703 is amended to read:

59-2-703. Commission to assist county assessors -- Appraisers provided upon request -- Costs of services -- Contingency fee arrangements prohibited.

(1) (a) The commission shall, upon request and pursuant to mutual agreement, provide county assessors with technical assistance and appraisal aid.

(b) [It] The commission shall provide certified or licensed appraisers who, upon request of the county assessor and pursuant to mutual agreement, shall perform appraisals of property and other technical services as needed by the county assessor.

(c) The commission shall calculate the costs of these services [~~shall be computed by the commission upon the basis of~~] based on the number of days of services rendered.

(d) Each county shall pay to the commission 50% of the cost of the services [which they receive] that the county receives.

(2) (a) Both the commission and counties may contract with a private firm or an individual to conduct appraisals.

(b) A county assessor may request the private firm or individual conducting appraisals to assist the county assessor in meeting the requirements of Section 59-2-303.1.

~~[(b)] (c) (i)~~ Notwithstanding Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, the commission and counties may disclose the name of the taxpayer and the taxpayer's address to the contract appraiser.

(i) A private appraiser is subject to the confidentiality requirements and penalty provisions provided in Title 63G, Chapter 2, Part 8, Remedies.

~~[(c)] (d) (i)~~ Neither the commission nor a county may contract with a private firm or an individual under a contingency fee arrangement to assess property or prosecute or defend an appeal.

(ii) An appraisal that has been prepared on a contingency fee basis may not be allowed in any proceeding before a county board of equalization or the commission.

Section ~~6~~7. Section 59-2-1004 is amended to read:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

59-2-1004. Appeal to county board of equalization -- Real property -- Time period for appeal -- Public hearing requirements -- Decision of board -- Extensions approved by commission -- Appeal to commission.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Final assessed value" means:

(i) for real property for which the taxpayer appealed the valuation or equalization to the county board of equalization in accordance with this section, the value given to the real property by the county board of equalization, including a value based on a stipulation of the parties;

(ii) for real property for which the taxpayer or a county assessor appealed the valuation or equalization to the commission in accordance with Section 59-2-1006, the value given to the real property by:

(A) the commission, if the commission has issued a decision in the appeal or the parties have entered a stipulation; or

(B) a county board of equalization, if the commission has not yet issued a decision in the appeal and the parties have not entered a stipulation; or

(iii) for real property for which the taxpayer or a county assessor sought judicial review of the valuation or equalization in accordance with Section 59-1-602 or Title 63G, Chapter 4, Part 4, Judicial Review, the value given the real property by the commission.

(b) "Inflation adjusted value" means the value of the real property that is the subject of the appeal as calculated by changing the final assessed value for the previous taxable year for the real property by the median property value change.

(c) "Median property value change" means the midpoint of the property value changes for all real property that is:

(i) of the same class of real property as the qualified real property; and

(ii) located within the same county and within the same market area as the qualified real property.

(d) "Property value change" means the percentage change in the fair market value of real property on or after January 1 of the previous year and before January 1 of the current year.

(e) "Qualified real property" means real property:

(i) for which:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(A) the taxpayer or a county assessor appealed the valuation or equalization for the previous taxable year to the county board of equalization in accordance with this section or the commission in accordance with Section 59-2-1006;

(B) the appeal described in Subsection (1)(e)(i)(A), resulted in a final assessed value that was lower than the assessed value; and

(C) the assessed value for the current taxable year is higher than the inflation adjusted value; and

(ii) that, on or after January 1 of the previous taxable year and before January 1 of the current taxable year, has not had a qualifying change.

(f) "Qualifying change" means one of the following changes to real property that occurs on or after January 1 of the previous taxable year and before January 1 of the current taxable year:

(i) a physical improvement if, solely as a result of the physical improvement, the fair market value of the physical improvement equals or exceeds the greater of 10% of fair market value of the real property or $20,000;

(ii) a zoning change, if the fair market value of the real property increases solely as a result of the zoning change; or

(iii) a change in the legal description of the real property, if the fair market value of the real property increases solely as a result of the change in the legal description of the real property.

(2) (a) A taxpayer dissatisfied with the valuation or the equalization of the taxpayer's real property may make an application to appeal by:

(i) filing the application with the county board of equalization within the time period described in Subsection (3); or

(ii) making an application by telephone or other electronic means within the time period described in Subsection (3) if the county legislative body passes a resolution under Subsection (9) authorizing a taxpayer to make an application by telephone or other electronic means.

(b) (i) The county board of equalization shall make a rule describing the contents of the application.

(ii) In addition to any information the county board of equalization requires, the application shall include information about:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(A) the burden of proof in an appeal involving qualified real property; and

(B) the process for the taxpayer to learn the inflation adjusted value of the qualified real property.

(c) (i) (A) The county assessor shall notify the county board of equalization of a qualified real property's inflation adjusted value within 15 business days after the date on which the county assessor receives notice that a taxpayer filed an appeal with the county board of equalization.

(B) The county assessor shall notify the commission of a qualified real property's inflation adjusted value within 15 business days after the date on which the county assessor receives notice that a person dissatisfied with the decision of a county board of equalization files an appeal with the commission.

(ii) (A) A person may not appeal a county assessor's calculation of inflation adjusted value but may appeal the fair market value of a qualified real property.

(B) A person may appeal a determination of whether, on or after January 1 of the previous taxable year and before January 1 of the current taxable year, real property had a qualifying change.

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) and for purposes of Subsection (2), a taxpayer shall make an application to appeal the valuation or the equalization of the taxpayer's real property on or before the later of:

(i) September 15 of the current calendar year; ~~or~~

(ii) the last day of a 45-day period beginning on the day on which the county auditor provides the notice under Section 59-2-919.1 ~~or~~

~~(iii) June 30, 2025, for a property that qualifies for a deferral under Section 59-2-1802.1.~~

~~(b) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission shall make rules providing for circumstances under which the county board of equalization is required to accept an application to appeal that is filed after the time period prescribed in Subsection (3)(a).~~

(4) (a) ~~Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), the~~ The taxpayer shall include in the application under Subsection (2)(a):

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(i) the taxpayer's estimate of the fair market value of the property and any evidence that may indicate that the assessed valuation of the taxpayer's property is improperly equalized with the assessed valuation of comparable properties; and

(ii) a signed statement of the personal property located in a multi-tenant residential property, as that term is defined in Section 59-2-301.8 if the taxpayer:

(A) appeals the value of multi-tenant residential property assessed in accordance with Section 59-2-301.8; and

(B) intends to contest the value of the personal property located within the multi-tenant residential property.

(b) ~~(i)~~ For an appeal involving qualified real property~~:~~

~~(A)~~ the county board of equalization shall presume that the fair market value of the qualified real property is equal to the inflation adjusted value~~, and~~

~~(B) except as provided in Subsection (4)(b)(ii), the taxpayer may provide the information described in Subsection (4)(a).~~

~~(ii) If the taxpayer seeks to prove that the fair market value of the qualified real property is below the inflation adjusted value, the taxpayer shall provide the information described in Subsection (4)(a).~~

(5) In reviewing evidence submitted to a county board of equalization by or on behalf of an owner or a county assessor, the county board of equalization shall consider and weigh:

(a) the accuracy, reliability, and comparability of the evidence presented by the owner or the county assessor;

(b) if submitted, the sales price of relevant property that was under contract for sale as of the lien date but sold after the lien date;

(c) if submitted, the sales offering price of property that was offered for sale as of the lien date but did not sell, including considering and weighing the amount of time for which, and manner in which, the property was offered for sale; and

(d) if submitted, other evidence that is relevant to determining the fair market value of the property.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(c), at least five days before the day on which the county board of equalization holds a public hearing on an appeal:

(i) the county assessor shall provide the taxpayer any evidence the county assessor

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

relies upon in support of the county assessor's valuation; and

(ii) the taxpayer shall provide the county assessor any evidence not previously provided to the county assessor that the taxpayer relies upon in support of the taxpayer's appeal.

(b) (i) The deadline described in Subsection (6)(a) does not apply to evidence that is commercial information as defined in Section 59-1-404, if:

(A) for the purpose of complying with Section 59-1-404, the county assessor requires that the taxpayer execute a nondisclosure agreement before the county assessor discloses the evidence; and

(B) the taxpayer fails to execute the nondisclosure agreement before the deadline described in Subsection (6)(a).

(ii) The county assessor shall disclose evidence described in Subsection (6)(b)(i) as soon as practicable after the county assessor receives the executed nondisclosure agreement.

(iii) The county assessor shall provide the taxpayer a copy of the nondisclosure agreement with reasonable time for the taxpayer to review and execute the agreement before the deadline described in Subsection (6)(a) expires.

(c) If at the public hearing, a party presents evidence not previously provided to the other party, the county board of equalization shall allow the other party to respond to the evidence in writing within 10 days after the day on which the public hearing occurs.

(d) (i) A county board of equalization may adopt rules governing the deadlines described in this Subsection (6), if the rules are no less stringent than the provisions of this Subsection (6).

(ii) A county board of equalization's rule that complies with Subsection (6)(d)(i) controls over the provisions of this subsection.

(7) (a) The county board of equalization shall meet and hold public hearings as described in Section 59-2-1001.

(b) (i) For purposes of this Subsection (7)(b), "significant adjustment" means a proposed adjustment to the valuation of real property that:

(A) is to be made by a county board of equalization; and

(B) would result in a valuation that differs from the original assessed value by at least 20% and $1,000,000.

(ii) When a county board of equalization is going to consider a significant adjustment,

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

the county board of equalization shall:

(A) list the significant adjustment as a separate item on the agenda of the public hearing at which the county board of equalization is going to consider the significant adjustment; and

(B) for purposes of the agenda described in Subsection (7)(b)(ii)(A), provide a description of the property for which the county board of equalization is considering a significant adjustment.

(c) The county board of equalization shall make a decision on each appeal filed in accordance with this section within 60 days after the day on which the taxpayer makes an application.

(d) The commission may approve the extension of a time period provided for in Subsection (7)(c) for a county board of equalization to make a decision on an appeal.

(e) Unless the commission approves the extension of a time period under Subsection (7)(d), if a county board of equalization fails to make a decision on an appeal within the time period described in Subsection (7)(c), the county legislative body shall:

(i) list the appeal, by property owner and parcel number, on the agenda for the next meeting the county legislative body holds after the expiration of the time period described in Subsection (7)(c); and

(ii) hear the appeal at the meeting described in Subsection (7)(e)(i).

(f) The decision of the county board of equalization shall contain:

(i) a determination of the valuation of the property based on fair market value; and

(ii) a conclusion that the fair market value is properly equalized with the assessed value of comparable properties.

(g) If no evidence is presented before the county board of equalization, the county board of equalization shall presume that the equalization issue has been met.

(h) (i) If the fair market value of the property that is the subject of the appeal deviates plus or minus 5% from the assessed value of comparable properties, the county board of equalization shall adjust the valuation of the appealed property to reflect a value equalized with the assessed value of comparable properties.

(ii) Subject to Sections 59-2-301.1, 59-2-301.2, 59-2-301.3, and 59-2-301.4, equalized value established under Subsection (7)(h)(i) shall be the assessed value for property tax

~~†enacted to read:~~

59-2-1006.1. Appeals of valuation or equalization of property eligible for deferral for 2023.

(1) (a) Subject to Subsection (1)(c) and for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023, a taxpayer may file an appeal to the commission of the valuation or equalization of real property that is eligible for a deferral under Section 59-2-1802.1 for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023, if:

(i) the taxpayer filed an appeal of the valuation or equalization of the property with the county board of equalization for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023;

(ii) the county board of equalization has issued a decision on the appeal; and

(iii) the parties have not entered a stipulation regarding the value of the property.

(b) A taxpayer shall file an appeal to the commission under this Subsection (1) on or before June 30, 2025.

(c) Except as specifically provided in this section, an appeal to the commission shall be filed in accordance with Section 59-2-1006.

(2) For each property eligible to receive a deferral under Section 59-2-1802.1, this section may not be interpreted to:

(a) allow a taxpayer to file, under this section, more than one appeal of the valuation or equalization of the property for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023; or

(b) require a taxpayer to refile a notice of appeal in accordance with Section 59-2-1006 if an appeal before the commission is pending for the calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023.

Section 9. Section 59-2-1008 is amended to read:

59-2-1008. Investigations by commission -- Assessment of escaped property -- Increase or decrease of assessed valuation.

(1) As used in this section, "review information" means, as reported by a county assessor:

(a) the number of properties that:

(i) required a review in accordance with Section 59-2-303.3; and

(ii) the county reduced the value as a result of the review; and

(b) the parcel number of any property:

(i) that required a review in accordance with Section 59-2-303.3;

(ii) that has an increase in value of $50,000 or more; and

~~(iii)~~ (iii) for which the county assessor did not reduce value.

(2) (a) Each year the commission shall conduct an investigation throughout each county of the state to determine whether all property subject to taxation is on the assessment rolls[;] and whether the property is being assessed at fair market value.

(b) When, after any investigation, [~~it is found~~] the commission finds that any property [~~which~~] that is subject to taxation is not assessed, [~~then~~] the commission shall direct the county assessor, the county board of equalization, or the county auditor, as [~~it~~] the commission may determine, to enter the assessment of the escaped property.

~~(2)~~ (3) If [~~it is found~~] the commission finds that any property in any county is not being assessed at [~~its~~] the property's fair market value, the commission shall, for the purpose of equalizing the value of property in the state, increase or decrease the valuation of the property in order to enforce the assessment of all property subject to taxation upon the basis of its fair market value, and shall direct the county assessor, the county board of equalization, or the county auditor, as [~~it~~] the commission may determine, to correct the value of the property in a manner prescribed by the commission.

~~(3)~~ (4) The county assessors, county boards of equalization, and county auditors shall make all increases or decreases as may be required by the commission to make the assessment of all property within the county conform to [~~its~~] the property's fair market value.

(5) Each year, after receiving the review information from a county assessor and on or before June 8, the commission shall:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(a) review the assessment of a property described in Subsection (1)(b); and

(b) if warranted, take action as described in Subsection 59-1-210(23).

(6) The commission shall report the review information and the number of properties for which an adjustment is made in accordance with Subsection (5) to the Revenue and Taxation Interim Committee annually on or before the September interim meeting.

(7) The commission shall include in the report the name of each county that reported review information for the current calendar year and the previous calendar year.

Section ~~8~~10. Section 59-2-1330 is amended to read:

59-2-1330. Payment of property taxes -- Payments to taxpayer by state or taxing entity -- Refund of penalties paid by taxpayer -- Refund of interest paid by taxpayer -- Payment of interest to taxpayer -- Judgment levy -- Objections to assessments by the commission -- Time periods for making payments to taxpayer.

(1) Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, property taxes shall be paid directly to ~~[the county assessor or]~~ the county treasurer:

(a) on the date that the property taxes are due; and

(b) as provided in this chapter.

(2) (a) The county treasurer shall apply a payment that is insufficient to cover both a tax or tax notice charge that is deferred in accordance with Part 18, Tax Deferral and Tax Abatement, and a current year property tax or tax notice charge to the current tax year property tax or tax notice charge first.

(b) The county treasurer shall send notice to the property owner:

(i) that the payment was insufficient;

(ii) that the county applied the payment to the tax or tax notice charges for the current tax year; and

(iii) of the amount of tax and tax notice charge that is outstanding.

~~[(2)]~~ (3) A taxpayer shall receive payment as provided in this section if a reduction in the amount of any tax levied against any property for which the taxpayer paid a tax or any portion of a tax under this chapter for a calendar year is required by a final and unappealable judgment or order described in Subsection ~~[(3)]~~ (4) issued by:

(a) a county board of equalization;

(b) the commission; or

~~[(8)]~~ (9) (a) Each taxing entity may levy a tax to pay ~~[its]~~ the taxing entity's share of the final and unappealable judgment or order described in Subsection ~~[(3)]~~ (4) if:

(i) the final and unappealable judgment or order is issued no later than 15 days prior to the date the certified tax rate is set under Section 59-2-924;

(ii) the amount of the judgment levy is included on the notice under Section 59-2-919.1; and

(iii) the final and unappealable judgment or order is an eligible judgment, as defined in Section 59-2-102.

(b) The levy under Subsection ~~[(8)(a)]~~ (9)(a) is in addition to, and exempt from, the maximum levy established for the taxing entity.

~~[(9)]~~ (10) (a) A taxpayer that objects to the assessment of property assessed by the commission shall pay, on or before the property tax due date established under Subsection 59-2-1331(1) or Section 59-2-1332, the full amount of taxes stated on the notice required by Section 59-2-1317 if:

(i) the taxpayer has applied to the commission for a hearing in accordance with Section 59-2-1007 on the objection to the assessment; and

(ii) the commission has not issued a written decision on the objection to the assessment in accordance with Section 59-2-1007.

(b) A taxpayer that pays the full amount of taxes due under Subsection ~~[(9)(a)]~~ (10)(a) is not required to pay penalties or interest on an assessment described in Subsection ~~[(9)(a)]~~ (10)(a) unless:

(i) a final and unappealable judgment or order establishing that the property described in Subsection ~~[(9)(a)]~~ (10)(a) has a value greater than the value stated on the notice required by Section 59-2-1317 is issued by:

(A) the commission; or

(B) a court of competent jurisdiction; and

(ii) the taxpayer fails to pay the additional tax liability resulting from the final and unappealable judgment or order described in Subsection ~~[(9)(b)(i)]~~ (10)(b)(i) within a 45-day period after the county bills the taxpayer for the additional tax liability.

~~[(10)]~~ (11) (a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~[(10)(b)]~~ (11)(b), a payment that is required by this section shall be paid to a taxpayer:

(ii) if a judgment levy is imposed in accordance with Subsection [~~(8)~~] (9):

(A) if the payment to the taxpayer required by this section is $5,000 or more, no later than December 31 of the year in which the judgment levy is imposed; and

(B) if the payment to the taxpayer required by this section is less than $5,000, within 60 days after the date the final and unappealable judgment or order is issued in accordance with Subsection [~~(3)~~] (4).

(b) [~~Notwithstanding Subsection (10)(a), a~~] A taxpayer may enter into an agreement:

(i) that establishes a time period other than a time period described in Subsection [~~(10)(a)~~] (11)(a) for making a payment to the taxpayer that is required by this section; and

(ii) with:

(A) an authorized officer of a taxing entity for a tax imposed by a taxing entity; or

(B) an authorized officer of the state for a tax imposed by the state.

Section ~~(9)~~11. Section 59-2-1331 is amended to read:

59-2-1331. Property tax due date -- Date tax is delinquent -- Penalty -- Interest -- Payments -- Refund of prepayment.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) and subject to Subsections (1)(c) and (d), all property taxes, unless otherwise specifically provided for under Section 59-2-1332, or other law, and any tax notice charges, are due on November 30 of each year following the date of levy.

(b) If November 30 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday:

(i) the date of the next following day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday shall be substituted in Subsection (1)(a) and Subsection 59-2-1332(1) for November 30; and

(ii) the date of the day occurring 30 days after the date under Subsection (1)(b)(i) shall be substituted in Subsection 59-2-1332(1) for December 30.

(c) If a property tax is paid or postmarked after the due date described in this Subsection (1) the property tax is delinquent.

(d) A county treasurer or other public official, public entity, or public employee may not require the payment of a property tax before the due date described in this Subsection (1).

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (2)(e) [~~and~~], (f), and (g)(i), for each parcel, all delinquent taxes and tax notice charges on each separately assessed parcel are subject to a penalty of 2.5% of the amount of the delinquent taxes and tax notice charges or $10, whichever is greater.

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(b) Unless the delinquent taxes and tax notice charges, together with the penalty, are paid on or before January 31, the amount of taxes and tax notice charges and penalty shall bear interest on a per annum basis from the January 1 immediately following the delinquency date.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(d), for purposes of Subsection (2)(b), the interest rate is equal to the sum of:

(i) 6%; and

(ii) the federal funds rate target:

(A) established by the Federal Open Markets Committee; and

(B) that exists on the January 1 immediately following the date of delinquency.

(d) The interest rate described in Subsection (2)(c) may not be:

(i) less than 7%; or

(ii) more than 10%.

(e) The penalty described in Subsection (2)(a) is 1% of the amount of the delinquent taxes and tax notice charges or $10, whichever is greater, if all delinquent taxes, all tax notice charges, and the penalty are paid on or before the January 31 immediately following the delinquency date.

(f) This section does not apply to the costs, charges, and interest rate accruing on any tax notice charge related to an assessment assessed in accordance with:

(i) Title 11, Chapter 42, Assessment Area Act; or

(ii) Title 11, Chapter 42a, Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy Act.

(g) (i) The county shall waive any penalty or interest for a property granted a deferral in accordance with Section 59-2-1802.1 from the day of the delinquency through the end of the deferral period.

(ii) Penalties and interest accrue in accordance with this Subsection (2) on any tax or tax notice charge that is delinquent after the deferral period ends.

(3) (a) If the delinquency exceeds one year, the amount of taxes, tax notice charges, and penalties for that year and all succeeding years shall bear interest until settled in full through redemption or tax sale.

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(b) The interest rate to be applied shall be calculated for each year as established under Subsection (2) and shall apply on each individual year's delinquency until paid.

(4) The county treasurer may accept and credit on account against taxes and tax notice charges becoming due during the current year, at any time before or after the tax rates are adopted, but not subsequent to the date of delinquency, either:

- (a) payments in amounts of not less than $10; or
- (b) the full amount of the unpaid tax and tax notice charges.

(5) (a) At any time before the county treasurer provides the tax notice described in Section 59-2-1317, the county treasurer may refund amounts accepted and credited on account against taxes and tax notice charges becoming due during the current year.

(b) Upon recommendation by the county treasurer, the county legislative body shall adopt rules or ordinances to implement the provisions of this Subsection (5).

Section ~~{H}~~12. Section 59-2-1343 is amended to read:

59-2-1343. Tax sale listing.

(1) (a) If any property is not redeemed by March 15 following the lapse of four years from the date when any item in Subsection (1)(b) became delinquent, the county treasurer shall immediately file a listing with the county auditor of all properties whose redemption period is expiring in the nearest forthcoming tax sale to pay all outstanding property taxes and tax notice charges.

(b) ~~[A]~~ Except as provided in Subsection (1)(c), a delinquency of any of the following triggers the tax sale process described in Subsection (1)(a):

- (i) property tax; or
- (ii) a tax notice charge.

(c) A property tax or a tax notice charge that is deferred in accordance with Section 59-2-1802.1 is delinquent only if full payment of the property tax and any tax notice charges is not made before the end of the five-year deferral period.

(2) The listing is known as the "tax sale listing."

Section ~~{H}~~13. Section 59-2-1801 is amended to read:

59-2-1801. Definitions.

As used in this part:

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

Section ~~{12}~~14. Section 59-2-1802.1 is enacted to read:

59-2-1802.1. Property tax deferral for property with a qualifying increase.

(1) (a) A county shall grant a deferral for any real property ~~{that}~~if an owner of the property:

(~~{a}~~i) applies for a property tax deferral on or before the date provided in Subsection (1)(b); and

(~~{b}~~ii) has a qualifying increase for the ~~{tax}~~calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023, or January 1, 2024.

(b) The owner of the property shall apply for a deferral on or before the later of:

(i) June 30, 2025; or

(ii) if an appeal of valuation or equalization of a property described in Subsection (1)(a) is filed with a county board of equalization, the commission, or a court of competent jurisdiction, 30 days after the day on which the county board of equalization, the commission, or a court of competent jurisdiction issues a final, unappealable judgment or order.

(2) (a) The period of deferral is five years.

(b) The property owner shall pay 20% of the taxes and tax notice charges due during each year of the five-year deferral period.

(c) A county shall grant a separate five-year deferral period if an owner has a qualifying increase for both the ~~{tax}~~calendar year that begins on January 1, 2023, and the ~~{tax}~~calendar year that begins on January 1, 2024.

(3) (a) Taxes and tax notice charges deferred under this part accumulate as a lien against the residential property.

(b) A lien described in this Subsection (3) has the same legal status as a lien described in Section 59-2-1325.

(c) To release the lien described in this Subsection (3), an owner shall pay the total amount subject to the lien on or before the earlier of:

(i) the day on which the five-year deferral period ends; or

(ii) the day the owner sells or otherwise disposes of the real property.

(d) When the deferral period ends:

(i) the lien becomes due and subject to the collection procedures described in Section 59-2-1331; and

SB0182S03 compared with SB0182S02

(ii) the date of levy is the date that the deferral period ends.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding Section 59-2-1331, a county may not impose a penalty or interest during the period of deferral.

(b) If the property owner does not make all deferred payments before the day on which the five-year deferral period ends, the county may assess a penalty or interest in accordance with Section 59-2-1331 on the unpaid amount.

(5) (a) If a county grants an owner more than one deferral for the same property, the county is not required to submit for recording more than one lien.

(b) Each subsequent deferral relates back to the date of the initial lien filing.

(6) (a) For each property for which the county grants a deferral, the treasurer shall maintain a record that is an itemized account of the total amount of deferred property taxes and deferred tax notice charges subject to the lien.
